PROMINENT NATIVE SON PASSES AWAY.

Melki Johnson, of Forest Grove dies Suddenly.

WAS A VICTIM OF HEART TROUBLE

For Years Had Handled Real Estate at the College City.

Melki Johnson, one of Forest Grove's Native Sons, died at that place Friday, Feb. 14, 1902, the cause of death being appoplexy. Mr. Johnson was born near Forest Grove in 1847, his parents being early pioneers. He has spent all of his life in Washington County with the exception of a year or so at Tacoma and Portland. Deceased was companionable, generous to a fault and had many friends. He was public spirited and did more to have his section advertised to the world than any other single citizen. He had handled real estate at Forest Grove for a great many years and had a fair measure of success in his undertaking. Politically he was a Democrat and always took a great interest in public affairs. He leaves a wife and two brothers, S. T., of Colorado Springs, Col., and Plover, of California.

The funeral took place Sunday and interment was in the Buxton cemetery.

WANT WILL SET ASIDE.

A. W. Smith, of Tigardville, petitions the County County to set aside the last will and testament of M. P. Smith, deceased. The will was admitted to probate some time last year and the estatate has been fully administered. A. W. Smith, Tigardville, and Mrs. Frank Bornette, of Kinton, are the legatees. The estate was worth from seven to eight thousand dollars. The will gave the realty to the wife, who died three days after the will was executed. Under the terms of the will, the land could not be sold nor mortgaged, and this is where the petitioner asks relief. He alleges that the deceased was very anxious about the health of his wife at the time the will was made, and that he did not fully comprehend the terms inserted. He asks that the will be set aside and the realty to descend as though no will had been executed. If the order be made in compliance with the petition, the two children will share exactly as under the terms of the will, but they will be able to convey the property if they wish. The personal property has been administered and divided and the final account filed.

August Borchers, through his guardian, August Krause, asks that the will of Louis Borchers be declared void, and a former instrument decided to be the proper instrument. Under the terms of the last will, the minor petitioner gets but fifty dollars. He asks that a former will, giving him half the property, valued at $8,000, be admitted to probate, the other half to go to the other heirs. The complainant alleges that undue influence was used by Anna Nehrman in getting the parent to make the last will. C. W. Idleman is attorney for the petitioner.

Hillsboro Shipping.

Hillsboro has had an increase in its shipping. Agent Beckwith, of the Southern Pacific, gives the following data, relative to shipments: From June 1, 1900, to June 1, 1901:

Hops, pounds	244,418
Apples, "	29,290
Onions, "	292,580
Potatoes "	296,438

The shipments from June 1, to date, covering a period of less than nine months, with many shipments in sight, the bills of lading were:

Hops, pounds	154,466
Apples "	19,495
Onions "	500,297
Potatoes "	484,915
Cherries "	18,005

Hop shipments fell off owing to shortage of production, and likewise, apples. The big gains were made in onions and potatoes, and of the latter there are yet many carloads to be shipped,

WILL IS SUSTAINED.

Judge Rood Friday last denied the petition to have the will of late Mrs. Fannie Theodosia Neep set aside. The estate in question is worth seven or eight hundred dollars, and John Neep, a son, was the principal beneficiary. The matter may be carried to the Circuit Court.

Hon. Hubert Bernard was down from North Forest Grove yesterday.

A hound belonging to Jos. Connell, of Glencoe, gave chase to a coyote Monday, and ran the animal several miles, finally driving him into the barnyard of the B. P. Cornelius ranch. E. P. Cornelius, who lives on the place, killed the coyote with an ax, it being so tired that it could run no more. Connell's hound was that tired when he reached the yard that he laid down to rest thinking he had done his part. Cornelius' dog then took a round out of the fugitive, but he soon found that it had teeth that were too sharp for any steady old family dog, and retired. The farmers out there are making up a purse for each coyote killed and this one will pay the captor ten or twelve dollars for the trouble. It begins to look as though a double barrelled ax is as bad as a double barrelled shotgun.

C. A. Hanley, who resides north of this city, recently sold his four year old black stallion, out of Oregon formerly owned by S. H. Dunbar and now by W. L. Davis, to a party from The Dalles. The consideration is said to be $400. The horse is a fine one, resembling the sire and weighs over 1800 pounds. Washington County is all right when it comes to fine draft horses.

Mrs. G. W. Gue, wife of the late Dr Gue, and who has resided at Portland for many years, died at the sanitarium in that city, Monday. The people of this city will remember the Gue family as having been very prominent in the circles of Methodism. For many years they made frequent visits to Hillsboro, in the interests of Methodism.

Peter Johnson, who lives in the east part of town, had the misfortune to chop off one of his thumbs last Sunday afternoon while splitting kindling. The ax cut clear through the bone, leaving the member hanging by the veriest bit of a thread of flesh. Dr. Linklater is experimenting with the digit to see whether or not it will grow on again.

