TELEGRAPHIC NOTES

King Alfonso, of Spain, is in England.

Portland whipped her first wife yesterday, the victim receiving twenty lashes.

Russia has asked Japan for peace terms, and Roosevelt may act as the arbitrator.

Norway has seceded from the Scandinavian dual government, and Sweden may resort to arms.

Dr. Harry Lane is now mayor of Portland having defeated Gen. H.

Williams by over 1900 plurality, and having a majority over all candidates. This gives the democrat the governor of the state; the district attorney and sheriff for the biggest county in the state; and the mayor of the biggest city in the Northwest—and yet, there is no more scab on sheep; the crops are looking fine; and confidence is not badly shaken; the Lewis & Clark Fair will continue without interruption, and the sun will continue to appear in the east and disappear in the west, over back of Tillamook.
