

REGISTRATION IS BUT LITTLE BEHIND

Some Ninety Votes Behind That of Two Years Ago.

SOUTH FOREST GROVE LEADS. South Hillsboro is but One Vote Under South Forest Grove.

Ex-County Clerk J. A. Imbrie, who has had charge of the registration books, gives the following as the registries from each precinct, the list being correct with the exception, he says, of perhaps twenty cancellations.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Number of Votes. Includes Beaverdam (168), Beaverton (159), Buxton (101), Cornelius (231), Columbia (140), Dairy (216), Dilley (89), East Butte (149), East Cedar (121), Gales Creek (138), Gaston (167), Mountain (30), North Hillsboro (200), North Forest Grove (227), Reedville (143), South Hillsboro (245), South Forest Grove (246), South Tualatin (139), Washington (176), West Butte (135), West Cedar (162).

This makes a total of 3,382 as against 3,453 two years ago.

AMATEUR LEAGUE GAME.

The Upchurch Nine and the Diamond W's will play at the ball grounds next Sunday, May 25, and there will be warm ball from the time game is called until the finish. Hillsboro is still in the ring and not as badly disfigured as they might be.

On Friday, May 30, Decoration Day, the Monograms will come out and play the local team. The Monograms is one of the best amateur teams in the state, and they should receive a good attendance.

MRS. PHELPS.

The wife of Rev. G. H. Phelps, of the Evangelical church, died at the family residence in this city, Saturday, May 17, 1902. The funeral took place Sunday, Rev. Greenlee officiating.

MRS. WM. WILSON.

Mrs. William Wilson, formerly of Glencoe, this county, died at near Carlton, Yamhill county, the first of the week, aged 75 years, 8 months and 7 days.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to thank the many friends who have tendered aid and sympathy in the hour of bereavement, the illness and death of his beloved wife.

Rev. G. H. Phelps. Hillsboro, Ore., May 22, 1902.

FOR SALE.

Eight head of good horses, broke to harness, all true, and weighing from 1,100 to 1,300. Will sell at private sale American horses. Range from 5 to 8 years. Will sell for cash, or cash time.

E. E. Morgan. At Sappington & Redmond Livery Barn, Hillsboro, Ore.

Estray Notice.

The undersigned has on his place three miles north of Hillsboro, a red heifer, white spots, two-year-old. The owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. Came to my place last autumn.

E. F. McNelly. Wall paper and carpets, at McCormick's furniture store, three doors south of post office.

The cheapest insurance, and safe as the safest. O. F. R. Association, -F. E. Waters, Forest Grove, Ore.

The potato market has taken a tumble the last few days, and we are no longer commanding the high prices of a few weeks ago.

We have a nice, new line of Ladies' under vests, hose, muslin drawers and neckwear. Call at the Racket Store.

Messrs Graydon & Son, of Portland, and representative of eastern capital, were in the city the first of the week, looking over the route for the proposed motor line between this city and the Oregon metropolis.

Lincoln Lodge, No. 162, I. O. O. F., was instituted at Scholls last Saturday, with 34 charter members. The newly elected officers are: F. S. Olsen, N. G.; D. B. Emerick, V. G.; E. Winstrom, Sec.; George Turpin, Treas.

Mrs. F. J. Raley, who has charge of the Vocal department in Pacific University, has been fortunate in securing for the Commencement Concert, four of Portland's best singers—Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mr. Dom Zan and Mr. Belcher—these singers will give "The Daisy Chain," a most delightful song cycle.

Here is good news for travelers. Harriman, the head of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, was in Portland the other day, and he is quoted in the Oregonian and other papers as stating that the passenger fares for the Southern Pacific and all their lines in Oregon will soon be dropped to three cents per mile instead of four cents per mile as charged at present.

For the fourth time, one Eldred has been taken to the asylum at Salem, Sheriff Sewell delivering him there Monday of this week. Eldred is a confirmed toper and every time he gets on a drunk he assumes an epileptic insanity.

