NO MORE OREGON P. O. APPOINTMENT

Agreement to Not Appoint Until After Land Fraud Trials

POSTMASTER WAGGENER WILL HOLD

Claim is Made That It is Unjust to Rest of Delegation

After a cabinet meeting last Friday it was decided that there would be no more federal appointments for Oregon until after the land fraud trials are over. This decision was arrived at upon the ground that it would be improper and unjust to make appointments solely upon the recommendation of Senator Fulton, while the other three Oregon members are under indictment.

Accordingly Postmaster Rufus Waggener, of this city, will hold the postoffice here for many months before change will be made, if at all.

The appointment of Hon. R. P. Cornelius was up to the president when charges were made from this city, according to a telegram received from Senator Fulton, that Mr. Cornelius was a partner in the treason business. This charge was refuted at once, but it had the effect to hold up any change until an investigation was made, and, at the very last, came the indictment of Hermann, Mitchell and Williamson, and with it, the decision to not make further appointments in Oregon until Henry finished the land trials.

Just who made the charge of Mr. Cornelius' partnership in the treason business is not known, or, if known, is kept secret.

The facts in the case are that Mr. Cornelius has no interest in any saloon, but he is a partner of E. J. Lyons, in the real estate business.

HIGHEST AVERAGES
President Roosevelt, the next day, stepped in and said that the decision as above quoted was without his knowledge, and that the ruling was unfair, that he would appoint to offices upon Senator Fulton's recommendation, where he could show any good reason why action should be taken.

Those receiving the highest average at the recent teachers' examination held at Hillsboro were:
Miss Agnes Reiling, Forest Grove, 96 per cent.
T. P. Kendall, of the Hillsboro schools, 94 per cent.
Leslie Kester, Tigardville, 94 per cent.
Ernest Webb, Gaston, 94 per cent.
The grades of Miss Reiling and Mr. Kendall were above 90 in each study included in the examination.

Jasper Keffler, of Glencoe, was in the city, Monday.

J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, was in to the county seat Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bagley were Portland visitors this week.

S. A. D. Meek and Geo. Hellaire were in from Glencoe, Saturday.

New Zealand white seed oats for sale—John Freudenthal, one mile southeast of Hillsboro.

H. E. McKinney, with the Cudahy people, Portland, was in the city, Sunday, the guest of relatives.

We do watch and clock repair work at reasonable prices.—E. L. McCormick, Hillsboro, Or.

Claude Sabin has been running the water and light plant nights, during the illness of Night Engineer Stevens.

Broken clock shoes, just the thing for ladies' every-day wear, at Dennis', while they last, at $1.35 per pair. To see is to buy.

J. L. and R. M. Banks were in from Banks, Saturday. They report that Mrs. Banks, who some time ago sustained severe burns, is progressing nicely.

For gentlemen's, ladies' and children's hose you can do no better than to buy of John Dennis. We have them for everybody, and at prices that are values.

W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, is suing Delia Hollis for divorce in the Yamhill circuit court, and the summons is being published in the Telephone Register. Hollis is acting as his own attorney.

Hon. T. A. McBride of Oregon City, was out Saturday, holding an adjourned term of circuit court, mention of which is made in another place in this issue. The recent legislature increased the judge's salary $1000 per year, to be borne equally by the four counties of his judicial district.

Fred Steiner, the former Mountaineer wine manufacturer who sold out last Fall, writes The Argus from Zolbruck, Switzerland, and says that he went from Portland to Denver on the Union Pacific; from there he went to Dubois, Nebraska, where he visited a short time with an old Swiss friend, and finally made the trip through to his native home in 26 days, with stops included. From Chicago he took the Lake Shore to New York, where he boarded the French liner, Touraine. Fred says there were several hundred Italians and Turks aboard, and the "perfume" that they sent up from the steerage was something that he will not forget for some time. He disembarked at Havre, and from there went through to Paris in six hours, and had the company of three Swiss, one from Alaska, and the others from San Francisco. He spent two days in Paris seeing the sights and then went on to Bern, where he visited a brother and his family. Reaching home he went to join his old music corps, but found many strange faces. He says that after 19 years absence things do not look as they used to, but he is enjoying himself immensely. Mr. Steiner said nothing about coming home, but The Argus bets that he will soon get anxious to see "his Deutch ee" out here in Oregon.

