

CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

Archbishop Christie Delivered Dedication Sermon.

LARGE AUDITORIUM WAS CROWDED

A Red Letter Day for Catholics of This Vicinity.

Catholics from all over Washington county were present in the city last Sunday, Jan. 12, to witness the dedication of the new church building on Third street.

This handsome structure is built upon a lot donated by Banker J. W. Shute, and is situated across the street from the Baptist church.

Archbishop Christie was present and delivered the dedication sermon, assisted by Rev. Father Black. It is estimated that the building will seat over a thousand and it was crowded to its capacity.

Many of other faith were present, too, to many, the ceremonies of the Catholic ritual in dedication exercises were new. Father Black is congratulated for his work in connection with the new structure, and he has had much assistance from F. H. Bower.

It will not be long until Hillsboro will be placed in one of the parishes of Washington county, and it is said that a school will soon be started in this city.

Father Moore, St. Mary's Home; Father Le Miller, Cedar Mill; Father Black, St. Francis church, Portland; Father Reihart, Columbia University, were visiting priests with, and assisting the Archbishop.

MRS. J. F. ULM. Mrs. J. F. Ulm, aged 53 years, died of internal cancer, at her home at Dilley, Monday, Jan. 12.

Funeral services in the Taylor cemetery, at Forest Grove, Tuesday.

Mrs. Nancy Ulm had been for several years a sufferer from internal cancer, and for some weeks prior death, she was helpless and confined to her bed.

Deceased was highly respected by all who knew her, and had lived at Dilley for many years. She was born in Missouri, October 15, 1848.

Thirty-eight years ago she united with the Christian Adventist church. Of late she had suffered so much that when her time came she said she was ready to go to her Lord, where there is no sickness, sorrow or death.

She leaves one brother, one sister, the husband, and many friends to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. H. Calder, of the Dilley M. E. church. The bereaved husband and relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Happy days.

Forest Grove, Ore., January 16.—(Special to The Argus).—The venerable W. H. H. Myers is wearing a broad smile these days—he has just learned that Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sorenson, of Sumpter, are the parents of a bright baby boy.

It is rumored here that Mr. Myers will at once go to Sumpter to put the grandson in political training for the next campaign.

Anniversary Ball.

Vine Maple Camp, No. 456, Woodmen of the World, will give their Third Anniversary Ball at their hall at Cedar Mill, Ore., Saturday evening, Jan. 18, 1902.

Fire Insurance at Cost

The St. Mary's Home, of Beaverton, has filed its quarterly report with the secretary of state, showing that the institution is caring for 21 male orphans and foundlings under 14 years of age.

R. Cave, the pioneer in his line, says he aims to carry only the best grades of goods in hardware, tin, and granite ware, and offers them at the lowest possible price.

Beginning with Nov. 29, H. Wehrung & Sons are giving a ticket with each $1.00 cash purchase which entitles you to a drawing on the following prizes:

First prize, 3-piece bedroom set; second prize, center table; third prize, antique oak rocker; pair white wool blankets.

The steel trust has advanced the price of plows and harrows just ten per cent. This is no advertising dodge, but cold facts.

Mr. Kineman, well known here, was out from Portland Sunday, and says that his son, Frank, who is now a fireman on the O. R. & N., met with an accident near LaGrande, while helping to coal his engine.

To get through the world is not such an easy matter—unless you're getting your shoes at Dennis'. Do this and you can walk through any old difficulty! Highest quality—lowest prices!

The town was much alarmed last week, over the appearance of diphtheria in the family of a Mr. Peterson, who lives close by the baseball grounds.

Look out for sickness from now on until spring. A good preventive is wholesome food. This you will have if you buy your groceries at Dennis' store—finest line!

The City of Hillsboro has levied a ten mill tax on all property as the basis of this year's collections. Now, when the school district levies, we shall know just how much we will have to "pungle up" to the county sheriff.

Ladies, go to H. Wehrung & Sons to get your dress goods, flannel, outing flannels, underwear, blouses, etc. Finest line in Washington county.

Dr. C. L. Large was down from Forest Grove yesterday, meeting with the U. S. Examining Board for Washington county. The other members of the Board are D. S. W. D. Wood and J. P. Tamiesie.

Father Le Miller, of Cedar Mill parish and mission, was in town this morning. He states that the Sisters' School at that point is progressing finely.

Go to Pope, the photographer, on Seventh street, the Ellis gallery, for up-to-date and handsome pictures. All work guaranteed. Our work speaks for itself.

A. J. Roy and family, from near Greenville, have moved into the Finney house, until recently occupied by J. P. Gardner.

Schulmerich Bros. will pay the highest market price for first-class potatoes, in any quantity. Will also take a carload of the Peerless.

The annual meeting of the members of the Congregational church takes place this evening at the house of worship.

Buy your furniture at Donelson's, Main street, Hillsboro. His prices will suit you, and as for quality there is none better anywhere.

