MULTNOMAH WINS AT FOREST GROVE

Beats Pacific University at Field Meet, Tuesday

WON BY ONE POINT TO GOOD

Peterson Made Best Time for Coast This Year

Multnomah beat Pacific University at Forest Grove Tuesday, in the field meet, by a bare score of one to the good. The contest was a nerve wrecker, as the last number, the broad jump, was the deciding event.

Peterson gave Kelly a hard fight in both the short dashes, and distanced all his competitors in the 440-yard dash, going the distance in 0:51 2-5, the best time made in the Northwest this year. Captain James captured the three weight events for Multnomah. The discus was won at 102 feet 8 inches, a surprise to the collegians, as Philbrook and Dimick seldom fail to throw it less than 110 feet.

The 120 yard hurdle was a tie between Oscar Kerrigan and George Philbrook, and the low hurdles were won by Kelly from Prideaux by only a few inches. Herbert Kerrigan won the pole vault at 10 feet, which height was equalled by Boyd of Pacific, when he and Turrey vaulted off a tie for second place.

100-yard dash—Kelly (M A A C) Peterson and Huston (P U); time, 0:10 4-5.

Shot-put—James (M A A C), J W Philbrook (P U), H Kerrigan (M A A C); distance, 40 feet 5 inches.

440-yard dash—Peterson and Huston (P U), Gammie (M A A C); time, 0:51 2-5.

120-yard hurdles—George Philbrook (P U) and O Kerrigan (M A A C) tied for first; Prideaux (P U); time, 0:16 4-5.

880-yard run—Gates and Fletcher (P U), Mays (M A A C); time, 2:24.

Hammer throw—James (M A A C), Dimick and L A Wrence (P U); distance, 121 feet 7 inches.

High jump—H Kerrigan and Kelly (M A A C), George Philbrook (P U); height, 5 feet 6½ inches.

220-yard dash—Kelly (M A A C), Peterson and Huston (P U); time, 0:23.

Pole vault—H Kerrigan and Turrey (M A A C), Boyd (P U); height, 10 feet.

Discus throw—James (M A A C) J W Philbrook and L A Wrence (P U); distance, 102 feet and 8 inches.

220-yard hurdles—Kelly (M A A C), Prideaux and Mason (P U); time, 0:27 1-5.

Mile run—Gates (P U), Hansen and Mays (M A A C); time, 4:54.

Broad jump—Kelly and Kerrigan, (M A A C), Peterson (P U); distance, 21½ feet.

A BIG ORDER FOR HILLSBORO

The Oregon Condensed Milk Company, which is running every day with splendid success, this week booked orders for five carloads of Oregon Grape and Pacific Cream, for Alaskan and Washington shipments. This institution is distributing thousands of dollars in this section every month, and is one of the industries that tends to build up a community.

Dr. W. D. Wood recently received an invitation to be present at a meeting of the Ann Arbor medical class of 1890, of which he was a member, and which will be held there on June 22. The Doctor sent his regrets, but forwarded an invitation to the class to meet with the National Medical Association in Portland, July 11, and view the Lewis & Clark Fair and Oregon, in all its glory, and at the same time, make Hillsboro a visit.

Commissioners' court will meet here next Wednesday, and the session will be quite an important one, as there will be bids, Thursday, on the construction of the big bridge across the Jackson Bottom, south of this city. It is expected that several contractors will put in figures on the structure, and whoever gets it, if the contract is let, will have a lengthy job. T. P. Goodin, the West Union contractor, expects to submit a bid, and Tillotson, of Albany, says he is after the work, so the competition will be spirited. Nearly $3,000 of the expense of the bridging and filling will be paid by private subscription, by farmers of South Tualatin mostly.

FORMER HILLSBORO LAD PRESENTS G. A. R.

With a Gavel Made From Gettysburg Battlefield.

FORWARDS IT TO J. C. LAMKIN

Gavel has Bullet Buried for Forty-Two Years

John D. Thomas, who was raised in this city, and who left here several years ago to travel for the Collier Publishing Company, recently writes from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, to J. C. Lamkin, sending him a gavel, made from Big Round Top and Reynolds Grove wood, on the Gettysburg Battlefield, asking him to present it to the General Ransom Post. The gavel is turned out of a piece of wood that has a bullet buried in it since 1863. The present has been turned over to Post Commander Geo. T. Rea, and is a treasure for the old boys. The letter accompanying the gavel is as follows:

Gettysburg, May 26, 1905.

Mr. J. C. Lamkin,
Hillsboro, Oregon

Dear Friend: I am sending you a little gavel made from timber from the Battlefield. I would like to have you give it to the G. A. R. Post at Hillsboro. I did not know to whom to send it, so decided to send to you. Hoping you are enjoying good health, I remain,

Yours Truly,
JOHN D. THOMAS

STEAM WOOD SAW

I have a steam wood saw for cutting in the woods. Am prepared to take contracts to fall timber and cut wood in lots of from 100 cords upward. Address Matt Coppo, Beaverton, Ore.

Mrs. H. V. Gates, of this city, was one of the judges at the Forest Grove Rose Show last Saturday.

W. A. Hansen has opened a tinshop in the building two doors south of the Argus office, and directly east of the bandstand, where he will be pleased to meet his old customers.