We handle the famous Napa tan shoe, the best water shoe make. Also the Douglas $3.50 shoe, known all over the world for its durability and style. Full and complete line of ladies' shoes, latest styles, and a fine stock of children's shoes.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

The County Court has decided to improve the Cornell road from the Multnomah county line back to the Cedar Mill bridge, and bids are asked for ditching, grubbing and grading the same. This road handles a great deal of traffic, and the demand for betterment can no longer be ignored. The work will be of some magnitude, and it is not unlikely that prospective bidders will have to go over the route before submitting bids.

No. 3 Hercules Stump blasting powder for sale; also fuse and caps; at Portland prices.—G. Hager, 8 miles northeast of Hillsboro, on Holbrook road, 14 miles southwest from old Phillips' postoffice. Address, Hillsboro, R. F. D. 4.

W. R. Blair, of Morton, Ill., writes The Argus that he is seriously thinking of coming to this city to start a cigar shop. He wants the business men here to give him some substantial encouragement, and he will hit the trail for Oregon. Let those who feel like supporting a business of this kind report to this office and their encouragement will be forwarded to Mr. Blair at once.

Watch our show windows for bargains—men's suits for $8.55; boys' suits, size from three to thirteen, $2.50; ladies' corsets, 35 and 75 cents. Take a look at our bargain counter which is well filled.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Word was received here Friday that Chris Lystrop, a prominent farmer of Reedville, was last Thursday stricken with paralysis, one side being badly effected. Mr. Lystrop was out feeding stock, and remained from the house longer than was necessary. His wife went out to see what was keeping him, when she found him suffering from the stroke. He is resting easier, and may be out in a few days.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

County Judge L. A. Rood was busily engaged Monday in bidding in fifty or sixty pieces of land advertised as delinquent. The Judge represented Washington county, and the rate of interest was ten per cent. If the owners of the land do not redeem the certificates within three years of time the land will be deeded to Washington County.

W. E. Smith, of the Hoover & Connell ranch, states that he does not think that winter wheat is injured very much out his way, and that he expects it to stool out in good shape unless we have another freeze. Gerhard Gotzke, of Blooming, says that no injury has fallen to Fall grain out his way.

Hillsboro streets should be cleaned up a little this Spring, as we are likely to have many visitors from the east, this Summer. There is nothing that gives one so good an impression of a town as cleanly streets and alleys.

The Nelson LaCourse store, at Forest Grove, sustained a $1000 loss early Saturday morning, the cause of the blaze being a fire that had been left in the stove the night before. The loss was fully covered by insurance.

STRANGE FATALITY COMES TO FAMILY

Death Claims Three in a Short Period of Time

ALL DIE AN UN-NATURAL DEATH

One by Drowning; One by Suicide; One by Minc Disaster

A strange fatality has pursued a family well known to Hillsboro people, and all of the principals were reared here. Inside of seventeen days three have been stricken with death by unnatural means. Perley Campbell was the first to go by accidental drowning; his cousin Mrs. Bessie Campbell Goodrich, wife of M. M. Goodrich, and who was a daughter of Elder Jas. A. Campbell, and a cousin of the late Perley Campbell, took carbolic acid at North Yamhill, the last of the week, death being almost instantaneous. Guy Fleming, well known here as a boy, was killed in a Southern Oregon mine, in Josephine's district, last week, by a huge slide, which entombed him under several feet of earth. The bodies of young Fleming and his companion, named Bert Garber, were uncovered after several hours of hard work, and both were found to have expired.

