

HARRIMAN'S AGENTS VISIT HILLSBORO

Entertained by the Board of Trade and Citizens.

TOWN PLEDGED A HEARTY SUPPORT

McKinney Asked for Advertising, and Was Pledged 100,000 Copies.

The Harriman party, consisting of G. M. McKinney, general immigration agent of the Harriman lines; his assistants, C. McKenzie, H. A. Townsend, L. N. Conklin, W. H. Burke, T. A. Kruse; R. M. Hall, advertising agent of the O. R. & N.; W. E. Coman, general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific; J. P. Jones, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon; J. H. O'Neil, traveling passenger agent of the O. R. & N.; and Harvey E. Lounsbury, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific for Oregon, arrived in this city, in their special car, at noon Saturday last, and were entertained by the Hillsboro Board of Trade in the Commercial Club parlors. General Immigration Agent McKinney delivered a stirring address touching upon the proposed work of the Harriman lines relative to advertising the State of Oregon. Mayor F. A. Bailey, by courtesy of the Board of Trade, presided. The town pledged Mr. McKinney 100,000 copies of folders descriptive of Washington county and its resources. The Board of Trade served light refreshments for the party after the meeting.

HO! FOR NEWPORT

Oregon's Favorite Summer Resort.

Recognizing the advantage of Newport as a summer resort over other seaside resorts in the northwest, and to make it possible for all who desire to do so to spend their vacation by the ocean waves, the Southern Pacific Company, in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, will place on sale, effective June 15th, round trip tickets from all points in Oregon on the Southern Pacific, to Newport, good for return until October 10th, at specially reduced rates. Round trip from Hillsboro, good until October 10th, $6.00. Round trip from Hillsboro, Saturdays, good to return the following Monday, $4.50. For full information inquire of your local agent.

CONDENSED MILK FACTORY.

The project of a condensed milk factory was taken up by a meeting in the Opera House, Monday evening, F. M. Heidel, secretary of the Board of Trade, acted as chairman, and Benton Bowman, secretary. It was stated that Dr. Tamsie agreed to equip a condensed milk factory in Hillsboro, if two or three acres of ground and a suitable building, near the railroad station is procured. He agrees to put $5,000 into the enterprise, and would raise the balance from outside sources. The proposed company wants the town to furnish the site, the building, and furnish water and light for a period of three years. J. W. Shute, it is understood, has agreed to furnish the ground. It is estimated that a proper building can be erected for $1,000. In addition to these requirements a pledge of the product of 600 cows is asked. The factory will have from 20 to 40 men employed the year round. The following committee, on site, building and funds, was appointed: F. M. Heidel, W. V. Wiley, W. H. Wehrung, Jas. H. Sewell and Jas. A. Imbric. The following were appointed as a committee to secure pledges of cows: J. C. Hare, F. J. Williams, James Young, Sam Moon and William Schulmerich. Found, child's clasp ring.—Inquire at this office. Mr. and Mrs. John Connell are at Newport for a few weeks' vacation. G. A. Wehrung departed the first of the week for a several weeks' visit at San Francisco and other California points. Miss Beulah Blood, fashionable dressmaker, requests the patronage of the ladies of Hillsboro and vicinity. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Over Wilkes' notary office, Second street. Wm. Schulmerich, Dan Burkhalter and Ed. Buge, of Farmington, have just returned from a three days' trip to the headwaters of Scoggin valley, whither they went after deer. They returned with one buck, and feel that their trip was not without substance. This was Dan's first experience after deer, and the boys say that he acted well under fire, having shot at the game three times after it was down. There's nothing like being through, Dan.

