The Daily Telegraph remarked that the highest of the prince of the princ

Herwes accompanied in his travels by this private secretary, Mr. Joseph Stangerson, The two bld adieu to their landately upon Tuesday, the 4th inst. and departed to Euston station with the avowed intention of catching the Liverpool express. They were after-ward seen together on the platform. Nothing more is known of them un-til Mr. Drebber's body was, as rein the Brixton road, many miles from How he came there, or how he met bis fate, are questions which are still involved in mystery.

Nothing is known of the whereabouts of Stangerson. We are glad to learn that Mr. Lestrade and Mr. Greggon, of Scotland Yard, are both engared upon the case, and it is con-fidently anticipated that these well-known officers will speedily throw ged of Liberalism which animated and her lips trembled as I spoke to the Continental governments had had her. That didn't escape my notice. I turning white to her very lips. the effect of driving to our shores a number of men who might have made excellent citizens were they not soured you once come upon the right scent—by the recollection of all they had un-

Among these men there was a ment of which was punished by death. Every effort should be made to effort should be made to secretary, Stangerson, and to its of the deceased.

A great step had been gained by the at which he had boarded, a result asked.

siderable amusement

I told you that, whatever happened, Lestrade and Gregson would be sure to score."

"Oh, bless you, it doesn't matter in the least. If the man is caught, it will get out the single word 'Yes,' and few days ago. Her carrying capacity is public arisingle with the least of the man is caught, it will get out the single word 'Yes,' and few days ago. Her carrying capacity is public arisingle word of the single word 'Yes,' and few days ago. Her carrying capacity is public arisingle word of the single word be on account of their exertions; if he escapes, it will be in spite of their exertions. It's heads I win, talls you there was allence for a moment the Cedric will be ready for service in croons. It's heads I win, tails you close. Whatever they do, they will have and then the daughter spoke in a followers. A fool always finds a big-calm, clear voice.

ger fool to admire him." at this moment there came the patter frank with the gentle ing of many steps in the hall and co Mr. Drebber again." me stairs, accompanied by audible ex-presions of disgust on the part of our detective police force," said my com-panion, gravely; and as he spoke there rushed into the room half a doz en of the dirtiest and most ragged sharp tone and the six dirty scoun-drels stood in a line like so many dis-her mother; and then, turning to me, reputable statuettes. "In future you all send up Wiggins alone to report. and the rest of you must wait in the best sitting-room, His manners toward the main familiar.

"The right track! Why, sir, we have which caused his own secretary to reproach him for his unmanly conduct."

"And his name is?"

"The right track! Why, sir, we have which caused his own secretary to reproach him for his unmanly conduct."

"That why do you stand all this?" I he reached until the return of Secretary

"And his name is?"
"Arthur Charpentier, sub-lieutenant asked. I suppose that you can get r! Hay.

CHAPTER VI.

Itel papers next day were full of the "Brixton Mystigy," as they termed it Each and a four account of the affair, and some had leaders upon it in addition.

The walk in a fairmation in them which was new to me. I still retain in my same with a fair and some had leaders upon it in addition.

The walk in a fairmation in them which was new to me. I still retain in my same with a fair and retain in the my same access the same which I have gone through during the least that Mr. Drebber had relaxed beginn upon the case.

It is a dindensation of a few of the body of crime those had set workers."

The Dally Telegraph remarked that the holds of the strain open the mind which is passionately fond of his abster. When I closed the door behind them a lead seeme, to be lifted from my mind. Analy in less than an hear there was a ring at the bell, and I learned that Mr. Drebber had relaxed by with a precision of a few of the strain open the mind. He was much excited and evidently the worse for drink. He workers."

The Dally Telegraph remarked that the holds on the paper and the strain open the mind workers. "You do me too nuch bonor," said a some incoherent remark about having missed his train. He then in America, and the deceased had, no metabolic diffusions and becaused had, no metabolic diffusions and the deceased had, no metabolic diffusions and the deceased had, no metabolic diffusions the substitution had been tracked down by them.

After alluding atrily to the Vehram After alluding attrily to the Vehram Afte that she said, however, so that there could be no possibility of a mistake." "It's quite exciting," said Sherlock Gregson looked quite crestfallen.

"I had no idea that you noticed that," he said, "Have you been there?"

"Ha!" cried Gregson, in a relieved voice, "you should never neglect a chance, however small it may seem."

"To a great mind nothing is little," remarked Holmes, sententiously.

