SOUTHERN PACIFIC SERVICE IS COMING

Gasoline car is Shipped From Omaha to Portland

WEST SIDE TO GET THE SERVICE

Will be Inaugurated by the First of February

Southern Pacific Railway officials at Portland have received notice that the gasoline car, capable of carrying fifty passengers, has been completed at Omaha, and that the coach will be shipped this week, to Portland, and at once, as soon as the last of the calendar month, placed on the West Side run, between Portland and Forest Grove.

This is the first car of its kind ever shipped to the Pacific coast, and the first manufactured in America. Several are in use in the east, but they were manufactured in Germany. The cars are said to be capable of sustaining as great a speed as that in practice on the main line roads, and this should mean a good service between the points named. Just how many trips per day will be scheduled is not yet determined, but it is supposed that there will be several trips, and, with the four trains now running daily Hillsboro and Forest Grove will practically have a suburban service.

PHILLIPS—WACHTER

George W. Phillips and Miss Anna Wachter were married at the home of the bride's father, seven miles southwest of Wilbur, last Sunday, January 1, 1905, Rev A. B Cronek of the German Lutheran church, officiating.

Mr Phillips is the head of the harness department of M. E. & E. T. Hay's big store, and is a very popular as well as competent business man and a trusted employee The bride is the daughter of William Wachter, a prosperous farmer living a few miles from town. She is a young lady of pleasing appearance, highly respected and esteemed by those who knew her. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left Wednesday morning for Portland, and points in the Willamette valley, Oregon, where their father and other relatives reside.

They have the hearty good wishes of their host of friends, who will, no doubt, make their home-coming quite interesting, when they return from their visit.—Wilbur (Wash.) Register.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Phillips, of Cornelius, and at one time was in the harness business in this city.

Samuel Connell, a brother of the Connell boys, of this county, has been re-elected secretary of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

The body of Thos. O'Connor, who wedded Miss Ella Hare, daughter of Hon. W. D. Hare, at Hillsboro, years ago., was drowned the other day, at the dock in Olympia, Wash., where he was employed as cashier. It is supposed that his death was accidental beyond doubt. There were no marks on his body to indicate foul play, and he was seen at the dock where he was employed at 7:30 on the evening of January 8. Since his death a son was born to Mrs. O'Connor. J. C. Hare and wife left for Olympia, yesterday. Mr. O'Connor was raised in Portland, and was highly educated, having been educated in Europe and was consul for Belgium, in Portland, for a period of ten years.

Miss Minnie Lursman, of near Tualatin, was brought up yesterday by George Galbreath, and a complaint of insanity was lodged against the unfortunate young woman. She has been an inmate of the asylum and was discharged as cured about a year or so ago Her step-father, a man by the name of Precechtil was some years ago sentenced to the penitentiary by Judge McBride. Dr. F. J. Bailey examined the young woman and stated that there was no question as to her insanity. She was committed to the asylum and Sheriff Connell conveyed her to Salem last evening. Her mania is of a suicidal nature, and she is often quite hysterical.

John F. Keenon, a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Keenon, of beyond the Arcade school, north of Glencoe, died January 6, 1905, from tuberculosis. Deceased was born in Washington county, Dec. 15, 1885, and was aged 19 years and 22 days. He was a dutiful son, and throughout his entire illness displayed a wonderful geniality that disease could not chill, looking always on the bright side of everything. He was conscious to the last, and died with a smile on his lips. The funeral took place on Saturday, Rev. Hamilton, of Hillsboro, officiating.

The Hillsboro charter amendment has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Haines. This is to give the city absolute control of its streets, and provide that 60 per cent. of the road tax in the city shall go into the city treasury, and to further provide that the property owners shall pay 25 per cent. of permanent street improvements. The Senate passed the bill yesterday and it is now in the House.

Hoyt gives back every tenth dollar to his customers during January, and this after big discounts on all goods sold With every $1 received a ticket, numbered, is given, and the party receiving a number on the multiple of 10—for instance, 10, 20, 30, 40, etc—is paid a silver dollar. This premium includes the Jewelery department, as well as the general store.

Hillsboro Camp Woodmen of the World, installed the following officers Tuesday evening: consul commander, J D. Housley; advisor lieut., B A. Barber; clerk, T S. Weatherred; banker, J H Ray; escort, D H. Willers; watchman, L. F. Emmott; sentry, F. C. Ballard.

For sale: Angora nannies, one buck and some wethers, in good condition, and mostly young.—Fred Berger, Hillsboro R. F. D 4, and residing near Bethany.

Good groceries are all your living. The new crop of raisins, citron, spices, etc, is now in at H Wehrung & Sons. The purest and best line of staple and fancy groceries in the city.

Flour bins, nicely painted; a kitchen ornament, given away to those who use Moss Rose Flour, made by the Climax Milling Co. Look for coupons in the sack. You may get one.

J. J. Long, well known here for years, writes from Boise that he has a good position in the Idaho capital, and that he likes the climate and people up there, immensely.

