

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XII.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, JUNE 29, 1905.

NO. 16

SURVEY IS STARTED OUT OF THIS CITY

For the Railway Line Running to the Seaside

AFTER TIMBER AND TILLAMOOK

Road Completed to Timber Line This Fall and Possibly Farther

The last obstacle in the way of active, actual work on the Hillsboro-Tillamook railway was removed on Tuesday when director John McCracken and Chief Engineer Davis approved the bond signed by business men of this city and vicinity, guaranteeing the right of way as far as Banks and upon the strength of this office are opened up in the Schulmerich block, upstairs, and a corps is in the field, running a line from the S. P. switches to the west of town, to connect with the old Astoria & Coast grade. The line will continue through the 12-mile stretch of rich farm lands, as far as Banks, where it enters the big timber belt.

Construction will follow the survey as soon as cross-section can be run. The "spirit moves," and a railway in operation to Banks, and probably further, is to be realized before Winter sets in.

FIR WOOD $2.00 PER CORD

While it lasts, or until further notice I will sell my fir wood in four feet lengths at the above price delivered in or about the center of Hillsboro, or an equivalent haul. This is first growth first-class wood. I will furnish 16 inch lengths for $2.65 as heretofore.

Terms of payment, cash upon delivery of wood.

Orders can be sent by telephone, Farmers 356; or by mail, Route 4, Hillsboro.

HOME SEEKERS' RATES

The Southern Pacific Company will make a rate of one fare for the round trip from Portland to all points in Oregon—Astoria and north for visitors from the East to the Exposition at Portland to enable them to look over Western Oregon with a view of settling or investing. These tickets will be good for fifteen days limit, with stop over at all intermediate points, and will be sold to holders of the Exposition round trip tickets from points East of the Rocky Mountains.

This will afford the various counties and communities that will maintain exhibits and advertise on other ways at the exposition, every inducement to have the Eastern people visit their section.

J. L. Banks, of Banks, was in town Tuesday.

R. B. Bates, of Greenville, was in town Tuesday morning.

Hugh Smith, of Forest Grove, was in the city, Saturday.

H. E. Johnson, the Pacific Avenue liveryman of Forest Grove, was in town Tuesday forenoon.

The county farm is suffering a siege of chicken pox this week. Two of Supt. Roy's children are afflicted, besides one or two of the inmates.

Wm. Stewart, who has been at the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg, for some time, is in the city for a short visit with relatives. He is looking as cheerful as ever.

Mrs. John Hay, of Tacoma, and who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, of Forest Grove, was in the city Tuesday, the guest of Mrs. Geo. A. Morgan and Mrs. Ella O'Connor.

Mrs. L. E. Wilkes departed the first of the week for Harlem, Montana, going via the O. R. & N. and the Great Northern. She goes to visit her husband and visit a few weeks in the upper altitudes.

Chas. Brown, of Laurel, was a county seat visitor Tuesday, and says that he is still in the lumber business. He is at present logging, and this is his 25th year of lumber work, either in the mill or in the timber.

The Groner & Rowell Co. is now better prepared than ever before to supply the trade with lumber, hollow building blocks and drain tile. They now have on hand a good supply of dry flooring, rustic ceiling and shiplap; also a full stock of all kinds of rough lumber. House and barn bills can be furnished on short notice. It is better to order your large size tile early, than take chances on the supply running out, and not getting what you want, as we carry only a limited stock on hand. Do not forget that the wet spots in your fields can be remedied with drain tile and prevent the repetition of last year's failure. Building blocks are better and cheaper than brick for foundations and cellars. Why use rock that will settle uneven and warp your buildings out of shape, when a good foundation can be had so cheap? Let us figure with you on them.

Hillsboro is to have not a little building in the near future. W. E. McCourt will soon build a residence; the Amusement Association will construct a new opera house; Mr. Tunzai will soon build another house; Mrs. Pittenger, of the primary department in the public school, will build in the not distant future; John Dennis is to build a house and barn on his land just east of the limits; and B. F. Halnes will build a cottage as soon as arrangements can be made. There is no telling how much building boom will be inaugurated before the Winter comes. Another building—the annex to the school house—is now in course of construction.

