

HILLSBORO MAY YET BE RAILROAD TOWN

Southern Pacific Looking over Another Route

WANTS NEW LINE INTO PORTLAND

Their Civil Engineer looking over Hillsboro-Tualatin route.

Hillsboro may yet become a railroad town by the grace of the Southern Pacific and the natural lay of land.

The proposed line will tap one of the finest sections in Oregon, and the road will acquire a great amount of traffic that it now does not get.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Decoration Day, May 30th, the ritualistic services of decorating graves of comrades will be held at the cemetery. All are invited to join with us in the observation of the day, and the Hillsboro band and the public school are earnestly requested to assist with the ceremonies. We wish the school to start promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. from the school house, marching to Third street, thence to Main, join the G. A. R. W. R. C. and the band at corners of Second and Main. Proceeding from there to the cemetery, to assist in the ritualistic exercises, which will be concluded at the long bridge, in memory of the sailors and seamen, deceased. The program will be in the Court House

R. CRANDALL, Adj. Gen. Ransom Post No. 69 G. A. R.

Memorial services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, Rev. A. Robinson.

Reedville, June 6. Argus and Oregonian, $2. Bargains in second hand wheels. McCormick, Second street. Dressmaking—Mrs. John Humphrey, Sixth and Baseline streets.

Large numbers took advantage of the presidential visit to go to Portland today, to see the chief executive.

John Dennis can take your measure for that summer suit and have it for you in plenty of time for warm weather. See him and get his prices.

Hon. W. H. Wehrung, representing the Senate, and Hon. D. M. C. Gault, representing the House, committees of Reception, went to Portland to officially receive the President.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Benson, on a trip east, write from the Planters' Hotel, New Orleans, to The Argus, as follows: "We have had a splendid trip so far. One day in San Francisco; where we visited Golden Gate Park, Sutro Park, Knoll Hill, Cliff House, the Government mint, and the Presidio and forts; then to Los Angeles and on to San Francisco. We arrived in New Orleans Wednesday the 13th, and will leave in a day or so by rail, for the north, as no boat leaves until next Monday. We have just returned from a belt line ride around this beautiful Southern city and viewed many things of interest. Give our regards to all our Hillsboro friends."

A good breakfast always makes the day easy. Start the day right by treating your inner man right. Just get Red Jacket Flaked Wheat, or Red Jacket Rolled Oats, manufactured by the Climax Milling Company, and sold by all grocers; enjoy your breakfast, and you will finish the day in good spirits. With these palatable breakfast dishes you can get nutritious food without overloading and being miserable. Just ask your grocer for them; try them; they will please you and you will think, after all, that that hardest of problems, a palatable breakfast, has been solved.

The Argus publisher and family made their annual trip to the hills above Glencoe, Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kelley. The day was spent looking over the improvements which have taken place in that section. All the hill country is coming along fine and some day there will be hundreds of vineyards up there, and the two townships will furnish wine for thousands of people. The soil is splendid for orchards, as well as for vegetables and the many homes that are now being hewed out of the wilderness will soon be priceless.

The thirty-first annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association will be held in the Exposition building, Portland, Wednesday, June 17. All pioneers who came to the original Oregon territory prior to Feb. 14, 1859, and all born here prior to that date are eligible to membership. The exercises will commence in the afternoon, and will close with a banquet in the evening. Rail lines will grant a one and one-third far for the round trip. All pioneers are invited to attend.

Wm. Nelson has purchased the hardware store of W. D. Hare and will hereafter conduct the business. He will carry a complete and up to date hardware stock, farm tools of all kinds, wagons, buggies, farm machinery etc. Anything a farmer may want from a needle to a threshing machine Mr. Nelson will supply. Give him a call, get his prices, buy from him and save money.

This is going to be a year of improvement, and when you contemplate using any lumber, be sure and call at the Groner & Rowell Co. sawmill at Scholla, where you find the largest and finest stock of rough and dressed lumber to be found in Washington county. Also a supply of drain tile on hand.

The Ross Society of Christian Endeavor under the management of Miss Bertha Hanley, chairman of social committee, gathered in round numbers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Chalmers, last Friday evening, and in response to smiling decorations an evening of mirth was spent in games amusing and instructive. Who would not be a Christian Endeavorer?

Next to your stomach you should care for your feet. Dress them in good reliable footwear bought of John Dennis and you will have your feet well clad the year round and still have money left as compared with your resources when you buy of others. Shoes for everybody.