Next Tuesday evening the Brood aggregation will appear in the Congregational church. It consists of Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Brood, of Kansas, who are spending a month in Oregon, and Supt. C. F. Clapp, of Forest Grove.

The Cedar Mill Dramatic Club, at the opera house last Saturday night, was greeted by a crowded house, and everybody had an enjoyable time.

Wm Colvig, a platform orator of no mean ability, talked to a comfortable audience in the court house last Saturday evening.

When farmers are in need of agricultural implements they should see Schulmerich Bros' stock. They are factory agents for Osborne and Deering harvesting machines, Rock Island plows and harrows, and Tiger drills.

"The latest spring within many years is the universal remark of old timers, who begin to want a few days steady of sunshine without cold or rain.

Ten cars of oats were shipped out of the Hillsboro station this week, consigned to Alters & Schneider, of Portland.

The Misses Koch and Milne and Rev. H. A. Rieger were in attendance at the State Sunday School Convention, last week, at Portland.

Samples of spring and summer suits have arrived. Fine selections. Come in and get your measure.

You can save money on anything you want at The Racket Store.

Garden seeds, in bulk, at Dennis'.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

Of Washington County's Sunday Schools to Meet

ON THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1902. Will Meet at the Scotch Church, Tualatin Plains.

The Thirteenth Annual Convention of the Sunday Schools of Washington county will meet at the Scotch church on Tualatin Plains, north of Hillsboro, on Thursday, June 5, 1902.

Home millinery, ladies' misses' and children's hats, at bargain prices. First house east of M E patronage. Joseph Rector, superintendent of the McMinnville water and light system, Sundayed with old friends in this city.

Baker & Hamilton, Day and Occident wheels, at W. O. Donelson's, Odd Fellows Building, Main street, Hillsboro.

O. R. Downs, of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday, as was also Geo. Kirkwood, one of our old timers.

H. Everitt, who spent the winter in Roseburg, returned to this city Monday evening and will reside here permanently.

A. C. Carstens, of Greenville, was in town the first of the week, making out a conveyance of his ranch, which he recently sold.

The drawing of the "bikes" at Wehrung & Sons, will take place Saturday, May 24. Be on hand and get your prize—if you are lucky.

Stop talking politics long enough to go to Dennis' and order a prime lot of the best groceries—the best and most staple line ever sold in Hillsboro.

R. H. Greer and W. O. Donelson were selected to represent Montezuma Lodge at the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge, which convenes at Newport this week.

John V. Hale, engineer for the Southern Pacific, now running out of Portland on a helper, will soon get a transfer to Roseburg, where he will get a regular run.

Summer shoes at Dennis', and best styles and cheapest prices for the quality. Don't punish your feet any longer. Our shoes sell themselves. Finest stock in town.

Our old time Hillsborite, Mark Butler, for some time a resident of Elgin, is now located at Sumpter. He is working as lineman for a telephone company. Here's good luck to you, "old man!"

The county recorder's office, on Monday of this week received $41.95 as fees—the largest receipts of a single day since Recorder Wauw's incumbency. This is pretty good business!

F. R. Dailey sells Rambler and Ideal bicycles, $25, $30, $35, $40 and $50, 1902 models; bicycle sundries. First-class repairing. First door east of Wehrung's, Main street, Hillsboro.

Quite a number of our young people took advantage of the excursion to Salem last Sunday, leaving here early in the morning, and returning at nine in the evening. That is to say, some of them returned!

Wash silks, in endless varieties and patterns, for ladies' shirt-waists, at 50 cents per yard, at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Full line of percales, 10, 12 1/2 and 15 cents per yard; Toile du Nord gingham, at 12 1/2 cents, and A. F. C. gingham, at 10 cents.

Attorney W. D. Smith, who has practiced law here for several years, departed Monday morning for Sumpter, where he intends practicing his profession. The Argus hopes that he will succeed in the new mining city of Eastern Oregon, and its best wishes go with him.