"Well, I went to Underwood and asked him if he had sold a hat of that size and description. He looked over had seed the sentence of the sente his books and came on it at once. He had sent the hat to a Mr. Drebber, residing at Charpentier's boarding es-tablishment, Torquay Terrace. Thus I got at his address."

"Smart — very smart," murmured Sherlock Holmes, "I next called upon Madame Charknown officers will speedily throw pentler," continued the detective. "I light upon the matter.

The Daily News observed that there was no doubt as to the crime being a an uncommonly fine girl she is too, political one. The despotsm and hat she was looking red about the eyes, began to smell a rat. You know the feeling, Mr Sherlock, Holmes, when you heard of the mysterious death of your late brother, Mr. Enoch J. Drobber, of Cleveland?" I asked.

The mother nodded. She didn't seem to get out a word. The daughter burst into tears. I felt more than ever ascertain some particulars of the hab that these people knew something of which must be done, there is no surer and there saw Mexicans and Chinese spring. As the rainy season begins the matter.

"At what o'clock did Mr. Drebber tion.-Tillotson.

"'And was that the last which you saw of him?" "A terrible change came over the "'No good can ever come of false-What on earth is this?" I cried, for hood, mother, she said. 'Let us be this moment there came the patter frank with the gentleman. We did see

"'God forgive you!' cried Madame Charpentier, throwing up her hand

"It's the Baker-street division of the bave murdered your brother!" "'Arthur would rather that we spoke the truth,' the girl answered, firmly. You had best tell me all about it "Tention!" cried Holmes, in a know how much we know of it. "'On your head be it, Alice!' cried 'I will tell you all, sir. Do not imagine that my agitation on behalf of my son arises from any fear lest he should have had a hand in this terrible affair. street. Have you found it, wiggins?"

"No, sir, we hain't," said one of the youths,

"I hardly expected that you would.

You must keep on until you do. Here are your wages." He handed each of surely impossible. His high character, is surely impossible. His high character, would be a profession, his antecedents would be a profession, his antecedents would be a profession.

He waved his hand, and they scampered away downstairs like so many period away downstairs like so many rats, and we heard their shrill voices next moment in the street.

"There's more work to be got out of one of those little begars than out of a dozen of the force," Holmes remarked, "The mere sight of an official looking person seals men's lips. These youngsters, however, go gverywhere leave they are discussed it I have no youngsters, however, go gverywhere leave they are discussed it I have no greater the way is to make a clean to have the czar of Russia suggest all the propositions having a tendency to period the propositions having a tendency to goes east of the Mississippi river. It has taken some work and expense to gether.

"There's more work to be got out of one of those little begars than out of daughter withdrew. 'Now, sir,' she with the European countries, and the most of it the propositions having a tendency to goes east of the Mississippi river. It has taken some work and expense to gether.

Germany has invited the United States, all the European countries, we with the return it yields.

The first work was to drain the fields and the most of it the propositions having a tendency to goes east of the Mississippi river. It has taken some work and expense to gether.

Germany has invited the United States, all the European countries, Mexico, Japan, Brazil, Argentine, and Chili, to participate in a conference for the study of seismological problems. In the fields and the most of its propositions having a tendency to goes east of the Mississippi river. It has taken some work and expense to gether.

daughter has disclosed it I have no spoundsters, however, go everywhere and hear everything. They are as sharp as needles, too; all they want it organization.

"Is it on this Brixton case that you are employing them?" I asked.

"Yes; there is a point which I wish to ascertain, it is merely a matter of time. Halloo! we are going to hear some news now with a vengeance!

Here is Gregson coming down the road with beatitude written upon every feature of his face. Bound for us, I know. Yes, he is stopping. There he is:"

There was a violent peal at the bell, and in a few seconds the fair-haired in the road with was a quiet, reserved man, but his can brutish in his ways. The very and in a few seconds the fair-haired in the road with was a quiet, reserved man, but his can brutish in his ways. The very and in a few seconds the fair-haired in the road with was a quiet, reserved man, but his can brutish in his ways. The very and in a few seconds the fair-haired in the road with was a quiet, reserved man, but his can brutish in his ways. The very and in a few seconds the fair-haired in the worse for drink, and, inand in a few seconds the fair-haired detective came up the stairs three steps at a time, and burst into our sitting-room.

Ingut of his arrival he became very decay and, in the worse for drink, and, in the locking to the calling of the con deed, after 12 o'clock in the day he could hardly ever be said to be sober. The manners toward the maid servants to send delegates has replied to the in-Holmes' unresponsive hand, "congratulate me! I have made the whole thing as clear as day."