Mrs. Libbie Conklin was out from Portland, Wednesday, visiting with her mother, Mrs. Ann Freeman.

C. C. Rhea, of Heppner, was in the city Sunday, the guest of Dr. J. E. Adkins.

Save Your Money. W. C. Donelson has sold more furniture than any business man, in that line, ever before sold in the same length of time in Hillsboro.

The reason is apparent. He sells reasonable—beats Portland prices, in fact. If you want easy chairs, sofas, bedroom sets, or any kind of furniture. Give him your order. See him and get his prices, and you will be convinced. You live but once. When you go home, have your ease. Furnish your house nicely; you live but once—and you should live right.

Undertaking supplies a specialty. His prices are very reasonable.

Motion for New Trial. Attorney Geo. R. Bagley returned this morning from Salem, where he argued the motion for a new trial for E. E. Colestock, before the supreme court.

Harrison Allen was present for the state, and Mr. Bagley was assisted by Attorney S. C. Spencer, of Portland. It will be remembered that Colestock was sentenced to 12 years last spring, having been convicted of criminal assault. The matter of a new trial will be decided next week, in all probability.

One of the gypsies was on a "bender" Tuesday night, and was temporarily taken in tow by the marshal, who held him in charge, awaiting the appearance of the recorder. That official was not down town that particular evening, and the chap was allowed to go on, promising he would leave for his camp. Leaving the hall in the Corwin-Wooster block, the chap started to go down the back stairs—and he "went." He slipped off about 20 feet of stairs at one bump, and while no bones were broken, he must have been sore for a day or so. Today, he had his hearing.

Forest Grove man, who was elected Monday, and the "City Ticket" won out over the Citizen's in a large majority. F. T. Kane, for mayor, received 159 votes, against H. H. Clark, 69; J. C. Clark received 125 votes for recorder, against J. N. Huffman; P. W. Cronin was elected marshal by a vote of 155, to C. B. Stokes, 75; W. S. Hudson, no opposition, received 228 votes for treasurer; J. T. Buxton, 148; A. J. Wirtz, 126, and J. S. Buxton, 147, were elected to the council, against E. J. Dugan, 97; Dr. E. C. Geiger, 87, and T. H. Adams, 97. The mayor, three councilmen and the treasurer succeeded themselves.

Ex-county Clerk J. A. Imbrie has so far completed the improvements on the Ritchie property on Main street, that he has taken up his residence there. He has made a new house out of the building, and will have one of the neatest residences in the city when completed. He will have a veranda nearly encircling the house, on the same plan that prevails in the South. The house furnishers were out the first of the week, and put the building in readiness for occupancy.

G. W. Foot, who was here last winter, in charge of salesmen for the Chatham Manfg Company, handling fanning mills, was in the city Tuesday evening, looking after the business interests of his concern. Mr. Foot says that in Washington county collections are much better than in any other section of the Northwest, and that of all the machines sold here last winter, but $10 now remains uncollected. This is a good record, as the company sold over a hundred mills here.

A large coyote and his frau have been doing some sheep killing out near Glencoe, having killed five for John Connell and one for Jap. Kefler, who is on the Otchins' farm. The boys procured Grant Holcomb's hounds, and with thirteen in the crowd, went after his coyoteship the other day, and succeeded in driving both into the open. Wm. Batchelder brought down the old chief of the gang, but the mother of the family made her escape.

Marshal Atkinson has established a reputation as a collector of dog license for the city. For the year 1900 but $21 was collected, and for the year just closed, the marshal collected $73. Next week the list of those paying license for the year 1901 will be published. Marshal Atkinson has his eye peeled and thinks that he can get more money this year than last—as there appear to be more dogs in evidence.

Washington county is very well represented at the Monmouth State Normal. The secretary gave the following as attending from here: Elva Baker and Katherine Morner, Forest Grove; Wayne W. Wiley, Beaverton; Annie Overholzer, Ora Overholzer, Tualatin; Effie Galbreath, Tualatin; Michael Morner, Forest Grove; Annie Newman, Gaston; W. A. Tapper, Hillsboro.

W. W. Williams will soon have his onions shipped, and will then get ready to put in another crop on his Mountindale ranch. Warren is making a success out of what looked to be an experiment, and his many friends here hope he will make all kinds of money, again, next year. He expects to build a warehouse on the ranch, for next year's crop.

A. J. Henderson, once with the Deltas, and now in the drug business in Eastern Oregon, writes drafts to his many friends here calling for 365 happy days. He is stationed at Antelope.

Mrs. Emma Everitt, who is in the city this week, the guest of her father, S. Everitt, and her brothers and sister. She returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Adams, of Seattle, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greer, of this city. Mr. Adams is prominently connected with the Great Northern Railway offices at the Sound city.

Walter Roland, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maehes, of Laurel, died Jan. 14. This is the second child lost by the bereaved parents within a very few days.