Public school closes tomorrow, and the graduating class will receive their diplomas next Monday. Hillsboro has one of the best schools in the Willamette Valley, and next year its efficiency will be promoted considerably. A list of the graduates will appear next week.

One of our professional men yesterday visited Portland and saw the former champion, John L. Sullivan. He stated that Sullivan recited his monologue at the matinee with about the same expression as a school boy. Sullivan told some very good stories which, however, have grown hoary with age. One of them he tells on his father, who was twenty years a wiper at an eastern roundhouse. One day an engineer said to the elder Sullivan, "Can you run an engine?" "Of course," said the elder Sullivan. "Well, run this into the roundhouse" This Sullivan essayed to do, when he ran into the farther wall of the building. Quickly throwing the reverse, he went clear out, and soon had the engine on the turntable. Throwing the lever to the center the machine stopped. "I ran her in," said Sullivan Sr. "and phwy in the divvle didn't you shut the dure?" The witness to Sullivan's monologue says the old champion is in no condition to put up a fight, and thinks he will be easy for Mitchell.

In another column will be found two calls for bids by the Hillsboro school board. One of them asks for bids on the construction of the addition to the public school building, the new structure to be 29x38, with a brick foundation; to have two rooms; plaster of three coats for inside finish. The building will be attached to the south exposure, and will be a continuation of the room wherein the ninth grade is now taught. This will shut out no light, and will leave the building in splendid shape for another addition when the population demands it. The other bid calls for figures on the delivery of four feet fir wood, first growth, fifty cords. The bids will be opened at the office of Director S. B. Huston, on June 10.

Joe Rogelic, the Austrian who was arrested some time since, charged with begging, came back last week and frittered away several days trying to get an attorney to take a case of damages against the city for alleged false imprisonment. Rogelic is possessed of but one hand, and made this a sympathetic point to get money. Many people out in the Shady Brook country gave him financial aid, after which he bumped into Hillsboro. He handed out cards, telling about how he was compelled to support a family, and then took whatever was given him In this manner he was caught and taken before Recorder H. T. Bagley.

The will of the late N. S. Howell, who died at Tualatin, April 29, 1905, was offered in probate this morning. The estate is valued at about $1000, and has a rental value of $192 per annum. The legatees are: Bertha and Zora Anderson, $400, and house and two lots in Tualatin; Nannie, Mildred and Orilla Baker, $400 each, and each a house and lot; Mrs Elizabeth Ladd and daughter, Myrtle, house and lot in Tualatin and all money left after all claims are paid; Burglington Ladd, land on south side of the Tualatin River. A. W. Vincent and J. U. Henry witnessed the will, which was drawn October 4, 1900.

J. H. Thompson, of Thompson Bros.' sawmill, above Mountaindale, was in town yesterday, and reports that the mill is now running two shifts, owing to pressure of orders. Mr. Thompson states that the east is now looking to the Pacific Coast for its lumber supply and he receives many inquiries from as far eastward as Chicago, asking for figures on carload lots for finished lumber.

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Peters, of Cornelius suffered a bad accident this morning The little one was in a baby buggy on the front porch, when the carriage rolled off the porch, the child sustaining a fracture and dislocation of the elbow. Dr. F. J. Bailey attended the sufferer, and it is doing as well as possible considering the severity of the accident.

The people of Chehalem Mountain and Laurel and vicinity are to hold a big picnic on Ball Peak, on Saturday, June 10. Everybody is invited. A stand, a fine program, horse races and foot races and other amusements will be the features. From this mountain is seen one of the finest views in Oregon. The mountain is plainly seen from Hillsboro points.

A private letter from W. G. Hare, who is to have charge of the Washington County exhibit at the Lewis Clark Fair, states that he left Ann Arbor, Mich., last night, and will arrive in Portland to assume his duties about June 5. This is Mr. Hare's second term at the Ann Arbor Law School.

Bonnie Bessie Weisenback, a daughter of Julius Weisenback, aged 13, is the youngest girl graduate attaining that distinction at the Reedville school. Miss Weisenback is a remarkably bright girl and her many friends in that section are delighted with her success.

Mrs. Nevada McDonald and Mrs. O. E. Elliott, of Clatskanie, on the Columbia, were Hillsboro visitors, Decoration Day. Mr. and Mrs McDonald conduct the hotel at Clatskanie, and Mr. Elliott is a well known logger at that place.

R. B. Goodin left this evening for Salem, after a ten days' stay here, improving his residence property. Mr. Goodin is chief accountant at the State Asylum.

J. W. Marsh, pioneer of 1852, was in the county seat Tuesday. He reports crops looking fine out in the Centerville district.

Robert Kuhn, of East Hillsboro, presented the Argus force with some splendid Wilson strawberries this week.

Mrs. R. B. Goodin and two children, and Miss Flossie Goodin, of Salem, were Hillsboro visitors, this week.

Sheriff Connell made a business trip to Wasco county, Eastern Oregon, this week.

Born, at Mountaindale, May 30, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, a son.

Albert Bunning and wife, of Cornelius, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Parvin Hendershott, of Portland, visited with friends here Monday.

J. P. Gardner, the West Union blacksmith, was in town Tuesday afternoon.
