

HILLSBORO HORSES OPEN PORTLAND'S EYES

Splendid Showing at the Irvington Track Last Saturday

R. H. GREER'S THOS. H. WINS CUP

E. B. Tongue Lost Race Through Misapprehension. Laurette Third

Washington County still has horses that "can go some" as was evidenced when three of them opened the eyes of Multnomah county horsemen at the Irvington track last Saturday afternoon.

R. H. Greer's four year old pacer, Thos. H., a handsome fellow, and one that can go with the best of them, entered in the 2:35 pacing race, carrying a heavy buggy against six other youngsters who were all in skeleton buggies, and the Hillsboro horse carried away first honors—and was six out from the pole at the start. Thos. H. won the race under another disadvantage, as Mr. Greer became tangled up with another driver's buggy and it was necessary for him to come almost to a full stop. Mr. Greer brought out the cup, a beauty, of solid silver, and gold inside finish, and he is naturally proud of both cup and horse. Thos. H. has a great future before him, as they say he has already made as good as 2:30 flat in a buggy.

E. B. Tongue riding Bill Bailey, and T. H. Tongue Jr. riding Lau rette, entered the half mile running race, and although Bill Bailey was brought to a full stop after starting, when he had two lengths the lead, his rider not thinking that they would get off, he came in a good second, and he would have run the race only for the throw away at the scratch. Laurette, the great old runner that she is, went in against the young blood and won the third position.

Greer's Thos. H. is out of Lovelace and his dam is Planter Maid, and in him Mr. Greer has a colt that should be amongst the top-notchers.

A Separator Testimonial

Mr. B. Leis, Beaverton, Ore.

Dear Sir: We have tried the People's Separator for two days, and believe it is all O. K. It is so much easier than turning the crank on a centrifugal separator—in fact, it does its work while you are eating your meals. We are well pleased with the separator.

Peter Grossen, of Phillips, found a purse containing over $9.25, at the celebration grounds, Monday, and turned it over to B. P. Cornelius. Shortly afterward a lady by the name of Mrs. Hurt, of Scholls, asked Mr. Cornelius to look after it. She described the purse and its contents, there being other articles in it, so accurately, that Mr. Cornelius gave her the chateleine. The woman is a widow, and the loss would have been considerable to her. When she was given her money she warmly thanked the judge and promised him if he ever ran for office she would take off her coat and work for him like a major. The Judge was generous, and said: "It is all Mr. Grossen's fault that you found your money."

Mrs. Chas. Epperson, of South Hillsboro, tripped on a loose board in the sidewalk in front of the Congregational church the morning of the Fourth and sustained severe bruises, cutting her lip and otherwise injuring her face. The sidewalk has been repaired since the accident. There is a lot of bad sidewalk in the town and some one will break a leg or arm before the season is over unless something is done.

The Carstens Bros sawmill of Manning, keeps constantly on hand a fine lot of lumber, cut from the finest of timber. Send them a list of your lumber if you are going to build, and get their figures on the estimate.—Carstens Bros, Manning, Ore. Both phones.

Little Miss Lucy Weathered sustained a slight accident at the celebration grounds on the morning of the Fourth. The liberty wagon had just entered the grounds and a snap shot was taken by photographer Crandall. When he finished the little folks hastily started to one side of the rack, and the wagon bed tipped over, precipitating all of them to the ground. The little weathered girl was the only one who was hurt, and as soon as Dr. F. A. Bailey had attended her she took an active interest in the celebration.

Summer is here—can't you tell it by your capricious appetite? Just get groceries at Dennis' and you will feel like a new man, and need no pepin to hold your digestion. Finest line of staples in the city.

On Saturday evening, July 16, there will be a bowery dance at the Hillsboro celebration grounds, where they have the largest floor in the county. Five pieces of music will furnish the measure, and the young people are expecting a good time. Everybody will go, as an open air dance in the summer time is quite the thing. Tickets will cost one dollar, and there will be plenty of room for all to dance at once.

Attorney H. T. Bagley departed this morning for an extended trip east, and will make his principal stop at Canton, Ohio, where he spent his early boyhood. On his return trip he will make St. Louis, and visit the big exposition. He expects to return by August 1. Business and pleasure are the objects of his visit.

