CORNELIUS TO OUTDO THEM ALL

Proposes to Have Greatest Celebration

IN THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTY.

So Says Special Correspondence to The Argus.

Cornelius, Ore., June 5.—(Special to THE ARGUS.) Cornelius announces that it will celebrate the coming Fourth of July in a royal manner. It is the desire of our people that the whole county join in the great occasion. We have made every arrangement to have splendid exercises. There will be exercises by the ladies and by the school children, and at 9 a. m., sharp, a thirty foot flag will be raised 120 feet while the bands are playing the "Star Spangled Banner." After the banner is raised the audience will proceed to one of the finest groves in Oregon, where the Declaration of Independence will be read by one of Cornelius' charming young ladies. After that there will be the usual oration.

There will be ample room in the grove for attendants, as the grounds are large. There is plenty of pure water and those who wish may bring their lunches with them. Commencing at 1 o'clock there will be pacing and trotting races for Washington County horses having no records. Mile heats. Come, you who have horses, and take away the purses which will be hung up, if you have the fastest horses. There will be bicycle races, and a base ball game—Cornelius against Washington county. Come and beat them if you can and carry away the money. There will be foot races, 100 yards; fat men's race (200 pounds and over) and a greased pig, entries for all. That greased pig will not be forgotten. There will also be a dancing pavilion and music by a string band.

Cornelius expects to have a large crowd from Portland and not a small attendance from Yamhill county. Come everybody, as every arrangement has been made for your comfort. We will wind up the day with fireworks, and we will try hard to give you the best celebration ever held in Washington county.

Sylvanus Calkins.

Sylvanus Calkins, a resident of Oregon for nearly 40 years, died at his home near Sherwood, May 29, aged 78 years. Deceased was a native of New York. His parents moved to Illinois, and later to Iowa, when he was but a lad. When the Mexican War broke out, young Calkins enlisted in Company A, Iowa Volunteers. He served throughout the war and made a good record as a soldier. In 1851 he married Miss Elizabeth Kilbourn, in Utah. Three years later, with Mrs. Calkins, he returned to Iowa. In 1864 they started for Oregon, arriving in Yamhill county that fall. With the exception of a four years' residence in Yamhill county, Mr. Calkins had lived in Clackamas county since his arrival in Oregon. A wife and two sons survive him—E. S. and C. I., of Sherwood.

EVA A. MILLER, Teacher.

Smoke La Aprobar Cigar, 5c. Delta.

Middleton, one of the most peaceable valleys in Washington county, was recently treated to a little disagreement that in the end has terminated happily in the marriage of two of her young people. It appears, as nearly correct as our reporter can get at the facts, that Lester Ashpole and L. B. Brown were keeping company with Miss May Driscoll. Trouble arose between the young men, and there was a rapid fire of uncomplimentary remarks. Finally the two young men apparently had amicably settled their trouble, after which, Brown alleges, young Ashpole, in company with Clyde Tyson, Martin Sandstone, Frank Fisher and John Dewey, assaulted him, bruising his cheek and otherwise causing him bodily injury. Young Brown came to the county seat and swore out a complaint, which, however, was not filed. Brown and Miss Driscoll were subsequently married by Justice Buck, of Sherwood, and everybody is now happy in peace, with a cessation of hostilities.

The city has ordered 500 feet of hose. Dennis has the finest line of shoes to go over hose, to be seen anywhere. Latest styles ladies' footwear at low prices. Come and see them. Footwear for everybody.

W. J. Benson and H. T. Latham of this city, are making arrangements to put in a flouring mill at Perryvale, Polk county, a station on the West Side Southern Pacific railroad. Boyd & Sigler, the Phillips sawmill men, are getting out the timber for the structure. The mill will be equipped with a 50-horse power engine, will have modern machinery in every respect, and the capacity will be fifty barrels per day. D. L. Keyt, of Perrydale, will be associated with Messrs. Benson & Latham. They expect to have the mill in operation within sixty days, or at least, by the first of September.

You can't reap unless you sow. Buy your farm implements from H. Wehrung & Sons. Complete line of wagons, plows, harrows, seeders, buggies, carts and all implements used on a farm. Come and see them and get their prices.

The case of State vs. H. V. Whitney, on a charge of shooting a dog belonging to L. F. Carstens, is before Justice Everett today. The complaint alleges that the shooting occurred April 30, on the highway between Greenville and Buxton, on the Nehalem road. Whitney's defense is that the dog annoyed his stock, and there are witnesses on both sides to prove the good and bad qualities of the canine. Mr. Carstens says the dog was a valuable animal and was not vicious. Whitney says the animal disturbed his stock and that the statutes gave him the right to shoot. E. B. Tongue appeared for the state and H. T. Bagley is counsel for the defendant.

"Webfoot" is a perfect hard wheat flour. Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer's famous book, "Bread and Bread Making," free to users of this flour. Ask your grocer.

