A SUCCESSPUL EFFORT.

Those farmers and dairymen who contributed to the success of the street fair in this city last Saturday are entitled to public thanks for their public spirit. Affairs of this kind can bring but good to a community. It brings tangible spidence to hear upon the mind of the grower that while one is en ne grower that while one is en A GOOD THING.

German ayrup is the special preserved that it pays to have the beet. While first cost is the starting to raise good stock is more than it is in starting with the poorer grades, the returns in raising good stock, which costs no more to keep, after you are once started, are so much more remunerative than in handling scrubs, that it is well to have these public exhibitions to bring the facts plaintly by the condition. as could carry the country on se high-tariff issue. The suswer to the McKinley bill was the heaviest odds (88-to 244) in the House of Representatives that the party has had against it since Since then threats made by the ats against money and rapidly coming to the front. e is yet time for the Republican ity in Congress to withdraw unor favors from the protected trusts and sal out justice to the Spanish islands. done, dearly will the penalty

Assuming that the country is unmfe unless the banks and manufacturing interests have their own way, THE ABOUS hastens to assure the Oregonian that the country is safe for 1904. The banks and the corporations of the manufacturing order are in it for privilege. The banks want their way; combined with the will of the manufacturer, they can get their way. The two will stand together, and no matter how much robbery is effected by these agencies, and no matter how much the dear people are bled, the country will be safe to the barons of privilege. They control all the prominent newspapers of the United States, and the slogan can ag tin be made "national honor" and "patriotism." Platforms and promises matter little. Common sense and logic will be eclipsed. With such past masters as M. A. Hanna at the helm, and with such support as the Oregonians and Hillsboro Independents of the land can always muster for any old thing endorsed by republican leaders, the land will be safe to the Moloche of trade and banking. And the Oregonian knows it. It simply wanted to be demo-pop yesterday he-cause the Ohio delegation was here, Three Hundred pairs sold in one week. We are
