

BHALEM BRANCH IS FIRST TO BE BUILT

Thirty Miles is Planned for Track

BEFORE WORK IS SUSPENDED

For the 1905 Season. Timber Belt is First Object to Road

The Nehalem branch of the Tillamook railroad will be the first to be built and operated, so far as the West thirty miles of road are concerned. As far as can be learned the company intends building to a point 30 miles out this Autumn, and this will land the line into the timber belt, where logs can be shipped to the Portland market in the Spring.

Early next Spring active construction will be continued and the company intends swinging to the Tillamook branch.

Argus and Oregonian, $2. Fred Vrooman left for Newport Tuesday morning.

Isadore Vanderzander was in room east of Banks, last Friday.

Henry Brooks, of South Tualatin, was a caller at this office, Friday.

C. S. Reynolds, the Mountaineer merchant, was a county seat visitor the first of the week.

L. W. House and family have gone to Garibaldi, Tillamook County, for a two weeks' outing.

Fine farm, good improvements, 20 acres under cultivation; near Crest Grove; for sale at a bargain. Inquire at this office.

Med Mosher, of Los Angeles, and May Freeman returned Saturday from a fishing trip to the Willamette river, and they report a fine trip.

Louis Carstens was down from fanning, Saturday, and reports that his firm is delivering tie and ridge timbers along the Tillamook coast right-of-way.

L. M. and Clarence Hoyt are sending their way to Tillamook by wheel, and when they reach the coast they will ride down the ocean beach to Cannon Beach, where Mrs. L. M. Hoyt and children are camped.

Oliver and Carl Huston left for Newport Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. Healy, of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Huston and Miss Blanche will go to their cottage in a few days.

The ladies of the Lewis & Clark Club went to Mrs. Schofield's, near Cornelius Tuesday, to finish up the grain and grass exhibit, and it will be shipped this week, to the exhibit at Portland.

Foreman McDonald, for the Wakefield-Erickson Company, the bridge men for the Tillamook road, unloaded the pile driving and bridge outfit the first of the week. Two large donkey engines came with the shipment.

Oliver double disc plows, $65; Rock Island gang plows, $65; Sulky plows 16 inch, $45; 50-tooth peg harrow, $12.50; 14 in. stubble plows, $14.50. All other farm implements at lowest prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

Peter Welty and Fred Bishop are nearly through construction of the big steeple on the Catholic Church. C. D. Kimberlin has been helping them this week. This is to be the tallest steeple in town, and an eight foot cross is to be added.

The Southern Pacific rate of 85 cents for the return trip to Portland, good to leave here on the noon train Saturday, and return as late as Monday morning, is being utilized by a large number of people, who can see the exposition and the trail.

Mrs. Wm. Turpin, who conducted a hotel here in the early days, and who kept the poor farm about fifteen years ago, was in the city the first of the week, visiting with Mrs. Susan Brown Monday. She has been visiting at Cornelius for a few days, and returned Tuesday to her home on Orcas Island, Puget Sound.

The Hillsboro married men's baseball team gave a banquet to their friends Saturday evening and the menu was fried chicken and brown gravy, salads of several kinds, and all the delicacies that plant and vine of Oregon can furnish. It was a "grand success" in every particular. W. P. Tucker was the "Chef" and Long, of the Argus, presided as toast master. D. B. Emrick, a Scholla Baseball Shark, was the one outside invited guest.

The Forest Grove Board of Trade has selected the following delegates to represent Forest Grove at the Portland session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, August 16-19: Senator E. W. Haines, A. G. Hoffman, President W. N. Ferrin, Colonel Harry Haynes and W. K. Newell. Mayor C. N. Johnson has appointed an additional delegate, Harry Goff. For the Civic Conference, which meets the as delegates L. L. Hollinger, J. F. Woods, Colonel Harry Haynes and Harry Goff.