Photographs wanted—The Lewis and Clark Exposition Company will have need for a large number of photographs to illustrate publications on the Pacific Northwest, which will be issued to advertise the 1905 Fair. Donations of views of landscape, cities, mountains, farms, growing crops, forests, mines, fisheries, river scenery, seaside resorts, etc., suitable for the half-tone process, will be appreciated by the company. Photographers, professional and amateur, who desire to make donations, should address their pictures to Henry E. Reed, Secretary of the 1905 Fair, 216 Washington street, Portland, Oregon. The subject of the view should be indorsed on the back of the photograph; also the name of the photographer, so that no mistakes will be made. Credit will be given to the photographer in all cases where use is made of his pictures. Photographs are desired from every section of Oregon. None except those that will make good reproductions are wanted. Crescent Flour will give you satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it. Get it once and your kitchen will not be without it. We have placed this flour with John Dennis, Main street, for the benefit of those who use and call for it. Crescent Mills, Forest Grove. A good sized crowd is reported to have attended the Cedar Mill electric line meeting last evening, and there was much enthusiasm prevailing. Everybody present wanted the line, and a committee was appointed to aid in securing the right of way. This committee will report to the Hillsboro committee from time to time. The Messrs. Graydon and son were present. A corps of civil engineers are already in the field and a line has been run this side of Cedar Mill. It will not be long until the party will get the line of survey into this city. In the meantime the Hillsboro committee is doing all it can to make things easy. Let the electric line come—Denon is here to stay, because the people must have sterling groceries. The Diamond-W brand leads the van. This is the outing season. Get your lunch supplies from Dennis. Ask the people who deal with it for his prices and quality are not right. Dr. W. D. Wood returned the last of the week from a week's trip in the Sumpter country. While there he visited with Herman Schulmerich, met Syd Luce, who is working for the former, and saw the irrepressible Austin Craig who still holds down the Whitney post-office, and who is now in court with a suit for big damages from the banker who gave him trouble some months ago. When farmers are in need of agricultural implements they should see Schulmerich Bros.' stock. They are factory agents for Osborne and Deering harvesting machines, Rock Island plows and harrows, and Tiger drills. Also carry a full line of buggies, wagons and general hardware. Lily Extracts, manufactured by Atwater & Galloway, are guaranteed, and if they do not give satisfaction the money will be returned. These extracts are kept by all stores. Try them and be convinced. Absolutely pure. No drugs. Ask for Lily Extracts. Milton Morgan, son of F. P. Morgan, formerly in business here, now of Corvallis, is in town today. He is holding down a case on the Corvallis Gazette. He has just returned from the State Militia Encampment, at Albany, he being a member of the Corvallis Brigade Signal Corps. J. C. and W. G. Hare have on hand, at the Grange store a complete line of wagons, buggies and farm machinery of all kinds, handling the Mitchell-Lewis-Staver makes. Give them a call and satisfy yourself that you can do better with them than elsewhere. Hon. W. D. Hare returned the first of the week from Astoria, where he went to attend the bedside of his mother, aged ninety years, and who is slowly passing away, without pain. John Mead, of Grants Pass, and who spent his boyhood days in this city, was in town this week, renewing old friendships. He is a son of N. B. Mead, formerly a resident of this city. When you want a good cigar, ask for a Square Deal or Carl Star cigar—the best 5-cent smoke on earth.—H. A. Palmer, wholesale and retail, Second street, Hillsboro. J. W. Shute, of the bank, went to Sumpter and Baker City this week to be absent several weeks, looking after his mining interests in that section. A new stock of hammocks just arrived. Prices range from $1.00 to $3.50. Call and see them. E. L. McCormick, three doors south of postoffice. Chas. J. Herb, of Greenville, and who is a veteran of the Spanish War, has been granted a pension of $6 per month. Mrs. J. C. Hare and Miss Elizabeth Johnson have returned from the Chautauqua meeting at Gladstone Park. Ed. Schulmerich is out at the ranch getting ready to start with his hay baler.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS MET LAST SATURDAY

Indorse Hon. T. H. Tongue for Senator.

SAYS THAT HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE

W. H. H. Meyers Introduces the Resolution Tongue's Remarks.

The Indian War Veterans of this county met in this city last Saturday, and conferred with Representative Tongue as to methods of procedure in getting their pensions under the recent bill passed by congress. Mr. Tongue pledged them his hearty support. The following resolution was introduced by Hon. W. H. H. Meyers, of Forest Grove, and it was carried, irrespective of party: "We, the undersigned, constituting the Indian War Veterans of Washington county, Oregon, being fully cognizant of the untiring efforts of our congressman, Hon. T. H. Tongue, to secure for the Indian War Veterans those rights which are granted to soldiers of all wars, and being grateful for the efforts which he has led to success in pensions being granted to them, do hereby give our support to that, inasmuch as in Mr. Tongue is found all the qualifications necessary for a successful representative of a state of the great Northwest, we do hereby give him a vote of confidence, and ask the Washington County Legislative delegation to support him for the high office of United States Senator, and to that end we pledge our influence and support for his elevation to that honorable position, which, in our opinion, he has earned by his indefatigable labors."