Lincoln's birthday was appropriately observed in this city last Friday evening by the General Ransom Post and the Woman's Relief Corps at the Odd Fellows' Hall. The addresses were interspersed with singing and other exercises. The principal speakers were Hon. S. B. Huston, Hon. H. V. Gates and H. T. Bagley.

Perry Abbott, a well known Hillsboro boy, and who has been in the Portland Union Depot baggage rooms for two years, has been promoted and departed Sunday, per steamer, for San Francisco, where he has a better position in the same department at that city. His Hillsboro friends wish him every success.

W. G. Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Green Hale, and W. G. Hare, son of Hon. and Mrs. W. D. Hare, won the first and second Tibbals' prizes respectively, at the contest at the College, Forest Grove, last week. The young men are to be congratulated upon their successes.

Attorney Benton Bowman severely injured one of his eyes while splitting kindling the other morning. When will our citizens learn that to avoid these little injuries it is necessary to let the better half of the family do these little chores?

T. E. Cornelius, who for some years has been employed at the Oregon State penitentiary, was in the city the first of the week. He will leave the position about March 1, and has not yet decided just what business he will engage in.

The Tualatin has been on a "bender" for a few days and the Jackson Bottom south of town has assumed the proportions of a gigantic lake. Many have been enjoying the pleasures of rowing and sailing during the raise.

Elder Arthur Cane, of Amity, was in the city Monday. He begins a series of revival services at Forest Grove this week, Thursday and later on may be heard in the Christian church pulpit in this place.

Here is hoping that the farmers of Washington county will get a free rural mail delivery. This is about the thing; and other counties in the state have it. A petition will get it.

Eight children will receive first communion in the Catholic church at Cedar Mills, next Sunday during the early Mass at 8:30 A. M.

E. L. James, well known here, and a brother to C. W. James, leaves today for McCloud, Cal., where he will work in the logging woods for another season.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sparks, the wife of the prosecuting attorney, of Clark County, Wash., was in the city last week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Eli Poe.

Seven room house in city, barn and out buildings, fruit-bearing trees and small fruit. Cheap for cash. Inquire at Argus office.

Born, at Leisyville, Ore., Feb. 14, 1902, to the wife of D. L. Caton, a son. D. L. is very much pleased with his Valentine.

The physicians report many cases of bad colds and a general state of unhealthiness as a result of the mild weather.

The Washington County socialists have a call for a county convention in another column.

Socialist Call For Mass Convention.

To the Socialists of Washington County, Oregon: Pursuant to the order of the State Organization, a mass convention of the Socialists of Washington County, Oregon, is hereby called to meet at the court house, Hillsboro, on Wednesday, March 5th, 1902 at 1 p. m. for the purpose of nominating a County Ticket.

The State Mass Convention will meet in Portland on March 19th, 1902 at 10 a. m.

H. C. PEARSON, Sec.

Laurel Branch of Socialists Party of Washington County, Ore.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

W. O. Donelson, Main Street, Hillsboro, has laid in the finest patterns of wall paper ever brought to this city. Tear that old and dingy paper from the walls, buy some new patterns and make your house homelike. Finest selection from which to choose. Throw out that old sofa and put in a new one. Put in a few easy chairs and see how nice and comfortable you can have things with but very little expense. Give Donelson your order and you will not regret it.

Seed Early Rose potatoes at Schulmerich Bros.

Born, at Cornelius, Feb. 19, 1902 to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Pizer, a son.

Who has lost a white hog weighing about 150? Inquire of Mr. J. T. Moreland, Hillsboro.

Complete line of flannelettes and outing flannels, at Schulmerich Bros.

For Sale—Two small work horses, $45 cash down.—A. A. Phillips, Cornelius.

Keep the mud out of your house by buying a steel door mat from Schulmerich Bros.

If you want a delicacy for the table order a dressed Belgian hare from C. A. Hoyt, Hillsboro.

H. V. Gates is home for a few days' rest, having recently returned from the Eastern Oregon country.

Preaching at the Christian church on Sunday next, at the usual hour, by Elder Brown. All invited.

J. W. Bailey, state food and dairy commissioner, of Portland, was in the city today in his official capacity.

Miles E. Everitt, of The Delta, and who is taking a vacation at Guinda, Cal., is expected home the first of the month.

Thos. P. Goodin, of Asotin, Wash., and who, with his family, has been visiting for two weeks at Glencoe, returned home the first of the week.

City Marshal Atkinson has collected 17 dog licenses, and killed two canines. He is after owners hot-foot, and says that by next week many more will have paid.

D. W. Dobbins, well known here, is now foreman on the famous Frakes ranch at Scappoose. Mr. Frakes is East picking up some registered dairy stock for breeding purposes.

