A PYTHIAN MEETING.

The 2nd annual K P meeting, the West Side met at McMinnville last night, and the meeting was the greatest of its kind ever held in the counties west of the Willamette river. Over sixty knights attended from Washington county, and the affair was carried through with a dash and enthusiasm that speaks well for John M. Wall, the District Deputy, who had the convention in charge. When the knights stepped off the train at McMinnville, they were received by Diana Lodge, with a welcome that warmed the cockles of the hearts of all the visitors. The McMinnville band led the parade of the 100 knights in line, and half of whom were in uniforms.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Wall at about 9 o'clock, and the competitive work of the three teams from the three lodges, Diana, McMinnville; Delphos, Forest Grove, and Phoenix, of Hillsboro, occupied nearly four hours. The prize was given to Delphos Lodge, and their magnificent work earned them the decision. After the work, the visiting knights were seated to a splendid banquet, and speech-making followed until daylight appeared. All the visiting knights from this county are lavish in their praise of the manner in which McMinnville dispensed the honors of host. The McMinnville knights are a fine body of men, drawn from the influential citizens of the town, and they can have Washington county, all except the boundary lines, whenever they put in an appearance. The next district convention will be held in this city, about a year hence, unless there is a unanimous call for a meeting this fall.

See those handsome up-to-date sofas at Donelson's. Cheap, and yet the best. Splendid line of furniture. Call in and see his lines. Main street, Odd Fellows' Block, Hillsboro.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Glencoe, will give an ice cream social at the church, Tuesday evening, June evening, June 24, 1902. All are cordially invited.

Your wife will tell you that Dennis always keeps the finest and latest styles in ladies' footwear. And the children are not forgotten, either.

ATTENTION FARMERS.

The undersigned, having charge of the county exhibit for the State Fair this Fall, now ask for samples of all fruits in season. Bring in your samples of best gooseberries, raspberries and strawberries and we will pay highest market price for same. Give us your aid and Washington county will surprise the world. Heidel & Wall.

Entertainment.

A grand musical and dramatical entertainment, with graduating honors, will be held at the Sisters of Mercy school, Cedar Mill, Thursday evening, June 26. Admission, 25 cents; children, 10 cents. The program will commence at 8:00 o'clock.

When you want good groceries go to Greer's.

J. H. Dorland, of Glencoe; John Grabel, Hillsboro; John Stillbich, and Mr. Haines, assistant cashier of the Haines bank, Forest Grove, have returned from representing the Woodmen of the World lodges of their respective towns, at the State Grand Lodge, held at Woodburn, this week. Mr. Haines was elected to meet with the Supreme body to convene at Gripple Creek, in August. John Ironside and Chas. Kennedy, of Cedar Mill, represented Vine Maple Camp. The Wapato Camp also had representation, but the names of the delegates The Argus could not learn. The boys report having had a splendid time. McMinnville will have the next convention two years hence—and the representatives will be treated right, as the boys are princes of the first magnitude.

We might write an attractive advertisement and you would pay it no particular attention, and forget it as soon as you lay the paper aside—hence, we simply invite you to call at our store and see for yourself that we give good value in everything we sell, and that, at reasonable prices. The Racket Store, opposite Tualatin Hotel.

Henry Huntman Jr., who resides with his parents about one and one-half miles west of the city, met with an accident Monday which resulted in a badly mangled foot, breaking one of the larger bones in the right extremity. He was riding a wagon when the wheel came off the axle and the heavy end came down, doing the damage. Dr. Bailey was called to dress the wounded member, and it will be several weeks before the injured foot will be serviceable.

When farmers are in need of agricultural implements they should see Schulmerich Bros.' stock. They are factory agents for Osborne and Deering harvesting machines, Rock Island plows and harrows, and Tiger drills. Also carry a full line of buggies, wagons and general hardware.

The Native Sons of Oregon, in Grand Cabin, elected Hon. W. N. Barrett, of this city, Grand First Vice President; James Sewell and W. V. Wiley, Grand Trustees. The Native Daughters elected Mrs. Mary Gault Humphreys, of Hillsboro, Secretary, and Mrs. Belle Walker, Forest Grove, Historian. Washington county feels honored by these selections.

We buy and sell groceries that do not excel anywhere. Fresh and staple lines always on shelves. Buy from us once and you buy from us always. Highest market prices paid for produce. H. Wehrung & Sons.

John McGurran and Jonas Cook, of Cavalier and Backoo, North Dakota, were at Kinton, last week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. McDonald, whom they knew in the prairie state, years ago. They think Oregon is a great state, and have visited the west with the view of locating.

The convicts who broke away from the penitentiary would have been caught had they reached Hillsboro, for they would certainly have "held up" Dennis' store, where they would have found the finest line of groceries.

The uniforms have arrived for the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and the boys are getting into line for drill. There are 24 members of the new rank. U. S. tactics are followed implicitly.

Wash silks, in endless varieties and patterns, for ladies' shirtwaists, at 50 cents per yard, at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Full line of percales, 10, 12 1/2 and 15 cents per yard; Toile du Nord gingham, at 12 1/2 cents, and A. F. C. gingham, at 10 cents.

