It is not at all singular that editorial apologists for criminal assault have no sympathy for the sex which suffer the heinous blot. These unfortunates always imagine the tender child as inviting the disaster which invariably ends in some "poor dear" dangling at the end of a rope, in a position to no more sin. Such an insane sympathy always comes from a mind diseased, which invariably has the pity of those who understand the sanity of the life that has not forfeited the right to live.

The officers of the law evidently think that they have something of a case against Rev. Kennedy, or he would not have been arrested. The two ladies of the household which was robbed are positive in their statements that Mr. Kennedy is the man. On the other hand, Mr. Kennedy says he will establish an alibi, and there the matter rests. It is the duty and province of newspapers to give the news and proceedings of such cases, and it is idle to say that this paper or that paper is prejudiced. As a rule, newspapers publish the truth as near as they can get at it. Newspaper men have their ideas of guilt or innocence, just as do other people, because they are human. But, as a matter of fact, newspapers generally try to get as near in touch with proceedings of this kind, as possible under the circumstances, without feeling that they are partisans, either for the defendant, or the state.

Sheriff Sewell offers $150 reward for the capture of Burke, and $25 for "Bricketop."

The Climax Milling Co. is paying 80 cents per bushel for No. 1 milling wheat.

H. Wehrung and wife returned from their Newport cottage Tuesday evening.

William E. Burke and Miss Cora Alice Bell, of Forest Grove vicinity, have been granted license to wed.

Miss Lennie Faulkerson was out from Portland the first of the week, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. H. Greer.

I am now ready to receive Italian prunes for drying purposes, and will pay $10 per ton, delivered. Call and see me at the Hillsboro Evaporator, near Southern Pacific depot.—Ira E. Wheeler.

Attorney S. B. Huston was in Portland Tuesday, looking after the interests of his client, Rev. Kennedy. Mr. Huston states that he will prove an alibi for the accused.

Heidel & Son shipped their State Fair exhibit for Washington county today, and that it will be in the front rank of county displays goes without saying. It is the best exhibit ever sent from this county, and should be a prize winner.