Hillsboro is putting on metropolitan airs these days—the town is to have two passenger stations. The company is now building a siding in South Hillsboro, between the places of C. K. Henry and Geo. H. Wilcox. This will accommodate all who have service from that part of the city, and save them a long walk each time they wish to travel on the line.

Will you have an addition built to your house? Will you build a fence? Carstens Brothers have a fine stock of rough and dressed lumber constantly on hand at their Mill, at the Manning postoffice. Give them a trial. Charges reasonable. Write for estimates.

Hillsboro's band was represented in the presidential parade at Portland today. The boys went down in full uniform and with a complete membership. All of which is very creditable to one of the best bands on the West Side.

Our spring-weight dress shirts have arrived, and they are of the finest. Come in and see them. A splendid line of spring dress goods and wash goods; the finest ever seen in the county, now on our shelves. Inspect before buying elsewhere. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Hon. W. D. Hare has opened his law office in the Grange building, next door to Geo. R. Bagley's law office. He and Mr. Bagley will utilize the same waiting room.

BOTH CANDIDATES SPEAK AT HILLSBORO

Reames Spoke in Afternoon, Hermann in Evening.

HERMANN LABORS VERY HARD.

Reames made a good straightforward talk and Gained Friends

Both congressional candidates visited this place Saturday last, Hon. A. E. Reames speaking in the afternoon and Mr. Hermann in the evening. Mr. Reames, by a few well directed opening remarks placed himself in easy reach of the of the audience and the young man who is making so much trouble for the man the administration twice turned down at once talked himself into the sympathies of the auditors. He is an easy talker, goes direct to the point, and his address was interesting at all times. His effort was a surprise to many of the oldtimers of all political faiths, and that he added to his popular strength is believed by all. This was his first appearance before a Hillsboro audience, and that he is of congressional calibre was patent to all his auditors.

Mr. Hermann arrived at six in the evening and used the early part of the twilight in exemplifying the highest type of handshaking. In his speech he "peahwed" the idea of any rupture between himself and the administration. "Just a difference over details," he said. Then Mr. Hermann started in to exhort. The logic of his argument and appeals was that it would be a shame not to send a man of such broad republicanism and with such a splendid record back to Congress—that a failure to send him would be an insult to the flag and to the administration. "Yes, the administration that stopped your pay two different times," observed a republican in the back of the room, sotto voce, and then Mr. Hermann stopped speaking to resume the art of handshaking.

HERMANN IN HOT WATER. During the course of his speech Mr. Hermann referred sneeringly to the "foreigners," and their lack of ability along mechanical lines. To this John Milne, of Milne Mills, took exception, and when introduced to Hermann, after the meeting, he took the Land Commissioner that was to task. Mr. Milne said: "I am one of those foreigners of which you spoke, Americanized, and we 'foreigners' will see to it that we show you under on election day." Hermann tried to smooth over his remarks but Mr. Milne was obdurate. The incident was hugely enjoyed by many republicans present.

AFTER THE ARGUS.

At Forest Grove the Roseburg candidate went after The Argus, referring to the advice to "paint up as you may get a Cleveland administration and be too poor to paint in a few years," and gave the Cleveland administration as an example of what might happen if things didn't go his way. This was comical in the extreme considering that Mr. Cleveland gets all his plaudits from the republican side of the house, and that Mr. Reames is running on a platform condemning trust control, not only of the money legislation, and as to the tariff, asking only what the leading thought of the Republican party demands.

Here we are again! Wall paper of every design, cheap, and some not so cheap. Elegant patterns. Come in and see them. We will surely please you.—Donelson's Furniture Store, Main street.

Austin Craig, the ex-postmaster of Whitney, had his day in court at Portland last week, and the Judge instructed that the case be thrown out of court. This was done upon the request of the Federal district attorney, who submitted that there was insufficient evidence to convict.

Schulmerich Bros. are getting their stock of implements for spring and summer on hand. They carry the most complete lines of any merchant in the county. Get their prices before purchasing.

Lewis Carstens was down from Manning Tuesday and reports the small-pox epidemic as about done for up that way. He states that none of the afflicted was so very ill, and that where people had been vaccinated years ago they seemed to be immune from the disease. The type is very mild, and seems now to have about run its course.

We invite you to come in and see our fine line of boys' and men's clothing. We sell you best values at prices that are of the lowest.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Zina Wood Jr. has purchased the splendid ranch owned by his father, and located at the end of city, south, the consideration being twenty thousand dollars. The ranch has one of the finest hop-yards in the county, is within a quarter of a mile of the station, and the most it is rich bottom lands.

