

Ed. Bowman departed for Heppner Saturday morning.

Jacob Whitmore, one of Laurel's hopgrowers, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van DeLashmutt, of Witch Hazel, were in the city Monday.

Born, June 17, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers, of Shady Brook, a daughter.

Alex Chalmers, of Centerville, was in to the railroad meeting, Monday evening.

The fire cracker season has begun and dealers are already catering to the small boy.

Miss Meryl Whitcomb, daughter of L. A. Whitcomb, is here, the guest of her aunt, Miss Minnie Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinde and family have gone to Wilson River for an outing, to be absent for several days.

S. J. Raffety, of Mountaineer, has again gone with a corps of O. R. & N. engineers, east of the mountains.

Mrs. Matilda Owens, of Clearwater, Idaho, is at Glencoe, the guest of her uncle, W. C. and J. W. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tucker were Monmouth visitors Sunday, the latter to remain the week of Commencement.

Mrs. A. T. Flint, of near Scholla, is seriously ill and the attendant physician, Dr. Tamiel, has called a consultation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wilson, of Tillamook, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. House, Friday eve, enroute to the Fair.

Mrs. Bowerman, the wife of the Senator of Condon, Gilliam Co., is visiting with Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Bailey, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fox, of Ashland, were first of the week guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Gates. They may permanently locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lambkin and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wall went up to Roderick Falls, on Wall's Homestead, on Gates Creek, Sunday, and spent the day.

Dr. F. A. Bailey, who has traveled over all portions of the county, states that in his opinion the reports of much injury to grain by the aphid is greatly exaggerated, and that the damage by this pest will be trifling.

The Western Oregon A. C. conference have just closed a series of very successful meetings at Cornelius, in a tent pitched in the city park. Sermons were delivered by Dr. A. C. Eaton and Elder Miller, of Hillsboro, and Elder Meade, of Carlton.

John M. Oliver, of Lakeland, Minn., and who is a brother of the late Percy Oliver, who enlisted from here and died in the Philippines, writes that he is soon to come West, and he wants information about this section.

Where people meet each other frequently in a business or social way, clothing is a very important consideration, and has a great deal to do with a man's success—much more than is generally realized. We handle the K. N. & F. suits for men—the best.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

The graduating class at St. Helens Hall in Portland last week numbered nineteen, representing four states. Washington County was represented by Miss Eva Bailey, of Hillsboro, who graduated with the highest average, not only of the 1905 class, but of any class of the school for the last four years.

Hillsboro is getting to be quite a headquarters for farm machinery. In one day last week Ed. Schulmerich sold $750 worth of machines and wagons to farmers. The list was six mowers; three rakes; one tedder; two wagons; one binder; one springtooth harrow. That's going some!

H. D. Conover and wife, and daughters, Misses Letitia and Lois, and son, Henry, of Wabburg Wash., arrived in the city the last of the week, for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Conover is a daughter of J. N. McKinney, one of the early pioneers. Mr. Conover and son returned to Wabburg the first of the week.

Levi Armworthy, who came here in 1863, and who lived at Reedville, and who two years later went east of the mountains, is in the city, visiting with John Masters and wife and Thos. Tucker, whom he knew in olden times. He now resides at Wasco, Sherman County, where his son, James, now deceased, edited the News.

The season for broken arms and collar bones by reason of falls from fruit trees has arrived and the first sufferer is Goldie Whitmore, the seven year daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Whitmore. The child fell from a mulberry tree in the Ham Ornduff orchard, the other day, and sustained a broken collar bone. Dr. Linklater attended the sufferer.

Will Wolf, of West Union, came home from Portland one day last week, fully satisfied that farmers can sell their best, dressed or on foot, to Washington county butchers, at better figures than they can get in the metropolis. Will says than he could have received for it at home. He says that it would be a good idea for farmers to look up home markets before going to Portland.

Superintendent Patterson, of the Ladd & Reed farms, came down from Amity, where he met W. H. McEldowney, at Broadmead Farm, and states that but a day or so ago Mr. McEldowney signed up the right of way for the electric line across his ranch east of town. This must mean business, and, added to the fact that the are strenuous on Stark street, we are about ready to take it for granted the line is built.

Portland is now making a pull for that place as the city for the Japs and Russians to settle their diplomatic fight. Dr. F. A. Bailey, of this city, was the first to mention this possibility, while in the Rose city, a few days ago, and Portland officials have taken the matter seriously. Here's hoping they will come and then sign their treaty out in Hillsboro, in the first frame court house built in Oregon—the building opposite the Hotel Tuslatin.

AN ELEGANT SUMMER BOOK

"Restful Recreation Resorts," the 1905 Summer Book issued by the passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company contains forty-eight pages and cover. The book is printed on heavy white paper, fifty-eight cuts being used to illustrate the trips up and down the Columbia River, to the mountains, beaches, inland resorts and mountains of healing. The cover is done in three colors, adding materially to the beauty and effectiveness of the publication, which may be had by sending two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Ore. It is a good thing to send to your friends in the East who expect to visit the Lewis & Clark Exposition.