Owing to a death in the immediate vicinity of the ball grounds, the game between the Monograms and the Diamond W nine was postponed last Sunday. The game might have been a close one, as the Monograms would not have had Fleming in the box, Helena having signed him for professional work.

Roy L. Hollenbeck, the 15-year old son of the Mountaineer saw-mill man, W. F. Hollenbeck, while driving a logging team a week ago Monday, was caught by a swinging log, the result being a broken leg. The team started suddenly and before the driver could get out of the way, the leg was caught between two logs and the fracture resulted.

Ralph L. Wann, nominee on the union ticket for recorder, is an ideal candidate for the office. He has performed the duties of his office with ability and promptness. There has been a great deal of work in his office under the new law, but he has met all emergencies with a conscientious regard for the public service. Vote for him.

J. Q. Johnson was in from Meacham the other day.

Detective H. P. Ford was out and spent Sunday at his old home. Buy your couches from McCormick. He has them from $6 up.

Geo. Kostur was down from his Buxton homestead the last of the week.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Hillsboro again, June 2, 3 and 4. Have him test your eyes.

Miss Benemma Wiley, of Portland, was the guest of her brother, W. V., last Sunday.

One span of young mules for sale. Inquire of W. H. McCormick, 3 miles south of Laurel, Or.

Sol. Blumauer, one of the "big boys" of the Native Sons of Oregon, was in the city Monday, greeting friends.

Home millinery, ladies' misses' and children's hats, at bargain prices. First house east of M E patronage.

Joseph Rector, superintendent of the McMinnville water and light system, Sundayed with old friends in this city.

Expert bicycle repairing done at McCormick's bicycle store. Agency for Imperial, Cleveland and Tribune wheels.

E. W. Haines, of the Forest Grove bank, was in the city Tuesday, combining business with calls on his friends.

Baker & Hamilton, Day and Occident wheels, at W. O. Donelson's, Odd Fellows Building, Main street, Hillsboro.

O. R. Downs, of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday, as was also Geo. Kirkwood, one of our old timers.

H. Everitt, who spent the winter in Roseburg, returned to this city Monday evening and will reside here permanently.

A. C. Carstens, of Greenville, was in town the first of the week, making out a conveyance of his ranch, which he recently sold.

The drawing of the "bikes" at Wehrung & Sons, will take place Saturday, May 24. Be on hand and get your prize—if you are lucky.

Stop talking politics long enough to go to Dennis' and order a prime lot of the best groceries—the best and most staple line ever sold in Hillsboro.

R. H. Greer and W. O. Donelson were selected to represent Montezuma Lodge at the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge, which convenes at Newport this week.

John V. Hale, engineer for the Southern Pacific, now running out of Portland on a helper, will soon get a transfer to Roseburg, where he will get a regular run.

Summer shoes at Dennis', and best styles and cheapest prices for the quality. Don't punish your feet any longer. Our shoes sell themselves. Finest stock in town.

Our old time Hillsborite, Mark Butler, for some time a resident of Elgin, is now located at Sumpter. He is working as lineman for a telephone company. Here's good luck to you, "old man!"

The county recorder's office, on Monday of this week received $41.95 as fees—the largest receipts of a single day since Recorder Wauw's incumbency. This is pretty good business!

F. R. Dailey sells Rambler and Ideal bicycles, $25, $30, $35, $40 and $50, 1902 models; bicycle sundries. First-class repairing. First door east of Wehrung's, Main street, Hillsboro.

Quite a number of our young people took advantage of the excursion to Salem last Sunday, leaving here early in the morning, and returning at nine in the evening. That is to say, some of them returned!

Wash silks, in endless varieties and patterns, for ladies' shirt-waists, at 50 cents per yard, at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Full line of percales, 10, 12 1/2 and 15 cents per yard; Toile du Nord gingham, at 12 1/2 cents, and A. F. C. gingham, at 10 cents.

Attorney W. D. Smith, who has practiced law here for several years, departed Monday morning for Sumpter, where he intends practicing his profession. The Argus hopes that he will succeed in the new mining city of Eastern Oregon, and its best wishes go with him.