Jacob Raffety, of Mountaineer, was in Tuesday, and reports that threshing is commenced up that way, and that early sown grain is turning out very fair.

A. W. Lane, once employed here on the water plant, passed through one day last week. His wife, formerly Mrs. Chrisenger, visited here a few days ago.

C. D. Edwards, the Albina basket makers, was in town Monday evening, accompanying J. H. Thompson to Mountaineer.

Ulrich Gerber, once postmaster at Bethany, was in town Monday, on business with Recorder Kuratli.

C. W. Loudon, of Glencoe, passed through town Tuesday, enroute to Albany, on probate business.

Mrs. Francis Moore and son, Herbert, left for the coast the first of the week.

Mayor B. P. Cornelius was a Portland visitor, Tuesday afternoon.

Douglas Leisy, of Portland, spent Sunday with the home folks.

John Vanderwal was up from Beaverton Tuesday.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES

Japan wants all of Manchuria as far as the coast line is concerned, with the hopes of building a great empire. With Japan in control of Eastern Asia China would be at her mercy and the nation which has survived all others in her magnificent isolation, would soon perish from the face of the world's map. There would be a poetic justice about this for China has lent Japan a great deal of aid throughout the struggle.

Great Northern and Northern Pacific railway operators are on a strike for better wages. Fifteen years ago the Northern paid better wages to operators than any of the western roads. Today the Southern Pacific schedule leads all others and the Northern and Great Northern pay the smallest scales.

The jury trying Williamson, Gesner and Biggs, for subornation of perjury in the land fraud trial, stood six to six and was discharged. Another trial will begin August 28, and a Montana judge will sit in place of Judge DeHaven.

Corea does not want to be under Russia, neither does she want to be under Japan. Corea claims the Japanese protectorate by Japan was obtained under trickery.

A Gervais saloon was robbed last Friday night by three masked men. Over $150 were taken from men in the resort.

A GUARANTEE

We hereby guarantee Patton's Sun-Proof Paints to wear well on buildings painted with the same, for at least five (5) years. Should our claim for Sun-Proof paint fail we agree to furnish new paint free.

It is our meaning and intention to honestly guarantee our paint to wear, but this guarantee will not be allowed to be used as a means for unjust demands, careless, slovenly work, or where the paint is applied contrary to written directions. Culinary Affairs as Managed by Hubby

THERE is a certain east sider who solemnly vows he will never again take the responsibility of watching the Sunday roast. He is a good and devoted husband, his only really marked weakness being his love for sporting dogs. This weakness got him into no end of trouble a couple of Sundays ago. His wife is a regular churchgoer, and the hired girl having resigned to marry a policeman, she asked "hubby" if he would be so kind as to look after the roast beef and take it out of the oven when it was properly browned. He had been something of a cook himself in his early days of single blessedness, and she felt that she could trust him. So she went to church happy in the thought that she possessed one dutiful and devoted a husband. The sermon was unusually long, and it so happened that the pastor insisted on little heart to heart talks with several of his parishioners after the service.

The lady was late reaching home, and naturally she was hungry, so she hurried to the kitchen to see how John was getting along with the dinner. She was dismayed to find the room full of smoke. The oven door was open, and the roast beef was sizzling in the pan as black as a piece of coal. Then the good housewife thought of her pet canary bird, which she had left singing blithely in its cage near the kitchen window. She found the poor bird dead. It having been stifled by the smoke. There were other distressing results of having put too much confidence in the ability of a husband to manage culinary affairs, and the good lady may be excused if she forgot some of the teachings that had impressed her that peaceful Sabbath morn. Danger lurked in her eye when she started on the trail of the recalcitrant husband, whom she found at a neighbor's calmly discussing the merits of prize bulldogs. It is well to draw the domestic curtain over what followed.—Detroit Free Press.

Bobby Explains.

"Sister says please to excuse her, but she can't see you tonight," said little brother Bobby. "She lost her gold hair pin, and she feels so bad about it she's staying in her room."

