

DIAMOND W'S FINDS UPCHURCH EASY MARK

Home Team put up Rattling Good Ball.

MULTINOMAH'S FAVORITES BEATEN

Upchurch Sent out Flower of Portland's Amateurs

The Diamond W's played great ball Sunday, and the result was a defeat of Portland's favorite amateur players. Upchurch brought with them such crack-a-jacks as Ainslie, Zan and Art Downs, with a fill-in of Stutz, the Vancouver first baseman, and Fay, the Foutella shortstop. It was Diamond W's game from the first, although the visitors put up good ball. The local line-up was as usual, except that McFee, who was ill (but ready to play) was substituted by James, of Forest Grove.

The line-up was: Upchurch, W. Downs, p.; McInnis, Sues, c.; Zan, Z. Purdin, 1b.; Stutz, Briggs, 2b.; Ainslie, Cook, 3b.; Fay, Hare, ss.; Baldwin, James, rf.; Hovde, Hatch, lf.; Esser, Miller, cf.; A. Downs, p.

Score by innings: Upchurch, 0 0 1 1 2 0 0 0 4; Diamond W, 2 0 3 3 0 0 0 1-9. Both pitchers were found to considerable extent, but each was in good form. Downs fanned nine men, while McInnis fanned eight. One man went to first on balls for Downs, while two cake-walked to first on the Portland pitcher.

The visitors thought they had a sure thing, because their team was a pickup out of the best to be had in the City on the Willamette. This game makes seven played by the local team, and they have lost but two—and these losses were to teams not as good as the one which played Sunday. Roy Cook again umpired, and gave good satisfaction. The attendance was the best of the season.

The Gaston nine went up against the Hillsboro second nine, Sunday, after the regular game was played. The home team won out by a score of 11 to 10.

Sunday, September 1st, the Diamond W's will cross bats with the West End team, of Portland. This team recently beat the Golden West team, which carried away honors from here two weeks ago, and that they will put up a smart game is assured.

After the regular game the Benedicte and Singles will have another contest, the trophy to be a big banner made out of thin air hung to a telephone pole as a flag-staff. Pitcher Bagley has had his arm in a pickle of brine all week and expects to throw a curve for the married men that will wrap itself around the batter at least two times before it goes to the catcher. He also practiced a few new evolutions, one of which is to deliver the ball while standing on his head. Owing to league offers to some of these players, some of which may be accepted before Sunday, the line-up cannot be given.

Judge McBride will hold court here one day in October—the 28th. Mrs. Jos. Downs returned today from a visit with her sister at Seattle.

If you want a buggy or wagon, see Schulmerich Bros. and save money.

Fred Miller, son of ex-Sheriff Jno. Miller, formerly of Clarke county, Wash., now of Walla Walla, is in the city, the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Susan Brown.

Hop pickers engaged to pick in the Bagley yard, Leisyville, will commence a week from Monday; the Inbrle yard will begin either Wednesday or Monday-a week, and by that time all others will be down to business. The product is ripening rapidly.

This is the season of the year when you should patronize grocers who keep new and clean stock. Go to Dennis for first class groceries.

It has been reported here that F. M. J. Murphy, the contractor, who recently left the Woodmen hall at Cedar Mill unfinished, is at McMinnville. His tools were shipped to that point, at least. The laborers have taken steps to secure their money from Murphy's bondsmen.

Do not fail to get Fly Bouncer at Greer's and keep the flies off your cows.

Born, Tuesday, August 27, 1901 to the wife of Mr. Ed. Wann, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well, but the father is as nervous as a cat—but wait until he walks the floor these coming winter nights!

Go to McCormick's to get your furniture. He is the cheapest in town.

There will soon be a petition filed in the county courts of this and Multnomah counties embracing a proposed change of road that will affect the entire travel of the northern part of the county so far as the route to Portland is concerned. The proposed change is half in this, and half in the other county. It starts from the Robert Thompson place north and west of Cedar Mill, and joins the old road via the Cornell road, near the summit. The old grade to the summit from Cedar Mill is now 13 per cent in many places, and the new route, as per survey of the county surveyor, is but 5 per cent in the steepest places. This will affect travel between Greenview, Mountaine, Glencoe and Bethany. It is said that the proposed route has hearty support in the section through which it proposes to pass. It is expected that the petition will simultaneously be presented to the courts in October. The new road will embrace three or four miles in length.

For a person to get along well in the world it is necessary to have your feet well cared for. Dennis can fit you out with latest styles and best qualities of footwear at prices that you would pay for inferior articles. Call and see his stock.