Owing to a death in the immediate vicinity of the ball grounds, the game between the Monograms and the Diamond W nine was postponed last Sunday. The game might have been a close one, as the Monograms would not have had Fleming in the box, Helena having signed him for professional work.

Roy L. Hollenbeck, the 15-year old son of the Mountaineer saw-mill man, W. F. Hollenbeck, while driving a logging team a week ago Monday, was caught by a swinging log, the result being a broken leg. The team started suddenly and before the driver could get out of the way, the leg was caught between two logs and the fracture resulted.

Ralph L. Wann, nominee on the union ticket for recorder, is an ideal candidate for the office. He has performed the duties of his office with ability and promptness. There has been a great deal of work in his office under the new law, but he has met all emergencies with a conscientious regard for the public service. Vote for him.

HILLSBORO DECIDES TO CELEBRATE

Several Hundred Dollars Have Been Subscribed.

COMMITTEE PROMISES GREAT TIME.

Will Meet Again on the Evening of Saturday, May 24, to Outline Work.

Hillsboro has decided to have a Fourth of July celebration, and the committee on subscriptions report excellent encouragement, several hundred dollars already having been raised.

Sol. Blumauer, one of the "big boys" of the Native Sons of Oregon, was in the city Monday, greeting friends.

Home millinery, ladies' misses' and children's hats, at bargain prices. First house east of M E patronage.

Joseph Rector, superintendent of the McMinnville water and light system, Sundayed with old friends in this city.

Expert bicycle repairing done at McCormick's bicycle store. Agency for Imperial, Cleveland and Tribune wheels.

E. W. Haines, of the Forest Grove bank, was in the city Tuesday, combining business with calls on his friends.

Baker & Hamilton, Day and Occident wheels, at W. O. Donelson's, Odd Fellows Building, Main street, Hillsboro.

O. R. Downs, of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday, as was also Geo. Kirkwood, one of our old timers.

H. Everitt, who spent the winter in Roseburg, returned to this city Monday evening and will reside here permanently.

A. C. Carstens, of Greenville, was in town the first of the week, making out a conveyance of his ranch, which he recently sold.

The drawing of the "bikes" at Wehrung & Sons, will take place Saturday, May 24. Be on hand and get your prize—if you are lucky.

Stop talking politics long enough to go to Dennis' and order a prime lot of the best groceries—the best and most staple line ever sold in Hillsboro.

R. H. Greer and W. O. Donelson were selected to represent Montezuma Lodge at the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge, which convenes at Newport this week.

John V. Hale, engineer for the Southern Pacific, now running out of Portland on a helper, will soon get a transfer to Roseburg, where he will get a regular run.

Summer shoes at Dennis', and best styles and cheapest prices for the quality. Don't punish your feet any longer. Our shoes sell themselves. Finest stock in town.

Our old time Hillsborite, Mark Butler, for some time a resident of Elgin, is now located at Sumpter. He is working as lineman for a telephone company. Here's good luck to you, "old man!"

The county recorder's office, on Monday of this week received $41.95 as fees—the largest receipts of a single day since Recorder Wauw's incumbency. This is pretty good business!

F. R. Dailey sells Rambler and Ideal bicycles, $25, $30, $35, $40 and $50, 1902 models; bicycle sundries. First-class repairing. First door east of Wehrung's, Main street, Hillsboro.

Quite a number of our young people took advantage of the excursion to Salem last Sunday, leaving here early in the morning, and returning at nine in the evening. That is to say, some of them returned!

Wash silks, in endless varieties and patterns, for ladies' shirt-waists, at 50 cents per yard, at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Full line of percales, 10, 12 1/2 and 15 cents per yard; Toile du Nord gingham, at 12 1/2 cents, and A. F. C. gingham, at 10 cents.

Attorney W. D. Smith, who has practiced law here for several years, departed Monday morning for Sumpter, where he intends practicing his profession. The Argus hopes that he will succeed in the new mining city of Eastern Oregon, and its best wishes go with him.

