

DATE HAS BEEN FIXED FOR MINSTREL SHOW

Set for Tuesday Evening, November 25.

BOYS WILL GIVE REGULAR BOOMER

Get the Date Fixed and Help the Entertainment Fund.

The local talent of the male persuasion have fixed the date for the big Minstrel Show, which is to provide funds for the big state meetings to be held here, in December, by the Oregon Dairyman's Association, the Wool Growers' Association, the Farmers' Congress, etc.

The time set for the big affair is November 25, and the boys are busy getting into the harness. Mc Kanlass will not be in it—he'll be a back number—and the biggest show of the season is promised. There will be some singing that will beat any of the visiting troupes sent this way for a long time, and the end men promise all kinds of enjoyment. Just make up your mind to come and see this bit of tom-foolery and enjoy yourself for one night. There will be plenty of jokes, and no whippers on them. New take-offs, only, will go. Remember the date, Tuesday evening, November 25.

Portland Will Entertain.

The Oregon Irrigation Association convention of over 400 delegates will assemble in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday, November 18 and 19; also the Oregon Bar Association meets there on the same days, on which occasions the railroads have made reduced rates, tickets good for six days on all lines from points in Oregon to Portland.

Portland proposes to entertain all visitors over the railroads on the occasion with a ball or concert, free theatres, with visits to wheat ships, public library, Oregon Historical Society rooms, the $500,000 City Hall and the $1,000,000 Federal custom house, a steamboat ride on the Willamette and Columbia rivers and in other ways as will best show Portland's enterprise, hospitality and desire to become better acquainted with the people of the whole state and they with it.

It is expected several thousand people from all over Oregon will take advantage of the cheap excursion rates announced by the O R & N, Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific to visit Portland irrigation week, and it is the intention of the business men of Portland to give these a royal welcome and free entertainment regardless of whether they come as regularly appointed delegates or simply as visitors.

State Bar Meeting.

Hon R. P. Boise, of Salem, for more than 50 years a member of the Oregon bar, and almost continuously a member of the Supreme court, will deliver an address on "Fifty Years' Recollection of the Bench and Bar of Oregon" at the State Bar Meeting in Portland Nov 18 and 19. The president's address will be delivered by Judge John B. Cleland, the president of the association. Papers will be read by Hon. A. C. Woodcock, of the Eugene bar, and by Hon. Alfred F. Sears, Jr., judge of the circuit court of the Fourth circuit. Subjects to be announced later.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Hattie Cahow, of Scholls, was tendered a birthday party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Groner, Halloween night, in celebration of her 18th year. Parlor games were the amusements until supper was served. The birthday cake was illuminated with tapers and the board was nicely decorated. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cahow, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flint, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Groner, the Misses Calla Koerber, Emma Hesse, Ina Rowell, Grace, Minnie and Jennie Sutherland and Messrs. Benj and Henry Jack, Frank and Bert Rowell, Wm. Louis and Henry Hesse, Lawrence Crowder, K. Warren, Herman Koerber and Mr. Kirby.

Herman Collier was up from Scholls the last of the week.

Schulmerich Bros. want a carload of Burbank potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carstens, of Manning, were in the city yesterday.

Miss Ona Foard, of this city, has gone to Portland to enter the High School.

Miss Etta Schulmerich is spending the winter at Sumpter, the guest of Mrs. Neil Sorenson.

Grand hall, at W. O. W. hall, at Cedar Mill, Saturday eve, Nov. 8. Tickets, including supper, 75 cents.

Furniture, carpets, matting, wall papers, trunks, telescopes, bamboo furniture, at McCormick's, at reasonable prices. Don't forget the place—three doors south from post office.

Attorney Huffman, of Forest Grove, has asked Judge McBride to restrain County Judge Rood from requiring a new bond in the administration of the estate of Gus Hartrampf, deceased. Two brothers of the deceased are on the bond of the widow, and they ask to be relieved. The court cited the widow to appear, and then gave her ten days in which to file a new bond. Against this order the petition for a restraining order is filed. The trouble arose over a note signed by the father of the deceased. Gus asked for no interest, and so the widow insisted on interest, and finally sued the father-in-law. To this, the brothers did not take kindly, and they accordingly asked to be released from the bond. Judge Rood says it feels funny to be sued.