"That's too bad," said the young man. "But you run up and tell your sister I asked her if she wouldn't come down anyway—I came to see her and not the hair pin, tell her."

"But you can't see her without the hair pin tonight, because it was sticking in her switch when she was lying on the chair, and the dog came in and grabbed it and run out of the house, and down the street with both of them."—Chicago Tribune.

Cause of His Sorrow.

"Why, Jimmy, what's the matter? What are you crying for?"

"B-b-boohoo! B-because it's so long till my next birthday!"

Industry.

"Is your son industrious?"

"It depends," answered Farmer Corn-tassel. "He's liable to take his time doing chores, but if you ever get him on second base with a good hitter up he's liable to be about the busiest thing on earth."—Washington Star.

A Great Thing.

"This," said the peddler, "is a little device especially designed for use in our summer weather."

"What is it?"

"It may be used one minute as a fan and the next to shovel off the snow."—Boston Herald.

Different Now.

Biggs—Your friend Especk speaks four or five languages, doesn't he?"

Diggs—He did before his marriage, but he seldom gets a chance to speak any now.—Chicago News.

Not There Yet.

Claude—Don't you think my mustache is becoming?"

Maude—Well, it may be coming, but it hasn't got there yet.—New York Times.

Couldn't Awaken It.

"A song sleeps in my soul unsung," A poet sighed, in sorrow deep. And then a rival's trenchant tongue This cruel couplet at him flung. "My gratitude you'll win and keep if you will only let it sleep!" With poignant pain and filled with fright, The poet wildly walks the floor, Sad at his plight, for every night, That sleeping song doth loudly roar! —New York Press.

IRRIGATION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that parties may until further notice use water for irrigating lawns, hours for irrigating being from 6 to 8 p. m., or two hours each evening. Those who wish to use water for this purpose must notify Recorder H. T. Bagley or the undersigned. Two short blasts of the whistle will notify patrons to shut off water at 8 p. m., and violation of this rule is $5.00 for the first offense and a discontinuance of the service for the season on second offense. Parties upon discontinuing the service must notify the Recorder as water will be charged for to date of notice. These rules will be enforced strictly to the letter.

By order Water & Light Committee. H. T. Bagley, Recorder. W. H. Ringle, Supt.

STEAM WOOD SAW

I have a steam wood saw for cutting in the woods. Am prepared to take contracts to fall timber and cut wood in lots of from 100 cords upward. Address Matt Coppo, Beaverton, Ore.

Are you a smoker? Then call for the Schiller or Excellencia—Oregon manufacture.

LEWIS & CLARK EXPOSITION

During the Lewis & Clark Exposition the Southern Pacific Company will sell round trip tickets to Portland, limit thirty days, at one and one third fare for the round trip. For parties of ten or more traveling on one ticket, one fare for the round trip. For organized parties of one hundred or more, individual tickets at one fare for the round trip.

Stopover of ten days will be given at Portland on all one way tickets reading through that point during the Exposition. Tickets must be deposited with Joint Agent at Portland and charge of fifty cents will be made for the extension of time.

AN ELEGANT SUMMER BOOK

"Restful Recreation Resorts." The 1905 Summer Book issued by the passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company contains forty-eight pages and cover. The book is printed on heavy white paper, fifty-eight cuts being used to illustrate the trips up and down the Columbia River, to the mountains, beaches, inland resorts and fountains of healing. The cover is done in three colors, adding materially to the beauty and effectiveness of the publication, which may be had by sending two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Ore. It is a good thing to send to your friends in the East who expect to visit the Lewis & Clark Exposition.

General Merchandise

I carry a complete line of General Merchandise, Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware and Building Material. I can get you anything you want, on order, at Portland prices. I make a specialty of cedar fence posts and cedar shingles. My line of Groceries can't be beaten. Give me a call. I buy farm produce, cash or trade. Give me a call.