Mayor F. A. Bailey yesterday afternoon signed city bonds in the sum of $24,500, and his name was written 1,029 times—and it was no day for writing, either. The bonds are to be turned to Mr. J. W. Shute, who will give the city face value in coin of the realm. The other two thousand dollars, to cover necessary supplies, wood on hand, etc., will be raised by an issue of warrants. The plant will be received by the city by Saturday evening and then Hillsboro will be in the intoxication of municipal ownership. This will be a new dispensation in this quarter, and the results will be eagerly watched. There are croakers who predict disaster, and there are enthusiasts who predict all sorts of profit. By careful management the city will make the plant a much better paying institution than the old contract under which the town labored.

We let no one lead us in any line we carry and we carry everything to be found in a large, up-to-date, well selected stock. Save your money by buying at H. Wehrung & Sons, the leading general merchandise firm on the west side.

J. E. Worth, secretary of the Portland Coal and Development Co., passed through the city, Sunday afternoon, on his return from the company's property, just above Gaston, close to North Yamhill. They have already bored a tunnel into the hill and developed a splendid prospect. Mr. Worth left a nice specimen of the product with THE ARGUS. Mr. Worth thinks they have a nice piece of property and the company hopes to supply a great deal of coal for Oregon consumption as soon as the mine is fairly opened and operations commence in earnest.

Hot weather is endurable if you have a neat, palatable meal. Get this by getting your groceries at Dennis'. Don't forget that he keeps the finest lunch meats in town.

C. N. Shannon, a conductor on the Great Northern Railway at Grand Forks, Dakota, is in the city, accompanied by his wife and two children, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Crandall. Mr. Shannon is a brother of Mrs. Crandall. They will remain but a few days. Mr. and Mrs. S. think Oregon has a great climate, and are well pleased with our production.

Even if you can't go to the coast, you can thrive at home if you will buy your groceries from Dennis, whose lines are the freshest and best in the county. One trial will convince you.

Hop picking will commence in Wm. Bagley's yard, Leisyville, Wednesday; Jas. H. Sewell will commence a week from Monday; the Inbrle yard will begin either Wednesday or Monday-a week, and by that time all others will be down to business. The product is ripening rapidly.

This is the season of the year when you should patronize grocers who keep new and clean stock. Go to Dennis for first class groceries.

CARNIVAL SPIRIT IS NOW MOVING

Chairman James H. Sewell Making Arrangements.

BETTER THAN A COUNTY FAIR

Active Preparations Being Made and all Point to Success.

Chairman James H. Sewell, of the Hillsboro Carnival committee, was in the city this morning, and is busily engaged in selecting his sub-committees. W. V. Wiley is at the head of committee on decoration; E. B. Tongue, racing; A. C. Shute, general arrangements; W. H. Wehrung and J. W. Bailey amusements and attractions.

Several will be selected on the committee to secure livestock, and arrangements will be made to accommodate a large exhibit of dairy stock, sheep, horses, swine, etc. Sheds and feed will be provided and all farmers who have good stock will be personally invited to exhibit.

A special effort will be made to have a fine showing of grains and grasses and the fruit exhibit will not be overlooked. Dairy productions will be much in evidence.

Arrangements are being perfected to have racing a feature of the carnival, and there will be all kinds of programs to please.

Cash premiums will be given as follows: Grains and grasses, first prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5.

The same premiums will be given for fruit exhibits.

Other exhibits will be rewarded by diplomas, according to merit. These diplomas will be handsomely engraved, and will be worth more than money to those who pride themselves on their holdings.

The feature of having auction sales of stock each day will prove a drawing card and here will be a chance for farmers to do business. Those having stock for private sale will be permitted to exhibit their animals in the grounds set aside for public sale.

The committee will from now on push things forward, and that we will have a splendid carnival is assured.

CONRAD SCHULMERICH.

Conrad Schulmerich, one of the most widely known, wealthy and respected German citizens of this county, died at his home in this city at 1:30 Monday morning, the result of a severe attack of heart trouble. For some time his ailment had prevented him from reclining in a horizontal position, and he slept in a chair. A few minutes before death he complained of great pain, and went from his chair to the bed, where he expired a moment later.

Deceased was born in Dahlheim, Hesse d'Armstadt, Germany, December 27, 1827, and emigrated to New York City in 1850. In 1856 he married Miss Margaret Schmetzger, and together they went to California, arriving at San Francisco via Panama, late that fall. He first settled at Placerville, where he mined for a number of years. In 1875 the family moved to Oregon and settled six miles south of this city, where they lived until a few years ago, since that time residing in Hillsboro.