On Saturday, March 1, at 3 P. M., the prizes at H. Wehrung & Sons' will be given away. In addition to the regular prizes, the handsome sideboard on exhibition at the store, will also be given away, making a total of five prizes.

Land buyers are coming to Washington county every day. People are beginning to appreciate the good of being so close to Portland market. Farm values are much better, as a result, than they have been for years.

Peter Nelson's big team indulged in a little runaway the other evening, resulting in some damage to the harness, but none to the horses. The wagon tongue was broken by the team running into one of the posts supporting the chain at the court yard fence.

Talk about work—but the sheriff's office will have plenty to do as soon as taxes commence to roll in. Where each taxpayer pays before March 15, the office will have to figure off the three per cent rebate from all the various funds: State, county, school, indigent, special school, city and road tax, seven computations. This will require more figuring for the time being than is usual in the collection of taxes for ten years. If the office only had a multiplying machine similar to the adding machine in the Shute bank it might get around to payers in short order. As the matter stands, the crowd around the office is expected to somewhat resemble the rush at an Oklahoma land office when a new strip is open to settlement.

People who have had cold feet during the recent cold snap have not bought their footwear at H. Wehrung & Sons.' Buy your boots and shoes of this reliable house and you will not suffer from cold feet and the cold in the head that is sure to follow poor footwear.

Mr. J. C. Weatherred, of Tacoma, is in the city, the guest of his brother. Mr. Weatherred has been in the banking business at Tacoma for a number of years, until recently. After Mr. Weatherred retired from the presidency of the bank there was litigation, and the case was determined successfully to the defense. Mr. Weatherred has sued the bank for $50,000 damages, for malicious prosecution, and the case is now before the United States Court at Tacoma. The bank has filed a demurrer, and the matter is at present under advisement. The late president of the bank has a similar suit against the bank asking for $100,000 damages, the same complaint prevailing.

The steel trust has advanced the price of plows and harrows just ten per cent. This is no advertising dodge, but cold facts. Schulmerich Brothers looked for this, and took time by the forelock on a year's contract and they are enabled by this to sell plows and harrows at the old time figures.

Assessor Wilcox will start his field deputies at work assessing, the first Monday in March. The assignments are: E. I. Kuratli, the northeast of the county; Jno. Vanderwahl, the northwest; H. B. Tigard, the southeast; A. A. Morrill, the southwest. Mr. Wilcox will assess Hillsboro and vicinity. The field men will have a great deal more to do than is usual in the past, and consequently the assessing will be much more expensive than heretofore. This is occasioned by the statute requiring detailed description of each separate tract of land.

Pope, the photographer, Second Street, at the Hoyt gallery, is turning out some fine work these days. If you want photos with the proper expression, and on popular mounts, give him a call. He will guarantee his work and his prices are right.

Early garden is now being planted by enthusiasts, those indulging taking for their cue that spring is here because the "pussy willers now are white." But it takes more than one pussy willow bloom to make an Oregon spring. It is too wet yet to commence plowing, and farmers are impatiently waiting for enough good weather to dry the lands—and then earth will commence turning.

E. Goodmurphy has fitted up a neat little barber shop parlor in the building next door to the Hotel Hillsboro, where he solicits a share of the public patronage. All razors sterilized, and no danger of poisoning your face. Artistic hair-cutting. Give him a call.

While we have had a great deal of rain the last few weeks, the roads in the country are in fairly good condition for this time of the year—better in many places than they have been at the corresponding period for many years. Portland, although twenty miles away, is but a two hours' drive to the city limits with a good team. There are but a dozen real bad places on the road.

Silver Leaf Camp Modern Woodmen, of Reedville, will give a ball at Willoughby Hall, at that place, on the evening of February 22, and the neighbors promise a splendid time, good music and the best of order. Everybody invited.

A sawmill man from Indiana will soon take up his residence in either Hillsboro or Forest Grove, coming to Oregon for the purpose of going into the lumber business if he shall find a suitable location.

Mrs. C. B. Patterson accompanied by her two children, of Stuart, Idaho, and Miss Margaret Imlay, of Spokane, Washington, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Imlay, at Reedville, Oregon.

There will be a grand ball at M. W. A. hall, Cedar Mill, February 22. Tickets, supper included, $.75. Given by C. Hildebrand and J. King.

Mrs. Louisa Elwell and child are out from Portland for a few days' visit with Mrs. Elwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Tucker

Mrs. A. A. Morrill is reported quite sick at the family home in North Hillsboro.

James H. Sewell made a business trip to Salem last week.

LOCAL TEAM WILL SIGN A NEW PITCHER

Downs Will Not Pitch the Early Part of Season

THREE TOWNS GETTING READY.

Cornelius Soon to Have Grounds Completed.

