Gov. Chamberlain is not slow at giving a roast provided the subject demands speed. His recent criticism, direct, of Judge Burnett, of Salem, fills the bill for all that is true, truthful and trenchant. Judge Burnett has earned the everlasting contempt of almost every lawyer who comes before his court, and these gentlemen must have read the Governor's lecture with a great deal of satisfaction. Position sometimes swells the ego of a small-calibre man, and this is the trouble with Burnett. In this district Judge McBride treats every attorney, humble or otherwise, with a dignity that becomes the Court as a person, as well as an institution of society.

The Forest Grove city council voted this week to instruct Mayor Johnson to arrange for the appeal from the decision of Judge McBride, in the liquor case, to the supreme court.

Sold Back Jr., son of the famous Chinese merchant of that name, in Portland, was in Hillsboro today, on business. Mr. Back is Captain of a Chinese squad in Portland, the members of which approach military precision. He is a bright looking young fellow, with American ideas, and wears the conventional American dress.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES

A Texas congressman was killed at a political meeting the other day. He was advocating prohibition, and a riot ensued.

The Russian and Japanese fleet are getting close together, playing hide and seek, but it is not thought that Togo will risk his entire fleet in an encounter. The Russians seem inclined to hold together, and are reported to be on a search for the Japs, and if they meet the war will virtually end with success to the winning fleet's country.

Gov. Chamberlain, in a public letter, this week, excoriated Judge Geo. H. Burnett, of Marion County, in the Oregonian. Burnett has the reputation of being an arbitrary judge who extends no courtesy to the attorney who practices in his court, and the governor left nothing unsaid. Local attorneys say that the letter of Chamberlain was truthful and the only complaint was that it was overdue. One prominent Hillsboro attorney who voted against Chamberlain met the governor in Portland Monday and said: "Governor, I did not vote for you when you ran in 1902, but if there is anything that could induce me to give you a boost it was that letter you wrote Judge Burnett."
