AN ELEGANT SUMMER BOOK

"Restful Recreation Resorts," the 1905 Summer Book issued by the passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company contains forty-eight pages and cover. The book is printed on heavy white paper, fifty-eight cuts being used to illustrate the trips up and down the Columbia River, to the mountains, beaches, inland resorts and mountains of the coast. The cover is done in three colors, adding materially to the beauty and effectiveness of the publication, which may be had by sending two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Ore. It is a good thing to send to your friends in the West who expect to visit the Lewis & Clark Exposition.

A GUARANTEE

We hereby guarantee Patton's Sun-Proof Paints to wear well on buildings painted with the same, for at least five (5) years. Should our claim for Sun-Proof paint fail we agree to furnish new paint free.

It is our meaning and intention to honestly guarantee our paint to wear, but this guarantee will not be allowed to be used as a means for unjust demands, careless, slovenly work, or where the paint is applied contrary to written directions.
