OREGON'S NEEDS.

The Evening Telegram has been publishing contributions about "Oregon's needs" Some of the articles have been written by practical newspaper men, and have been trite and to the point What Oregon really needs, more than anything else, is a "pull together" spirit. Oregon, for years, has been the greatest "knocker" state in the Union of States It has been a case of Astoria "knocking Portland," Portland "knocking" Astoria, and the whole galaxy of towns "knocking" Salem, and so on, with the interchange of incivilities running between the little towns like Hillsboro and Forest Grove. This "knocking" spirit has become chronic. It has extended from town spirit to individual spirit. In Portland, a man with money to invest, has always encountered the gauntlet of "knockers" If he desired to manufacture, the real estate dealers told him he would meet blue ruin If he desired to buy realty, he was told that he would go into the bankrupt courts unless he purchased some particular piece of property As a consequence, he naturally went to a state where the knocker knocketh not, and where his voice had been stilled by an avalanche of unity among business men Washington has been getting the eastern immigration Not, as many would have you believe, by the encouragement given them by railroad companies, but the fact that they are met by men anxious to do business with them, and if they could not individually do business, helped others to make a trade When Oregon's people arrive at their business sense, they will get immigration and money.

WHY SWAP HORSES?

The rant and cant about Mr. McKinley not being a fitting candidate for a third term is arrant nonsense, and is inclined to make one pause and wonder if perspicuity has gone into hiding. The people of the nation have endorsed Mr. McKinley's tie-up with corporate influence, and we all know just where he stands. All in the world that keeps the politicians from endorsing the third term idea is the fear that such procedure would be unpopular in the country, and that defeat would be invited. The people know well enough where the president stands, and they well know that there will be no radical change of party declaration or action. The trusts and railroad combines, together with the banking associations, have control of the party machinery, just as surely as they had control of the Cleveland administration. So, no matter what candidate they put up, he he will be a corporate candidate. The people who are intelligent know this. Those who do not, are liable to vote any old way. Give the present incumbent a chance for a third term. Tradition is no longer a national sweetheart; it has become a myth. Det our republican newspapers come down off the perch, and look facts and conditions in the face. We had just as soon have Mr. McKinley, all of us, as to have any man the corporation machine could name.

If Mr. Bryan's comment on the recent Supreme Court decision are pronounced severe, what must be said of Justice Harlan's dissenting opision?

Mark Hanna has donated $50,000 to a college in Ohio. No one will ask Mark, "Where did you get it?"

A GOOD THING.

German syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually Boschee's German syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868 and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. For sale by Delta DrugStore. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

ONLY ONE WAY TO DO IT.

Get from Portland to Chicago in 72 hours—just 3 days. The "Chicago-Portland Special," leaving Portland daily at 9 a. m. via O R. & N., arrives at Chicago at 9:30 the third day. New York and Boston are reached the fourth day. This train, acknowledged to be the fastest between the Northwest and the East, is solidly vestibuled and its equipment is unsurpassed. Pullman drawing room sleeping cars, up-to-date tourist sleeping cars, library-smoking cars, free reclining chair cars, and unexcelled dining cars, the meals on which are equal to those served at the very best hotels. Remember this train runs solid Portland to Chicago; there is no change of cars, and the good of it is, it costs no more to ride on it than on other routes.

We have other trains. The "Pacific Express" leaves Portland daily at 9 p. m. via Huntington, and the "Spokane Flyer" leaves at 6 p. m. daily via Spokane for St. Paul and the East.

For rates, sleeping car reservations, etc., call on or write to any O. R. & N. agent, or write to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.