His wife died in February, 1900. The following children survive: Herman, manager of the Oregon Placer & Power Company, Sumpter; William, Farmington; Edward and George, Hillsboro, merchants; Joseph, Greenville; Mrs. Daniel Burkhalter, Farmington, and the Misses Margaret, Josephine and Etta, residing at home.

Mr. Schulmerich was a member of Tuality lodge, A. F. & A. M., under whose auspices the funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, the services having been held in the Congregational church, and interment in the Masonic cemetery. Herman Schulmerich, of Sumpter, was unable to be present at the funeral.

Deceased, in company with Dr. F. A. Bailey, built one of the first bricks in Hillsboro. He was a large giver to charity and followed, in this regard, the Scriptural injunction of not allowing his right hand to know what the other gave. He was a good citizen, a kind father, and the sorrow of his children is his best voucher of a life well spent.

MARKET DAYS.

One of the many attractions of the Native Sons' Carnival commencing October 2d, will be the daily auction sales. This will be one of the greatest opportunities of the season, to either buy or dispose of stock and other property. It is intended to list all property, and thoroughly advertise before the day of sale. Those having property they wish to dispose of would do well to call on or drop a card to B. P. Cornelius, auctioneer, or James H. Sewell, member of committee.

Cigars at F. J. Barber's, 2nd St.

G. F. C. Meier, a prominent German of Beaverton, and a veteran of the Civil War, sustained a very serious accident Monday afternoon, while working around a gopher gun. Mr. Meier says he has no immediate recollection as to just how the accident took place, but when he came to himself there was a dead gopher in front of the gun, and his hand was shot. The charge took off the two thumbs and badly injured one of the palms. Mr. Meier has been ill for some time, and the shock probably upset him to some extent so that he does not fully remember just how it happened. In all probability the gopher was killed when he reached the gun, and in reloading the machine the accident took place. Dr. Tamplin, of this city, went out and dressed the injured digits. It was a pretty close call for Mr. Meier.

Harvest is here; now look out for the Street Fair. Get good and ready to "blow" yourself by saving money through buying your groceries, your boots and shoes and your dry goods at H. Wehrung & Sons. Strictly the finest stock and best for money in the county.

Laurel Hoyt returned Saturday evening from a two weeks trip to his homestead below Seaside, where he has been engaged in building him a cabin. Laurel says that building cabins is not particularly in his line, but he did manage to get the main spring in the right place, although he had a hard time in setting the crystal. The escapement he made so small that he bumped his head when trying to get out. One of the party with him says that Laurel sawed off a pole on which he was sitting, taking a ten-foot fall to the ground, but his our jeweler denies, naming it as a scandal unworthy of belief.

The time is drawing near for auction sales, and there will be a large number of them in this county this fall. Those contemplating sales of this kind should communicate with Wm. McQuillan, auctioneer, Hillsboro, Ore. Inquire at this office for terms.

Hon. W. H. Wehrung and wife returned the last of the week from a trip to Seattle and Victoria. While at Seattle they and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Knight went out with a party for an outing on a gasoline launch. While out in the Sound, the machinery failed to "segregate" and the party helplessly drifted until two in the morning, when they were picked up by a steamer from Alaska. The next time they go out on a trip of this kind they contemplate taking along a balloon.

Treat your feet well and they will carry you through the world without ache or pain. Take them into H. Wehrung & Sons and treat them to a good fitting and splendid stock—pair of boots or shoes. Shoes for father down to the baby. To see our stock is to buy.

M. Henderson, of Cornelius, Monday, brought out a brand new engine, purchased from Russell & Co., for use with his hay baler. Mr. Henderson is baling a great deal of hay this year, and, in fact, has baled more than any other outfit in Washington county. His engine which has been in use several seasons went in the ditch the other day between Centerville and Cornelius, disabling it so that a new one was imperative. The new machine is a dandy and will do good work.

Ladies, attention! Embroidery silks, washable art silks and doilies at Wehrung & Sons.

M. M. Bridges has sold his interest in the Climax Mill to J. M. Greear, and Mr. Bridges will soon remove to Portland for temporary residence. Mr. Bridges has been a factor in Hillsboro's business life for many years, and has many friends here.

W. B. THOMAS GETS LEGACY

Late Charlotte Hornbuckle Makes Him Sole Legatee.

GIVES 400 TO CARE OF PREACHERS

The Legatee Well-Known in Beaverton. --Raised by the Hornbuckles.