R H. Grear has a few more fine Black Minorca cockerells for sale. Also eggs for hatching purposes—both Black Minorca and Barred Plymouth Rocks—50 cents per setting of 13.

H. A. Ball, formerly school superintendent, is now residing at Oswego, Oregon, ill health causing him to cancel his engagement with the LaFayette schools.

Mrs. Susie Morgan accompanied Sheriff Connell to Salem last evening to aid in conveying an insane patient to the asylum.

A fine line of corsets, reduced to 35 cents each, and others at reduced prices. A few flannel waist patterns at cost.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Preaching services at the Baptist Church at 11:00 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock Sunday, January 15—C. H. McKee, pastor.

If you comtemplate building fence come and get our prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

Elder J. A. Brown, of Monmouth, is holding revival services at the Christian church, this week, every night.

For hardware, tinware and crockery, we are headquarters.—Schulmerich Brothers.

Miss Minnie Gheen, of Portland, visited at home, Sunday.

CAROLINE SAGERT LOSES HER CASE

McBride Holds Evidence Does not Sustain Complaint

TROUBLE OVER WILL PROVISION

Mother Must Live With Son to be Maintained

Judge McBride yesterday evening held that Mrs. Caroline Sagert, of Tualatin, must live with her son, Louis, if she is to have the advantage of the proviso of the will—that Louis Sagert should care for her during her life. Mrs. Sagert brought suit some time since, alleging that she was not properly cared for; that she was compelled to do work which was too hard on her advanced age; and asked that she be allowed a stipulated sum each week. She also claimed that she was not properly clothed.

The court held that Mrs. Sagert was not mistreated, or that the evidence did not bear out the allegations of the complaint. Judge McBride sustained Mr. S. B. Huston, attorney for Louis Sagert, in holding that Mrs. Sagert must live with her son, under the wording of the will, unless it were proven beyond reasonable doubt, that she was not treated kindly and given the comforts due her. The Court holds that evidence of mal-treatment and lack of support was not produced sufficiently for him to require a support elsewhere than at Louis Sagert's home.

Mrs. Sagert's mental powers are somewhat weakened owing to age, and this probably had much to do with the decision of the court as to her standing before the bar.

Geo. R. Bagley and W. D. Hare were attorneys for the plaintiff.

J. W. SHUTE ON ROADS

Banker J. W. Shute, who has large farm interests in Washington county, in discussing the road question the other day, said: "I see that the county has levied $25,000 additional road tax for this year. This is a step in the right direction. For forty years I have watched the road building process, and I want to say right here, that this $25,000 extra tax can be made to do a world of good, if properly placed in road work. From actual observation and experience I know that the county should at least build, with this extra money, over 50 miles of good, substantial road, which will need but very little repair until 10 years shall have elapsed. I refer to grading your roads first; and then placing an eight foot road bed of two-inch plank, laid crossways, with about one and one-half inches between the planks, and then covering the planking with dirt, from two to four inches thick. This will give you a road that will provide a good, substantial bottom, and last for years. It will cost very little for repairs, even if a plank shall occasionally break, for there are to be no stringers, whatever, under the planking. The old Belknap hill, west of the Hawthorne place, and the old croselay on the Portland mountain, both on the Canyon and Cornell roads, all of which lasted for many years, has proven my theory. If later, the county should determine, it would have a fine bed for placing rock on the road. The levy above mentioned would at least build 50 miles of road in this manner, if first properly graded A mile of road would take 4620 planks, 2x12x8; making a total amount of lumber for each mile, of a trifle more than 74,000 feet, which at $6 per thousand, would cost, laid down, exactly $444.72. With such a levy for a few years we could have all our main thoroughfares in good condition, and great farming sections could each be benefitted within a short time. This is worth looking into—and I emphatically state that it can be done, and successfully. In four years we would have 200 miles of good roads. I am in favor of trying this, and at once" Mr. Shute promised to have more to say in this regard in a future issue. Mr. Shute's reason for having the planking covered is to exclude the lumber from the air.

TWO ROBBERIES IN COUNTY LAST NIGHT

Haines' Bank Vault Blown Open

COULD NOT GET INTO THE SAFE

J. D. Hibbs' Store, at Gaston, Entered by Burglars

Senator Haines' bank, at Forest Grove, was entered by cracksmen last night, and the vault was blown open, the report being heard by several in the city, some alleging that it was done as late as 4:30 this morning. The burglars entered the Watrous' warehouse and dragged sacks of sugar and potatoes and placed them in front of the vault before exploding the charge. The outer door was wrecked and the inner door suffered considerably. The safe was unharmed, and no money or valuables were taken.

Deputy Sheriff Kane went to the Grove at an early hour this morning, but so far suspicion points to no one at Forest Grove as being the guilty parties

The store of J. D. Hibbs, at Gaston, was entered last night and the best of the stock of cutlery, some watches and some confectionery, were stolen. The loss is estimated at $200. There is no one under suspicion, and it is thought that the robbery was committed by entire strangers.

