PHILLIPS-NEFF.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, August 17, 1902, at the Methodist Episcopal church, in Cornelius, when Mrs Kathryn E Neff, of Salem, and Judge Alvin A Phillips, of Cornelius, were united in marriage, Rev Cleo officiating. The bride was tastefully dressed in white silk. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and ivy. While the organist played a beautiful wedding march, the bride and groom entered the church and marched down the aisle to the altar, where the marriage ceremony was performed, after which many friends extended to them their best wishes and congratulations.

The Christian church has been newly repaired, and presents a very nice appearance.

Mrs. Maude Hathaway and Miss Hattie Thomas, of North Yakima, Wash., are in the city, guests of their aunt, Mrs. Mae Greer.

Crescent Flour will give you satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it. Get it once and your kitchen will not be without it. We have placed this flour with John Dennis, Main street, for the benefit of those who use and call for it. Crescent Mills, Forest Grove.

F. M. Heidel reports that he gets no response to the request for samples for exhibits for the State Fair, and that it looks like there will be no Washington county exhibit at Salem this year. Just why the farmers are so slow about this is a mystery. He says that the last two or three years he has had better success than this year, but even then he had to visit them at their homes. All this takes time and money, and he feels that he cannot sacrifice so much to get up an exhibit that will not aid him individually any more than it will any other citizen of the county at large. It would appear that farmers and fruit raisers should take a greater amount of interest in this matter of an exhibit—but if they will not, what are we going to do about it?

The secret of many a person's success is footwear. Did you ever notice the feeling of confidence a good, durable, shapely pair of shoes gives the wearer? If you have not you are not a student of sociology. Come to us and fit yourself with a good pair of shoes, and see the proof of this statement. We have shoes for all, of celebrated makes, and at prices that defy competition. We buy large shipments and can sell cheaper than those who buy smaller lots.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

B. F. Purdy was down from Gaston the other day and says that the yield of wheat in and around Gaston is but half what was expected before threshing commenced. Farmers who came to him to get sacks, have threshed and returned half they received. Ten to thirteen bushels seem to be the general yield, although, of course, there are farms where the usual twenty and twenty five obtain. The old weather in the early summer is said to be the cause of the shortage. Down on the plains there is complaint that a shortage prevails, but it is not so great as fifty per cent.

You may not believe that clothes make the man—but you always feel better when your suit is of good quality and fits you. Go to H. Wehrung & Sons and you will find quality, a fit, and at prices that will make you feel that there is honest dealing at this reliable house. Full line of gents' furnishings goods.

L. V. Stone, the leading jeweler of Conneaut, Ohio, was in the city this week, accompanied by his wife and two sons, Frank and Don. They were guests of the Hoyt family. Mr. Stone is Adjutant of the Third Battalion of the Second Ohio Regiment Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and has been at San Francisco, at the Knights' Supreme Lodge and Conclave. His transportation takes him through 17 states, besides a cut-in to old Mexico. Mr. Stone is a cousin to Mrs W R Hoyt, whom he has not seen for twenty six years. They left out for Eastern Oregon Wednesday.

Let the electric line come—Denise is here to stay, because the people must have sterling groceries. The Diamond W brand leads the van. This is the outing season. Get your lunch supplies from Denise. Ask the people who deal with it if his prices and quality are not right.

Laurel M. Hoyt has returned from the Uniform Rank Conclave at San Francisco, and reports a splendid time. He says that he and G. A. Wehrung were the only Washington county boys in line, and that they were in the Oregon delegation. The sight of ten thousand uniformed men in parade was thrilling, and he will ever remember the visit as the most pleasing of his life.

When farmers are in need of agricultural implements they should see Schulmerich Bros' stock. They are factory agents for Osborne and Deering harvesting machines, Rock Island plows and harrows, and Tiger drills. Also carry a full line of buggies, wagons and general hardware.

Geo. Moreland leaves for Jefferson tomorrow, where he will visit with Rev. Evan P. Hughes, formerly of this place. He may accept a position in Mr. Hughes' store if things suit him over in that bailiwick.

J. C. and W. G. Hare have on hand, at the Grange store a complete line of wagons, buggies and farm machinery of all kinds, handling the Mitchell-Lewis-Staver makes. Give them a call and satisfy yourself that you can do better with them than elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Booth, of Nez Perce, Idaho, are down on a visit. Mr. Booth will soon leave for a visit to Chicago, where he will take a post graduate course in a school of optical science.

The secret of selling good goods cheaply is in buying them cheap. We buy as cheap as anyone and sell accordingly. At the Racket Store, you will find a fine line of gents' ties, all kinds.

The Hotel Tualatin has improved its front by laying a new sidewalk. There are several hundred more places around town where a like improvement would not be out of order.

Take your grain to the Aplin Mills, at Cornelius. They will pay you the highest market price, or warehouse your grain. Carry grain sacks.—Aplin Mills, Cornelius.

