CONGRESSMAN TONGUE NOW LAYS AT REST

Remains Reached Here Saturday Evening Last.

LARGEST CONCOURSE EVER HERE

Distinguished People Here. Thousands View the Remains.

The body of Congressman Tongue reached this city last Saturday evening from its trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The train was met at the depot by the Uniform Rank, K. of P., commanded by Major Laurel M. Hoyt. Fully a thousand people were at the station when the special arrived at 6:15. The casket was escorted to the family residence, and four Uniformed Knights assisted as a guard through the night.

The next day, between ten and eleven o'clock the Odd Fellows of the county marched to the residence, and under military escort of the Uniform Rank, McMinnville, Forest Grove and Hillsboro Companies, conveyed the body to the court house, where it was viewed by several thousand people. Four squads of the Uniform Rank guarded the gates, the portal and the casket, and took care of the concourse who took their last look at the noted man. At 2:00 p. m. the special from Portland arrived, and on this there were hundreds of distinguished visitors, the Congressional delegation from Washington; members of the State Legislature, Portland's mayor, and many others, who came to pay their last respects to the deceased. From the court house the body was again conveyed by the Odd Fellows, the Uniform Rank again acting as escort, to the Methodist church, where the Masons took charge. After the Masons, K. of P., Odd Fellows and the Bar Association, members of the Legislature, Ex-Governor Geer and Governor Chamberlain, Mayor Williams, of Portland, and other distinguished attendants were seated, the church was full and thousands remained on the outside. The Congressional delegation, Grand Master Mason W. F. Butcher, Dr. F. A. Bailey, Hon. Geo. E. Chamberlain, Hon. T. T. Geer, Hon. C. W. Fulton, Dr. C. E. Cline and the attendant local clergy, Rev. Zimmerman and Rev. Kennedy, occupied seats in the pulpit.

Rev. L. E. Rockwell, of Portland preached the funeral sermon, Rev. Kline and Rev. Zimmerman offered prayer, Rev. Kennedy read from the Scripture, and the Grand Lodge of Masons then took charge of the rites. At the grave the Masons performed the ritualistic service in full, Grand Master Hon. W. F. Butcher leading.

The Congressional delegation attending the body from Washington were: Malcolm Moody, Oregon; Jas E. Colenso and J. H. Davidson, Wisconsin; J. E. Ramsdell, Louisiana; R. P. Bishop, Michigan; J. D. Bellamy, North Carolina; J. C. Needham, California, and James E. Howard, of Georgia.

Prominent members of the State Bar present were: Hon. S. B. Huston, Pres.; Supreme Judges, R. S. Bean and Chas. Wolverton; Circuit Judges, T. A. McBride, Cleland, M. C. George, Alfred Sears, W. R. Ellis; Milton Smith, H. E. McGinn, Geo. H. Williams, Judge Caples, J. T. Whalley, Wm. Galloway, Wm. D. Fenton, Dan J. Malarkey, Alex Sweek, Edwin Mays, Roswell Connor, Jas McCain, C. W. Fulton, Benton Killen, E. V. Littlefield, J. N. Brown.

The legislature was well represented.

The Masonic pall bearers were Gov. Chamberlain, Congressman J. N. Williams, Ex-Congressman Ellis, Senator Cameron, of Jackson county; Hon. W. D. Fenton, Dr. Harris, of Eugene; Hon. W. N. Barrett and Dr. J. E. Adkins, of Hillsboro.

The Odd Fellows' pall bearers were N. P. Oakerman, Reedville, D. B. Emerick, Scholls; Hon. C. F. Tigard, Tigardville; Hon. D. M. C. Gault, J. C. Lamkin and James H. Sewell, Hillsboro.

The floral offerings were the most magnificent ever witnessed in the state. These were tendered by the Congressional delegation, the State Legislature, the Bar Association, the Masonic, the Odd Fellows, Pythian and Rathbone orders, and from friends everywhere.

It was dark before the last rites were observed.

