CONGRESS GIVES LESS THAN OREGON STATE

House Cuts Lewis & Clark Appropriation.

SENATE CONCURS AND BILL PASSES
Enterprise will get $475,000 National Aid. May be increased

The House of Representatives reduced the Lewis & Clark Appropriation to $475,000 and the bill passed by a large vote. The measure was sent to the Senate, which concurred, and President Fair will get that amount to aid its work.

This is less than the State of Oregon gave the enterprise, but it looks as though it is all that Washington will do. The Oregon delegation in Congress seemed powerless to make the House see the importance of the measure.

An attempt will be made to increase the amount before Congress adjourns, but it is not likely to bear fruit.

Congress may adjourn April 28
Utah, the state of big families, has declared for Roosevelt.

Seventy thousand people heard the Pope say Mass, at Rome, in honor of St. Gregory, Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sommersville, of Linn county, a pioneer of 1853, died at Albany, Sunday, April 78.

Yakima, Wash., undertakers, warring in price, bid to bury the pauper dead at one cent per burial.

Walter Miles, of Pacific College, Newberg, won the prohibition oratorical contest prize at Philomath, Friday night.

Colorado is still having trouble between the miners and the corporations, and the militia and the laborers clash every day or so.

The German forces in Southwest Africa defeated the Hereros, Saturday, with three or four killed on the German side.

A Chicago preacher declares that the women ruin the churches. Some one should rise and ask the gentlemen where the church would be without the women.

Grace Ticket, of Vancouver, Sunday evening fired five shots at Chas. Shank. He escaped. The ticket woman must be a queer "ticket."

A great storm of snow, sleet and hail passed over the middle western states last Friday and Saturday, and the blizzard suffered extremely. The blizzard passed on to the states east of the Mississippi.

The Sultan of Taraca, of the Moros, was lately defeated by General Wood, and his forces scattered, last week, with a loss to the Americans of two killed and two wounded.

Henry Meldrum, of Oregon City, Monday pleaded not guilty to 21 counts in the Federal Court at Portland. Meldrum was the former attorney general for Oregon and he is indicted for alleged forgery.

Senator Patterson, of Colorado, contends that after next December the Chinese law will have run its course, and that we must have additional legislation if we are to keep the Mongolians out of the country. Many congressmen deny this status.

B. E. Noeler, ex-postmaster at Coquille, has again been arrested for embezzlement and will be tried by the United States court at Portland. Noeler defaulted in the sum of $1256. For some months Noeler has been residing at Newberg.

Madame Pousep, a Russian woman, has been permitted to enlist in a Cossack regiment. She is 33 years of age, a good horsewoman, a fine shot, and skilled in cavalry maneuvers. She states that there are enough Red Cross women and she wants to fight.

A. W. Stinesl, a Cheha's tailor, was killed Sunday, by a freight train. He and his wife were walking on the track when the train bore him down. Stinesl pushed his wife from the track as the engine struck him, saving her life, although she is internally injured.

It is reported that some one has taken the skin of murderer Harry Egbert, of Salem, tanned it and placed pieces on sale at the capital city. If this be true the subject would be a fitting one for the editorial pen of Editor Gear, and he might draw comparisons on the morbidity of the South, when black men are burned.

Wm. McQueen, an anarchist, has returned and given himself up to the sheriff of Pasco county, to take his five years' sentence for inciting a riot at Paterson, N. J., in June, 1902. McQueen says he was not responsible for the riot and had nothing to do with inciting the trouble; and that he will blot out, if possible, the stain on his name.

Burke Cockran, the New York congressman, in a speech, Saturday, declared the House of Representatives was a lying caste and that it had surrendered its constitutional rights to the executive. Dillard, of Pennsylvania, made a spirited reply, but of the two speeches, Cockran's seemed to have gained the sympathy of the galleries.

A. D. Galbraith, manager of the Topeka mine, at Denver, confesses that he shot his wife and little child, March 9. Each was shot through the head. Galbraith is now in jail on a charge of misappropriating the funds of the company.

Mrs. Botkin, of San Francisco, has again been convicted of sending poisoned candy to Mrs. Dunning, the wife of a man who was said to have been infatuated with the former. The trial has cost the state of California $50,000. The crime was committed in 1898.

An Indian woman near Hoquiam, Wash., gave birth to twins and the Medicine Klotchmans are in a great state of excitement. Years ago this would have been considered a disgrace and the little ones would have been killed.

The United States Geological Survey has reported a coal and oil field in Alaska, contiguous to Controller Bay, embracing an area of 85 square miles. The coal is more bituminous than anthracite.