Guy Fleming was a son of Henry Fleming, and was a cousin of the late Perley Campbell.

Mrs. Goodrich was a bright young woman, but for some time her mind has been under a cloud.

Letter of Acknowledgment

Sherwood, Ore., Feb. 16, 1905.—We, the undersigned, thankfully acknowledge the prompt and satisfactory settlement of our loss and damage by fire, February 14, caused by an accident. Today we got our money.

We heartily recommend the Farmers Mutual of Portland, Ore., for their promptness and fair dealing in the consideration of the Farmers of Oregon.

Leonhard Becker, Barbara Becker.

SEALED PROPOSALS

Sealed bids for the ditching, grubbing and grading of a section of the Cornell road from the Multnomah line, to the Cedar Mill bridge, will be received by the County Commissioners' Court at Hillsboro, Oregon, on Saturday, March 4, 1905, at 10:00 a. m. Prospective bidders are requested to meet with the county board on Thursday, March 2, 1905, at 2:00 p. m., when plans and specifications will be submitted.

L. A. Rood, County Judge.

By order Commissioners, Hillsboro, Feb. 22, 1905.

Henry Vanderzanden was down from Greenville, Tuesday.

Owen Murray, one of Cedar Mill's prominent farmers, was in the city, Tuesday.

W. F. Hollenbeck, formerly in the sawmill business above Mountaineer, was in town Tuesday.

J. B. Schaefer came up from Linton a few days ago, and is again rustling orders for nursery stock.

John Powell, at present at Weiser, Idaho, and who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Powell, is recovering from a broken leg, sustained while riding in the sagebrush country.

J. B. McNew was down from Greenville, Tuesday, and reports that fall-sown wheat is not materially injured in his section, and that he noticed no bad results of the freeze on the plains.

One day last week while Lincoln Landess, of near Scholle, was helping two men to move an old barn shed, some of the timbers fell, striking Mr. Landess on the head and back, inflicting a severe injury to the upper portion of his spine. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called and attended the injured man, and he fears that the results of the accident will be of several weeks duration.

On last Saturday, Dr. Bowser, the veterinary of South Hillsboro, met with an accident that came near costing him his life. He was performing a surgical operation on a cow at the Cate farm, east of Hillsboro, when one of the hooks used in that practice, slipped, the point catching in one of his palms. Blood poison almost immediately set in, and before many hours his arm was terribly swollen. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called and soon had the malady under control.

Attorneys H. T. Bagley, of Hillsboro, and Henry E. McGinn, of Portland, have succeeded in getting James G. Lee, of Patton Valley, this county, a new trial. Some two or three years ago Lee was charged with stealing a calf from the Ben E. Dennis farm near Gaston. Lee was in British Columbia when the warrant was issued. He was apprehended some months later, and gave bond for trial. During the examination of a witness, Dennis, Lee's attorneys objected to a certain question and answer—touching upon Lee's former reputation—and asked the Court to have it stricken from the testimony, and the jury instructed to disregard it. It was upon this objection that the attorneys appealed the case. Justice Bean handed down the decision Monday, and Lee will get another trial. H. T. Bagley argued the case before the Supreme Court several weeks ago. The case will doubtless come up for trial at the March term of circuit court.

Thos. Paulsen, formerly of Garden Home, but now of Multnomah County, is entitled to a gold medal and some enterprising showman could make a fortune exhibiting him as a product of Oregon not wanting more public money than he earned. Mr. Paulsen was appointed clerk at the recent session of the legislature, and after working 13 or 14 days, was taken ill, and went home. At the close of the legislative body Paulsen received a warrant for his services including all the time that he lost. The recipient immediately sent back $57 to the state treasurer. Considering the immense amount of unearned money paid out to clerks and stenographers, and the general inclination to get all that is coming, the action of Mr. Paulsen is to be applauded. When anyone wants to find an honest man he will not be called on to get a lantern. He can go down and visit Mr. Paulsen.