Mrs. Tongue, who was prostrated by grief, was unable to attend the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Thos. H. Tongue and family wish to express their thanks and appreciation to their friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness in their late bereavement.

This is the dull season—and that is the season in which you should watch the pennies. Pennies make dollars—did it ever occur to you? Come to the Racket Store for your underwear, your shirts and your gents' furnishing goods. Save your money for a rainy day. For every dollar you spend with the Racket you will save a few cents to "bump" that traditional rainy day. We mean business.

John Milne has received his returns from the United States' mint at San Francisco, and his twenty-dollar gold piece was cashed in for but ten cents less than its face value. The silver was badly jammed up and did not fare so well, some of it not being recognizable.

Interesting for ladies—the following reductions on our tailor-made skirts: $8.00 reduced to $6.00; $7.50 reduced to $5.50; $7.00 reduced to $5.00; $5.00 reduced to $4.00; $4.50 reduced to $3.50. A 10 per cent reduction on ladies' flannelette wrappers. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Dr. F. J. Bailey, ranking as captain, and for three years a surgeon in Philippine service, returns here tomorrow for an extended stay. Mrs. Bailey will arrive in a week or ten days from San Francisco.

Farmers in need of first class tiling will find the article at Groner & Rowell's new factory at Scholls, where one of the finest kilns ever completed in the county has just been cooled. You can buy at the factory or we will deliver. Will fill orders for all sizes. Also a fine line of brick and building blocks. Write for prices or call on firm at Scholls.

H. D. Schmeltzer, the wood contractor, has purchased the Porter place, in Southeast Hillsboro, from John Masters, and will soon take up his residence on the place.

Crescent Flour will give you satisfaction. Ask your grocer for it. Get it once and your kitchen will not be without it. We have placed this flour with John Dennis, Main street, for the benefit of those who use and call for it. Crescent Mills, Forest Grove.

I have taken up four hogs, about one year old; black, with white spots; weight, about 175 pounds each. Owner will please call, settle costs and take the same away.—Jacob Arn, 2 miles east of Cedar Mill, Cornell Road.

Owners of dogs are now being asked to pay the regular city license, $1.00 for males and $2.00 for females. Marshal Atkinson desires to notify owners that the license is now due.

Mr. Morgan is a compositor, and at present is engaged with the Independent. They will make their home in Hillsboro.

The wedding was attended by the immediate relatives and friends of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Morgan and family, of Corvallis, were present at the solemnization of the bonds.

WORKING HARD ON COUNTY TAX ROLL

Hope to get Extensions made by March 1.

J. L. BARNARD EXTENDING FIGURES

Largest Taxroll Ever Tabulated in this County.

Work is being pushed as rapidly as possible on the biggest tax roll ever written up in Washington county. For several weeks two assistants have been busily engaged in writing up the copy for the use of the sheriff, and Mr. J. L. Barnard, now of Portland, commenced this morning to make the extensions—that is, to add the figures as levied. The tax of the towns, road districts, where special levies are made, and the special levies of school districts are to be computed and added, and it is a work of great magnitude. The clerk hopes to have the work completed by March 1, but the roll is so big that it may be a few days late. However, all that can possibly be done to forward the matter, is provided. The roll, with the special taxation, will run considerable over $100,000.

REEDVILLE GRATEFUL.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue, through the solicitation of S. T. Adams, caused to be sent to the Reedville school library six mail pouches of valuable books from Washington, D. C., last week. Prof. Adams has secured and has the promise of about 300 volumes for this library.

A meeting was held at the Reedville school house last Thursday evening to commemorate the character and service of the late Hon. T. H. Tongue. Appropriate hymns were sung, Scripture readings and a recitation and several short talks were made. Prof. S. T. Adams read "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud?" Mr. Lincoln's favorite poem. The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Death has recently removed from our National Council Halls, as well as from his family and friends, the late Thos. H. Tongue; and

Whereas, We, his former associates, neighbors and fraternal brethren, deem it meet to pay some tribute to his memory for his worth as a man, a citizen, a legislator and a friend, and as he has so very recently been the means of having sent our school library not fewer than one hundred and fifty very valuable books; therefore,

Be it resolved, that we, his aforesaid associates, neighbors, friends and brethren, greatly deplore his loss from every walk of life, and we, hereby, extend to his grief stricken wife and children our most profound sympathy during this, the crucial sorrow of their lives; and, further,

Be it resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent, severally, to the family, and to the county and city papers.

