The ARGUS this week starts its eleventh year of publication, and by fidelity to a faithful news service has grown to be an established enterprise no longer in the experimental stage. It has had a fairly liberal support from people of all kinds of religious and political belief and meanwhile has endeavored to give a news medium that would cover all the important incidents occurring in the county. It takes this occasion to thank its many supporters and trusts that in the future it will merit a continuance of favor. The ARGUS has its friends and its enemies—all papers have. But it is only truth to say that the city of Hillsboro and vicinity have given it a financial support that is indicative of a desire to aid an institution that has conscientiously chronicled our local history in a plain and comprehensive manner. It is the experience of the publishers of this paper that we find very few communities that read as much as our local field, and in the future as in the past this paper will try to publish all the news worth printing, in order to gratify that condition.

The Eastern Cleveland democrats are now after Hearst's scalp with all kinds of nasty talk. They might bear in mind the effect in vote getting that the Halpin matter made for the sainted and much lamented Grover Cleveland.

Detective H. P. Ford, of Portland, was in town today, on business with circuit court matters.

J. A. Hobbs, of Cornelius, was in town today, with his weather eye southward, looking for the approach of spring.

Jabez Wilkes, of this city, has sold his handsome yearling colt, sired by Lovelace, to Geo. Subauer, of Cornelius.

E. J. Ward phones that the Union primaries will be held for Gaston precinct on April 5. Nearly all the other Union primaries will be held on the 7th.

It is sure about time for the groundhog to come out and dispel the storms that are hovering over Oregon. The proverbial 40 days have come and gone—and it still hails and rains.

This is leap year—and it is very poor business in the marriage license line since the first of the year. County Clerk Morgan has issued but a very few since January 1—something wrong, sure.

Dr. F. J. Bailey, health officer for the county, reports two cases of mild smallpox at the home of John Ritter, nine miles from Hillsboro, and near Helvetia. The two afflicted are sons, John and Fred. A strict quarantine has been established and all precautions taken to prevent the spread of the malady.

Phoenicia Temple, Rathbone Sisters, last Friday gave a reception in the Wehrung Hall, to Mrs. Miriam B. Brooke, Deputy Grand Chief. The Rathbone Sisters of Multnomah, Washington, Tillamook and Yamhill counties, will hold a district convention in this city May 4, commencing at 10 a. m. and closing at 4 p. m.

Fred Stopplefield has opened a training stable at the Fair grounds, and is ready to break horses and train, develop and speed young horses at a reasonable figure. Mr. Stopplefield is an experienced horseman, and the animals entrusted to him will receive the best of care and attention. Call on him at the Fair Grounds, or write him at Hillsboro, Ore.

Mrs. L. M. Beebe, of Forest Grove, visited with friends here yesterday.

White Plymouth Rock eggs, 50 cents per setting of 15.—Mrs. W. A. Finney, Hillsboro, Ore.

Prominent capitalists are after the quartz mine owned by H. W. D. Hare, J. C. Hare and J. W. Shute, and they want it very bad.

Mr and Mrs. D. W. Bath have rented the Waggener property in North Hillsboro, formerly occupied by H. V. Gates, and will soon commence housekeeping.

Word comes that one W. W. Carpenter, formerly of this county, was recently adjudged insane up in the John Day country. He had been mining for several years and reverses unsettled his mind.

The Gamma Sigma Society of Pacific University recently tendered Frank Peters, the winner of the collegiate contest, a reception at the Colonial Hotel at Forest Grove. Speechmaking, congratulations and a banquet were the features of the evening.

Chas. W. Brown, of Laurel, was in town today, mud to the knees. He says that the Laurel people are sending for Diver Brady to come out and dive, to locate the county roadbeds in his section.

Advertised letters, Hillsboro office: J. W. Cline, Taylor Hill, T. L. Tanner, Jno. Ranch, Wm. N. Shepherd, Mrs. A. M. Dickerson, Dovie Harden, Mrs. Clara McDunald. Call for before April 2.

Hannah J. Woodham has sued Jos. Woodham for divorce. The couple were married in this county June 30, 1901, and the husband deserted the wife March 23, 1903. Desertion is the grounds for the action.

At the close of yesterday's business Sheriff Sewell had collected on the 1903 taxroll the sum of $103,470.38, and has turned over to the county treasurer, $12,804.38. As soon as the apportionment can be computed the sheriff will turn over all of the collections.

Judge Rood has set April 2nd as the date when poor old Adam Fulton, a veteran of the Civil War, shall have a hearing to see whether or not a guardian shall be appointed. Fulton is well along in years, and has an ardent love for the cup that both cheers and inebriates, and he many times loses his self control. He gets $30 a month pension, and this will keep him in board, clothing and spending money, if properly handled. A gentleman from Forest Grove filed the petition. Fulton lived here a year or so ago and had frequent visits to the recorder's court.
