

Attorney Huffman was down from the Grove Tuesday.

Thos. Murphy came down from Mountaineer, Tuesday.

Ole Olson, of Garden Home, was in town Saturday evening.

Robt. Thompson, of Cedar Mill, was in town Tuesday afternoon.

J. E. Nicholson was up from Farmington Tuesday afternoon.

Richard, son of W. V. Wiley, is spending a few weeks at Newport.

George Sushauer, one of Cornell's hopmen, was in the city Tuesday.

Sam Crow, the Forest Grove veterinary, was down Tuesday afternoon.

Trunks, bags and suit cases. Suit cases as low as $1.50.—G. W. Patterson & Son.

E. J. Hubbard, of Dilley, acted as court bailiff, commencing Tuesday morning.

T. H. Littlehales was down from above Dilley, Tuesday, attending circuit court.

E. C. Mulloy, one of Laurel's rustling hop men, was a county seat visitor, Tuesday.

Montgomery Turner, the Banks merchant, was a county seat visitor Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Fannie Clemens, of Portland, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Ireland, Sunday.

Screen doors, window screens, wire cloth, bees for the price in the city.—G. W. Patterson & Son.

A. A. McCurdy, of Cornelius, and Henry Harris, of southwest of town, were Hillsboro callers, Tuesday evening.

For sale: eight shoats, about four months old; weigh about 60 pounds each.—Joe Meier, one mile southeast of Hillsboro.

Attorney John M. Wall and family left yesterday for their annual vacation at their home at Roderick Falls, on Galas Creek.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellencia. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Julius Peterson, of near Cedar Mill, was a county seat visitor, Tuesday and reports that threatening has commenced in his section.

Henry Reasoner will accompany George and Herman Schulmerich on their excursion to Banff, B. C., and the trio will start Saturday of this week.

Geo. Stevens has purchased an interest in the Independent telephone station at Hillsboro, and will hereafter be a partner of O. G. Wilkes.

Mrs. Nora Orner and children, of Lone Pine, Neb., are guests of Mrs. E. L. Abbott, an aunt of Mrs. Orner. Mr. Orner will arrive later, and they expect to locate in Oregon.

For sale: fine work horse, gray, weighs from 1400 to 1500, 5 years old, sired by Kalamazoo, the Ladd & Reed horse and out of the Imbrie stock of mares; gentle, sound and true.—Henry Harris, Cornelius.

Judge Hollis was down from Forest Grove Tuesday, appearing in court for E. T. Turner, in the Banks' right of way case. Before the case got to issue, however, Mr. Turner and the committee settled.

H. G. Wright, the Barre marble dealer, of Portland, was out this week, erecting a fine monument at the Presbyterian Church, North Plains, over the grave of Chas. Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Gordon.

David and Rosa Raghito, of Sand Pit, below Tualatin, were in town Tuesday, and gave the Argus office a pleasant call. They have 16 acres of onions in this year, and report the prospect of a crop much better than last year.

J. H. Thompson, of Mountaineer, who will build three miles of grade on the new railroad, and whose sawmill firm is getting out a big bill of lumber for the same line, was in Tuesday, consulting with the chief engineer.

W. V. Wiley has received a private letter from a friend at Adams, Umatilla County, and who is driving a header, stating that the heat was so intense last week that in one outfit alone four horses and one span of mules perished.

Andrew Jack, of Farmington, was up Tuesday and reports that his hops have escaped the ravages of the lice through a method of training that permitted spraying successfully, as well as allowing plenty of air to pass through the vines.

H. K. Sarent, one of Portland's commercial and mining attorneys, was before circuit court Tuesday, as counsel for defendant Eugene White, in the case where the wife sues for divorce. Mr. White asks for a bill himself, alleging that his wife was always accusing him of conduct unbecoming a husband.

Ex-County Surveyor Thos. S. Wilkes, of Phoenix, Arizona, is expected here almost any day, with his model of a cash register, which is reviewed in another column. Mr. Wilkes expects to exhibit it at the Lewis & Clark Fair. His many friends here hope that his invention will bring him riches, and it looks as though it will.

A. J. Roy, superintendent of the county farm, was at the court house Tuesday, filing his monthly claim. He now has but seven inmates at the farm, and this nets but $63 per month. At this pay there is nothing in running the place, the inmates having dwindled from 13 and 14 monthly, down to the present small number. There are a few over the county drawing five or six dollars per month county support, and unless they go to the farm there will be but little profit in running the institution. Mr. Roy still has the farm under contract until a year from next November.

Oliver double disc plows, $65; Rock Island gang plows, $65; Sulky plows 16 inch, $45; 50-tooth peg harrow, $12.50; 14 in. stubble plows, $14.50. All other farm implements at lowest prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

Fine farm, good improvements, 70 acres under cultivation; near Forest Grove; for sale at a bargain; inquire at this office.

AN ELEGANT SUMMER BOOK

"Restful Recreation Resorts," the 1905 Summer Book issued by the passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company contains forty-eight pages and cover. The book is printed on heavy white paper, fifty-eight cuts being used to illustrate the trips up and down the Columbia River, to the mountains, beaches, inland resorts and fountains of healing. The cover is done in three colors, adding materially to the beauty and effectiveness of the publication, which may be had by sending two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Ore. It is a good thing to send to your friends in the East who expect to visit the Lewis & Clark Exposition.