DIAMOND W'S LOST A GAME SUNDAY

Played Just as Good Ball as the Visitors.

BUT JUST FAILED TO GET SCORES.

Portland Man Got Naughty and Was Suspended From the Game.

There was a pretty fast game at the local grounds Sunday, when a nine picked out of the best amateur talent from Portland went against the Diamond Ws. The locals were weakened by Leavitt's absence to a certain extent, although his substitute played good all round ball. It was a pitcher's battle, McInerney for the visitors and Calif for the locals. Errors by the home team let in the three extra scores which constitute the lead of the visitors. Calif, during the first part of the game, struck Csi Geil with a pitched ball, and the batsman returned the compliment by getting angry and throwing the bat at the pitcher. He then started out to whip the little pitcher, but Manager Beckwith went out in the infield, and insisted on his getting out of the diamond and being suspended from the game. Geil went back and remained on the bench the balance of the afternoon. The visiting team was called the "All-Stars."

The line-up was: All-Stars Diamond W. McInerney p. Calif Brown c. Sussan 2nd (Big Joe) 1st Croissant Charles Geil 2nd Barrett H in a c. Cook Cal Geil 3rd Hare Parrott 4th Wann Van Northwick cf Hatch Seener lf Mills

Score by innings: All-Stars 0 0 1 1 1 0 0 2-7 Diamond W 0 0 0 2 0 1 0 1-4 Attendance, 150. Umpire, Ora Cook.

Maggie Vail, of Dilleys, has sued her husband, Willis Vail, for divorce, and asks for the care and custody of the minor children. She also asks for $270 alimony. Attorney Hoffman, of Forest Grove, is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Attorney Geo. R. Bagley, who has been in the harness throughout the hot season, has gone out to the ranch of his paternal ancestor to help pitch bangles, and all that sort of thing—at least, that is what he says. The Argus takes this all with a grain of salt, as it takes judicial knowledge of the fact that he recently hired a man to scalp the turf off his yard; and a man who will do that isn't going to hurt himself "with no pitch fork handle." Let us look at your hands when you come back, G. R., will you?

Thos. S. Wilkes, ex-county surveyor of this county, and now with the U. S. Surveyor General's office at Denver, Col., is here for a few days' visit with his children and relatives. He says that Colorado is a nice state, but that Oregon is the best of all.

It is easy to answer. What is? Why we sell more dress goods and wash goods than any other firm in the county. It is because we carry the finest line of dress goods and wash goods found on the West Side. This means H. Wehrung & Sons, Hillsboro.

Rev J. J. Walters, who is a relative of M. Edee, of this city, and who has been connected with the Centenary church, of Portland, has been appointed colonization agent of the Great Central Land Co., and has accepted the position. He starts East at once to enter up on the duties of his office.

Lily Extracts, manufactured by Atwater & Galloway, are guaranteed, and if they do not give satisfaction the money will be returned. These extracts are kept by all stores. Try them and be convinced. Absolutely pure. No drugs. Ask for Lily Extracts.

The Corvallis county court is considering the feasibility of putting in a windmill on the court yard, to furnish a pumping motor for watering the building and the grounds. The main objection to such a proposition would be the unsightliness of such a building in a court yard square.

Will J. Wall and family returned the first of the week from the Nearts beach, over in the Tillamook country. When he left, there were quite a few Hillsborites having a good time, viz: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Barngrover, Miss Haywood and Mrs F. M. Heidel.

The hopmen of this county have not consulted each other as to what they will pay for picking this year, but it is generally conceded that the price for that service will be higher than that paid last season. Very few in this county have their entire crop contracted at a low figure, although some few have a portion contracted at ten and eleven cents. It is understood that these do not wish to stand against a better figure for picking. Over at a Marion county meeting, the other day, those who had contracted for ten and eleven cents outvoted those who had not made contracts, standing for no increase in pay.

They tell a good story on the Forest Grove police force. The regular marshal was off on a vacation, and supplied his vacancy with a well meaning young fellow, but who, withal, wasn't a graduate of the college. One night, while making his rounds, the deputy found one of the prominent citizens walking in his sleep, and incidentally in his nightshirt. Waking the nocturnal traveller, the deputy commanded him to follow to the calaboose. "You wouldn't take me to jail just for what I can't help, would you? I'm a somnambulist," said the sleep walker. "Don't care what your religion is; you may be a Congregationalist," said the officer, "but my orders are that no one must walk around town in their nightshirt." And the prominent citizen had to go.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Crossed the Plains in Summer of 1846.

OVER FIFTY YEARS IN THIS COUNTY

Widow of the Late Charles Stewart Died This Morning.

Mrs. Stewart, the widow of the late Charles Stewart, died at her home in this city, Thursday morning, August 21, 1902, at 6:30 o'clock, of general debility. Her maiden name was Martha Ann Wood, and she was a native of Boone county, Missouri, and was born in 1826.