The streets of Hillsboro are covered along the outer fringes with a big growth of grass and dog fennel, owing to the fact that cows are kept from running at large. From the condition it is readily seen that a great deal of dog fennel has been converted into milk each season. The cows are sometimes picketed altogether too close to the sidewalks and they make resting places—and other kinds of places, also—of the walks, much to the inconvenience of pedestrians. Just make the ropes a trifle shorter and the walking will be less obstructed by the bovines.

Paul Tews, the son of August Tews, while working around a windmill at the Geo. Biersdorf ranch, last Friday, badly crushed the fleshy portion of one of his hands. He was trying to adjust a part of the machinery, when the wheel went into gear, the cogs catching the hand. He kept a stiff upper lip and bided his time until the gearing passed around and then withdrew the injured member. Dr. F. J. Bailey dressed the wound.

Edwin S. Sparks, of Forest Grove has composed a very nice little song, entitled "I Will Meet You on the Trail." It is a scene laid in the East and a young fellow is about to leave for Oregon, telling his sweetheart that he will "meet her on the Trail." The melody is catchy, and the song is selling well. Mr. Sparks is getting a considerable reputation as a verse writer and that he will yet make his mark in this line is predicted by his close friends.

The same company building the electric line is building the Tillamook road, and it would not be surprising if both roads did not in the end merge and Tillamook have a straight line through to Portland, on one line of railway. Tillamook, in any event, with a railway, will afford the finest summer resort in the Northwest and it will be a question of but a few years until it will lead Long Beach and Seaside.

John McCracken, one of Portland's foremost business men, and connected with the Portland-Nehalem & Tillamook railway, was in the city Tuesday, going over plans with the engineer and right of way committee. Arrangements were also made for a meeting last night at the Roy school house, Mayor Cornelius and W. N. Barrett being the principal speakers.

John Witt, of South Tualatin, Tuesday brought to this office for exhibition purposes a branch from a Royal Anne cherry tree, containing 100 of the largest and most perfectly developed cherries seen here this season. The branch was but slightly over two feet in length, and had two small boughs.

Eugene Jackson, who has been prospecting in the Grants Pass district for some time, came up from Scholls Tuesday. He states that while below the pass he met H. B. Luce, formerly of Hillsboro, and he says that Luce and his parents have some very fine prospects down that way.

Col. T. J. Bramel, veteran of the Mexican War, and located with the Home at Roseburg, sends word to the Argus that he will be here in September if he lives—and he calculates to live until the Tillamook road and the electric line are built—to meet his friends.

BIG SHERIFF'S SALE ON MONDAY MORNING

Old Col. Cornelius Place Bid in for $12450

THOS. CONNELL THE PURCHASER

Second Biggest Sale of the Kind for Years

Sheriff Connell Monday morning made the biggest sheriff sale of farm lands that has been under foreclosure here since the late Robt. Imbrie foreclosed on the Smith farm and timber land, east of town. The land sold by the sheriff in this instance was the 246 acre farm which belonged to the late Col. T. R. Cornelius, and the tract was situated on the North Plains. Besides this finely cultivated land there was another tract owned by the same party, consisting of 176 acres of timber land above Mountaineale.

The prairie farm was bid in by Thos. Connell, of Glencoe, and the price paid was $12,450, or $50.60 per acre. Wm. Bagley, who was the first plaintiff in foreclosure, and who was interested more largely than Honeymen DeHart & Co., of Portland, holders of a second mortgage, bought in the 176 acre timber tract for $900. The entire claim against both estates amounted to about $23,000.

Dwight Pomeroy and his son-in-law, Thos. Hinton, are busy cutting white fir logs this Summer, and by Fall they expect to have 700,000 feet ready to bank. Of this amount 300,000 were cut by last Spring, but the failure of enough high water caused them to be unable to drive. They will get ready for the November and December freshets and think they will get them all out and down the Tualatin to Oregon City, where they sell to the paper mills. All their timber is of white fir, and the most of the cut is on McKay Creek, north and west of the city.

Mrs. F. C. Hausafus and daughter, Mrs. Joe Barney and Master Walter Barney, of Arlington, Wash., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ellerson, of Beaverton, for a few days, the former being a sister and latter a niece of Mrs. Ellerson. They have also been visiting in Beaverton with Mrs. Hausafus' parents Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hunter. After visiting in Portland and attending the Fair a short time they will return home.

