BIRTHS.

Born, July 3, in Hillsboro, to the wife of J. Hawkins, a daughter.

July 4, to the wife of Peter Kreiger, a son.

July 6, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Reynolds, of Davenport, Wash, a son.

Lost, yearling heifer, red and white, new bell, black strap. Reward.—Dan Stoller, Lenox.

The cheapest insurance, and safe as the safest. O. F. R. Association.—F. E. Waters, Forest Grove, Ore.

J. I. Knight, who at one time was in business here, as justice of the peace and insurance agent, was in the Tracy shooting match near Seattle one day last week. Knight went out with Sheriff Cudihoe and Officer Brezza, and the trio were laying in wait when Tracy came out of the house. Officer Brezza told Tracy to hold up his hands, and had no sooner spoke the words than the convict fired, killing him instantly. Tracy then struck through the woods and Knight fired twice at his retreating figure. Tracy escaped unhurt, and is yet in the near vicinity of Seattle, where he was discovered Tuesday and surrounded by a posse. He succeeded in getting away, however, breaking through the cordon in a weak place.

The Modern Woodmen are to have an all-day picnic at Allen's grove, one mile north of Reedville, on Saturday, July 12. The Hillsboro Reed & Cornet Band is to furnish the music; there will be a fine program, and the boys are determined to furnish an excellent time for their visitors. The Reedville people always have a good time at their picnics, and if you want a day's enjoyment you should not fail to attend. Dance, afternoon and evening.

Geo. H. Wilcox, of this city, is well acquainted with Hon. L. A. Rosing, the nominee for governor on the Minnesota democratic ticket. Mr. Wilcox knew Mr. Rosing at Cannon Falls, Minn., years ago, and was a young man in company with him. He says that Rosing is a splendid man, and very strong with the people. You can judge of Mr. Wilcox' indorsement when he states that he would most likely vote for him were he back in that state.

Crescent Flour will give you satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it. Get it once and your kitchen will not be without it. We have placed this flour with John Dennis, Main street, for the benefit of those who use and call for it. Crescent Mills, Forest Grove.

The long bridge one mile west of town will be rebuilt within the next few weeks, excepting the main span across the river, which was put in a few years ago, and which is yet in splendid repair. There will also be a fill at the west end of the bridge. The county judge is advertising for bids on the work in this week's issue.

The convicts who broke away from the penitentiary would have been caught had they reached Hillsboro, for they would certainly have "held up" Dennis' store, where they would have found the finest line of groceries.

Congressman T. H. Tongue, his daughter, Miss Bertha, and Miss Ruane, returned from Washington, D. C., the first of the week, and are all glad to again enjoy Oregon's delightful climate.

Miss Beulah Blood, fashionable dressmaker, requests the patronage of the ladies of Hillsboro and vicinity. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Over Wilkes' notary office, Second street.

A new stock of hammocks just arrived. Prices range from $1.00 to $3.50. Call and see them. E. L. McCormick, three doors south of postoffice.

The Hillsboro Band went to Amity, Tuesday, to play for the postponed Fourth of July celebration. The weather prophets up there delayed the celebration on account of the rainy outlook on the morning of the Fourth.

The famous Simmons & Co. kid gloves for ladies, at H. Wehrung & Sons'. Call and see their splendid quality—$1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

The weather has settled and hay-making has commenced throughout the county. The wet spring has been very favorable to clover and timothy, and the yield is fine generally.

Splendid spring line of dress goods, at H. Wehrung & Sons'.

Henry Hogrefe, of Blooming, had the misfortune to get both his hands badly bruised while handling a hayfork, Tuesday of this week. He came to the city and had the injured fingers dressed by Dr. Linklater.

On Saturday last, Mr. Lawrence Bailey, of Cornelius, had the misfortune to fall from his wheel while riding on the sidewalk. In the fall the left knee was dislocated. Dr. Bailey attended the wounded man and reduced the dislocation.

Full stock of gents' furnishing goods, neckwear, etc., underwear for spring and summer, at H. Wehrung & Sons', Hillsboro.

Mrs. W. A. Marlin, of this city, while scrubbing, on Monday last, run a large sized sewing needle into the wrist. It broke off, leaving over an inch of the end, with eye, embedded in the tissues. Dr. Bailey cut down on and removed the piece.

The election is over—but you must still feed the voter. Treat him right by buying your groceries at Dennis', where you get the finest.