With her husband she crossed the plains in 1846, bringing with them the eldest son, William. They were eight months making the trip, and, finally, landing at the head of the Willamette Valley, left their wornout teams and hired the French to take them on to the French settlement, 150 miles down the river. They crossed the three forks of the Willamette river on horseback, Mrs. Stewart holding the child, William, while the horse swam across. On the 23rd day of December, 1846, they slept in the first house for eight months. Her husband took up a donation claim near Redville, and there they lived for many years. The following children survive her: William, of Grants Pass, Ore.; Mary Adaline Simpson, of Farmington, Wash.; Mrs. Susan Fuller, Cheney, Wash.; John Benjamin Farmington, George, of Portland; Mrs. Emma McClarken, wife of James McClarken, Laurel; Charles, of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Effie Deatley, Salmon River, Idaho.

Deceased was a woman of splendid qualities, and will long be remembered for her goodness of heart. For years she has been a member of the Christian church.

Her seventy-six years of life, fifty-six of which were spent in Washington county, well became the pioneer woman, and a large circle of friends sympathize with the bereaved family.

The funeral services will be held at the Christian church, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, after which interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

The matter of shrinkage in the grain yield, as compared with the yield of former years, is one of grave significance to the farmers of Washington county. It simply goes to show that we need dairying and its concomitants to put our soil on the plains in the shape it formerly was, and dairying will come, and with it a county of more value than the dreamer listeth!

J. W. Shute has returned from Baker county, where he went a fortnight ago to look over his mining interests. He brought back some fine prospects picked up at random over the property, and he feels that he has one of the finest prospects in that section. He and his associates have a ledge nearly a mile in length, with several stringers, and development work will again commence in the near future. His many friends here are gratified that things look so well at the mine.

The State of Oregon has a just claim for a libel suit against a Forest Grove attorney. The limb of the law in mention recently brought suit for a divorce, the plaintiff being the wife of a man who resided not far from the college city. The lawyer makes the plaintiff say in her complaint, that "for her cause of suit," she alleges the following offenses: That they were legally intermarried at Denver in 1879, and that they have lived in Oregon for fifteen years, and that they have three children. These are the first three charges against the defendant, and, if living in the state of Oregon is an offense for which one is entitled to divorce, there may be many actions at the next term.

Tracy is dead—not so with John Dennis. He keeps the finest selection of boots and shoes on the market. Fit your feet and feel fine.

Work has commenced on the Henshaw-Wheeler dry house near the depot, and the building will be ready for operation as soon as fruit is ready to be used in that capacity. It will probably take three or four men to keep the drier operated. Apples and pears will chiefly be dried, although prunes will come in for their share of attention. If this enterprise shall keep from going to waste the thousands of bushels of fruit which annually rot in this section, it will be the means of making several thousand dollars for our fruit growers.

People who buy groceries of H. Wehrung & Sons always look satisfied—and that is because they are satisfied. Satisfied that they get the best; and get that best at the least money. Try them and be convinced.

Brice Goodin, the 5-year-old son of J. W. Goodin, of Glencoe, was run over by one wheel of a wagon the other day, and suffered severe injuries, although the little fellow will recover in fine shape. He was with his grandfather, and, in some manner, the team started and first run one wheel over the little chap's leg, then, backing up, went across his body. There were 12 sacks of oats on the wagon. Dr. Linklater attended him, and he is getting along nicely.

You will find comfort for the hot weather in wearing a stock tie. It is a collar and tie combined. No white collar to "wilt." Just the caper—50 cents, at the Racket Store.

D. B. Reasoner, ex-county commissioner, is at present down near Seaside, where he is building a bridge for Clatsop county. From there he will go to Skamokaway, Wash., where he will help J. B. Tillatson, an Albany man, to build a draw bridge. Mr. Reasoner will be there for about ten weeks if he shall remain until the bridges are built.

Geo. Dooley was in town from Greenville, the last of the week, being treated for a hand in which there was evidence of blood poisoning. The wound was caused by a slight abrasion on the finger, which was injured by the hand slipping and striking on a piece of iron on the threshing separator.

C. F. Grabel recently shot a white "gray" squirrel, and the chap was white all over. While waiting to get a bead on him, Mr. Grabel had no idea that he was a squirrel. The little animal was quite a curiosity.

The Portland Evening Journal has discovered that Hillsboro was once the county seat of Multnomah county, and that this city issued the first notice of election when Portland was to vote upon its incorporation.

The Oregon State Fair this year promises to be the grandest industrial exposition and livestock show ever held on the coast. The fair has been good the past two years, but it will be better this year. Don't fail to see it.

Threshing is in full blast, and machines are turning out the grain as rapidly as steam will permit. The yield is not what was expected, earlier in the season, although, in places it fully comes up to the estimates.