John Berri, formerly of this place, and now residing near North Yamhill, lost one of his thumbs by the explosion of a gopher gun, one day last week. He and his son-in-law, Mr. White, were out setting the guns, when Mr. Berri's weapon was prematurely discharged, catching the right thumb. Dr. Coffeen, of North Yamhill, dressed the wound. Hillsboro and Mountaineale people are well acquainted with Mr. Berri, as he has resided at both places.

E. C. Stark, of the West Coast Manufacturer's Agency Portland, was a Hillsboro visitor Sunday, the guest of Geo. R. Bagley. He is selling cream for the Oregon Condensed Milk Company and within 25 days sold five car loads of the product in the east of the mountainous country. That is going some, sure.

Ivan DeLashmuth, of Prescott, Arizona, where he is professor of the chair of Metallurgy, is at Witch Hazel, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van DeLashmuth. He is accompanied by his wife, and they will remain through the Summer vacation.

J. A. Zimmerman, of below the Hare mill, was in town Monday, still looking for that milk route to be established in his section.

Casper Jasper, of Verboort, was in Monday, attending the sale of the Col. Cornelius farm.

Chief Engineer Davis, of the Hillsboro-Tillamook road, was in town Monday.

Grant Mann was over from South Tualatin Tuesday.

Geo. Harms was down from Mountaineale Monday.

E. B. Sappington and family will move to Forest Grove in a few days.

Miss Rose Stafford, of Yelm, near Tacoma, Wash, is a guest at the R. H. Greer home.

Henry Harris, of northeast of town, was in the city Tuesday, and made this office a pleasant call.

C. A. and Fred Hanley and Jacob Schneider were in from the North Plains, Tuesday evening, on railroad business.

The latest in Mohairs—Mohair Melange, Carina Lustrine, X-Dye Mohair, Velour, Pastel Mohair Bourette Suiting, at H. Wehrung & Sons.

A. N. Stanton, of Holly Farm, was an Argus office caller Tuesday, and reports much damage by aphids out in his neighborhood.

Lost: 2 year old calf, red, with white spots in face. Notify Theodore Salzgeber, Hillsboro R. F. D. 1, and receive reward.

J. C. Hare, who owns the big bottom south of town, spent yesterday in the city. Pete Corrieri has ten acres of onions in for Mr. Hare, and he reports them doing nicely.

Good team of work mares, true, for sale; also 3 1/2 inch wagon, nearly new; harness; plow; harrow; mower; goes for cash at a bargain.—Carl Larson, Hillsboro, Seventh & Oak.

Mrs. Wm. Jolly and children came out from Portland this week to spend the Summer vacation on the Jolly place with Mr. Jolly, who is looking after his hopyard.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

A. McCurdy was in town from Cornelius Tuesday evening. "Mc." says Cornelius is painted up in nice shape now, getting ready for the re-union and the Fourth of July.

You will do well to list your farm for sale with J. C. Kuratli. Will also cry auction sales. Satisfaction guaranteed.—J. C. Kuratli, Hillsboro, R. F. D. 4. Residence, Phillips, Ore.

Dr. J. Whitecomb Broucher, pastor of the White Temple, Portland, was in the city Tuesday, and preached to an appreciative audience in the Baptist Church, that evening.

Fred King, of near Cedar Mill, was in town Monday, shaking hands with his many friends, all of whom are glad to see him fully recovered from a stroke of paralysis sustained two months ago.

William Pope, of Iowa, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. R. Waggener. Mr. Pope was a Hillsboro visitor a few years ago, and while here suffered the inconvenience of small pox and was in quarantine for a few weeks.

Mrs. Kirk, of Kirksville, Missouri, and who was an aunt of Dr. J. E. Adkins, of this city, died in the east last week. Her husband's father founded the city of Kirksville. Dr. Adkins has not seen her since he was a young man.

Mrs. S. B. Huston went to Portland yesterday morning, to act as hostess at the Washington County exhibit, for a few days. The ladies of the County Lewis & Clark Club will act as hostesses, from time to time, relieving one another from week to week.

Dennis has received his new stock of shoes.—the American Gentleman and American Lady, the finest in the market. Come in and see them. The latest models. These shoes are advertised in every prominent magazine and newspaper in the world.

Miss Hattie Jack, of Farmington, had a painful experience last Friday, the incident causing some alarm for a time. She ran a safety pin under the nail of one of her thumbs, causing blood poison, and it was necessary to call Dr. F. A. Bailey to give needed treatment.