Special music by the male quartet, and instrumental as well, will be given Sunday evening, at the Congregational church. The Sunday morning sermon will be "Israel's Red Sea and Ours."

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Glencoe, will give an ice cream social at the church, Tuesday evening, June evening, June 24, 1902. All are cordially invited.

Your wife will tell you that Dennis always keeps the finest and latest styles in ladies' footwear. And the children are not forgotten, either.

It is possible that a series of 3 or 4 games may be arranged between the Diamond W and Cornelius nines, and probably a match game on the Fourth.

The best is the cheapest. Greer keeps the best and cheapest groceries, crockery, lamps and glassware in Washington county.

LOOKS LIKE HILLSBORO GETS THE MOTOR

Committee of Portland Council Reports Favorable.

AND FRANCHISE MAY BE GRANTED

Hillsboro People did Excellent Work Before the Council.

Hillsboro people for some time have been laboring with the Portland city council, and the street committee has at last made a favorable report. It now looks as though the franchise will be granted, and a motor line between this city and the metropolis is an assured fact. The council will soon take action, and it is thought that a majority of that body is favorable and will vote to grant a 25 year franchise, asking one per cent of the gross earnings for a stipulated period, and then one and one-half per cent for the remaining time of the grant. There is plenty of money behind the promoters, and it should be but a question of time until the road is built. This is one of the matters taken up by the Hillsboro Board of Trade, and exemplifies what an organized body of determined men can do when they once start for results. It will be remembered that many laughed at the idea of this city organizing a Board of Trade, saying, "It will soon fizzle out!" But it has not fizzled, and should the present schemes fall through, there will be more and more determined efforts to aid the upbuilding of the county and city which is our home. The Oregonian has done some excellent editorial work relative to the proposed franchise, and its efforts are appreciated. Portland will be greatly benefited by the line, and that it will be of incalculable benefit for this section it is nonsense to dispute. Washington county will give the company a free right-of-way wherever the road can be built along the highway, and the board of commissioners will do all in their power to take a broad gauge view of the situation tending towards development.

Since the above has been put in print, the city council, yesterday, voted, eight to one, to grant the franchise. Much of this favorable sentiment was caused by the earnest action of the Hillsboro Board of Trade. That the road will now be built is assured, and that it will be of vast benefit to this section, every one believes who has watched results of such lines, particularly, leading into productive sections, such as we have a strong pull, and a pull all together, did the work, and if the cars are not running within a year, The Argus will feel that there is something wrong somewhere. Strictly speaking, "We are in it."

Shoes and hosiery at Dennis'—best and cheapest. Also fine line of suspenders.

Books, books, books—You, perhaps, did not know it, but the Racket Store fellow has some few books, and if you read just call and see what he has.

Emil Kuratli, recorder elect, was in the city Tuesday, looking for a residence. Mr. Kuratli will take charge of his office early in July. Willis Ireland, of Greenville, will be his deputy. The deputies in the other offices will remain as they are for the present.

The election is over—but you must still feed the voter. Treat him right by buying your groceries at Dennis', where you get the finest.

Physicians report that measles are prevalent in certain sections of the county, there being some fifteen or twenty cases in the Centerville neighborhood. None, however, have proven fatal.

The State Y. P. S. C. E. Convention, which convenes tomorrow at Ashland, will be taken in by Miss Josie Schulmerich, who represents the Washington County Union, and by Mrs. O. B. Gates, who, with her husband, already there, will represent the Congregational Endeavor.

Careful examinations by good authorities all over the county state that while there is some evidence of Hessian fly working in the wheat, the damage from that pest will not be as great as anticipated. This is certainly good news. Now if we can keep free from the worm which did so much damage a while back, the county crop will come up to the standard.

At the school election in this city Monday, R. B. Collins was elected director, succeeding himself, and Peter Boscoe was again elected clerk for the ensuing year. At Forest Grove, N. O. Johnson and Harry Haines were elected directors, and W. S. Hudson, clerk. The Forest Grove school board has hired the following teachers for the ensuing year: Principal, Ward B. Swope, assistants, Miss Ora Beal, Mrs. Josephine Case, Miss Mary Clark, Miss Lillie M. Porter, all re-elected, and Mrs. Elva S. Baker.

Arthur Bogart, who has been express messenger on the West Side, running through this city, for several years, was accidentally killed while switching at Sheridan, Tuesday evening, after Cline's train had pulled into the terminal. No one saw Bogart when he was struck. Conductor Cline first noticed him prostrate by the side of the track. Life was extinct when he was picked up. Bogart was yet a young man, and but a few months ago was married. This is the second death on the West Side branches, within a few days. Only last week, a brakeman, a son of J. C. Smoek, of Sherwood, was killed on the Sherwood-Dundee line. Mr. Smoek was a general favorite in Sherwood and vicinity, and his death causes genuine regret.

John Bralbrook will be here next week with some fine, large, Eastern Oregon horses, broke and unbroke, which he will sell at public or private sale. See owner at Redmond & Sappington's stable, next week.

GRAND CELEBRATION.

