Mrs Edith Wilcox Ritchie, who was born near Forest Grove, 20 years ago, died at Seattle, Tuesday. Deceased was a daughter of David Wilcox, formerly a resident of this county, and who resided at Cornelius. A husband, residing at Seattle, survives. The funeral took place Wednesday, at 2:00 P. M., from the residence of an uncle, F. E. Waters, at Forest Grove, and interment was in the Cornelius cemetery. Her father and her step-mother, who loved her as her own child, reside at Haines, Eastern Oregon.

Anton Lunow, of the Bethany-Phillips section, has sworn out a warrant, charging his son-in-law, Peter Asp, with assault and battery. The trouble occurred Sunday and Lunow says that Asp attacked him with a dangerous looking knife. Asp was placed in jail Tuesday night and is to have an examination in a day so. A son of this Lunow was charged with larceny of a horse a few months ago but went clear at his examination.

The Clement-Keefer Company played three nights in the Opera House this week and it was unfortunate that their houses were not larger. This company has some very excellent work and their efforts were conscientious. Their scenery and stage settings were rather cumbersome for so small a play house and this made it hard work for them. This is the best company that has visited the city for a long time and should they return they will be awarded a much better patronage.

Justice Benton Bowman heard the case of J. M. Healy, a Portland real estate man, against Dr. Ernest Everest, of Gaston, a suit to recover a $30 fee alleged to be due Healy for a sale of the Everest drug store to Mr. Menefee. Healy claims that the sale was effected through him and the Doctor alleges that Mr. Menefee came to Gaston through an advertisement in a Portland paper. The court has the matter under advisement.

John Witt, of South Tualatin, brought in the best matured corn yet seen this season and it is now on exhibition at Heidel & Wall's. Dr. Witt has furnished a great deal of fine agricultural production for the fair this season and has also furnished some nice products for the Bureau of Information down at Portland, showing what Washington County can do.

E. A. Barnes, of Raleigh, has invented a chair that should make him rich. It is a combination camp chair, invalid chair, steam-boat deck chair, reclining chair and a couch and litter, combined. Mr. Barnes is endeavoring to get some town on the West side to take up the manufacture of the piece of furniture.

Albert Morgan, the 17 year old son of Geo. and Phoebe Morgan, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, October 7, 1903, from an attack of typhoid fever. The funeral occurred today. Deceased was born on the ridge, above Glencoe, and his parents reside near the Mt. Vincent school house.

Theodore Salzgeber, of West Union, and Wilhelm Schumacher, had an altercation the other day and Schumacher has sworn out a warrant, charging assault and battery. The families are in some manner related and have had legal trouble before.

Traver, Supt. of the Salem, Oregon schools, and H. A. Adrian, of Wisconsin, one of the greatest institute workers in the United States, will be present as instructors for the three days. The session promises to be one of the best ever held in the county.

By virtue of an execution, judgment, decree and order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the County of Oregon, for Multnomah county, in favor of Oregon National Bank, of Portland, Oregon, a corporation, against Henry Roe, as Administrator of the estate of Stephen W. Aldrich, Dora Aldrich, and Walter Aldrich, for the sum of Fourteen Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy Eight and Eighty-two Hundredths Dollars ($14,978.82) with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent, per annum from the 16th day of September, 1902, and the costs of and upon this writ, I have levied upon the real property hereinafter described, and now, therefore, in pursuance of said execution, judgment, decree and order of sale, I will, on Monday, November 9, 1903, at the south door of the court house, in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, at the hour of Ten A. M., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the following described real property, to wit:

All of the national land claim of William McClurg and Charley McClurg, his wife, in Sections Nineteen (19) and Twenty (20), Township One (1) South, Range One (1) West of the Willamette Meridian, being the Southeast quarter of the Southeast quarter and lot numbered One (1) of Section Nineteen (19) and the Southeast quarter of Section Twenty (20), containing 243.50 acres; also all that portion of the original donation land claim of Benjamin Levens and Sarah Levens, containing 90 acres, situate in Washington County, Oregon, to satisfy the herebefore named sums and the costs and expenses of sale, said lands will be subject to redemption as per statute of Oregon.

Witness my hand this 7th day of October, 1903. J. W. SEWELL, Sheriff of Washington County, Oregon, William T. Muir, Acting Auditor, Attorney for Plaintiff.

CALL FOR CITY WARRANTS.