Sheriff Sewell has received an invitation to Sheriff Frazier's necktie party—the hanging of Dalton and Wade. The exercises will take place Jan. 31.

What have you to trade for a 1:30 egg incubator and brooder; also 3 stands of Italian bees. Address J. F. Moore, Beaverton, Washington county, Oregon.

COUNTY TAXATION FOR LAST YEAR AND THIS

Over Sixteen Thousand More State Tax.

COUNTY LESS, ROAD FUND MORE.

Where We Pay More Than Last Year. And Why.

The total of the tax roll for last year was $77,515.24. This year's tax roll is $92,662.62. Of increase in this year, is $12,587.56 more than last, while, added to this, is $3,465.98, a bounty tax, the coyote tax, which was not levied last year. These two items themselves make up a total of $15,856.54 increase over last year's taxation. The county general levy is this year $6,022.38 less than last year, while the road tax this year is $5,758.14 more than last year. On several items there are small differences, so that the total of tax to be raised this year is $16,147.38 more than last.

H. W. HESSE, B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.

Clerk Peter Boscow has posted notices calling for a meeting of the citizens of the Hillsboro school district, to take place at 1:30 P. M., Saturday, January 25, for the purpose of voting "yes" or "no" for nine months' school for the school year to commence next July, and to raise money to pay off a portion of the district's indebtedness. As a matter of fact the town and district can not afford to have less than a nine months' school. This has been tried heretofore, and the short school service did not give general satisfaction. Go and vote for a nine months' school—that is to say, if you have the good of the rising generation at heart.

E. Goodmurphy has fitted up a little barber shop parlor in the Hotel.

of the pump, sterilized, and no danger of poisoning your face. Artistic hair-cutting. Give him a call.

This has been a fine winter so far—and just think of it—spring will soon be here. In another month some of our people will be planting early peas. The gardeners will soon be sowing their early cabbage plants, and, before we hardly know it, another crop will be in the soil. Those Easterners who came here last Fall think this is the greatest country they ever lived in—and they are right. Oregon against the world!

You can't dodge this kind of weather and this is the "kind of weather" that you must buy shoes. Why not get the best? H. Wehrung & Sons can supply you from infancy to old age with footwear of the best and at bargains.

Cornelius is to take another step toward metropolitan airs. The little city, as prosperous as a green bay tree, is to have seven electric lights, furnished by E. W. Haines, Forest Grove's light promoter, to take the place of the gasoline lamps. Many private residences will have incandescent lights installed, and—well, the "world do move!" Get there, "little, old hoss," Cornelius! You're all right!

F. E. Waters, representing the Oregon Fire Relief Association, of McMinnville, was in town from Forest Grove, yesterday. He states that his company has a large amount of insurance in Washington county, and that the annual meeting of the stockholders and members took place at McMinnville, Tuesday, Jan. 14.

People who buy their groceries at H. Wehrung & Sons' always feel happy—for their lines are all in every respect. Come and buy once and you'll surely come back. Everything first-class. We keep none other.

John Vanderwahl was in from Greenville the other day, and says that he has his "bunchgrasser" broke to work like an old plow horse. If there is any one thing that John likes better than another, it is to work with some cayuse brought down from the Horse Heaven country.

Buyers who want good stylish suits of fine quality and at low prices, are buying their clothing at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Their four great tailoring houses do the business, and people who are "next" buy at this store.

The big turnip raised by John Loftis, of Glencoe, and which weighed over fifty pounds, and which was shipped to Portland by Mr. F. M. Heidel. It will be on exhibition there for a few days, and then have shipment to the Charleston exposition.

There will be a social dance at the Hillsboro Opera House on the evening of Saturday, January 18. Tickets, 50 cents. Everybody invited.

Geo. W. Kelly, of beyond Glencoe, was in town yesterday, and has improved wonderfully in health. George comes from the neighborhood where they raise the big turnips, and where the ozone is as good as down in Colorado.

Tompkins Bros. report slow work loading their piling at the Southern Pacific station. They can not get cars as fast as they want them, and they have been enjoying(?) enforced idleness through these fine days.

Wanted—A carload of No. 1 potatoes. Will pay the highest market price.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

The Board of Examiners which tried U. S. McHarge, has filed a majority report in the superintendent's office. As the findings do not meet with favor with M. C. Case, his signature is not attached to the instrument.

Loaded shotgun shells; sporting goods, at Schulmerich Bros. Everything at very lowest prices.

Supt. Ball states that there will be a teachers' local institute at Gaston, on Saturday, January 25. The programs will be printed in a few days.

Keep the mud out of your house by buying a steel door mat from Schulmerich Bros.

There will be Mass at 10:30, Sunday morning, January 26, at the Hillsboro Catholic church.

Land Office. I will sell farms and make a specialty of timber lands in large or small tracts. List your farms with me if you want to sell. Established 25 years. Parties wanting homes in one of the best counties in the State, with Portland as a market, will do well to see me. Correspondence solicited.