Winter is soon here, and you will want winter clothing. We keep up-to-date suits at prices that will surprise you. A good winter suit for yourself; for the boy, and an overcoat thrown in, will not make a very big hole in your pocketbook if you buy at H. Wehrung & Sons.

Taxpayers may well feel encouraged, indeed. The bar association, which is to meet at Portland this month, has an idea which is not without merit. In civil cases it will probably demand that a majority vote of a jury shall bring a verdict. How many times has one man held up a case for another trial, to the knowledge of many citizens, and in many places how many times is a man placed on a jury for that particular purpose. Portland has the reputation of doing this more than any other city in the northwest, and if a new law, making a majority vote a verdict, can be passed it should be welcomed.

Farmers in need of first class tiling will find the article at Groner & Rowell's new factory at Scholls, where one of the finest kilns ever completed in the county has just been cooled. You can buy at the factory or we will deliver. Will fill orders for all sizes. Also a fine line of brick and building blocks. Write for prices or call on firm at Scholls.

The Hillsboro band is getting a lustle on itself. Since September 1, the new members joining are: The Tibury brothers, cornets; J. A. Kremis, E flat clarinet; Fred Sewell and Carl Heigel, alto French. Frank Fields, of the Verboort band, will also join as soon as he comes to town. This will give the band a great lead, and the boys will take West Side laurels next time.

This is the time of the year when you feel heavy—and you can do your inner man the most good by buying your groceries at Dennis' Main street store. Don't forget that he keeps the finest lines to be found in the city—up-to-date and the purest and best selections of all kinds.

Crescent Flour will give you satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it. Get it once and your kitchen will not be without it. We have placed this flour with John Dennis, Main street, for the benefit of those who use and call for it. Crescent Mills, Forest Grove.

Word comes that J. H. McNamer who has been in a Portland hospital for several weeks, is getting along so well that he will be able to come home in a short time. He was pretty low for a time after the operation, but since he began to improve is getting along rapidly.—Forest Grove Times.

Do you need a hat? Come and see us. We keep the latest. Do you need gent's furnishing goods? We have them. Do you need groceries? Of course you do—and we have the best. And remember that H. Wehrung & Sons pay the highest market price for farm produce.

The rains of the past week have made the plowing good, but it looks as though the bad weather will stop operations this fall. There is a very small acreage of winter wheat sown this year as compared with previous years. A little good weather, however, and a large area of grain can be sown.

Hillsboro cows still run at large—good leather. There is good leather in Dennis' shoe stock. Ask those who buy from him. Latest styles and best in quality. A specialty of ladies' shoes and a full line of all kinds.

Marshal Atkinson is repairing many of the street crossings, and the work is not at all out of place. Sidewalk repairing, however, seems to have gone on a strike. It is expected that the street leading to the depot—Second street—will soon be planked.

James Butler has been doing some very nice free-hand pencil work in drawing poster work for the coming minstrel show. James can draw a con that is a regular "swell," and his work is quite worthy.

Special inducements made on all pictures until after the holidays. Special bargains in frames and all large work. Consult your own interest. Call at Pope's studio and be convinced. Hillsboro.

I have some very fine young Black Minorca cockerels for sale.—R. H. Greer.

GROWERS ARE NOW SELLING THEIR HOPS

Top of the Market is 25 1-2 Cents.

MARKET SEEMS TO BE ON SUMMIT

Krebs Brothers and Carmichael are the Buyers.

There is something doing in hops this week and thousands of pounds of the crop has been transferred from the grower to the speculator in the last two or three days. Krebs Brothers, of Salem, last night bought the Bagley crop for 25 1/2 cents. Krebs Brothers already had 10,000 pounds of the Bagley crop at 11 cents, on an old contract, and when they received that lot they told Bagley they would give him an advance of 1/4 of a cent more per pound than any other offer which might be made.