A shade of anxiety seemed to me to cross my companion's expressive face. "Do you mean that you are on the right track." he asked.

"The right track "Why sir we have the constant of the constant she said. But it was a sore tempta-tion. They were paythin a pound a day each. It pounds a week, and this is a slitck season. I am a widow, and my boy in the payy bus and my much. I fracked/to lose the appey, I noted for the boat. Thus list was too much, lowever, and I save him notice to, leave on account of it. That was the leave on account of it. That was the "'No; he has a latch key and let himself in."

An Easterner Taught California Land Owners a Lesson.

" 'So your non was gone at least two

"What was he doing during that

(To be continued.)

Interest You.

'After you went to bed?'

When did you go to bed?"

" Possibly four or five?"

Things That May

"'Yes."

hours?

$50,000.

the autumn.

hades."

TO STUDY EARTHQUAKES.

vitation sent by Germany.

Officials here are much interested in man government. Its importance is Kalser to Meet In Conference.

"'About eleven."

Hillshore It suips aid he workstill

BOUGHTUPPEATLAND

This He Turned Into a Cefery Farm and Sta ted a Great Industry.

First Crop of Celery Raised on Land Which Was Bought for a Song-Pro duction and Marketing of the Crop. Is Full of Interest Many of the Eastera States Are Supplied and Some Heavy Profits Are Made.

There is many a fortune lost by not being able to recognize a good thing when one sees it. Some one, a great many years ago, said that opportunity calls but once upon the same person. He is supposed to rap at the door and if he gets no answer he passes on never as the two-share piows are called, ar few years ago, that a goodly portion fields, clipping the stalks from the Lauere and I succeed in releasing the of his lands at Smeltzer, Orange coun-roots and leaving them still standing Indian. ty, la Southern California, lay in the in the rows. So rapidly do these mabig tule awamp, he was sorry he had chines do the work but five teams and bought them. A little later, when a machines are required to harvest the valuable team with which he was en- crop from the entire 3,000 acres. deavoring to break up a portion of Following the cutters come a small the peat lands became bogged and army of Celestials who take the sev as a rule, and do not seem to much voice of Eve inquired her errand.

mind the heat. been set, the laborers go through the to raise a child like that." patch and press the dirt around the plants in such a manner as to cause the stalks to grow uprightly and close together. This process is repeated two or three times and then the "bankers,

BOG SHOES WORN BY HORSES. aching for an invitation to come in, but This is also done with horse power. ost men are so obtuse they do not A four-wheeled vehicle fitted with When the old man, Hervey found, a rows of celery is drawn through the time?"

AT WORK IN THE PLEAD CUTTING,

"'I do not know,' she answered, his efforts to save them, till they dis- from the earth, and with rapid and appeared beneath the rich, black, oozy skillful motions shake the dirt theresoil, never to reappear, he was still from, trim the roots and tops with more regretful. He had, nevertheless, knives made for the purpose, and lay desert. CASE WILLIAM STORY OF THE STOR a good thing, but he did not know it. the stalks to one side of the row where The bog was opportunity, but it took the packers find them and tie them into another to discover it. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF

In mtaters of great concern, and the East wandered down to Santa Ana October and lasts till well toward the argument of a weak mind than irresolu- handing wagon loads of dried peat about November 1, it will be seen that A Tippecance monument will be properly prepared, and coal and wood year. Day after day the yellow men which was entirely due to the acutewhich was entirely due to the acutewhich was entirely due to the acutemess and energy of Mr. Gregson, of in her throat to keep down her agita Henry Harrison's defeat of his savage California, a number of persons manthe long rows, and smid the pelting. erected in memory of General William being extremely scarce in Southern drag their mud-laden feet up and down not apparent. Congress is to be asked to appropriate he asked some questions and learned would scorn; and yet most of these The White Star line steamer Cedric, Smeltzer and saw it for himself. Next count.

Stranger's Level Head, what the soil of the peat swamp is, you won't find 'em along Broadway.

Public opinion was divided regarding. For hundreds, thousands and perhaps. "Now, this is a fact worthy of note, enjoyed an international experience of profit by his supposed mental infirmiprisons, sums it up in the epigram: ty, and they eagerly unloaded most of The freer the country the worse the the bog upon him. Some of them, Herjail." "I was first imprisoned in Aus- vey among the number, retained a part 'You tria," he says. "There I was treated of the bog land just to see if the stranlike a gentleman. In Germany they ger really had a rational motive in ac-set me to work at book binding. That quiring the well-nigh worthless real eswas easy. In London they made me tate. They are now congratulating pick oakum. That was very hard. The themselves that they did so.

en of the diffuse and most range.

