OUR COUNTY'S EXHIBIT

While Washington County did not carry away the first prize at the State Fair it is some satisfaction to know that the display of our productions and resources was as good as any on exhibition. In many respects it was better than that of the county getting first premium.

The good done for the county in having representation at a general state display is incalculable. People see and are convinced. Washington County is one of the most productive of Oregon counties and thousands of people have for the last two years seen what we can show to the world. There is nothing so calculated to invite immigration as a careful selection of exhibits of what a section can produce. We shall feel substantial returns for the effort of Mr. Heidel in getting the county so prominently before the Northwest.

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

In a recent speech in the Lincoln auditorium Hon. W. J. Bryan said:

"It is not strange that the people bow as one man over the bier of the illustrious fellow citizen—not strange that the solemn stillness is broken only by the chant of the sacred hyms which he was wont to sing—not strange that all hearts turn in sympathy to the husbandless home at Canton.

The president's position made him a part of the life of all his countrymen, and the circumstances which attend his taking off added indignation to grief—indignation that even one murderous heart could be found in all the land, and grief that the wicked purpose of that heart should have been consummated against one so gentle in spirit and so kind in word and deed.

"This is neither time nor place for a discussion of remedies for anarchy. It can have no defenders in the United States; it is harmful even when no violence is advocated, for it is the duty of every citizen of the republic to strive to make this goverment perfect in every detail, and this purpose is not only weakened, but entirely destroyed by the doctrine that all goverments are bad and should be overthrown."

Mr. Bryan said that no one appreciated more than he the private character of William McKinley. He referred feelingly to the deathbed scenes at Buffalo, and the Christian fortitude displayed. His blameless life, approachable manner, and generous conduct were pictured.

CLARK OF THE OREGON.

It would seem to the causal observer that it is high time the nation performed a simple act of justice by bestowing some mark of recognition upon a naval officer who seems to have been lost sight of in the present unfortunate imbroglio. Captain Charles Clark who commanded the Oregon, has not been accorded the recognition due him for his gallant services. Instead of being promoted and rewarded he actually lost rank. The Oregon's memorable run from San Francisco to Santiago will be recorded in history and not forgotten while the American navy exists. The part played by the Oregon in the naval battle of Santiago fired with enthusiasm every American heart. But the gallant commander of that great fighting machine—what of him?—Commoner.

THIS will be a great week for Hillsboro and Washington county. The summer has been fruitful for farmers, and while prices are not at the best, Dame Nature has done her part. This has been a week of recreation and enjoyment for thousands who have for several months known only labor. The fair and carnival has afforded an opportunity for neighbors to get together and have a day's respite, and see what each other have in the way of excellent production. It will stimulate the workers. It has made life seem worth the while. This has been a farmers' fair in more ways than one. And while it might have been better, it has been a good one.

PORTLAND'S Mayor was held up Tuesday evening and relieved of cash and watch Had such a thing occured when Brother Pennoyer was at the head of the city the chaste and virtuous Oregonian would have editorially assured the people that it was a fitting rebuke to a bad administration. But people now get held up in the metropolis every day or so and the Oregonian satisfies itself by merely giving it as news.

McHARGUE STILL FIGHTING.

U. S. McHargue, the Reedvil'e pedagogue, is making a success of keeping himself before the public He has sued Supt. Ball on mandamus, to force that official to either indorse his certificate obtained in Clackamas county, or show cause b fore the circuit court why he does not so indorse. It will be remembered that McHargue taught at Reedville and that some of the patrons charged him with improper conduct The state board of education found him guilty as charged. McHargue's certificate had expired before the board made its findings. Supt. Ball and the board of examiners refused to consider a subsequent application for a certificate, and the applicant went to Multnomah, where he got a refusal. From there he went to Clackamas, where he was granted papers. He then came here and asked for indorsement so that he might teach in this county. Mr. Ball declined. Mr. Ball submitted the matter to the attorney general, who decided that the superintendent had acted properly. McHargue demanded and received a rehearing before the state officer with the result that Ball was again sustained. The suit follows. Mr. Ball contends that he had a right to follow the statute, which says the county superintendent "may" indorse He thinks this does not mean "shall." McHargue construes it to mean "shall" and hopes to force the indorsement on this interpretation of law. S. B. Huston is McHargue's attorney. The superintendent will contest the suit.

McHargue has kept one section of the county in an uproar for some months. As a fighter he is entitled to first premium. He appears to be as much a success as a fighter as he has proved himself a prize winner as a disturber of school districts.

Cards of Thanks.

In the name of the Methodist church, I desire to extend to the citizens of Hillsboro, who so freely and delightfully entertained the members of the Annual Conference during its recent session, our sincerest thanks.

Very truly yours,
H. OBERG.