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge McBride's court adjourned last evening, thus closing the December term. Before adjourning he cut down the verdict, given by a jury, in favor of W A Spence and against E H Jeter, from $4140 to $2100. The court stated that he considered the verdict excessive and gave Mr. Spence's attorney, Geo. R. Bagley, the option of having the verdict cut down or submitting to an order for a new trial. Mr. Bagley assented to cutting down the verdict.

The cases of Dunhan, Fletcher & Coleman, percheron stallion men, of Wayne, Ill., against Victor Crop, Fred Myers and Jacob Schneider, suits to enforce contracts on purchase of a stallion, were dismissed without prejudice.

The court made an order enjoining W D Smith from turning over rents on residence property belonging to Mrs L J Gishwiller, the wife of D T Tromley, who was tarred and featherred here several years ago, for time being. Wehrung & Sons have a mortgage on the place and have instituted foreclosure proceedings.

The suit to have taxes against Shute & Foote declared illegal and excessive, levied on personal property, was tried this week. Mr Shute alleged that prejudice against his rights were involved in the action of the board of equalization. Briefs will be filed by Attorney Geo R Bagley, for Shute & Foote, and by E B Tongue and S B Huston, for the county.

In the foreclosure case of Geo W Patterson vs D J Porter, on Gaston property the court decreed that Patterson's claim was first; W C Kerston's claim, second; and Mrs. Porter's claim, third liens on the realty.

The divorce case brought against Ernest Gurske, of Blooming, by his wife, was dismissed without prejudice.

CORNELL—BELLINGER

Mr. Dell Cornell and Mrs. Ida M Bellinger were married in this city, Thursday, January 12, 1905. The groom is a well known Hillsboro man and has been engaged with U. G. Gardner shop for several years. The bride is well known in Washington county and was reared near Glencoe. They departed this evening for Lebanon, where Mr. Cornell will engage in the blacksmith business.

HOAG—BLOYD

A very pretty wedding was solemnized January 8, 1905, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bloyd, near Phillips, Rev. Wm. C. Laube, of Bethany, officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Willis D. Hoag, of Waterloo, Iowa, and Miss Mattie V. Bloyd, of Phillips. The bride was lovely in a gown of organdie, and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses. Only a few near relatives and friends were present. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and Oregon Grape.

After the ceremony the guests were seated to an old-fashioned spread.

Edward Henry Lenox, who lived for years near West Union, and one of the founders of the Baptist church at that place, died at the King's Daughters' Home in Oakland, Cal., January 8, 1805, deceased being over 80 years of age. A brother, Samuel Lenox, resides at Gaston. Deceased was up here last spring, when the anniversary of the church's founding was celebrated, and was in very good health. Just as he was returning to California he suffered a stroke and never recovered. Mr. Lenox was the eldest son in the family, and his father organized the first Sunday school in the state of Oregon, having been one of the very early pioneers. Lenox came to Oregon when he was 18 years of age, and crossed the plains by ox team. He was a native of New York state.

Jessie Kennedy has sued John Kennedy for divorce. They were married in Washington county in 1894, and have five children, ranging from 9 years down to 1 year. The wife alleges that for some time he has failed to properly provide for her and the children, and that on Monday of this week defendant had threatened to "stamp her into the earth." The complaint alleges that the property is worth about $1675, and she wants one-half the personal property and one-third of the realty, situated near Banks

The promoters of the Portland-Forest Grove electric line tell Portland papers that the line will be constructed within six months from the present date. Yesterday morning's paper contains an article to that effect. The more the merrier—and let us hope that it will get here, even quicker than six months.

Fears are entertained for Fall sown grain if the cold weather shall keep up indefinitely, with alternate thawing in the daytime. Washington county has the largest acreage of Fall sown wheat for many years, and a "freeze-out" would cause incalcuable damage.

The Hillsboro agency of the Forest Grove laundry has been placed with T. S. Weatherred at the Schulmerich store. Laundry will be shipped Monday evening and returned Friday. Special rates for families.

Robert Hartrampf, for several years travelling salesman for the Buffalo-Pitts people, is in the city, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hartrampf. Mr. Hartrampf's headquarters are at Spokane.

The West Union District Sunday School convention will meet at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church on February 13, at ten o'clock in the morning. Everybody invited. Good program.

Born, January 11, 1905, to Mr and Mrs. J. W. Gates, of Leisyville, a son. This is the third son born to Mr. and Mrs. Gates, and they are thinking of adopting a girl.

Lemuel Robinson, formerly an Odd Fellow, and who has worked over in the Kelso country as logger for some years, died at Scholls the other day, and was buried Sunday.

Dell E. Cornell leaves the last of the week for Lebanon, where he will establish a blacksmith shop. The Argus wishes him fortune.

The Oregon Condensed Milk Company shipped two cars of cream today, one to Portland, and one to Seattle. This is going some.