The diffuse are first time I was imprisoned in America Some of this swamp land brought the on.

Some of this swamp land brought the one of this swamp land brought the one.

That was owners as much as $10 an acre. most of it, however, went for less than half that sum. To-day the land is worth $400 an acre, and off the 3,000 acres which are being utilized the Leading Nations of the World invited by owners will obtain this year a revenue of $300,000. An international investigation of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Bufearthquakes will probably be the next falo, Pittsburg, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. great inquiry jointly taken up by the Louis, and a hundred other cities in leading nations of the world. Em- the East are eating celery raised in them a shilling. "Now, off you go, and his profession, his antecedents would come back with a better report next all forbid it."

peror William is taking the lead in the great tule swamp of Orange counthis movement, doubtless not desiring ty. More than 20 cars a day are shipthis movement, doubtless not desiring ty. More than 20 cars a day are shipme."

He waved his hand, and they scambreast of the facts," I answered. 'Dethe propositions having a tendency to goes east of the Mississippi river. It land being worked. In order to do this a huge drainage canal, 14 feet wide and 12 feet deep, was run from the swamp to the ocean four miles away. The lateral drains empty into this Chinese labor was employed in digging the ditches and laying the tile through the soft earth and the same labor was used in clearing the swamp of the tule and other growth and putting the ground in condition to be plowed. Then came the problem, how to plow the land. Notwithstanding the drainage. the lands were still soft and spongy and the danger of bogging the horses was not slight. The stranger from the East was again equal to the emergency. He had, in the course of his travels had experience in navigating upon snowshoes, and he proceeded to rig the proposition advanced by the Ger. shoes for the horses on a modified snowshoe plan. Now the horses plow materially enhanced by reaction of the the land, bank the celery, pull the cutrecent eruption on the Islands of Mar- ting machines over the fields and cartinique and St. Vincent. It is expected ry away the crop in safety.

Cheap Labor Employed, Nearly all the labor employed is Chibe reached until the return of Secretary nese and Japanese. This is not so In her majesty's navy," cried Gregson, of your boarders when you wish.'
In the event of participation expert cheaper than other kinds—though that infleting his chest.

Sherlock Holmer gave a sigh of re—

"Would to God that I had given gates."

Hay.

In the event of participation expert cheaper than other kinds—though that scientists will be designated as delegated.

"Would to God that I had given gates." -as it is that the white men can not a series of howls, and one of the neigh- improvident men.

went down and down, in spite of all ered stalks by the tops and lift them bundles and put them in crates ready Eight or nine years ago a man from for shipment. The harvest begins in Hotels and Restaurants Object to Help about town, selling the product for the most of this work takes place at fuel. Peat burns very nicely when the most disagreeable senson of the stand the work. The planting begins born, passing by, heard the head of the in June and continues through July and | house use language that was calculated August, and the hot summer san beats to loose the thunderbolts of heaven on down upon the fields and the heat and the whole neighborhood. She stopped, the rank odors of the swamp, laden ran up to the door, and, pressing the with fever and malaria, are more than button, listened engerly at the speaking the average white man can endure. tube. "What in the world is your hus The Orientals, however, keep healthy, hand doing?" she asked, as the duicet hand speaking that those in the crowd "Ob," replied Eve, "he is merely rais who can hear him but cannot see him In a week or so after the plants have ing Cain. "It requires strong language to not discover any difference. Mr. Hill is a practiced public speaker, and can unquestionably do his subject jus-

And thus an expression was coined which promises to outlast history itself. tice without the use of manuscript, if necessity arises he is eminently satis-Portland Oregonian.

DIED OF STARVATION.

Sad Fate of a Prospector in that Great Deathtrap, the Colorado Desert.

