Miss Osa Waldrop, well known to many Hillsboro people, is playing the part of "Minnie" in the "Dairy Farm" now being produced in Oregon. Miss Waldrop was recently interviewed as to her liking for stage life. Her answer was: "I'm perfectly miserable and almost sad at this business. All that there is to this stage life is very fleeting. Many a night you come home to your lonely room and cry yourself to sleep. I've had many a heartache in the three years that I have been on the stage. I have gone to rehearsals day after day in tears, and each line that I read has been followed by a call-down. Stage managers don't know everything, but they simply tear you to pieces. A domestic home life, a home, a husband and little ones should be the ideal of a woman's life."

We've opened our new line of cotton waists (both white and colors) for the fall trade, believing that the sale of this fabric will eclipse the demand a few years ago for wool waists—in fact, they have already taken the place of wool, and are fast encroaching on silk. It makes a most practical garment in every respect, and can always be washed.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Casper Baumann, of near Bethany, died Monday, at the advance age of 78 years. Deceased was a native of Switzerland, and came to this country in early life. In 1864 he was a miner in Canyon City, Grant county, section. While at Canyon City he joined the Odd Fellows, and later on affiliated with Minerva Lodge, of Portland, a lodge especially for Germans. Mr. Baumann was a bachelor, and highly respected. He leaves sufficient estate to pay his burial expenses and other debts incurred by his illness. The funeral took place today under the auspices of the local I. O. O. F. Lodge, and a large delegation from the Portland lodge attended the services.

Wehrung & Sons.

Hops are down again, the top figure being 22 cents. Growers who have not sold, and who have a good quality, are not fearful that prices will still go lower. When the slump came a few days ago there was a strong selling movement, but this has somewhat slackened and there is a healthier feeling in the market.

Mr. John Goodin and wife of Montavilla, were in town the first of the week, on their return home from a visit at Glencoe. Mrs. Goodin was formerly Mrs. Emma C. Lewis. They were united in marriage last week, and are keeping house in Montavilla, where the bride has a handsome home.

Judge T. A. McBride and District Attorney Harrison Allen were in the city yesterday.

The Dallas, Oregon, Observer, laughs at its townspeople who thought a water plant could be built for $12,000, and goes to show that H. V. Gates has already spent $17,000, for material alone. The reservoir costs $3,000; then there are 40 hydrants, 15 miles of ditch to dig and lay; treating, etc., and the whole system will cost the body out of $30,000. The Observer thinks the city will have the finest water plant in the state, for a town of its population.

CITATION.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

In the matter of the guardianship of the person and estate of John Sommer, Insane.
To John Sommer, William Graf, guardian of said John Sommer, Insane, Dr. J. F. Galbreath, Superintendent of the Oregon State Insane Asylum, Fred Sommer, Ulrich Sommer, Jacob Sommer, Andrew Sommer, Catherine Sommer, Mary Sommer, John Siegenthaler, Fred Siegenthaler, Louis Siegenthaler, Lydia Siegenthaler, (Hartman), Mary Siegenthaler, and to John Siegenthaler, Jr., and to all persons interested in said estate, greeting:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, at the Court room thereof, at Hillsboro, in the County of Washington, on Monday, the 30 day of November, 1903, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to show cause, if any you have, why an order of said Court should not be made, licensing and directing William Graf, guardian of the person and estate of John Sommer, Insane, to sell certain real property, belonging to said insane, described as follows, to-wit: Lots seventeen (17) and eighteen (18) block four (4) Elam Park Addition to Portland, Oregon in Multnomah County, Oregon, as prayed for in the petition of said guardian now on file herein.

Witness, the Hon. L. A. Root, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, with the seal of said Court affixed, this 28th day of October, A. D. 1903.

HOW OLD IS ANN?

Mary is 24 years old. Mary is twice as old as Ann was when Mary was as old as Ann now is. How old is Ann?
$500 vs. $318.

Ann may be as old as Mary, and she may not. It is a complicated proposition, or seems to be. But it is as simple as A-B-C to find the difference between 500 and $318. If a man had to walk 500 miles and had ready money $318, how many miles would he have to go before he reached the end of his journey?

If a lady wishes a beautiful piano, possessing a tone that will be a delight to her as long as she lives and beautiful enough to ornament her home, no matter how inharmonious the family, it should secure such a piano and still save the difference between $500 and $318, how much is she going to have to spend for gowns and hats, or pleasure trips, theatre tickets, or a musical education? Exactly $182, is it not?

This is a practical consideration. Everybody is anxious to get the most they possibly can for their outlay, in order that they may have all the greater surplus for pleasures. Eilers Piano House, at all times enables purchasers to save materially on their purchases. The piano we are now offering, however, for $318 is by far the best bargain that purchasers have ever had the opportunity of securing. Printer's ink cannot convey an idea of the worth of these pianos, neither can a picture adequately portray the beauty of their design and finish. They must be heard in order to understand the exquisite quality of their tone, seen and examined to learn the excellence of the workmanship and care bestowed upon every detail of their construction.

Made especially for Eilers Piano House according to specifications they meet the requirements of Western climatic conditions as no other piano now does. We are anxious to have them become thoroughly known throughout the entire Northwest. When they are, buyers will not hesitate to pay their full price $500. That is why we have reduced the price nearly half, and are selling these splendid pianos for $318. The offer is only for the first three pianos sold in every county in our territory.

Easy payments may be arranged by those who do not wish to pay cash. Every piano is fully guaranteed by us and money will be cheerfully refunded if instrument fails to prove exactly as we have represented it. Write us for full descriptions of these pianos, and also of good pianos in less elaborate cases, which we are selling for $182, $156 and $78, payable at the rate of $6 a month. Eilers Piano House, Washington street corner Park, Portland, Ore.