The committee on arraegements for M. E. Conference just held in Hillsboro, Oregon, takes this opportunity to express its thanks to the Baptist and Congregational churches, the Hillsboro Opera House, School District No. 7, and Montezuma Lodge No. 50, I. O. O. F., for accommodations, chairs and seats furnished, and to all of the citizens of this city for their free and cordial entertainment of said conference. R. H. Greer,
Chairman of Committee.

Imperial Cider Mill.

The Imperial Cider Mill at Cornelius is now running and is ready for apples. Our capacity is enough for all comers. Bring in your apples at once. We make first class cider. Lawerence Bailey, Prop. Cornelius, Ore., Oct. 3, 1901.

Sydney Luce returned, the last of the week, from Nome where he has been engaged in mining this summer. He reports the upper country full of men who want to get back to civilization but who are without the price. Many will return this fall on a goverment boat which has been sent up as a matter of relief. Sydney says that he had no idleness in stock up there and worked every day he was there. He will remain in Oregon for the winter.

Hillsboro was well represented in official capacity at the recent state fair. W. W. Boscow collected tickets at the grand entrance and J. C Hare and Albert Tozier sold tickets. J. T. Young was watchman and A. G. Anderson also sold tickets. Bert Tozier, now of Portland, but well known here, has sold tickets at the fair for eighteen years.

Four leading tailor houses of America to choose from. Give H. Wehrung & Sons your measure for a tailor made suit.

A MAN MUST ASK HIMSELF

At Least Twice a Year

"What kind of a suit shall I buy?"

If you will listen to sound advice, based on the supposition that you want the BEST, you will come to us and ask for a K. N. & F. suit or overcoat. Our goods sell solely on their merits; our clerks are here to see that you are pleased—not to talk you into buying something you do want.

This we are sure of—that our Fall and Winter line, every last suit and overcoat in the store, has the proof of merit in stylish designing, serviceable, up-to date fabrics and honest workmanshiy. Last but not least, we sell them at surprisingly low prices.

For Sale or Rent

A well paying meat market for sale or for rent. Inquire of C. H. Koch, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Walter Bernards, of Forest Grove, was in the city the first of the week. He has purchased the Sarah J. Waters' farm of 168 acres, the purchase price being $8,500.

The members of the Congregational church of Hillsboro are urgently requested to make special effort to be present at the service next Sunday morning. The pastor will then submit the announcement, postponed a couple of weeks ago, on which the church will be called upon to take action. As this matter concerns the welfare of the organization, members will plan to attend. The theme of the sermon will be "The Modern Porches of Bethesda."

Go to F. J. Barber, Second Street fro a neat shave or hair cut. Satisaction guaranteed.

The week started with the finest autumn weather we have had for years. This is especially valuable to farmers as there has been a sufficient rainfall for fall plowing. The mountains are touched with a blue haze and it reminds one of the glorious old fashioned season known in the East as "Indian Summer".

Fall is coming—yes, it is here. H. Wehrung & Sons will sell you your suits. Largest stock and lowest prices in the county.

The banner carried by the Griffin Cabin, a beautiful silk creation, with a handpainted cabin in a vista of Oregon evergreen, was made by Miss Tillie Cornelius, of Portland, a Washington county girl. It is a beautiful piece of handwork and to be appreciated must be seen.

Those knowing themselves indebted to Dr. J. E. Adkins will kindly call and settle at once as he is closing up his book accounts.

Rev. C. C. Poling, presiding elder, will preach in the Evangelical church Saturday evening and Sunday.

Get good groceries at Greer's.

William R. Jackson is back from Eugene. He found it impossible to stay away from that street fair.

H. F. Behrens, one of Portland's successful dealers in meats, was in town yesterday and today, taking in the Fair and greeting his friends.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE ARGUS.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of woman's preferances Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to get them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her forfeit herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its earliest stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at The Delta Drug Store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

A GOOD THING.

German syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868 and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. For sale by Delta DrugStore. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

ONLY ONE WAY TO DO IT.

Get from Portland to Chicago in 72 hours—just 3 days. The "Chicago-Portland Special," leaving Portland daily at 9 a. m. via O R. & N., arrives at Chicago at 9:30 the third day. New York and Boston are reached the fourth day. This train, acknowledged to be the fastest between the Northwest and the East, is solidly vestibuled and its equipment is unsurpassed. Pullman drawing room sleeping cars, up-to-date tourist sleeping cars, library-smoking cars, free reclining chair cars, and unexcelled dining cars, the meals on which are equal to those served at the very best hotels. Remember this train runs solid Portland to Chicago; there is no change of cars, and the good of it is, it costs no more to ride on it than on other routes.

We have other trains. The "Pacific Express" leaves Portland daily at 9 p. m. via Huntington, and the "Spokane Flyer" leaves at 6 p. m. daily via Spokane for St. Paul and the East.

For rates, sleeping car reservations, etc., call on or write to any O. R. & N. agent, or write to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.