The managers of the Diamond W baseball team will sign a new pitcher for the first of the season, as Ward Downs does not feel safe in taking on the work in view of the broken arm sustained last fall. Just who will be signed is not yet determined, but the citizens of the town have raised a neat little sum for purpose. Swope will catch and there are but two or three positions now unfilled. When the boys get together we will have as strong a team, if not stronger than any yet pulled together in Washington County.

Cornelius is going to work on the grounds just as soon as the weather settles, and as that little city has some crack-a-jack players, the town will be heard from this year. Forest Grove calculates to pick up a team to go against all comers and the sphere will get hard knocks all round.

The West Side League is fast approaching formation and the season will be long enough and swift enough for those who like to see good ball. Ora Cook, as umpire, should be in good demand—and "he's all right."

J. J. SHEVLIN,
Beaverton, Or.

Come and list your property with us. We can sell it for you. Office in old hotel building, next door to Johnson's brick. M. L. Noble, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Hillsboro's business men should get together and seriously consider the proposition of having a public meeting called for the purpose of organizing a Board of Trade, as the proper and business head of the city. Other towns of lesser population, in the state, and with fifty per cent less natural advantages, are getting outside capital interested in manufacturing. A Board of Trade would do much to effect a business spirit where mutual interests would be heard with profit. By all means let us have some kind of an organization whereby we can as a community, talk to prospective capital, looking for a place to enter the competitive field.

Are you aware of the fact that H. Wehrung & Sons' are giving a ticket with each $1.00 cash purchase which entitles you to a drawing on the following prizes: First prize, 3-piece bedroom set; second prize, center table; third prize, antique oak rocker; pair white wool blankets.

The Board of Trustees of the Hillsboro Commercial Club has appointed a committee of nine members to be known as a committee to "Promote the Public Interests," otherwise designated as a Board of Trade and to act with and co-operate with the Club. The members are: W. H. Wehrung, Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, L. A. Rood, J. A. Imbrie, Dr. S. T. Linklater, L. A. Long, F. M. Heidel, C. E. Beckwith and W. V. Wiley. These appointees may act in conformity with articles appearing elsewhere in this issue touching upon a Board of Trade.

Did you say groceries? H. Wehrung & Sons is the place to get prime articles in this line. Our stock is always fresh; always up to date, and we never keep adulterated lines. Come and see us.

Isn't it about time that Hillsboro's business men were beginning to think about a genuine county Fourth of July celebration this year? For several years Hillsboro has given away to other towns, and it is about time that it was passed around. There should be an effort to have the Veteran Association meet here, and then that meeting should be wound up with a rousing celebration—and Hillsboro can always give a rouser, when it half tries. The newspapers are ready to do their part. "Come on-Boys!"

To get through the world is not such an easy matter—unless you're getting your shoes at Dennis'. Do this and you can walk though any old difficulty! Highest quality—Lowest prices!

Goodmurphy, the Second street barber, has a guessing contest on his hands which is certainly instructive, as well as amusing, if nothing more than to see opinions as to the number of beans contained in a jar which stands in the window. The guesses range from 28,000 down to 1,200, and each man who spends 25 cents is entitled to a guess. The one nearest right will be rewarded with a premium.

Go to Pope, the photographer, on Second street, the Hoyt gallery, for up-to-date and handsome pictures. All work guaranteed. Our work speaks for itself.

The Forest Grove Times, in an article signed by the marshal, says that hereafter nothing but milk cows will be permitted to run on the streets in the evenings. There must be some new kind of curfew ordinance in the college city that Dr. Large has failed to report to the Oregonian.

Hard Times Masquerade ball at the Hillsboro Opera House, February 22, 1902. Finest floor in the county. Fine music. Everybody invited. Tickets, 50 cents. Don't forget the date.

A resident of Greenville was in town the other day, and says that spring is heralding her approach by the blooming of flowers along the roadside. All indications point to an early spring—but you must remember that all signs fail in Oregon.

The Commercial Club now has a horizontal bar in the "gym" room and some of the boys are taking falls out of it. There is a good sized mat stuffed with straw underneath and this takes out of the way the danger of cracking one's neck.

Benj. Anderson has sold his residence property on First and Lincoln streets, to Sylvester Bond, late of Seattle. The consideration is said to be $900. Mr. Anderson is now residing on his farm southeast of town.

Schulmerich Brothers shipped a thousand sacks of potatoes this week, to California. Washington County is sending some fine spuds to that Market.

Mrs. John Marshal, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Augusta, is out from Portland this week, visiting with her niece, Mrs. C. E. Beckwith.

Ladies, go to H. Wehrung & Sons' to get your dress goods, flannelettes, outing flannels, underwear, blankets, etc. Finest line in Washington county.

E. J. Lyons and G. A. Wehrung were Portland visitors Tuesday and Wednesday.