Before the resolution was passed, Mr. Tongue, who was present, said: "I am not a candidate for the United States Senate in any manner. There are gentlemen who are candidates for that position who are personal and political friends of mine, and whose aspirations I could not and shall not antagonize. It would be ungrateful on my part to do so. They have assisted in securing my election and I certainly cannot antagonize their political aspirations. Besides, the people of this district have been very kind to me. It would be ungrateful to them to indicate in any way that I am not content with the position to which they have elected me with such a handsome majority. Fidelity to my friends and gratitude to the voters of the first congressional district, both precede me from being a candidate for the United States Senate. As an expression of your good feeling it would not be objectionable, rather gratifying, but I hope you will not take this resolution for more than this. Born, in Hillsboro, July 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Wheeler, a son. J. P. Beal has been acting as bailiff for circuit court this week, and he makes a good one. The cheapest insurance, and safe as the safest, O. F. R. Association.—F. E. Waters, Forest Grove, Ore. For sale: six room cottage, 3 acres land, good barn; cheap. Inquire at this office. John Abbott is out from Portland, for a week's vacation with his parents in this city. Fred Soxell, Fred Sigrist, Thos. Bailey and Robt. Wehrbered, of this city, are recruiting at Denny's crossing for a few days. Thousands of tons of hay are down—and so are prices on groceries at Dennis'. Finest brands and best of satisfaction. The members of the Congressional club tendered Mr. and Mrs. Risser a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Thorne last evening. Flor de Samatra—two for a quarter—and La Florena, the best smokes for the money. Genuine Havana, at H. A. Palmer's and The Pharmacy. Don't forget the mass meeting at the court house, Saturday evening. The committee on the electric line will report on right of way and other progress made. Judge Alfred S. Bennett, of The Dalles, one of Oregon's ablest attorneys, and a man universally esteemed throughout the state, was in the city yesterday, attending circuit court. He departed this afternoon to take a look at his old home up on Gates Creek. The members of the Washington County Medical Association are hereby notified that there will be a meeting of the society at Waggener's hotel, Hillsboro, Saturday, July 26, at ten in the morning. All regular practicing physicians in the county are invited to attend. F. M. Robinson, M. D., President. The county court has denied the petition of the Hillsboro Board of Trade, asking for one hundred dollars appropriation for the county exhibit to the state fair this fall. The court stated that it felt that the petition was worthy, but that there was such a demand for expenditures here and there that the most rigid economy would have to be practiced. Albert Hamel, of Phillips, met with a serious accident Saturday last. He was hauling lumber, and had his wagon coupled out quite long. While going down a hill the reach broke and the brake team struck the driver, breaking a bone near the ankle. The horses ran away and one of them was badly cut. They were not caught until they reached Bethany. Dr. Bailey attended Mr. Hamel.

Smoke "Square Deal" 5-ct cigar.

W. J. Benson is arranging to start a steam wood saw, and will take orders from now on.

Fifty head of high grade Angora goats for sale; wethers and does.—Lawrence & Sons, Farmington.

Expert bicycle repairing done at McCormick's bicycle store. Agency for Imperial, Cleveland and Tribune wheels.

Mrs. Thomas Caville, of this city, is rejoicing with her sister, Mrs. Tallman, of Troutdale, and will be absent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McEl-doney, of Amity, visited here the first of the week. Mr. McEl-doney is now conducting a drug business at Amity.

Tracy is still ahead—and so is Dennis. He keeps the finest selection of boots and shoes on the market. Fit your feet and feel fine.

Mrs. Maude Lake and Miss Mayme Pittenger departed the first of the week for Mrs. Lake's home in Antelope, Eastern Oregon. Miss Pittenger will remain the summer.

Sunday morning Rev. H. A. Risser will preach his closing sermon in the Congregational church. At night he preaches the sermon, his last in Hillsboro, at the union evening service in the M. E. church.

Teachers' quarterly examination will be held in the public school building, Hillsboro, August 13, 14 and 15. This will be for county papers. On the 16th, applicants will write on state examination. Supt. Ball expects quite a large attendance.

As H. A. Risser closes his work in Hillsboro this month, having come here to serve only as "stated supply," at a recent business meeting of the church a pulpit supply committee of seven persons, with W. O. Donelson, chairman, and Mrs. H. V. Gates, secretary, was appointed to secure a permanent pastor by September, if at all possible.