THE BIGGEST DEAL.

James Sewell, representing Carmichael, of Salem, has purchased the following crops: The James H. Sewell crop, Hillsboro. The Zina Wood crop, Hillsboro. The J. A. Imbrie crop, West Union. The John and Chas. Buchanan crop, Cornelius. The Pollock crop, Cornelius. The Robert Porter crop, Forest Grove. The J. B. McPherson crop, Greenville. The W. L. Moore crop, Greenville. These sales clean up about 1,500 bales and comprise the choicest lots of hops to be found in Oregon.

PROBATE

Estate Alexander McDonald, dec'd; set for final settlement Dec 1. Estate Geo Alexander; account approved and administrator authorized to pay all claims as allowed, and $300 advanced by Geo Alexander. Estate Charlotte Hornbuckle finally settled.

Guardianship Edna Her; license granted to sell real estate. Final account estate Anderson Smith set for Dec. 8. Estate Melki Johnson closed of record.

UNIFORM RANK BALL.

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, will give a ball at the Opera House, Thursday night, November 27. A fine orchestra will be in attendance, and the best of order will be maintained. The Uniform Rank can be depended on to give a splendid time, their last dance being the event of the summer season. The Uniform Rank from Cornelius and Forest Grove will be in attendance. The public is generally invited.

SCHAFFER-ROSS.

A quiet wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Ross, at high noon, Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1902, when her youngest daughter, Miss Mary E. Ross was united in marriage to Mr. John B. Schaffer, Mr. A. Robinson, Presbyterian pastor, officiating. The bride is a daughter of the late Rev. Geo. Ross, who, for many years, was the pastor of the Scotch Presbyterian church, on Tualatin Plains. The groom is superintendent of one of Congressman Tongue's farms north of town. They will reside in this county.

Strayed or Stolen.

From the premises of F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro, Ore., one large, white and red cow; white face, crumpled horns, about 7 years old, giving milk. A suitable reward will be paid any one who will furnish information leading to the recovery of same by F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro.

When you want nice new raisins, currants and citron, go to Greer's.

Pacific University again offers the Corbett Scholarship prize of $50, and the Tibbals prize for oratory, of $50. W. G. Hale, of this city, won the latter prize last year.

A. J. Roy took possession of the poor farm November 1 and will personally superintend that institution. There are at present 15 paupers at the farm, with the likelihood of this number being increased in the near future.

Dress patterns, dress goods, flannellettes, outings, cretons, table linens, ladies' wrappers and wool underwear, in all kinds of lines and styles at H. Wehrung & Sons. No trouble to show you goods. We keep the latest.

A. C. Davis, of Patton Valley, was in town yesterday, making a call on the county court. On September 22, Mr. Davis, while riding across the apron of a bridge injured one of his ankles, severely. This was occasioned by the horse he was riding breaking through the apron. Mr. Davis asks the court for $250 damages.

New walnuts at Greer's. Subscribe for the best county paper—The Argus.

Greer has got his new canned goods in—and they are fine.

Dr. J. E. Adkins has returned from a month's trip to Morrow and Gilliam counties.

J. C. Miller, of beyond Glencoe was in town Tuesday. Mr. Miller has been having a great deal of illness in his family this year.

Beef, Iron and Wine, when properly combined, make an ideal Tonic and Restorative. Such an article you will find at The Delta. Price, 50 cents.

Geo. Schulmerich and Zina Wood were up to the Arlington country the first of the week, in quest of the festive wild goose.

Dr. Lowe, the well known optician, will be in Hillsboro, December 1, 2 and 3. In order to remember the dates, cut this out.

Yes, the bird law is out now, and you can kill 'em! Get your guns and ammunition of E. L. McCormick—he has the kind that will kill 'em.

D. B. Renssner, who has been with J. B. Tillotson, the Albany bridge builder, putting up a bridge on the Sandy, was home the other day on a visit with his family.