J. P. Fay recently returned from a able to produce the proof against mistrip across the Colorado desert with representations. news of the death of J. A. Adams, Deputy County Surveyor of San Bernar- hurt in effect by being read by the dino County and a grandson of John speaker. Others depend altogether on Brown, the abolitionist of national the style of delivery. Senator Beverfame, says a correspondent of the St. idge, of Indiana, would not be a suc-Louis Republic. Adams met with a cess as a speech reader. Deliveries horrible death, wandering away from that depend more on flights of phrasethe surveying camp while temporarily ology and graceful emphasis than deep deranged and perishing of starvation, deliberation must be unburdened by "We were out on the desert prospect | manuscript.

ing for gold," said Fay. "An Indian, whom we had employed to show us quite the fashion. Gov. Nash read his where to find water on the desert, caught his foot in the stirrup while mounting his horse and fell on his to return that way. This sounded so put into the field and the soil is back. The borse started to run, dragnice and fanciful that it became a proverb, but like many other accepted all but the tops. As the stalks push ground was covered by jagged rocks, upward the banking is repeated and the indian would have been killed had upward the banking is repeated and the stalks are thus kept bleached and upward the mot Adams run up and seized the hanging about each man's door fairly tender till it is time for the cutting, horse by the bit. The animal, wild Cleveland has plenty of time, and probwith fright, reared and plunged. Adams was twice thrown upon the rocks, sharp knives which pass under the and once the horse's hoof struck him, but he still gripped the bit until Mr.

"After all the danger was over Adams sat down upon a rock and began laughing, and when asked if he was line of thought, but as to the language hurt replied: "Oh, no; I'm only a little employed. Even Ingersoll's great tired, but I guess you will have to help me set this arm.' We then started for President in this city in 1876, which Yuma, Adams riding some twenty-five seemed an immediate brilliant inspiramiles that afternoon and never once tion rather than a study, was rehearscomplaining, though we could see by ed in bed to the speaker's analous his drawn features that he was sufferbrother before the convention met.

ing intense pain. "At dusk we camped for the night, and within an hour the sick man was delirious and raving like a maniac. some time during the night he left camp. As soon as we discovered that he had gone we made every effort to find him, but could not do much until daylight, when we found his tracks to the sand. We followed the tracks all that day and until about 9 o'clock the next day, when we came to a hard, rocky place at the foot of some rock hills. Here we lost the trail, and, try as we might, we could not find it again, "For three days we searched the bills, but not a trace of the man could we discover, though we well knew that somewhere within a radius of twenty or thirty miles lay the body of one of the bravest men that ever lost his life

WAITERS AND EYEGLASSES.

Wearing Optical Aids. "Ever see a waiter wearing glasses? demanded the inquisitor.

No one could remember, although just why a waiter should not be seen with glasses as well as any other man was

"It's just like the wearing of beards." Scotland Yard.

Sherbock Holmes and I read these said that there were two trains—one and they appeared to afford him con and they appeared to afford him con catch the first.

"It's just like the wearing of beards," and smid the pelting.

California, a number of persons man the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

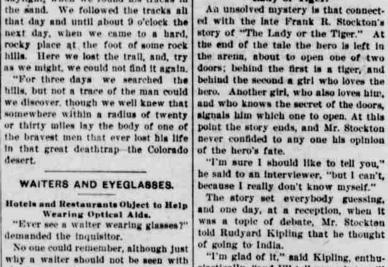

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting.

Chilly rains work steadily and uncombent to the long rows, and smid the pelting. seards or glasses to be worn by their all about it. Then he went down to laborers have a comfortable bank ac valters. It is possible that in some oldashloned family or commercial botel 21,000 tons, the largest liner affoat, he began purchasing all the swamp. It takes strong soil to raise good the servitors may be found with their celery year after year, and this is just noses straddled by optical helps, but tions for 3,000 passengers. It is said the stranger. He must be either idi- millions of years the rains of winter because in every other calling in life the Cedric will be ready for service in otle or insane, the people thought, and have carried down to the tule swamp the number of persons wearing glasses the vote was about a tie as to which the vegetation of the mountains mix- is on the increase, and even in our was the case. Nevertheless the own- ed with the soll borne along with the schools a considerable percentage of Herr Most, the anarchist, who has ers of the swamp lands made haste to rushing torrents the rains send down very small children will be found wear-

AS TO PUBLIC SPEAKING

Few Great Speeches Come Without the practice David B. Hill has lately adopted of reading his speeches to his audiences, though it is said that he reads with such a show of off-factory as an extemporaneous speaker. These be formative times, how-ever, and he is probably anxious to keep his record straight, and to be

Some kinds of speeches are not much

Reading speeches is getting to be speech as temporary chairman of the Republican State convention from typewritten pages, and Gen. Grosvenor,

Ex-Senator Hill is a busy man, and probably had not the time to commit his speech to memory. Ex-President the permanent chairman, also read his ably had his Tilden Club remarks

