Quite a number of our townspeople went to Portland Tuesday and Wednesday to see Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. They all report having seen the "real thing."

Many people in and around Forest Grove and Buxton will remember Miss Annie Maytod, daughter of the Maytod, who at one time carried mail out of Forest Grove. She drifted from the college town to Portland, where she distinguished herself by marrying a negro as black as the Ham of the Scriptures. Last Friday she was killed by the brute of a husband, and he is now held for murder. The negro's name was James Smith, and prior to marrying the Maytod girl he was the husband of a Sherwood girl.

Commencing September 1, H. Wehrung & Sons will give tickets with each dollar cash purchase on premiums, as follows: First prize, elegant 52 piece set dishes; 2nd prize, gent's $10 suit clothes; 3rd prize, boy's suit or girl's dress pattern, value, $5.

Some little lads started a fire in some whittlings just back of the Milne mill the other evening, about six, and while it was not near enough to endanger the buildings, it was sufficiently close to call into question the propriety of young lads having matches in their possession. A little parental carelessness in this regard might cost some one thousands of dollars.

Let the electric line come—Dennis is here to stay, because the people here have sterling groceries. The Diamond-W brand leads the van. This is the outing season. Get your lunch supplies from Dennis. Ask the people who deal with it his prices and quality are not right!

John Miller, who at one time was the sheriff of Clarke county, Wash., and who, prior to that, was a resident of this city, was in town the first of the week, the guest of Mrs. Susan Brown, his mother-in-law. He was accompanied by his family. Mr. Miller is now salesman for Studebaker Co., Portland.

Second street is getting in bad shape, and it looks as though the business portion of the thoroughfare will have to be replanked before the winter season sets in. There is nothing like a good street in an advertisement of a town, and nothing like a bad one to give a city a black eye.

The Fall line of dress goods, flannelettes, outings, cretons, table linens, etc. will arrive at H. Wehrung & Sons, September 1. Finest and most complete line ever brought to Hillsboro.

The Andrew White, under arrest for the murder of a man in Portland, was out to a ball game in this city one time last fall, when the West End nine played ball with the locals. Joe Delachneider, also one of the Goose Hollowites, now held as a witness, was a member of the nine.

Schulmerich Bros. have been tearing down the old building just west of the brick store building, and last occupied by Geo. Ledford. This is one of the old time frame buildings in the town, and its destruction means another landmark gone.

The secret of selling good goods cheaply is in buying them cheap. We buy as cheap as anyone and sell accordingly. At the Racket Store you will find a fine line of gent's ties, all kinds.

Take your grain to the Aplin Mills, at Cornelius. They will pay you the highest market price, or warehouse your grain. Carry grain sacks.—Aplin Mills, Cornelius.

LET THE COUNTY SEND AN EXHIBIT

Farmers are Requested to Send in Their Samples.

TIME IS GETTING SHORT—HURRY!

Other Counties are Getting to the Front. Washington Must not Fail.

Washington county must have a county exhibit at the state fair. Let it not be supposed that it is all play to get up a county exhibit, and the exhibitors always come out well paid for their trouble. That is not the case. No exhibit has ever paid out its cost, and, perhaps, considering the trouble of labor of preparation, none ever will. Farmers are requested to at once bring in to F. M. Heidel samples of production that are eligible to exhibition. The time is short. Animate yourself with a little county pride and bring in your best productions to be sent to Salem. We can not afford to be careless in this matter. The response has not been as free as it should be. Make it freer than ever by helping the people who are trying to get up a creditable exhibit. The county certainly equals any in the state for production. Why not show the people of the Northwest that we have the production and the enterprise to show what we can do. The time is getting short. Help the thing out by bringing in your products at once.

The councilmanic street committee was out in force today, looking over defective sidewalks, with a view of reporting to the council and having the bad places repaired, either by property owners, or by the city and then charged up to the owners. The sidewalks are in very bad condition and Hillsboro people are always apologizing for the bad condition of the walks—just like we are always apologizing for the lack of a watering trouga when farmers come to town and want to water their horses. But, then, as to the latter, it will soon be winter time and, when the rain comes, enough water will soak through the hides of horses to keep them from getting thirsty.

THE BIG BRIDGE IS NOT TO BE CLOSED

Travel Between this City and the West not Closed.

WORKMEN HAVE MADE DRIVEWAY

Extensively Traveled Thoroughfare Open to the Public.

The rebuilding of the trestles at both ends of the long bridge just a mile west of Hillsboro has commenced, and the road supervisors have arranged that travel will not be suspended. An approach to either end of span has been effected and teams with loads can safely go over the road, beginning with this morning. Contractor J. W. Goodin has much of his lumber and piling on the grounds for the contract, and in a few weeks the bridge will be as good as new.

Forest Grove and Cornelius travel would have been obliged to have gone around by the Subbauer place and reached Hillsboro by the way of Leisyville, only for the building of approaches to the span, and the forethought will mean much convenience to those who want to reach the county seat.

The Witch Hazel ranch had a fire the other day, the result being the loss of several stacks of grain. Dant's threshing outfit had pulled in and started up. The machine had stopped, so it is said, for a meal, when the stacks were discovered to be ablaze. Hard work could not save it. The estimate of the loss is placed at, perhaps, a thousand bushels of oats. A. M. Copeland is on the ranch.

H. V. Gates returned from Dallas Tuesday night, after having made that city a proposition to put in a system of water works. He asks for a twenty-year franchise and a subsidy of $12,000, according to a dispatch in the Oregonian. If he puts in the plant it will be necessary to pipe the water a distance of five miles to a reservoir, and then one mile on, into town. The system in contemplation will have 34 fire hydrants.

The roads are very dusty and the thoroughfares running to the north of town are badly cut up, owing to the immense amount of travel over them. Tompkins Bros. are bringing in a large amount of piling and much hay and grain are being hauled from the vicinity north. You can not ride very far these days without a little of Mother Earth getting down the back of your neck.

Taxes will become delinquent October 1, and taxpayers should bear this in mind. There can be no extension of time as formerly, as the law does not, as formerly, give the court authority to make extension. Many have paid half their taxes and will pay the other before the expiration of the time given by law.

The Harttramps have three threshing outfits running in Washington county this season, having purchased the S. A. D. Meek thresher. This is threshing with a vengeance. The usual charge of two cents per bushel for wheat and oats prevails. Ed. Schulmerich will again run his machine this year in the Tualatin and Scholls sections.

Henry Schmeltzer feels quite proud of the work of his three-year-old stallion out of Kalamazoo, the Reedville horse. He is working him on a wood wagon and he is as steady as one of the best. Next year he will have him in the stud. He is one of the heaviest and finest built horses of his age in the county.

Do you need a hat? Come and see us. We keep the latest. Do you need gent's furnishing goods? We have them. Do you need groceries? Of course you do—and we have the best. And remember that H. Wehrung & Sons pay the highest market price for farm produce.

The acreage of potatoes in Washington county is said to be fully as large this season as that of last. J. C. Hare is reported to have 75 acres of tubers on the Tualatin. This is a nice little patch and he should have enough for "eat and seed."

Hop picking will commence now in a few days, and all who are going to Yamhill are busy making preparation for the trip. Gloves are being bought, necessary purchases are being made, and pickers look upon the season as a sort of outing.

The proposed annual street fair seems to have gone glimmering this year, and no one appears to know anything about it. The Native Sons have made no move to perpetuate the start of last year.

Real property seems to be on the ascendancy in this city, and it is hard to get a bargain in residence property such as could have been secured a few months ago.

Miss Anna Quick, of Benton county, is in the city for a few days.