Hops are looking good everywhere, and there is promise of one of the best crops ever raised in the county. Contracts are being written all over the state, and 18 cents was paid in Salem the first of the week. This looks good to hop men.

The Fourth was a lazy day in Hillsboro, nearly all the people who were bent on a celebration having gone to Cornelius, where, despite the gloomy weather, there was a general good time. Here in town those who remained, spent the day with their families, the rain not lending to outdoor exercises and picnic affairs.

Dr. C. B. Brown, well known in Hillsboro, and now a practicing dentist of the metropolis, won the first prize for the best decorated automobile at the Portland celebration on the Fourth. His machine was beautifully caparisoned, and ahead of the auto there was an eagle, with wings spread, working automatically, which lent the impression that the vehicle was impelled by the bird.

The Portland city park has been recommended as the site for the Lewis & Clark exposition, and, most likely, will be selected. This will throw the exposition grounds close up to Washington county, and for our population, will be quite convenient. When the Hillsboro electric line is built, and the big "expo" is on, things will move out here as never before.

The best is the cheapest. Greer keeps the best and cheapest groceries, crockery, lamps and glassware in Washington county. The Royal Neighbors, of Reedville, will give a picnic and dance in Allen's grove, one mile north of Reedville, in the afternoon and evening, Saturday, July 19. Arrangements have been made to have this the finest outdoor picnic ever held in this section. A fine floor for dancing. Plenty of attractions. Good music and a spirited program. Everybody invited.

Do not forget the mass meeting in Hillsboro, next Saturday evening, July 12, to discuss the motor line proposition.

Dr. August E. Tamiesie, of Salem, and who has just returned from a trip to New York, is in the city for a few days' visit with relatives. The Dr. says that he had a very pleasant trip to the East, whither he went as attending physician with Eugene Freyman, the Salem capitalist. They were in the great metropolis for two months, and returned by the Southern route, stopping at Birmingham, Alabama, and New Orleans, for a few days.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS MEET IN HILLSBORO

Considered Ways and Means for Prosecuting Claims

WILL AGAIN MEET ON JULY 19.

Representative Tongue Asked to Confer With Them.

The call for a meeting of the Indian War Veterans, of Washington county, was not largely attended, although the results were as good as though all had been there.

The reason for the small attendance was that the notice of the meeting was too close upon the date and many did not know of the call. W. H. H. Myers, of Forest Grove, was chairman, and Jabez Wilkes was selected secretary. It was voted to again meet on Saturday, July 19th, and Representative Tongue was asked to be present. The chair, Henry Wehrung and J. Wilkes were selected as a committee to meet with Tongue and confer with him as to the methods of procedure in getting their claims before the pension department without hiring an attorney. The old boys are determined to not hire if there is any way to get their dues without it. T. A. Wood, of Portland, has been sending out circulars ever since the congress passed the law, and he wants to get them pensions at so much per pension. The law is so clear that the aid of an attorney is unnecessary. Mr. Tongue will no doubt straighten them all out. A large attendance is expected at the next meeting—that is a large per centage of the remnant of the veterans, will be present. There is not many of them left.

The delightful home of the groom was Wednesday evening, July 9, 1902, the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. Thomas Talbot, of Cornelius, was wedded to Miss Anna Peters, of this city, late of South Dakota, Hon. L. A. Root, of Hillsboro, officiating. The house was prettily decorated, and after the wedding the party was banqueted by the bride and groom.

The bride was attired in cream albatross, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses. After the ceremony the happy pair were the recipients of many congratulations. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whitehorn, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. C. Peters, Miss Jessie Peters, Messrs. John Dietz, John Miller, William Merrill, Joshua Merrill, Miss Alata Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Miller and Benj. Miller.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Talbot will be at home to their friends in Cornelius. Mr. Talbot is one of Cornelius' substantial citizens, and he is well known in Washington county. For many years he was in the employ of the Southern Pacific company, and his industry and business capacity has made him a comfortable fortune. The bride came to Oregon last year, from South Dakota. His many friends congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Talbot and wish them happiness and long life.

TALBOT-PETERS.

FOURTH AT CORNELIUS.

The celebration at Cornelius was well attended in spite of the threatening weather, and the program was well lived up to. W. G. Hare delivered the oration and his effort was well received. Many were heard to say that it was one of the finest Independence Day celebration orations ever heard in the county. Buxton also celebrated, and Mr. Hare spoke there in the afternoon. The muddy track at the Cornelius grounds was a dampener on the grounds, but the races were watched with interest. Geo. Billing's little sorrel filly won the first prize in the horse race. The fireworks in the evening were all that could be wished for, and all who attended say that they had a splendid time, barring the weather. Cornelius can always do the right thing in the way of a celebration, and the committee is to be congratulated upon the manner in which they conducted the affair.