The secret of many a person's success is footwear. Did you ever notice the feeling of confidence a good, durable, shapely pair of shoes gives the wearer? If you have not you are not a student of sociology. Come to us and fit yourself with a good pair of shoes, and see the proof of this statement. We have shoes for all, of celebrated makes, and at prices that defy competition. We buy large shipments and can sell cheaper than those who buy smaller lots.—H. Wehrung & Sons. All reports say that never before have we had such a hay crop in Washington county. Clover and timothy, and timothy, is very heavy, and the cut will run thousands of tons more than last year. There is also an increased acreage over that of last year, and, doubtless, to the good price of hay obtained last year, owing to the Philippine trade. Just how much figure this will cut on prices this season remains to be seen, but in all probability there will not be so great a demand for shipment to the islands as in the past. The Washington county teacher's annual institute will be held in Hillsboro, September 23, 24, 25 and 26. This is calculated to be one of the most instructive institutes ever held in the county. Preston W. Search, of Holyoke, Massachusetts, will be one of the principal instructors, his lines being lectures on education, manual training, literary advancement, and matters pertaining to characteristics of good teaching. On the day after the adjournment of the institute, the school officers of the county will meet and discuss "What the Schools are doing" and "The People's Part in the Making of a School." This will be the first meeting of its kind ever held in the county, and it is a progressive innovation in school work. Supt. Ackerman will attend the directors' meeting and will attend the institute, proper, one day. Some months ago E. L. McCormick turned loose a young owl that some one brought to his place of business. His owl had never rustled for a living, and when turned out on the mercies of the world, remained in the city instead of going back to his native haunts "Jocko," as the boys call him, has been living in the back alley behind the Union block, and nightly made excursions about the city. Friends feed him regularly, and, although he is inclined to be "scurry," he will let go of your finger long enough to eat a piece of steak if you tender it. A weary pilgrim stopping at the Tuslatin, the other night, was awakened about midnight by a peculiar whistle coming from one corner of the room. The guest of the house hurried into the hall and called for the proprietor, saying that there was a burglar in the room. He was accompanied back, and they found his owl sitting on the footboard of the bed with a wriggling garter snake in his beak. The young man who occupied the room had had a "night-cap" before retiring, and visions of delirium tremens rushed to his brain "Great God," he said, "if this is the result of drink, I'll promise that the next time I go out with the Owls, I'll drink ice cream soda, straight." Since that night the young man has attended strictly to setting up machinery, and is thinking of buying into an ice cream parlor.

CIRCUIT COURT HAS A SHORT TERM

Will Doubtless Conclude This Week and Adjourn.

WILL DOUBTLESS CONCLUDE THIS WEEK AND ADJOURN.

That is the Damage Case of Ed. Wilcox vs. Southern Pacific

Circuit court convened here Monday morning, and, although there were prospects of several trials by jury, but one came up, all others having been settled out of court. The case tried was that of Ed. Wilcox, of Gaston, against the Southern Pacific, action for damages in the sum of $2,000. The trial of this case commenced Tuesday, S. B. Huston being the attorney for Wilcox, and Attorney Tanner, of Portland, appearing for the company. The jurors in the case were: C. W. Fitch, D. M. C. Gault, J. S. Robinson, John I. Northrop, H. B. Johnson, Andrew Johnson, Clinton Burton, J. A. Clearwater, J. C. Clark, Henry Toelle, Edward Mulloy and Philip Olson.

The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon, and the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Wilcox in the sum of $700. The case of Minnie Sprecht vs. C. E. Sprecht, suit for $30,000 personal damages, was settled out of court. The divorce case of John C. Young vs. Addie Young, was also reported settled out of court. Judgments on mandates were given in cases of Brock vs. Weiss, and Hesse vs. Barrett. The divorce case of Ella Mizen vs. Albert Mizen was settled out of court.

The Southern Pacific Co. was allowed until Saturday to file a motion for a new trial in the damage case.

LONG BRIDGE CONTRACT.