P. B. Southworth has installed in the Gem Saloon, one of the neatest and most up-to-date bars on the West Side, and Chas. O'Connor, a former Cornelius resident, has been retained as manager. A short order counter is another improvement, and hot lunches and coffee will be served at all hours. The interior of the building has been newly decorated, and the resort now presents a handsome appearance. Mr. Southworth announces that he is keeping the choice of beers, wines and liquors of all kinds on hand, and he solicits your patronage. Second Street, east of Baudstand, court house block.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Blowers went up to Greenville, Monday, and placed C. A. Watson, recently returned from Fossil, under arrest. Watson was indicted for fencing in lands for the Butte Creek Lumber Company. Watson gave bond the next day, and is at liberty. It is understood that the defendant, Watson, claims that he was working for the company, and had no criminal or personal interest in the proceedings for which he is under indictment.

Will Adkins has sold his big Dane Dog, "King," to Wm. Reidt, for two lots on Portland Heights, and $10 in cash. At last the boys have discovered what the big fellow was "good for." King came here with a show troupe last Summer and a few of the boys bought him for little or nothing. The lots traded in are not very valuable, but when the Consolidated builds across the mountain fancy prices are anticipated.

Frank Kellerman, who left Reedville last Fall, for the Northwest Territory, and settled at Leofield, writes that they have had cold weather up there, and that on Dec. 26, the thermometer stood 40 below zero and on Jan. 9, 41 below. They have only had about a foot of snow, but the lakes and rivers are frozen to a depth of three feet. He says there are many deer, wolves and foxes up there, and that hunters have plenty of sport.

J. B. Schaefer is agent for the Old Reliable Albany Nursery, and is now taking orders for Spring planting. Drop him a card at Hillsboro postoffice if you need fruit trees, ornamental shrubbery, berry plants, etc., and give him your order. Why pay two prices? We sell the cheapest of any, and our stock is Oregon grown, and acclimated.

Frank Nicklin, of Murphy Grant & Co., San Francisco, was in the city Monday evening, a guest of the Lamkin home. This is his first trip to the city in 20 years.

Chas. E. Streeter, of Clatskanie, was in town the first of the week, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bailey.

Last Friday Peter Jacobson, of Lenox, slipped and fell down a cellar way and broke one of his ribs, on the right side. Dr. F. J. Bailey attended the sufferer.

RAUL GUERLING GETS SEVEN YEARS

Pleaded Guilty Before Judge McBride, Saturday

WOULD NOT IMPLICATE OTHERS

Probably Resulted in Severity of His Sentence

Raul Guerling, the young criminal who participated in the robbery of the J. D. Hibbs' store, at Gaston, last month, pleaded guilty last Saturday, before Judge McBride, who held an adjourned session of circuit court.

When Judge McBride, seeking some mitigation for the offense in the probability that he was influenced by criminals who were older than the defendant, asked him if he had help, Guerling replied in the affirmative, but declined to tell who they were, saying that he did not know who they were.

The Court thereupon gave the youthful robber a sentence of seven years in the penitentiary, and Sheriff Connell conveyed the lad to the penitentiary, Saturday evening.

Miller & Miller interposed a demurrer in the Keen vs. Keen case, wherein Mrs. Della B. Keen sued Susan Reynolds Keen for $25,000 for alienating her husband's affections, but the court held that the case must come to trial at the March term. This is the case wherein Keen left his wife; a divorce was granted; and Keen later married Mrs. Susan Reynolds.

The Sherwood appeal case, wherein a man by the name of John Roberts was fined $60 by the recorder, was argued in the forenoon, Attorney W. H. Davis, of Portland, claiming that the charter was defective, was argued and taken under advisement. H. T. Bagley was counsel for the city.