The last will and testament of Charlotte Hornbuckle, who recently died at Beaverton, was filed in probate, Monday. The instrument names W. B. Thomas as legatee and executor without bonds. The estate is valued at $7,100, all of which goes to Thomas except $400, which is to be deposited in the Bank of the Security Savings and Trust Co., of Portland, perpetual, the annual interest to be devoted to the care of the superannuated Methodist Episcopal ministers. Thomas is a young man about 30 years of age, and was adopted by his benefactress and her husband, the late Geo. Hornbuckle, some 21 years ago. The Hornbuckles never raised any children.

W. S. Ward, of Portland, is attorney for the executor. The legacy is a neat little windfall for Mr. Thomas.

J. Whitmore was in town yesterday and says that Laurel hopmen will commence picking Friday of next week, or by the following Monday, sure.

The Climax Mill will hereafter be conducted by J. M. Greear and son, Claude, these gentlemen now owning a controlling interest in that institution.

Monday evening two robbers entered the Japanese bar-house at Bertha and robbed the inmates of about $70 in cash. They evidently struck up the road and went through this place early Tuesday morning, for when the foreman of the crew followed up and left the train at Cornelius, he met two suspicious looking characters who gave him a fight when he told them that he wanted them. One of them grappled with him, threw him down, and the twin then clambered to the woods and out of sight. The next time that particular section foreman goes after any one he will arm himself or get help. The fellows are probably out of the country by this time. That they are the fellows who got the money is fairly proved by their attack upon the foreman. The chaps came through Hillsboro, and were here at an early hour Tuesday morning, and then walked up the track after the train passed up.

The refreshing shower of Sunday evening laid the dust; now use Bibby's Shoe Dressing. It is the best or The Delta would not handle it.

F. M. Heidel, it is safe to say, has the finest horticultural exhibit ever brought together in Washington county, and he wants more, he needs more, and he must have more. He has two exhibits of peaches that the world has never seen—one lot from the trees of Mrs. C. T. Kimberlin and the other from the trees of D. McCamish. They are simply world beaters and must be seen to be appreciated. Talk about plums—no one ever saw nicer plums than those he will take to the state fair. His exhibits of grains and grasses are good. He still wants more to complete his display, and he is going to get it. Anyone having anything that will lend to the exhibit will please bring it in or notify him at once.

E. L. McCormick has received his new stock of guns and ammunition. The season for shooting all kinds of game will soon open. It will pay you to call and get his prices.

Lee Moie, a celestial who has resided around the Tualatin neighborhood, was brought in by Sheriff Sewell last week and will have his hearing before Judge Rood tomorrow, on a charge of having threatened to kill John Chang, another Chinaman, and to burn up Chang's cabin and cut down his hop vines. Moie says Chang is putting up a job on him. Sheriff Sewell has the honor of bringing in the first Chinaman of the season, although it isn't open season until next month.

Ferd Groner and wife, of Scholls, will soon start for a trip to New York and Eastern points, to be absent a month or such a matter. Their first objective point is St. Paul.

The Forest Grove Times has again changed hands and will after the first of the month be conducted by a publisher recently from Nebraska. The Times has had many an editor at its helm from reliable Wheelock Marsh down to the gifted but somewhat irresponsible Col. J. B. Eddy, to say nothing of the redoubtable Austin Craig, the world beater.

H. F. Behrens, who is doing a good business conducting a meat market in Portland, was in town Sunday, making good with his many friends.

C. E. Beckwith has purchased the M. M. Bridges residence on Second street, near the depot. The property is a neat little possession and $800 was the purchase price, there being three large lots. Mr. Beckwith is the Southern Pacific agent here, and his venture will no doubt be a profitable one.

C. C. Ryan, who three years ago opened up the ice cream parlors for O. B. Gates, was in the city yesterday, representing a Portland type-writer supply house.

The city council met last Monday evening and appointed J. J. Rector superintendent of the water and light plant, and named O. G. Wilkes as his assistant. It was decided to continue indefinitely the schedule now in force. The gentlemen will assume their duties as soon as the plant is turned over to the city.

Yale & Snell bicycles at O. G. Wilkes' bicycle store, two doors north of Hillsboro hotel.

Herman Kaumont, of below Raleigh was last week brought to this city on a John Doe warrant, charging the theft of a watch from Rosa Rhegitto, a daughter of the onion grower. As the young man could readily prove an alibi, he was released from custody.

Bob Greer will sell you bacon and hams cheaper than any place in town.

Eugene Dant, the Reedville thresher, was in town yesterday and says the best yield so far threshed this year was a sixty acre field for Ferd Groner, of Scholls, which went 69 bushels to the acre. The best wheat yield threshed by him is 26 bushels.

Buy your bacon and hams at Greer's; he is the cheapest.

The Hillsboro school will open September 30th, and The Delta will have the new books together with tablets, pens, pencils, slates, sponges and everything in school supplies.