Owing to a death in the immediate vicinity of the ball grounds, the game between the Monograms and the Diamond W nine was postponed last Sunday. The game might have been a close one, as the Monograms would not have had Fleming in the box, Helena having signed him for professional work.

Roy L. Hollenbeck, the 15-year old son of the Mountaineer saw-mill man, W. F. Hollenbeck, while driving a logging team a week ago Monday, was caught by a swinging log, the result being a broken leg. The team started suddenly and before the driver could get out of the way, the leg was caught between two logs and the fracture resulted.

Ralph L. Wann, nominee on the union ticket for recorder, is an ideal candidate for the office. He has performed the duties of his office with ability and promptness. There has been a great deal of work in his office under the new law, but he has met all emergencies with a conscientious regard for the public service. Vote for him.

Beginning next Sunday, the "Men's Club" will have charge of the evening services in the Congregational church. Hereafter, the sermon will be shorter—15 to 20 minutes—and more will be instrumental, responsive readings and the like, a printed program for everybody, as well as the warmest welcome socially after the meetings. In short, it will be an "everybody's meeting."

A ladies' quartette, and baritone solo by A. C. Shute will be the musical features Sunday evening. H. A. Rieger will speak on different stories of the bible, such as "Was There a Flood," "The Passage of the Red Sea," "The Quail in the Wilderness Wandering," "Did Joshua Cause the Sun to Stand Still?" "Does Scripture Chronology Clash With that of Science and History."

We buy and sell groceries that are not excelled anywhere. Fresh and staple lines always on shelves. Buy from us once and you buy from us always. Highest market price paid for produce. H. Wehrung & Sons.

The Prohibition Alliance will hold its next monthly meeting at the Court House, on Friday, May 23. The program will consist of a joint debate between Mark Bump, a rising young Hillsboro lawyer, and Mr. H. K. Baker, of Portland.

The subject to be discussed is "Why I am a Prohibitionist," and "Why I am not." The discussion will cover two hours. The night following, May 24th, Mr. Baker will lecture at the same place on prohibition; and on Sunday, May 25, he will fill the Evangelical pulpit, morning and evening.

Both men are bright fellows; come and hear them. Alliance members come prepared to pay dues. There will also be an election of Alliance officers.

The Diamond-Ws are after that pennant and Diamond W stock always leads that is why John Dennis has such a phenomenal trade. He keeps the Diamond-W brand, and that is the "best ever."

The thirtieth annual reunion of the Oregon pioneers will take place in Portland, Wednesday, June 18, 1902. This association gives membership to all who were in the Oregon territory prior to Feb. 14, 1859, without regard to where they now live.

The pioneer headquarters will be at 246 Washington street—remember the place—and pioneers' badges can be secured from the secretary, Geo. H. Himes. The Native Sons and Daughters will have a place on the program. Hon. Thos. A. McBride, our well known circuit judge, will deliver the annual address. Mr. McBride is a forceful speaker, and has an abundance of pioneer experience. The railways have granted a one and one-third fare for the round trip, and many pioneers from this county will attend.

The Odd Fellows are holding their Grand Lodge for the state of Oregon, at Newport, Yaquina Bay, this week. The Washington county representatives are: Washington Lodge, Forest Grove, S. A. Walker and F. G. Waggener; Tigardville Lodge, H. B. Tigard and J. C. Smock; Gaston Lodge, H. L. Russell and John Briggs; Hillsboro Lodge, R. H. Greer and W. O. Donelson. F. S. Olsen writes that the representatives are having a good time over on the coast.

"Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party" held forth to a good house at the Opera House last evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Cong church. Messdames Donelson, Humphreys, Wilcox, Thorne, Redmond, House, the Misses Grace Bowcor, Rose Wilcox, Josie Schulmerich, Lucy Humphreys, Minnie Osmond, Eva Weathered and Messrs. W. E. Thorne, B. W. Barnes, J. B. Wilkes and H. T. Bagley were the participants in the Society.