The Canadian government has given assurance that it will subsidize a railroad to the Alaskan gold fields just as soon as the company puts up a good and sufficient guaranty that it will construct and operate the line.

Salem had a big scare Saturday. Two tramps were suspected of trying to dynamite the walls of the penitentiary and effect a prison delivery. The tramps made their escape and it was thought one of them carried a package of dynamite.

Tillamook has closed all the saloons so far as slot machines and gambling are concerned. The wave is not of moral nature, but is the result of bitter feeling engendered by the recent primaries.

The census bureau now estimates the population of the United States at eighty million. This estimate does not include Alaska or our Philippine "subjects."

A special car containing 63 Indians, on their way east to see the President, was smashed near Maywood, Illinois, last week, and three were killed and twenty wounded.

Russia will have 50,000 men in Manchuria by the middle of May. The Japs will call on their soldiery to a like amount, if necessary, so the government says.

Alfred Hurad, in a quarrel over a boundary line shot his neighbor, Edward Kimball, with birdshot. They live in Alsea valley, Benton county.

Five dead and twenty injured is the result of a wreck of a Santa Barbara street car, Sunday. The wreck was due to a defect in the brake.

The Archbishop of Mush, Armenia, has been arrested at Constantinople. The Sultan surely has but little of the milk of kindness.

Colombia has not yet filed her appeal in the court which decided that Panama could sell the canal to the United States.

Col. Chas. H. Page, a noted turf man of Philadelphia, died at that city, Sunday.

Jeffries and Jack Monroe, the Butte miner, will fight in San Francisco, some time next month.

Senator Matt Quay, the old Pennsylvanian, is reported very ill.

LOCAL and COUNTY

The highest market price paid for butter and eggs at Greer's.

A. C. Shute brought out his handsome new White automobile last Sunday, making the run out from town without any mishaps. The machine is a steamer, and is a beauty.

Father Hendrick, a Catholic missionary, and who is preaching to non-Catholics, gave lectures at Forest Grove last week, and is this week at Beaverton. Next week he will be at Hillsboro.

WIFE LEFT HIM AND MORACK SUICIDES

Took Strychnine and Expired. Leaving a note.

PHILLIPS HAS AN EXCITEMENT
Morack's Wife Deserted him Tuesday, and He Suicides Friday.

Joseph Morack, aged about fifty, and a German, residing near Phillips, suicided last week because his wife had deserted him. Last Friday he was found dead in his home by F. Settgest, a neighbor. Morack formerly lived at Troutdale, and, about five years ago he married Mrs. Alwyn. Six months ago they moved into Phillips section, and made a number of friends there. Mr. Morack had a son, and he visited them recently, and when he departed Tuesday of last week, the mother accompanied him. This seemed to prey on Morack's mind, and he told some of his friends that "it was all off with him." On Friday Frederick Settgest went to Morack's house to make a friendly call and found him dead. On the table was a strychnine bottle, and a note, leaving no doubt as to suicide.

Sheriff Sewell and Coroner Large went to the Morack home, but it was deemed not necessary to hold an inquest.

In the note left on the table Morack asked forgiveness for causing his fellow neighbors so much trouble.

Our spring suits are arriving, and before you buy you should come in and look over our magnificent lines. We carry the finest quality and sell you for the least money.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Noah Job, one of our old time pioneers, and who for years lived just west of the long bridge, has returned after a winter's visit in Tulare and Placer counties, where he has a sister and a brother. Mr. Job says that, after all, he likes Washington county better than the land of flowers.

If you really want to see a fine line of shoes, just come in and see what we have recently unpacked. Shoes for men; shoes for women; shoes for children, and some of the neatest things in child's footwear that you ever witnessed. Come in and see for yourself—and you will buy.—Dennis.

Wm. and Marie Hochstetler, relatives of C. Blaser, have received word that H. Isely, uncle, Wineburg, Ohio, died a few days ago. Mr. Isely was a prominent politician, and served in the Ohio legislature. He taught school many years in Holmes county, after service in the Civil War.

FOUR YEARS FOR LEE.

Judge McBride Monday sentenced James G. Lee to serve four years in the Oregon penitentiary, being convicted of the charge of stealing a calf from Berj P. tion in November, 1902. Lee's attorneys, Henry McGinn, of Portland, and H. T. Bagley, Hillsboro, moved for a new trial, and asked for a certificate of probable cause; and for a stay of proceedings until appeal could be perfected, all of which was denied. Counsel state that they will at once appeal to the Supreme Court, asking for a certificate of cause, and they expect to have the matter filed within a few days. Lee's wife came down from the ranch Sunday and she is using every endeavor to get freedom for her husband. The defendant will doubtless remain here in the county jail until the Supreme Court acts on the matter, unless the petition is tardy.