The afternoon was taken up with sports and games. In the bicycle race, Toole was first, Strauss second and Dugan third. Boys bicycle race, Greer first, Miller second. Running race, Downs first, Dugan second, Briggs third. Horse race, Billings first, Johnson second, Ranes third. The Verboort Band furnished music for the day.

MOORE-STURGIS.

McINTYRE-HENRY.

Married, at the residence of W. T. Linn, Hillsboro, Or., July 4, 1902, H. T. Bagley, J. P., officiating, Mr. Jesse Moore, of Wasco county, and Miss Jennie L. Sturgis, of Hillsboro. The happy pair will reside at Troutdale.

Marriage license has been granted Jasper Hall and Miss Ines Berry, of Gaston.

Assessor Wilcox has the first motor line in operation in Hillsboro. The track is about seven feet in length, and the car is about five feet long. The car carries a book, the assessment roll, which is five feet long, when opened. The motor obviates the necessity of "hitching" his chair from one end of the table to the other, or dragging the book from place to place, which would necessitate the employ of a Sandow. Without the motor the asses would have to stand up for four months' steady writing—which would be very tedious. The car arrangement makes the work 20 per cent more rapid. Go in and see it, but don't ask for a ride. Captain Collins is the builder, track, rolling stock, and all, and there isn't a bit of watered stock in the concern.

Mr. Hinman, as receiver of the defunct Pfanner bank, sold the remaining assets, consisting of a lot of notes, at public auction, Monday forenoon. Attorney Huston acted as auctioneer, and quite a crowd collected to see the sale. Attorney Hoffman and Cashier Kane were the principal bidders, and bidding was quite lively for a time, but Mr. Hoffman finally got the lot for $180.50. They aggregate about $7,000.—Times.

Labor for the hayfields is very scarce this year, and many farmers are short handed. This has been the case here for many years, owing to the fact that many of our young men go to the Columbia river logging camps for their summer's work, because there they can get much better wages than in a farming community.

Hon. Frank Davey, of Salem, and who was recently elected to the House, from Marion county, was in the county Tuesday and Wednesday, in the interests of his candidacy for the speakership of the next session of that body. Mr. Davey is a good parliamentarian and is well qualified for the position, should he be elected.

Mrs. Sylvia Tucker and daughter, Miss Maude, late of Aberdeen, Wash., are in the city, visiting with relatives.

Miss Betty Bridges, of University Park, is visiting with Miss Anna Connell, of this city.

Attorney H. T. Bagley was at Salem today, in the appeal case of James Aiken, who was imprisoned for life at the fall term of circuit court. Aiken hopes to get a new trial, and subsequently, his freedom. Geo. Stout and Dan J. Maloney, of Portland, are counsel with Mr. Bagley.

J. C. and W. G. Hare have on hand, at the Grange store a complete line of wagons, buggies and farm machinery of all kinds, handling the Mitchell-Lewis-Staver makes. Give them a call and satisfy yourself that you can do better with them than elsewhere.

Henry Latham and wife were down from Perrydale the last of the week, visiting friends in this city. Mr. Latham reports a fine business at his Perrydale flouring mills.

Thousands of acres of hay are now being cut and farmers are casting anxious eyes towards the heavens. A heavy rain at this time would do much damage to the hay crop.

Rev. S. H. Greenlee will preach at the union Sunday evening service in the Congregational church next Sunday. Special music is to be rendered by the union quartet.

Riley Cave has a buggy bow prop to put on buggies, to prevent the bows from bending when the top is down. Trial shows it to be a good thing, and they are cheap.

Joseph Allison has just completed a handsome veranah around the Main street residence of J. A. Imbrie. This is now one of the finest homes in the city.

Grant Downing is again a happy father. Mrs. Downing presented him with a big, hearty boy the first of the week.

Hon. H. V. Gates will leave the first of the week for Huntington, Eastern Oregon, to look after his business interests in that section.

Mrs. Chas. Bowen, of Portland, is in the city this week, visiting with relatives and friends.

Call on David Kuratli, Phillips, if you have lost a dark-brown Jersey cow, with calf at side.

Thos. Whitehorn, a prominent citizen of Corvallis, was in town today, calling on friends.