The commissioners met Monday and opened bids for the construction of 895 feet of bridge on the west approach and 616 feet on the east approach, of the long bridge, situated one mile west of Hillsboro, on the Baseline road leading to Cornelius and Forest Grove. The bids were: J. W. Goodin (Glencoe) $4,140; M. S. Dalley (Hillsboro) 4,300; D. B. Reasoner 4,050; J. B. Tiltonson (Albany) 3,899; Joseph Allison (Hillsboro) 3,750. Allison was the lowest bidder and was awarded the contract. Mr. Allison turns over the contract to J. W. Goodin, who will build the two approaches to the span across Dairy creek. The bids for the fill at the west end were: J. B. Tiltonson $949; J. W. Goodin 900; Geo. T. Rea 867; Wm. Nelson 835; M. M. Mead 594; W. L. Crocker 400. Mr. Crocker was awarded the contract and will put in 115 feet, the earth to be taken from the hill west of the bridge. The bridge to be built will be 16 feet in width, about a foot wider than it now is. The court denied an appropriation to aid the Hillsboro Board of Trade in getting up an exhibit for the coming state fair.

The summer days are here, and, again, The Argus calls attention to the fact that the city has no public open place where a farmer, coming to town for an hour or so, can get a "wee sup of water" for his team. Why can't we have a public watering place for the benefit of those who make this their trading point? What do you think about this, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the council? Every season for seven long years The Argus has, during the hot season, lamented the absence of this drinking place. It is needed, and badly. Should the city feel that it can not afford to put in a watering place for the comfort of the farm people who drive to town, perhaps the county court can help the thing out. By all means let us have water for our visitors.

You may not believe that clothes make the man—but you always feel better when your suit is of good quality and fits you. Go to H. Wehrung & Sons and you will find quality, a fit, and at prices that will make you feel that there is honest dealing at this reliable house. Full line of gents' furnishing goods.

Superintendent Ball has compiled the various school clerk's reports and finds that Washington county has a total of 5,673 pupils of school age, of which 2,929 are males and 2,794 females. The enrollment in the schools is 4,544—for the school year just ended. There was an average of 8.06 months taught in each district; the average daily attendance for the entire county being 2,640. We have 95 school districts, and 146 teachers employed; 29 of whom are males, and the balance are lady teachers—117 in number!

People who buy groceries of H. Wehrung & Sons always look satisfied—and that is because they are satisfied. Satisfied that they get the best; and get that best at the least money. Try them and be convinced.

L. M. Norcross, of Portland and now 34 years of age, was in the city Tuesday, meeting old time friends. Mr. Norcross is a pioneer of 1850, and was a resident of this place in 1858. In 1868 he conducted the Centerville grist mill at the time of the death of the owner, John B. Jackson. In 1868 he took up a homestead in the forks of Dairy creek. Mr. Norcross did carpenter and mill work here for some years. He went up to Dairy creek yesterday to see if he could find any of the old land marks.

You will find comfort for the hot weather in wearing a stock tie. It is a collar and tie combined. No white collar to "wilt." Just the paper—50 cents at the Racket Store.

Mrs. Martha Jane Cummins, a pioneer of 1852, died at Tuslatin, July 22. Mrs. Cummins, whose maiden name was Bird, was born in Kentucky, in 1817, and moving to Illinois, was married to Edward Cummins in 1837. Coming to Oregon in 1852, they settled on a donation land claim near Tuslatin. The husband and two children, Mrs. Louisa B. Galbreath, Tuslatin, and Mrs. Ann Fuller, of Ambloy, Wash., survive. The funeral took place today.

It is easy to answer. What is? Why we sell more dress goods and wash goods than any other firm in the county. It is because we carry the finest line of dress goods and wash goods found on the West Side. This means H. Wehrung & Sons, Hillsboro.

Rev. John W. H. Miller, a minister of the M. E. church, until recently located at Pendleton, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, Sunday evening. Deceased was about 32 years of age, and for years resided at Farmington, this county. He was a son of W. H. Miller, of Albina, formerly of Farmington. He leaves one sister in this county, Mrs. Lewis Ennes, of Laurel.

The residence of Mrs. H. E. Smith, wife of the late "Tip" Smith, (who was well known here as the builder of the Climax Mills) was burned about four o'clock Wednesday morning, at Grants Pass. There was some insurance.

While haymakers were working in the field, loading a wagon with hay, at the ranch of Lewis Ennes, of Laurel, the other day, a match was dropped in some manner and ignited the load of hay, burning the hay, the wagon, the rack, and the whole "bisnal" before the flames were extinguished. Even a hat of one of the men was burned. Here is a moral that will be well to bear in mind. Matches are out of place in a hay field.

The secret of selling good goods cheaply is in buying them cheap. We buy as cheap as anyone and sell accordingly. At the Racket Store you will find a fine line of gents' ties, all kinds. Mr. J. W. Berrey, of Whatcom, Wash., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Goodin, of Glencoe.