Dismissed without prejudice: Davis Wilcox vs. Geo. A. Morgan as clerk; Littlehales vs. Baseline Lumber Company.

Hefel vs. Adam Fulton, foreclosure; sale by Sheriff confirmed. Bagley, H. T. vs. Kennedy, et als, down for trial, March 21.

Ed. Moon was in from Centerville, Monday.

Constantine Miller, of Farmington, was in the city, Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leisman, of near Glencoe, on Feb. 16, 1905, a son.

Attorney Earl B. Hawks is down this week, helping write tax receipts for the sheriff's office.

Frank Weisenbeck, manager of the Ray Hop Farm, at Witch Hazel, was in the city, Monday.

Dr. E. DeWitt Connell, Portland's most prominent eye and ear specialist, was in the city, Sunday.

Emil Wagner, of Portland, visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, on Third Street.

W. C. Kertson, of Forest Grove, and W. H. Wescott, of Gaston, were in town Monday, on legal business with the sheriff's office.

Mrs. W. P. Tucker went to Harrisburg the first of the week, to attend the funeral obsequies of her late grandmother.

Chas. Loudon, of Glencoe, and who was in the Philippine service with the Fourteenth Infantry, was in the city, Monday.

Wanted: Man and wife to work; man to work in mill or drive team; woman to do cooking. Apply to Bishup Bros., Hillsboro, R. F. D. 3.

At Durham bull for sale; coming three in Spring. Full blood.—Frank Weisenbeck, manager Witch Hazel Hop Farm; address, Witch Hazel, Ore.

The Jayne bill failed of passage in the senate, and Senator Haines, of Forest Grove, led in the discussion against the bill. The bill failed by two votes.

Advertised letters, Hillsboro postoffice, Feb. 18, to be sent to the Dead Letter office, March 4, if uncalled for: Tom Johnson, Chas. Palmer, Charles Peterson and L. A. Wallace.

With last Friday came the change of weather and the rain was welcomed by all old Oregonians. It will be several years, perhaps, until Oregon will have another Winter so free from rain during January and February.

Taken up: Black Jersey heifer, 2 years old; had bell on when first came to my place. Has been here for four months. Owner will please call, prove property and take same away upon paying all charges.—J. C. Wilson, 6 miles northeast of Hillsboro, or address, R. F. D. 4.

"As the Twig is Bent The Tree's Inclined"

How is it with the young people of your household? Are they saving money? Have they learned to appreciate the value of the dollar? Are you endeavoring to instill into their minds correct ideas concerning thrift and economy? Are you seeking the opportunity to "bend the twig?" Would you like to listen to a plain suggestion? If so, here it is:

Send the young folks to our bank with the first spare dollar that comes into their hands. The next dollar should be treated in like manner, and the practice so continued until a fixed habit of saving has been established. A goodly bank account will soon result; the young folks will get an inkling of the ways of business, and, being thus "inclined" are likely to grow up into straight and thrifty manhood.

This Association, being legally organized and duly incorporated, has for its object the mutual protection of its members against loss or damage by fire and lightning, and the insurance is confined to farm buildings, churches and school-houses and their contents, outside of any city or town, located in the country, excluding hop-houses and fruit-driers. It insures only two-thirds of the actual cash value of property, and rejects any inferior, unsafe risks.

By paying $1.00 membership fee you become a life member, and by paying 25 cents per $100.00 for dwellings and contents, and 50 cents per $100.00 for barns, churches and school houses and contents, you get insurance for five years, subject to such assessments as may be necessary to cover losses as they may occur during that time. The headquarters of this Association are not in an inaccessible, out-of-the-way place, where only a few (a certain ring) have the control of it, but in the business center of the State, easily accessible from all points, where the members annually meet and elect the Directors and all the officers direct, examine the books and control the affairs of the Association generally.

The membership is already a large one and daily increases, and the Association, being conducted by sound business principles, is bound to become the leading Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Association in the State. If you wish to join, send your name and address to