See those handsome up-to-date sofas at Donelson's. Cheap, and yet, the best. Splendid line of furniture. Call in and see his lines. Main street, Odd Fellows' Block, Hillsboro.

G. D. Campbell, the old veteran, has again taken up his residence in this city.

Mrs. D. R. Wheeler, of Reedville, sustained a severe fall last week, and is under the care of a physician.

Mrs. R. H. Greer has gone to North Yakima in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father.

A new stock of hammocks just arrived. Prices range from $1.00 to $3.50. Call and see them. E. L. McCormick, three doors south of postoffice.

Mrs. Benj. Birdsall visited here last week with her daughters. She and her son, Leavitt, leave next week for Denver, Idaho, where Mr. Birdsall is located.

The Glencoe cheese factory is paying, for last month, 10 cents per cwt. more for milk than the Farmington creamery, and the Company is now arranging to start a factory at Mountaineer.

Is your horse doing well? Perhaps his teeth need levelling. A horse can't eat unless his teeth are in condition. Have your horse's teeth smoothed up, and have the prongs and growths taken away. Charges reasonable.—J. A. Cummings, Hillsboro, Or.

Where We Are

A. C. ARCHBOLD

Has removed his Hardware Store to Second Street, Hillsboro, opposite the Court House Stand. He carries Tinware, Graniteware, Hardware, Woodware, Tinsmithing, Sheetiron, Copper Pipe and Plumbers' Materials, Camp Stoves, Air-tight Stoves, Trunks, Hollow Ware, and Kitchen Furnishing Goods. We buy to sell. Call and be convinced. Most complete Stock in the city.

A. C. ARCHBOLD, Hillsboro, - Oregon.

PROFESSIONAL.

M. PETERSON & SON

Residence Painters, Kalsomining and Papering, Sign Work. All work Guaranteed.

HILLSBORO, - OREGON.

F. A. BAILEY, M. D.

Physician, and Surgeon. Office Morgan-Bailey block up stairs. Rooms 12-13 and 15. Residence southwest corner Baseline and 2nd street. Both 'Phones.

S. T. L. NKLATER, M. B. C. M.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office at Residence East of Court House

JAMES PHILLIPS TAMESIE, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Surgeon Southern Pacific Railroad Co. Consultation in French or English. Office and Residence south side of Main, near Odd Fellows' Building, Hillsboro.

GEO. R. BAGLEY

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Rooms 1 and 2 Shute Building. HILLSBORO, - OREGON.

H. T. BAGLEY,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office in Corwin-Woster Block, Main St. Hillsboro, - Oregon.

THOS. H. & E. B. TONGUE,

Attorneys-At-Law. Rooms 3, 4, & 5, Morgan Bldg., Hillsboro.

JOHN M. WALL,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office Upstairs, Bailey Morgan Block. Rooms, 12 and 2. HILLSBORO, - OREGON.

BENTON BOWMAN,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Notarial Work and Conveyancing. Rooms 6 & 7 Morgan Bldg., Hillsboro, Ore.

W. N. BARRETT,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. (Successor to Barrett & Adams.) Office, Up Stairs, Central Block. HILLSBORO - OREGON.

F. M. HEIDEL

W. J. WALL

HEIDEL & WALL. Largest list of farms for sale in Washington County. Money to loan. Conveyancing, etc. We will sell your farms for you. Hillsboro - Oregon

DR. J. E. ADKINS,

Fifteen years Experience in Hillsboro.

DENTIST

Firstclass Services. Charges Reasonable. Office, Union Block, over Schulmerich Bros' Store.

HILLSBORO, - OREGON.

DR. C. E. BROWN,

DENTIST

516 Dekum Building, Portland, Oregon. Makes frequent visits to Hillsboro. Announcements of time published.

Hillsboro Foundry.

And Machine Shops. Boilers and engines, repaired and rebuilt and farm and sawmill machinery repaired. Only foundry in Washington county. Keep on hand a full supply of Valvoline Oils, for engine and mill machinery; Magnet machinery oils; Farm machinery oils; full stock of rabbit metal, 15 to 25 cents per pound.