

SUFFICIENT MILK WILL GET US FACTORY

Promoter of Condensed Milk Factory in Town.

ASKS NO BONUS—WANTS MILK

If This is Pledged Hillsboro can Get Institution.

Mr. Stuart, who has a condensed milk factory at Seattle, and who says that his institution can not supply the trade, was in town the first of the week, looking over this section of Washington county with the view of establishing such a factory in Hillsboro if farmers and dairymen will pledge a sufficient quantity of milk.

Harvest is over and all you can do is to wait—and while you are waiting you must eat. To get the best, just drop in to Dennis and buy some of his prime groceries.

THE OLD TRAGEDY.

Our old time friend, W. Simmons, who came to Hillsboro before there was a town here, and who married the widow of Hill, after whom the town was named, has taken up his abode at the poor farm.

Dear "Old Dad!" Your lines are sad—The frost on your hair is glistening; Don't you sigh?

MARRIAGE.

Cox-Tozier—Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, Portland, Ore., Nov. 18, 1901, Mr. Edward E. Cox, of Hartford, Ind., and Miss Nellie Tozier.

Call for Mass Meeting.

A mass convention of the voters of the city of Hillsboro is hereby called to meet in the City Hall, on Monday, Nov. 25, 1901, at 7:30 P. M.

F. A. BAILEY, Mayor.

Thanksgiving Football.

The Cornelius boys will be down to Hillsboro on Thanksgiving Day and play the Hillsborites a game on the local grounds.

Dr. Jas. Withycombe, vice-director of the Corvallis Agricultural college, was in the city Saturday and made The Argus office a pleasant call.

Harvest is over and all you can do is to wait—and while you are waiting you must eat. To get the best, just drop in to Dennis and buy some of his prime groceries.

These winter days, when the water is on the crossing and the mud is everywhere, you want shoes that are of the best quality.

The steel trust has advanced the price of plows and harrows just ten per cent. This is no advertising dodge, but cold facts.

Our friends over in Tillamook are to have a daily mail hereafter, instead of the six days per week service of the past.

That handsome sideboard in the show window at H. Wehrung & Sons, and other prizes, will be given away Thanksgiving eve.

H. W. Miller, of Glencoe, was in town Saturday and brought in some splendid specimens of Burbank potatoes—the best of that variety exhibited here this year.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE FOR THIS CITY

Will be Held on the 30th of November.

PROF. J. H. STANLEY TO BE HERE.

Dr. Tamiesie will Deliver an Address on School House Sanitation.

County Superintendent Ball has arranged for a local teachers' institute to be held in this city, at the public school building, Saturday, November 30, and it promises to be of more than ordinary interest.

An excellent program has been arranged. Prof. Stanley, who is well known throughout the state as a popular educator, and who is now principal in one of the Portland schools, will be present and will lecture on "School Management," while Dr. J. P. Tamiesie will speak on "School Sanitation," two subjects of much interest in school affairs.

GOOD REASONS WHY.

Farmers should not hesitate to pledge milk for the factory. The promoters ask that pledge for but a year. They will invest from twenty to fifty thousand dollars.

Imperial Cider Mill.

The Imperial Cider Mill at Cornelius is now running and is ready for apples. Our capacity is enough for all comers.

Lost.

A 3-year-old fawn-colored Jersey heifer, from my place, near West Union church. Suitable reward offered for information leading to recovery.

For Sale.

Some yearling heifers, coming fresh in February and March; also 30 head of good stock ewes; one good farm horse, 12 years old.

Miss Etta Schulmerich is visiting with the family of Jos. Schulmerich, at Greenville.

Rev. A. B. Snyder will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday, morning and evening.

The office of the Hotel Tualatin has been renovated and papered by Peterson & Son, and is now very attractive.

The trouble at the University is all settled, and all the students are back, with the exception of one, who refuses to "sign up."

It is said that two Mormon elders are in the city, doing a little quiet missionary work in the interests of their church.

Schulmerich Bros. will pay the highest market price for first-class potatoes, in any quantity.

Zina Wood, Jr., and G. W. Schulmerich returned the last of the week from their Arlington goose hunt, and report having bagged 39 of the wild fellows.

Does anyone know the "whereabouts" of one Herman Shaw, who worked for Wm. Jackson some years ago? If so they will confer a favor upon Mr. Jackson by forwarding the address.

Mrs. Thos. Johnston, of near Bethany, slipped on a walk the first of the week and had a severe fall, breaking the wrist of the right arm. Dr. Tamiesie was called and reduced the fracture.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Adam Beil, the Centerville blacksmith, will please call and settle during this month, in gold, silver, or good paper.

"To the Editor: Three engagements of our Hillsboro young people are the newest announcements in the social whirl, but am prohibited from furnishing you the names of the happy couples.—Jim"

Col. C. T. Bowen has traded the Humphreys' place, in this city, for property near Sunnyside, and will soon move to the city.

W. J. Benson, who has been ill for some time, is again able to get up town and see his friends.