Mrs. Ambersie Weisenbeck, of Reedville, has received the grant of her patent on her invention, a cake and egg beater, and the model is now in the hands of the Rapid Manufacturing Co., of Chicago. This firm writes Mrs. Weisenbeck that her invention is one of the best in the market and that she will realize a handsome sum from state royalties. They claim it is the most perfect egg beater made. This is not her first invention. She recently received papers for a burglar-proof lock, but lost it through a fraudulent attorney.

There are weary complaints these days, so physicians say, about dyspepsia. Abolish this by buying staple groceries at Dennis'.

Mayor F. T. Kane was in town the other day and tells that the toll road recently purchased at Receiver's sale is in the county of Tillamook's title. The matter of adjusting the affair will be brought up before the Tillamook county commissioners as soon as possible.

The purchasers of the road paid their money in good faith and as the difficulty is a matter of lack of record, and not bad faith, it appears as though the differences can be arranged satisfactorily.

"Webfoot Flour," always even in quality, pure white in color and unexcelled in the fine light bread produced from it.

The Department of Public Instruction has sent out circulars to all county superintendents advising as to who can sign a petition for change of school district boundary. Under the decision of the department only those who are legal voters, that is to say, those who can vote for any purpose whatsoever, can sign such petition. Hence, women who can vote for school officers can not sign such a petition.

"Webfoot Flour," a great bread maker. Store this flour in a clean, dry place. Warm thoroughly before using.

Sight is the most inestimable of all blessings. Blindness, the most awful of all afflictions. To neglect the eyes is to abuse them; to abuse them is criminal. Therefore, don't fail to see Dr. Lowe when he is here, the last three days of next week—June 13 to 15.

WITH A FORTUNE AWAITING HIM

John Tom McNamara Will Not be Good.

YOUNG MAN IS AGAIN IN LIMBO.

Charged with Larceny in a Store Arrested Monday.

John Tom McNamara, of this city, is again in the toils of the law, and the crime he is charged with is a penitentiary offense. It will be remembered that McNamara was before the Multnomah county circuit court last winter on a charge of having held up a man in the canyon road, this side of Portland, on the highway leading to Beaverton. He was defended by Attorney H. T. Bagley, of this place, and upon his counsel's advice, when the charge was reduced to assault, pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail, but after serving some weeks was released upon a parole. Young McNamara came out to this county but kept away from Hillsboro, as he evidently feared an indictment. In this he was prudent, for District Attorney Allen had filed an information against the lad, charging him with larceny in a store. The offense alleged is that the prisoner, some time last winter, stole a purse, containing some small change and a ring, from the telephone headquarters, the purse being the property of Miss Bessie Sigler, then in the employ of O. B. Gates. He will answer before the circuit court, and as this is not the first time, if the charge is proven, it is liable to go hard with him. Sheriff Sewell arrested him at his home here Monday.

The peculiar part of Young McNamara's actions is that he is an heir to some valuable property in Oregon City, left him by his grandfather. The legacy, however, has a string to it. If young McNamara became a good citizen, he was to have his legacy at the age of 25. If he was not a good citizen it was to go to others. With this good fortune coming to him it would have appeared that he would have gone down the straight and narrow way, but his life has been checkered. He is bright, witty, and rather good-hearted, and when a jail-break was imminent at one time, while he was serving time, he aided the jailer.

Archibald G. Wilkes.

Archibald G. Wilkes, an Oregon pioneer of 1845, died at his home in Wagner, Wheeler county, May 24. Deceased was born in Virginia in 1821. His parents moved to Missouri when he was 9 years of age. In that state, in 1840, Mr. Wilkes married Miss Mahala Tucker. Five years later they set out for Oregon. In 1849 Mr. Wilkes went to California, where he was lured by the discovery of gold, but returned to Oregon in a short time. Mrs. Wilkes and nine children survive him—J. C. and S. P., of Wheeler county; Archie, William, G. W. and Thurston Wilkes, Mrs. Anna Paquet, Mrs. Flora Johnston and Mrs. Polly Cornett, all of Washington county. For years deceased was a resident of this county. He is well remembered by early pioneers.

Dr. Lowe has been coming to Hillsboro for over 10 years. See him June 13 to 15.

Mrs. F. M. Heidel has departed for a summer's visit to points in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Those wanting single harness should call on the Pioneer Harness Shop, A. M. Cardie, Manager. Fine sets in stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Raffety, of Mountaine, departed yesterday for a visit in Wisconsin. They will be absent for the summer.

Don't forget that Dr. Lowe, the oculo-optician, will be at the Tualatin hotel three days next week—from Thursday to Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Willis returned last Saturday from a several weeks' trip to California. They are now visiting in Clackamas county.

Mrs. W. A. Scott, of near this city, departed last Wednesday for Iowa, to visit her old home. She was accompanied home with a nephew who has been spending the winter on the coast.

Congressman Tongue yesterday sent to the city reading room over one hundred bound volumes of government reports, which will add much to the library. The reports embrace nearly every department of the government.

A corps of engineers, under the charge of Will Elliott, who is a brother of Mrs. C. W. Redmond, of this city, passed through town Monday, enroute for the hills between here and the Nehalem. It is generally supposed that they are out for the Portland and Nehalem railroad project. Mr. Elliott was non-committal as to where he was going or what he was going to do.