You get more for your produce and buy groceries cheaper at H. Wehrung & Sons than at any other store in Washington county. Don't forget this—and we mean just what we say. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Greer always has the finest Christmas stock in the city, and this year his assortment will be finer than ever.

Congressman T. H. Tongue addressed the students of the State University, at Eugene, yesterday morning, taking as his subject "Success and Failure."

John Loftis, of Glencoe, was in town the other day, the first time for some months. He says that everything is prospering up on the hill.

Ladies, don't wear your shoes out looking for new raisins and currants—but just go to headquarters for groceries. R. H. Greer's is the place.

Frank Fields, leader of the Verboort band, is said to have accepted a position with a grocery in this city, and he will move here with his family in a few weeks.

Sermons are not always tiresome. The truth always wears—and so do the shoes sold by Dennis. Try a pair from his stock and you will become a permanent customer. Footwear for big and little. Also a complete line of hosiery.

Albert Verboort, for 20 years a resident of the Verboort vicinity, and who has had much to do with the settling of that section with its present population, has gone to De Pere, Wisconsin, to permanently reside.

We carry the biggest shoe stock in Washington county. It stands to reason, therefore, that we can give you a better shoe for less money than our competitors. Shoes for the whole family.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

J. C. Clark, who bought the building just east of the Sappington-Redmond barn has sold the property to Heidel & Wall, who are repairing it to be occupied by the restaurant people, who bought the Second street restaurant some time since.

Several parties in the city from Forest Grove this week, state that the saloon fight is again on in that beautiful little city nestling in the base of the foothills. There is some talk of having the charter amended so that a saloon can be licensed in the city.

Here you are, ladies! No use for you to go to Portland, for we will beat Portland bargains for ladies' tailor-made skirts. Latest styles, elegant fitting garments, and quite the thing for winter wear.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Harry Withycombe left Sunday for Chicago, to complete a course in pharmacy in the University of Illinois. He will enter the senior class, and expects to graduate in the spring.—Corvallis Times. Harry is a son of Dr. James Withycombe, well known here and over in South Tualatin.

B. G. Leedy, of Tigardville, Master of the Oregon State Grange, departed yesterday for Lansing, Michigan, where he will attend the convention of the National Grange. He will be absent a month, and hopes to secure legislation that will permit the Pomona Granges to elect officers every two years instead of every year.

Justice of the Peace H. T. Bagley, Tuesday, heard the case of State vs. Barney Leise, defendant, being charged with having "Thrown down and leaving down a fence inclosing premises not his own." Ellen Kennedy was the prosecuting witness. The jury consisted of A. C. Archbold, H. McIntire, E. C. Brown, P. H. Baughman and C. Larsen, who returned a verdict of acquittal. S. B. Huston asisted E. B. Tongue in the State's prosecution, and the defense was handled by Attorney Clark, of Portland. The fence in question was on a strip of land over which there had been a dispute for some years.

WARRANTS DRAWN FOR THE LONG BRIDGE

Contractor Goodin is paid for the big Driveway.

COST COURT OVER FOUR THOUSAND

Big month for the Recorder's Office. New Telephone Line.

The county court has been in session since yesterday morning. Contractor Goodin was paid $3,376.50, the balance due him on the construction of the long bridge between here and Cornelius. This makes the wood work of the structure cost $3,876.50. W. L. Crocker was paid $400 for the earth work. The bids on the bridge near Tigardville were: M. S. Dailey, $190; Emil Heilman, $140; J. W. Goodin, $150. Heilman was granted the contract.

T. G. Meacham was in town from Mountaineer the last of the week and says that the mountain people are getting ready to "hole up" for the winter.

O. G. Barlow left the last of the week for New York, where he will spend the winter with relatives and friends whom he has not visited for a good many years.

With the stores closed at 7:30 and the post-office also out of business at that hour, the old town is quite cheerless these evenings. Postmaster Waggoner states that as soon as spring opens the hours will be as in the past.