One Thing Overlooked

Advertising the "Resort"

POTENTLY we called for our new young man and rebuked him severely for the quality of his advertisement of our summer resort. "But," he faltered, "I have included every possible inducement known to the experienced advertiser." At this we answered openly. "Matchless vegetables, fresh from our own gardens." "Well?" "Clear spring water." "Ah!" "Boating, bathing, fishing and sailing." "Yes?" "Dancing every evening in the grand ballroom." "Um!" "Tennis, croquet and golf." "So?" "Ideal surroundings for the enjoyment of a vacation. What more is to be added?" "Young man," we said sternly, "you have omitted the essential consideration without which no summer resort 'ad.' gives out the true ring. 'I cannot imagine an oversight.' 'You have made no reference to the fact that guests find it nightly necessary to sleep under two blankets during the warmest weather in town.' Shamefacedly, our young man took his hat from the peg and silently faded away.—Life.

Did as He Was Told.

An amusing instance of "literal-mindedness" was afforded not long ago by a bellboy in a hotel in Washington.

One of the guests, a congressman from the west, had hurried to the hotel clerk's counter. He had just ten minutes in which to pay his bill, reach the railway station and board his train.

When he hastily had transacted his business with the clerk and had turned to dash out of the door it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten something. "Here, boy!" shouted he to a diminutive negro on the bench. "Run to room No. 48 just as quick as you can and see whether I have left a box on the bureau. But hurry, as I have only five minutes."

The boy rushed up the stairs. In two or three minutes he returned, out of breath. "Yes, sah," he panted, "you left it, sah!"—Pittsburg Post.

Compared.

"That barber in there," said the victim who had just escaped from the tonsorial parlor minus his whiskers, "reminds me of the dentist across the way."

"Both give pain, eh?" queried the friendly policeman.

"No. They both give gas," explained the whiskered party.—Chicago News.

A Possibility.

"Poppley's got an awful big family. It must be awful to feed all them."

"I guess so. I realized last night what it meant to have a hundred mouths to feed."

"Goodness, did you have to entertain that many people?"

"No; mosquitoes."—Philadelphia Press.

More Training.

"Do you think that actors get the training now that they once had?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Stonington Barnes. "I am happy to say that they get more training. I can remember the time when my company would travel for miles without seeing the inside of a train."—Washington Star.

The Same Thing.

He—The trouble with you women is that you tell all you know.

She—Not at all. Some of us merely tell what we want to.

He—Well, what's the difference?—Baltimore News.

How She'd Reply.

"If I should say," I asked my love, "that your dear eyes outshine the blue that gleams in yonder sky above, what would you do?"

"I'd smile at you."

"And if I told you that my heart, whatever happened, would be true and that from you I'd never part, what would you do?"

"I'd laugh at you."

"But should I swear to make you mine, whatever swains came here to woo, and asked you for a true love sign, what would you do?"

"I'd wink at you."

"Then if this country should force me to turn chili and freeze you through if I pursued a calm, cold course, what would you do?"

"I'd freeze—alcohol!"—Cleveland Leader.

IRRIGATION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that parties may until further notice use water for irrigating lawns, hours for irrigating being from 6 to 8 p. m., or two hours each evening. Those who wish to use water for this purpose must notify Recorder H. T. Bagley or the undersigned. Two short blasts of the whistle will notify patrons to shut off water at 8 p. m., and violation of this rule is $5.00 for the first offense and a discontinuance of the service for the season on second offense. Parties upon discontinuing the service must notify the Recorder as water will be charged for to date of notice. These rules will be enforced strictly to the letter. By order Water & Light Committee. H. T. Bagley, Recorder. W. H. Ringle, Supl.

LEWIS & CLARK EXPOSITION

During the Lewis & Clark Exposition the Southern Pacific Company will sell round trip tickets to Portland, limit thirty days, at one and one third fare for the round trip. For parties of ten or more traveling on one ticket, one fare for the round trip. For organized parties of one hundred or more, individual tickets at one fare for the round trip.

Stopover of ten days will be given at Portland on all one way tickets reading through that point during the Exposition. Tickets must be deposited with Joint Agent at Portland and charge of fifty cents will be made for the extension of time.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

F. Huguenin and L. Huguenin, Plaintiffs, vs. John Bohart, Emma Jobe, Nettie Smith, George Morrow, Jessie Kemper and Jay P. Mead, Defendants.

To John Bohart, Emma Jobe, Nettie Smith, George Morrow, Jessie Kemper and Jay P. Mead, the above named defendants—

In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer the complaint, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in their complaint, to-wit:

That the defendants, and each of them, be barred of all right, title or interest in and to the following described real estate, situate in Washington County, Oregon, to-wit:

Lot 12 of and in Bohart's sub-division, as appears on the official plat in the office of the recorder of conveyances of Washington County, Oregon, said lot containing 10 acres, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may appear equitable.

The date of the first publication of this summons is the 18th day of May, 1905, and the order authorizing the service of this summons by publication is dated May 10, 1905, and requires you to appear and answer on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Honorable L. A. Rood, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, by an order made and dated at Chambers at Hillsboro, Oregon, on the 18th day of May, 1905.