A number of Odd Fellows, after lodge adjourned last evening, went down to visit E. L. McCormick and wife, and incidentally take a look at Mc's big boy. They also took an I. O. O. F. collar down for the youngster, who was rendered speechless by the honors imposed upon him.

Baldwin Brothers have completed the brick work on the new bank building, and have started in to do the masonry on the Schulmerlieh brick. On this latter building the stringers have been dipped in preservative, and underlaid with galvanized iron, to prevent decay.

Wm. Wolf, of North Hillsboro, suffered a fall from a wagon in which he was riding home the other day, and dislocated one of his shoulders. Dr. F. J. Bailey reduced the fracture and he will be able to attend to his work in a month or so.

EIGHT THOUSAND AT CELEBRATION

Largest Attendance Ever at Celebration in Hillsboro.

CROWD WAS ORDERLY AND PATIENT

Only a Slight Accident Marred the Enjoyment of the Day.

Fully eight thousand people enjoyed the celebration at Hillsboro on the Fourth of July. The crowd was good natured and patient, and the Warren grounds were not any too large to afford shade and resting place for the multitude.

The big procession started from the courtyard square at 9:30, the liberty train being pulled by a traction engine, operated by Hartrampf Brothers. Miss Celia Greer acted as Goddess of Liberty.

The various states were represented by little girls, and the floats were finely decorated.

Miss Lena Parker, of Gaston, recited the Declaration of Independence and the oration of the day was made by a real, live U. S. Senator, the Hon. C. W. Fulton, of Astoria. Miss Parker made a hit with her rendition of the declaration, as she gave it verbatim, with no prompting, and her voice was splendidly modulated.

Senator Fulton made a regular old-fashioned Fourth of July oration and the silver tongued gentleman from the shade of Salmondom gave the people just what they wanted. Fulton is one of the finest orators in the Northwest, and his selection was a happy hit by the committee.

The dance floor, the steam swing, and the various stands at the grounds, did an immense business, and by mid-afternoon many were minus refreshments, so large was the demand. The old veterans, mostly, stayed to see the day celebrated, and they were in evidence everywhere, with their souvenir badges.

The pony race was won by O. S. Schiffer, of Cornelius, prize $10; Bruce Billings, second, prize $3; Art Lyon's black getting third. The Robinson lad, of Farmington, won the big boys' race; a boy from Cedar Mill caught the greased pig—but he was not a very wild one, having been fed too well by the committeemen. In the hurry of the games, the committeemen did not get the names of those winning the other prizes.

In the Tug of War contest, the Phillips team, comprised of sturdy young ranchers, pulled the Hillsboro team out of their kinks in about three minutes—as a matter of fact Hillsboro was not in it at the finish in anything but the ball game, their work in this being a credit to any amateur nine.

THE BALL GAME

The ball game, a prize of $25 going to the winning team, was played by Beaverton and the Nelson Hardware team, of Hillsboro. Hillsboro's team outclassed the visitors, and won the game by a score of 18 to 7. Beaverton's team was strengthened by the battery from Forest Grove—Drew, pitcher; Via, catcher, and Cardiff, of Forest Grove; and Higgins, from Sellwood. Hickenbottom, pitcher for the locals, threw a steady game, and his twisters were too many for the visiting aggregation. Besides doing some excellent slab work, Hickenbottom batted one home run and one three bagger. Tom Williams also batted a home run, while all the boys, with no exception, fell on Drew and knocked his curves into cocked hats. It was a great game, and was well worth the $25.

D. J. Porter, the Gaston black smith, readily found bondsmen to warrant his appearance at the first day of July term of circuit court, and he is therefore at liberty to practice his trade until that time. Porter alleges that there is nothing to the charge against him, and that he will be able to prove his innocence.

The wife of Geo. Hall, the St. Helens attorney, has been found at Vancouver, Wash., where she is alive and doing well. Mrs. Hall left her home, taking her child with her, giving as a reason for her departure the cruelty of her husband. Hall is well known in Washington county, having taught school here several years ago. He was raised here as a boy, going from here to St. Helens, where he studied law and was admitted to the bar.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wall and Mrs. J. C. Lamkin leave today for Chesmore Falls, on Gales Creek, to camp a month. Mr. Wall will return in a few days while circuit court is in session.

Chas. White, who lives in East Hillsboro, was severely bruised one day last week by a load of hay overturning, and catching him underneath. He is now able to be around, but not able to do any work.