Blooded Swine for Sale.

Blooded Chester White boar pigs, three and four months old, for sale. Entitled to registry. Call on or write, F. F. and A. E. Hanley, Hillsboro, Ore.

Mrs. S. G. Sutton, who left here December 29, writes from San Francisco that she was met at Oakland by her son-in-law, Dr. Williams, and that she is enjoying herself in the Golden Gate city. She writes that the doctor has a fine dental practice, and that he is permanently located. She says that it is as cold down there as it is in Oregon, and that the streets are as muddy as they are in Portland. While she is enjoying good health, she says she already wants a drink of good Oregon water, and she thinks she will be home before long.

The lucky numbers at our drawing last Saturday were: First prize, 1921; 2nd prize, 498; 3rd prize, 426; 4th prize, 1495; 5th prize, 1071. R. Carlile drew the first prize. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Zephania Bryant and wife, of Clatskanie, died at their home last Thursday, one in the morning, the other in the evening. The husband came to Oregon from Indiana in 1852, and shortly after resided in this county, near Cornelius. He was married to the wife in 1862, she being a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. Bryant was 71 years of age, and his wife, nine years younger. Many of the old pioneers around Cornelius will remember Mr. Bryant as living there in the early fifties.

A ticket is given away with each cash purchase of $1.00, and entitles you to a drawing on the following prizes: 1st prize, Iron Bedstead, $7.50; 2nd prize, Set Silver Knives and Forks $5.00; 3rd prize, Lady's Shoes, $3.50; 4th prize, Gent's Shoes, $3.50; 5th prize, $2.50 in trade to boy under 10 years old; 6th prize, $2.50 in trade to girl under 10 years old. Rev. R. H. Kennedy will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning, a sermon to the children especially, with object illustrations; and in the evening, at 7:30 o'clock, will talk on the life and permanent work of Rev. Phillips Brooks, "the most loved man of America." All are cordially invited to these services.

Everybody knows it. What? That Dennis keeps the finest line of groceries on sale at the county seat. Just come in and look at his stock. Fruit in season.

President John H. Coleman, of Willamette University, will speak at the M. E. church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Dr. Coleman has recently come from New York to take charge of the educational interest of the Methodist church in Oregon. He is an attractive speaker. Do not fail to hear him.

Captain W. H. H. Myers, of Forest Grove, is at Salem, conferring legislators and fellow veterans in regard to a law enforcing an appropriation to pay in full, services as Indian War Veterans under the territorial government. They ask $300,000 worth of bonds to pay these claims.

Mask ball, at Bethany Hall, on evening of February 14. Five prizes will be distributed. Tickets, 75 cents.—Bethany Hall Club.

Those who have tried the evaporated cream manufactured by the Oregon Condensed Company pronounce it far beyond anything now on the market. This is an excellent beginning. Every bit of the product is examined by a competent physician before canning. The Oregon Grape Brand is bound to be a favorite with consumers.

Commencing Monday, Schulmerich Bros. will have a boot and shoe sale. We must clear out our stock to make room for new lines coming on soon.

W. H. Lyda, of Cedar Canyon, was in town yesterday, after surgical aid for his little daughter. Mr. Lyda has had a big run with his sawmill this season, and has orders for a big cut next year. He has furnished a big per cent of the material for the big condensed milk factory at Forest Grove.

Wesley Garrison and A. C. Shute landed fifty eight ducks the other day, and they and their friends have been regaling on canvassbacks ever since.

Mr. Krauss, who recently bought the Prosser place below Farmington, fell the other day and badly sprained his right knee joint. Dr. Bailey is in care of the wounded member.

Rev. G. K. Berry, of Portland, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening.