Of one thing the admiring public may rest assured: Very few, if any, of the great speeches come spontacously from the speaker without previous reflection and preparation, not only as to the sentiment and general speech placing Blaine in nomination

The brother went to Robert's room early in the morning to spur him to preparation. "How will this do?" asked Robert, as he raised bimself from the pillows. Then that great speech was delivered for the first time, and to Lady or Tiger.

only one man.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

"pat."

womler has been expressed at

"I'm glad of it," said Kipling, enthustastically, "and I'll tell you what we'll do with you! We'll lure you into the jungle, and have you selzed and bound. We'll have you turned on your back, and get one of our biggest elephants to stand over you with his fo above your head. Then I'll say, in my most insinuating tone, 'Come now, Stockton, which was it, the lady or the tiger?" At one time Mr. Stockton was the guest of honor at a dinner given in Washington by a member of President Harrison's cabinet. When the dessert was served it proved to be two large plates of ice cream, one an orange ice in the mold of a tiger, the other of vanilla, in the form of a woman. The plates were set in front of the hostess, and she turned to her guest with a prematurely triumphant air.

"Which kind do you prefer, Mr. Stockton?" she asked. "A little of both, of you please!"

Willing to Wait. The natives of Sierra Leone are not behind the rest of the world in expecting a present at Christmas, but unlike more conventional races, they have the candor to ask for it. "Massa," inquires the native, "what you go give me for my Christmas?" The author of "The Sherbro and Its Hinterland," says that on other special occasions similar requests are common.

In 1887, during the celebration of the Queen's Jubliee, which happened to come at the same time as the centenary commemoration of the founding of the colony of Sierra Leone, a local character at Freetown approached me, and said, "Massa, what you go to give me for my jubilee?"

I was not disposed to take the hint, and be added:

"What! You no give me nutting for my jubilee? Well, no matter! You go give me something for my centenary?" He was again unsuccessful; but when I told him that I would think the matter over, and he might come around on his next centenary, he went away quite contented.

The Reward of Curiosity. It cannot be said that the rebuke contained in the following anecdote from the New York Times was conveyed in the best way, but it undoubtedly found its mark: While on a trip through the South soon after the civil war, a prominent man stopped over night at the little town of Warrenton, N. C. The next morning, while he was strolling around. he met a countryman who greeted him with, "Howdy!" and passed the time of day most cordially. The native was barefooted, and, having some curiosity about it, the visitor said:

"Is it the custom of the country for the men to go without shoes?" "Wal," was the drawling reply, "some on us does, but most on us 'tends to our own business." Increase of Election Districts. The number of election districts this year is increased from 1,537 to 1,543.

Be sure your sins will find you out if you are ever a candidate for office.

BANKING THE CELERY WITH A DOUBLE PLOW

their steep sides. in this natural sink | ing glasses. And while, as I say, hotel, that could be found for the purpose them. for which it is now being used. After the last of the crop has been taken ers are generally young men. Grant time attained a rank growth, is plow- cupation. ed under and its luxuriance goes to enmands of the new celery crop.

this erstwhile bog was fully 1,200 cars. count in a measure for the absence of As each car holds 150 crates and each crate contains six dozen stalks, it will Moreover, the steam from hot viands he seen that the product of the swamp would render them useless probably." reached nearly 13,000,000 stalks. This -New York Evening Telegram. brought in the markets more than $300,000, fully one-half of which found its way into the pockets of the growers. Truly a handsome sum to pull from the cozy mud of a peat bog.

What Adam Was Doing. It was midnight. Suddenly in the Adam residence there was a cry, then the vegetation has decayed and sank restaurant and cafe proprietors are opbeneath the next layer brought down posed to the glasses, still I have seldom from the "everlasting hills." Thus na- found a walter whose eyes indicated ture has formed one of the best soils that he was in the slightest need of "You may argue that restaurant walt-from the fields, the ground is plowed you that instantly, but, all the same, and sown to barley. Just before plant- thousands of men of similar age have ing time, the barley, which has by this to wear them in almost every other ec-"The majority of these servitors com rich the soil and minister to the de mence in boybood, and the demand of their vocation causes no strain on the Last season's output of celery from eyesight. Consequently that may acany necessity for the use of speca.

> Largest Farm Known. The biggest average farm in the world is in South Australia, where the average squatter holds 78,000 acres.

There is nothing in the wide, wide world that so speedily pounds sense into a foolish girl as marriage to an