F. J. Barber and wife have returned from Umatilla county and will remain here for the winter. Frank brought down several head of horses with him, and will put in the time breaking them. His brother Chas. will stay up there all winter.

The city council met last evening and transacted the routine business generally attendant at the session. S. B. Huston resigned as councilman, and the vacancy will be filled at the election, which will take place the first Monday in December.

Chas. K. Henry, who has bargained for the Campbell place, formerly the Masters' place, in East Hillsboro, was in the city last Friday. Mr. Henry intends residing here and making daily trips to his Portland office. This is one of the finest places in the city and reaches down on the Jackson Bottom.

Judge Crandall and wife have returned after a two months' absence, during which time they made a trip to Duluth, Fairmont, Minnesota, and Cheboygan, Michigan. Mr. Crandall states that of a full train of immigrants starting westward, but four or five families came on through to Oregon. He says that the majority who crossed the Rocky Mountains came on to Washington, and that Oregon was scarcely mentioned by the immigrants. He states that he found plenty of literature in the east advertising Washington, but that never a pamphlet of Oregon seems to find its way to the exodus districts of the Mississippi Valley.

While S. H. Dunbar was digging potatoes the other day, on the Natty Richardson donation, he found a fifty-cent piece which was coined in 1848. It is very evident that the coin was lost very soon after the date of the mint as the milling is as marked as ever, and there is no evidence of its having been carried in the pocket. Mr. Richardson came to the coast at a very early date and it is supposed that he lost it shortly after settling on the place south of Hillsboro.

Did you know that the holidays are coming? Why not take time by the forelock and send a handsome photo east to your relatives or to your friends. A photo is a gentle reminder that you have not forgotten the recipient, and it is oftentimes appreciated more than a costly present. Pope, the photographer, will give you special inducements on all kinds of photo work from now on until after the holidays. Come early and avoid the rush.

Hallowe'en passed off quietly in this city and those who lost their temper were few and far between. The Argus editor lost his gate and it was found the next morning down at the office; W. N. Barrett lost his gate and put in several hours finding it; Senator Wehrung lost two gates, and many others suffered from some little prank. Some of the boys who were out were not as small as they might have been.

The onion crop has not moved very much as yet, but prices are expected to rule strong before the 1st of January. The San Francisco market is quoted at about fifty cents per sack. Growers in the Oregon market are getting 75 cents and $1.00 per hundred weight, and but few are letting go. All seem to think that while the price may not go up to last year, the next few weeks will see a better market.

A ticket is given away with a cash purchase of $1.00 and entitles you to a drawing on the following prizes: 1st prize, Ladies' Tailor Made Skirt, value $8.00; 2d prize, Gent's Patent Leather Shoes, value $5.00; 3d prize, goods to the value of $5.00; 4th prize, Suit for boy under 10 years of age, value $4.00; 5th prize, Dress Goods for girl under 10 years of age, value $4.00—Given away by H. Wehrung & Sons.

O. E. Leet, of Falls City, Polk county, was in town the first of the week, looking after some of his property here. He says that work is progressing rapidly on the railroad to connect Dallas and his home town. Mr. Leet at one time conducted a billiard parlor in this city and will be remembered by many old-timers.

It begins to look as though the winter rains have set in, but no one should complain, as this has been one of the nicest Autumns for many years. Until the last week the leaves were green on many of the trees, the foliage of which generally turns a month or so earlier. We may now look out for five or six months of moisture.

The machinery built for the Dr. J. P. Tamiesie condensed milk factory has been shipped from Detroit and will soon be here. The plant will be installed at Glencoe, where the cheese factory was operated this summer, and where there is a big field for milk supply. Even Glencoe is getting the good things away from Hillsboro.

The U. S. Pension Examiners, consisting of Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, Dr. C. L. Large and Dr. W. D. Wood, met yesterday and examined the following veterans: Franklin Doughty, Hillsboro; Louis Groendyke, Dilley; John P. Means, Portland; James L. Hembree, Sheridan; Peter Newberg, Portland and Samuel Fowler, Clackamas.
