To the Editor: I take pleasure in stating that the workmen engaged upon the contract of erecting my barn have finished it in an entirely satisfactory manner in every particular, so that I am satisfied that I have as good as any, if not the best in Washington County, proportionate to its cost. The gen-tlemen having the contract were J. A. Campbell and H. N. Prough, but the parties chiefly engaged in the construction were Stephen Hol-land, P. H. Prough and H. L. Ford. In justice to them I wish to say that they are gentlemen in every particular and parties desir-ing work done in a highly satisfactory manner would do we!l to consult them before seeking else-Respectfully, D.