U. S. Senator C. W. Fulton had a great time on the Fourth, shaking hands with his many Washington county friends. Mr. Fulton is a whole bunch of good fellows in himself, and he has a handshake like the grip of a Washington hand press.

Unclaimed letters, Hillsboro postoffice, July 2: Mrs. Lou Austin, Mrs. Sarah S. Brown (3), Miss Abbie Haines, Miss Agnes Nickels, Mrs. E. F. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilson. If unclaimed for will be sent to dead letter office July 16.

J. C. Hare has returned from the Baker County mine, and says that they are doing lots of development work up there with fine prospects. J. W. Shute is up there, working like a beaver, and making things look about right. Mr. Hare will go back in a few weeks.

No rain on the Fourth—and farmers are not very jubilant over crop prospects. A rain the last of the week would have been worth hundreds of dollars to Washington county, but the weather was warm and dry, and the sun beat down pitilessly when the weather man prophesied rain.

Some time ago Denny Wilson and a son of Otto Parson, of Gales Creek, became involved in an altercation and the Parson boy alleges that Wilson cut him with a knife. Mr. Parson came down and swore a complaint before Justice Bagley and the case will come to trial some time during the month of August.

A young fellow by the name of Wm. Mullin, from the Nehalem country, was held by the Dooleys, at Greenville, Tuesday night, and in the morning brought down by Messrs. Sewell and Connell, to be tried for insanity. The boys left him at the Hillsboro house, eating his breakfast, and went out to get breakfast, asking the landlord to look out for the fellow. Mullin ate his breakfast and then slipped away before the gentlemen came back. He was caught at Forest Grove and will be examined this evening or in the morning. Mullin is about twenty years of age, and is an inveterate cigarette smoker.

Prof. Miller, who has been here before, made two fine balloon ascensions last Friday and Saturday—two of the finest ever witnessed here. The two performances were brought here for the benefit of the veterans who were in encampment. The ascents were cleverly made, and could be seen by farmers for miles. Several parties ten and fifteen miles away could see the balloon at its highest point. The drops from the parachute were all that could be asked for. There was no ascension on the Fourth because the man who signed the contract "jumped his job."

The big Gaston milling property, together with the mill race, affording ample water power, will be sold at sheriff's and referee's sale at the court house next Monday morning, at ten o'clock. So far as is known there are no prospective buyers outside of those who are already interested in the old company. There is a probability of the mill going at a sacrifice. Mr. McCune, whose mortgage is being foreclosed, will likely be at the sale, to protect himself.

The Fourth of July committee has audited all the bills, and there will be two hundred dollars left from the amusement fund, owing to several attractions which had contracted to appear failing to arrive. This $200, if the subscribers are willing, will afford a nucleus to make a purchase of a grove near town, that can be fitted up for a permanent pleasure grounds. A list of receipts and expenditures will be published in next week's paper.

Samuel M. Kyle, aged 79, and for years a resident of Cedar Mill, was this morning adjudged insane and taken to the asylum this evening by Sheriff Connell and ex Sheriff Sewell. The unfortunate man is a widower and has resided with his sons at Cedar Mill. He was born in Pennsylvania. For two years his mind has gradually been failing. Dr. A. B. Bailey made the examination and gave senile decay as a cause.

Col. Armstrong, who did the brick work on the Masonic temple and the city hall, years ago, is up from Yreka, Cal., and is visiting friends and relatives at Laurel. Incidentally he is looking up evidence to procure a pension, as he was in Col. Cornelius' command in the fifties, up in the Yakima country. Mr. Armstrong was in the same company with W. H. H. Myers, of Forest Grove.

Max Crandall, who has been at Astoria, experting books, passed through town this morning enroute to Tillamook, where he goes to finish up work commenced there some time ago. Mr. Crandall has purchased an interest in the expert accounting firm of Clark & Buchanan.

Gerhard Goetze, of Iowa Hill, south of Cornelius, was in the city today, and says that the hay crop up there is perhaps slightly over half on the average, while the winter wheat looks fine. Spring wheat is better up there, he says, than down in the valley. Oats will be a light crop up in his section.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ingram, Farmington, July 3, 1904, Elder J. A. Campbell officiating, Mr. Marion Katzman, of Multnomah county, and Miss Nettie G. Ingram, of Farmington.