If you want ice cream that is of the finest try Palmateer's. His is the best on the coast. Polite attention and prompt service given our customers. Fruits in season and a choice line of cigars and tobaccos. Second Street, next door to Hillsboro Hotel.

Wm. Hinde, who with his parents resides in the J. W. Morgan residence, sustained a dislocated ankle the other day, while riding a horse along Main Street. The planks were slippery and the horse fell, catching the young man's left foot under his body. Dr. F. A. Bailey reduced the dislocation.

CONSTRUCTION WORK BEGINS ON RAILWAY

Atlas Construction Company Throws Dirt on Electric Line

WORK HAS BEGUN IN PORTLAND

Yesterday Marked a New Era for Washington County

The Atlas Construction Company commenced work on Twelfth Street, Portland, on the Washington County electric line, and work will be pushed as rapidly as men and teams can get the survey ready for the rails.

Mr. Record, the president of the company, and who, by the way, is a San Francisco banker, attended by B. E. Cooper, was in Portland all last week, getting ready for work.

The Atlas Company will also build the line of the Tillamook road between this point and Banks, and work is to commence on construction as soon as the survey can be made.

R. M. Banks was down from Banks Tuesday.

Bert Fonda, of Scholls, was in the city Tuesday.

Dan Emrick was up from Scholls Tuesday afternoon.

August Rossi, of Beaverton, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

Dewitt Merrill and wife were up from below Reedville Saturday.

H. E. McKinney, of Portland, visited with relatives here Sunday.

Ben Dooley, the Banks blacksmith, was in the county seat the first of the week.

Miss Bower, of Scholls, went to Monmouth for a short vacation, the first of the week.

H. T. Hill has returned to his Mountaineale ranch, after a week with the federal court, as juror.

John Pierson, of Reedville, was in town Tuesday, and reports a great deal of hay out in his vicinity.

Frank Brown, the Forest Grove sketch artist and caricaturist, was a Hillsboro visitor, Monday afternoon.

Thos. Connell, of Glencoe, was in town Monday, an interested spectator at the sale of the big farm of the late Col. Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Poe, of Dilley, are the parents of another son, born on Saturday last. Mr. Poe and wife formerly resided in North Hillsboro.

Mrs. Mary Young, of Farmington, DeWitt County, Ill., is here, the guest of her brother, Dr. S. T. Bower. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Zelba, and they will remain several weeks.

A. C. Shute, J. W. Bailey and G. A. Wehrung went to Portland Tuesday morning, to consult with the architect who is drawing the plans for the new opera house, to be built on the corner of First & Main streets.

Geo. Galbreath, of Tualatin, writes the weather bureau, for the week ending, Tuesday: "Hay a fair crop; some fields being harvested; aphids doing great damage to grain; most all late potatoes planted; onions making rapid growth."

Wm. Lee Ireland and Miss Edna Saxon Parker, of Grants Pass, were united in marriage at the Bethany Presbyterian Church of that place, on June 28, 1905. They will make their home at that city. Mr. Ireland was born and reared here, being a son of Geo. Ireland.

I. H. Amos, the great Portland prohibitionist, was in town Saturday, closing a contract to supply cans for another year for the milk condenser. Mr. Amos is one of the uncompromising prohibition leaders, and he says he proposes to fight it out on that line as long as he has a vote.

Where people meet each other frequently in a business or social way, clothing is a very important consideration, and has a great deal to do with a man's success—much more than is generally realized. We handle the K. N. & F. suits for men—the best.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Webster Phillips, of Cornelius, while splitting wood Monday forenoon, badly chopped his right hand, the blade passing clear through to the palm, leaving a wound fully two inches in length. The bones of the index finger were badly chopped, and it will be several weeks before he will be able to use the injured member. Dr. Linklater went up and dressed the hand.

"As the Twig is Bent The Tree's Inclined"

How is it with the young people of your household? Are they saving money? Have they learned to appreciate the value of the dollar? Are you endeavoring to instill into their minds correct ideas concerning thrift and economy? Are you seeking the opportunity to "bend the twig?" Would you like to listen to a plain suggestion? If so, here it is:

Send the young folks to our bank with the first spare dollar that comes into their hands. The next dollar should be treated in like manner, and the practice so continued until a fixed habit of saving has been established. A goodly bank account will soon result; the young folks will get an inkling of the ways of business, and being thus "inclined" are likely to grow up into straight and thrifty manhood.