In passing sentence on Lee, Judge McBride said: "I am not giving you the full extent of the statute, but sufficient to cause you to remember that laws must be observed. For many years you have been before this court on some charge of petty thieving, and there have been times when a trial has cost the county hundreds of dollars. You have been the cause of much dissension in your neighborhood, and I can not think you have been the subject of unjust persecution. It is the judgment of the court that you serve four years in the state penitentiary at Salem."

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

Notice is hereby given that under the law, from this date, a penalty of ten per cent must be added to all taxes where half has not been paid, and that when said tax is paid, the county must, under the law, collect one per cent per month interest on the tax. J. W. SEWELL, Sheriff and Ex-officio Tax Collector for Washington County, Oregon. Dated at Hillsboro, this 4th day of April, 1904.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desire to thank their many friends for the many kindnesses and sympathy tendered us during our recent bereavement, the death and burial of Mrs. Perrett.

August Kempin and Wife, Victor Lambott, Glencoe, Ore., April 9, 1904.

Dr. F. A. Bailey has resigned as health officer for the county and the County Court has appointed Dr. F. J. Bailey to succeed him.

Herman Dethlefs, of Dilley, and a son of John Dethlefs, died at the family home, Sunday, April 10. Deceased was aged 19, and was well known and popular in and around his home section.

Some one permitted two black pups to follow them from the Kelsey place north of town, last week. D. P. Corrieri, of the Hare ranch, desires them returned at once, or he will make trouble for the parties.

W. G. Hare, son of W. D. Hare, who is attending school at Ann Arbor, has just attained oratorical honors in his class societies. Three judges awarded him first place, all agreeing in their judgment.

The old oak tree prostrated in J. W. Morgan's yard during the recent gale, is an old landmark and is well remembered by the old pioneers. When Zina W. Wood came here in 1851 the oak had been struck by lightning, and some travelers had trimmed off some of the lower limbs for firewood. The tree had very slow growth owing to the lightning incident, and looked about the same the day before it fell as it did when Mr. Wood pulled into the county.

The Nelson & Reed sawmill, situated north of Glencoe, has completed its contracts and, having equipped the mill with the most modern machinery in the market, will this season cut for the trade. Their mill is located in one of the finest timber belts in the Northwest, and their lumber is of the finest in the market. Give them a call if you have an order. It will receive prompt attention. We manufacture all kinds of moulding.—Nelson & Reed, Glencoe, Ore.

SAMUEL GALBREATH WINS FINE GASOLINE LAUNCH

It is an ill wind that blows no one good—and for once a dental office brings good luck. Samuel Galbreath, a well known citizen of Tualatin, last Saturday drew a prize consisting of a handsome gasoline launch. Mr. Galbreath was a patron of Dr. B. E. Wright, the Portland dentist, with parlors at 347 1/2 Washington Street, and who has been giving coupons to his customers—and Galbreath held the lucky number, having the choice of the launch or $300 cash. Perhaps Mr. Galbreath can be induced to bring his launch to the upper Tualatin, so he can give his many friends a pleasure trip.

ELECTED MAYOR OF CORNELIUS FOR THIRD TERM

Thomas Talbot, recently elected Mayor of Cornelius, was born in England, on August 3, 1844; he came to the United States with his parents in 1856, locating in La Porte county, Indiana. When he was 18 years of age, he had charge of a section on one of the main railroads running out of Chicago. In 1874 he left home bound for Australia by way of San Francisco. Upon reaching San Francisco, however, he found he did not have money sufficient to pay his passage to Australia, and came up to Oregon. He immediately secured work with the O. C. R. R.—afterward the Southern Pacific—and for 21 years had charge of a track department in the vicinity of Cornelius, making that little city his home during all of said time, and was afterward ticket agent at Cornelius. After two years' service he retired from active service and retired altogether from active work.

A man of economic habits, he acquired considerable property, to which he is now giving his personal attention, being the largest property-owner within the city limits. He was elected a councilman after the incorporation of the city, and in 1899 was elected mayor for the first time. In 1902 he served a second term, and is beginning his third term in that honorable position, having been elected without opposition.

RATHBONE SISTERS' DANCE.

The Rathbone Sisters, Phenicia Temple, of this city, will give a dance at the Opera House, Saturday evening, April 16. Walkers' orchestra will furnish the music and a splendid time is expected. Refreshments will be served, for which an extra charge will be made. Tickets, $1.00. Everybody is invited.