Cornelius is to have a grand Independence Day celebration this year, and the boys are going to make this event eclipse any yet held in this city. The Verboort band of twenty pieces will furnish the music for the occasion. The encampment of the Washington County Veteran Association and the Ladies' Auxiliary will hold at that place from July 1 to July 3, inclusive, and remain over to enjoy the 4th. On the Fourth there will be a splendid oration, a procession, liberty wagons, the States' wagon, represented by a young lady for each state, the navy will be there, and the Goddess of Liberty will be taken to the park in a chariot drawn by eight black horses; there will be games of ball, contests of physical nature, and a general good time. The people of Washington county are invited to come and celebrate at Cornelius, where every inducement will be held out as to provision for the entertainment of all visitors. Come, everybody.

CRUSHED TO DEATH AT CORNELIUS

Wood Hauler Caught Between Wagon and Wood.

FRANK MILLER KILLED MONDAY.

Death Doubtless was Instantaneous. Leaves a Daughter.

Frank Miller, a wood-hauler in the employ of Thos. Cornelius, and who was hauling railroad wood from the Buchanan place, north of that city, met death Monday morning, early, while loading, and it is thought that death was instantaneous. Miller left out in the morning, and was expected to return within an hour or such a matter with a load. Failing to return, Mr. Cornelius' man in charge went out to the place, and found Miller under his load, dead. It would appear that Miller had three-fourths of his load on, and had started to drive a little further up to complete his load. He evidently walked alongside his wagon, and the wheels went over a high place, upturning the load, catching the driver between the vehicle and a rick of wood. Miller was found dead, his chest being badly crushed, and his face black from the flow of blood. In his hands were the lines. The team evidently had made no effort to run away. Coroner Via held an inquest as soon as he could reach the scene of the fatality.

Miller was about 40 years of age and had no relatives here. He had formerly worked at Eugene, at Portland and at Tillamook. He told at Cornelius that he had a daughter about sixteen years of age. There was no money on his body, and no papers to tell of his residence before coming to Cornelius. He had been in the employ of Mr. Cornelius for eight or ten days.

ALL QUIET AT REEDVILLE.

All is now quiet at Reedville, after months and months of contention over Professor McHargue. The patrons of the district quietly got together the other day and adjusted matters themselves. The two school officers who were hold-overs, mutually resigned; McHargue resigned; a new board of directors has been installed, and everything is serene. The good people of Reedville have acted very wisely in this matter, and there will now be plenty of harmony in the neighborhood. The Argus is pleased to see the difficulty amicably adjusted. McHargue has the ability to make his way almost anywhere, and it is safe to say that he will never again hold so stubbornly to a controversy that could but end in disaster, no matter how much he may have thought himself in the right. The Reedville school will now hire a new principal, and as the new board is connected with neither side of the late controversy all should, and will be, serene.

Ward Swope, principal of the Forest Grove school, and for whom we have great respect as an educator of rare ability, writes this paper that the article of last week, touching upon the failure of so many students for final examination, was misleading, and that a large number of the applicants passed. The statement of The Argus was correct, and was taken from facts gleaned from the office of the county superintendent. As a matter of fact, three out of the two schools passed. Upon re-examination, which occurred last week, upon the particular branches wherein the failure was occasioned, many passed. Mr. Swope's article contained many words of wisdom and charity for those who did not pass at the first examination, and The Argus heartily concurs in what he writes as to that. But there was no attempt to mislead, whatever, and the article stands, as it appeared, last week. The list of the Hillsboro students who passed final, since, is given in another column.

As the warm summer weather comes on, it is natural for us to cast our optics around for comfortable, light-weight undergarments. If we want something good we go to the Racket Store. They have underwear for men and boys, at various prices, and we always find something to suit.

Hon. W. H. Wehrung, president of the State Board of Agriculture, starts for Southern Oregon next week, in the interest of the exhibits of the various counties at Salem this fall. He will be accompanied by other members of the board, and a thorough canvass of the district, as well as that of Eastern Oregon, will be made before the work ceases. It is intended that this Fair shall eclipse all others, and the others, and the board has every reason to believe they will be successful. The last few years has redeemed this state institution, and this has been done by injecting business methods into the work.

Shirts, at the Racket Store. A new lot of golf shirts just received. Something neat, catchy, and new. Something that will wear and give perfect satisfaction.

The race at the fair grounds last Saturday afternoon between Geo. Billing's sorrel filly and Art Lyons' black gelding, was attended by a large crowd, and there was much interest in the tryout. Lyons' black won by a small margin. The race was for a purse of forty dollars and there was some money changed hands on the result. The little mare is a "goer," and had she been run on as hard a part of the course as the black the finish would have been closer.

Cornelius—Our streets are being put in good shape this week.—Herman Krause is putting on an addition to his residence.—Wedding bells will soon ring.—D. T. Phillips is repairing his residence.—C. W. Fitch is elected school director and H. G. Fitch, clerk.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartman have returned to Eastern Oregon.

Lost: Two dark bay horses, one pony with white streak in forehead and one two-year-old colt with white spot in forehead.—Ann Monner, Forest Grove.