The Washington County Knights of Pythias are making big arrangements for the Pythian District Convention to be held here June 5. A fine program has been arranged and the day will be concluded by a big banquet, which will be prepared by John Northrop, the once popular hotel man. E. W. Haines, the Deputy Grand Chancellor, of Forest Grove, hopes to have this the most successful meeting ever held in the district.

Washington County's dairy herds have been undergoing improvement this year, and farmers are adding better strains to their stock. Per cent of butter fat is what makes the dairy pay and the sooner our dairymen take up the blooded milkers and let go of the general purpose cow, the better. The Argus predicts that within five years Washington county will have the finest lot of dairy stock in the Pacific Northwest.

ARRANGING FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Meeting at the Courthouse last Night.

WILL GIVE VETERANS BIG TIME.

Mayor Barrett has appointed a General Committee. A Good One.

At the Mass Meeting held at the Courthouse last night Mayor Barrett presided and J. W. Bailey acted as secretary. It was decided that a big celebration was "the thing," the biggest yet held here. It was the unanimous sentiment that we should do everything to make the old veterans comfortable, and then wind up with a Fourth of July celebration which will warm the cockles of every heart with a bit of National pride in its pulse. Upon motion, the following general committee was appointed: Hon. W. N. Barrett, R. H. Greer, Geo. Schulmerich, Hon. W. H. Wehrung, John Northrop, J. W. Bailey, J. A. Imbrie, W. V. Wiley, J. W. Morgan, and L. E. Wilkes.

This committee will appoint sub-committees, will arrange for caring for the Veterans, and map out a program for a celebration that will eclipse any effort yet made on the West Side.

J. H. Cornelius was down from the town of Cornelius this afternoon.

A large crowd from over the county was in the city Tuesday afternoon, visiting Norris & Rowe's circus. These people give a nice entertainment, have all they advertise, and people feel, generally, that they receive their money's worth. The show was especially good for children—but it was quite noticeable that the "old folk" also went in to see the elephant. Two good bands were in the parade and the big crowd thought that alone worth price of coming to town.

Greer leads and the rest follow—in groceries, crockery, lamps, china and wooden and willow ware.

Some of the circus bands, believed to be the Japanese acrobats, became involved in an altercation with two young fellows from southeast of town, after the show closed Tuesday night and a black eye was the result. The buggy occupied by the young men was found in South Hillsboro, yesterday morning, somewhat of a wreck. Just how the row started no one seems to know, nor does any one know who the local combatants are.

A good road car for sale at R. H. Greer's, the grocer.

The ladies of the Congregational church are proceeding nicely with their Carnival which they will hold at Grange Hall next Wednesday evening. A fine program, consisting of a drama, fine musical selections instrumental and vocal, etc., and a big supper to follow. The admission will be 15 cents for the program and fifteen cents for the supper. Everybody is invited.

Maple syrup at Greer's, 30 cents per bottle.

A sixteen year old son of C. C. Bennett, of this city, broke a leg by falling from his wheel the other day, near the Connell place north of town. Dr. Tamsieie attended the fracture. The leg was shorter than the other, owing to a recent break while in Southern Oregon, and the physician hopes to have it full length when he is through operating on it.

Peter Zurcher, of near Phillips experienced an exciting runaway the other day while breaking a young horse. He was riding on the running gears of the wagon when the team started, throwing him out giving him a bad cut on the head and otherwise bruising him up. Dr. F. J. Bailey is attending him.

Mr. Carl Harris and Miss Minnie Omond, late of Hillsboro, but now residing in Portland, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday eve, May 20, 1903. Mr. Harris is a son of Mrs. C. T. Bowen, and the bride was one of Hillsboro's popular school teachers for several years.

If you want a good, warranted range or cook stove, of the latest design—and one that will wear, call in and see the line carried by R. Cave, the pioneer hardware merchant, Main Street. Also carries a complete line of tinware, hardware etc. Our prices are right.

The strawberry crop of Washington county promises to be a record breaker this year, if we can only have some good weather in the near future to ripen them. The Hood River crop will soon be ripe, and posters are now up, asking for three thousand pickers.

John Northrop has taken the agency of the old reliable Albany Nursery and will soon call on farmers to supply fruit trees, shrub berry, etc. Save your order for the him.

Married, at the office of the officiating judge, H. T. Bagley, May 16, 1903, Mr. Frank L. West, of Sherwood, and Miss Clara Galbraith, of Tualatin.

There will be no preaching at the Congregational church Sunday, as the members will attend the Memorial Union services at the M. E. church.
