

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XII.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, AUGUST 17, 1905.

NO. 23

MUST NOT VIOLATE VITAL STATISTIC LAW

May be Expensive if Statute is not Followed

INFORM YOURSELF ON THIS LAW

Every Family is Interested, as Well as County Officers

At the request of the County Board of Health, the following extract from the state law is published. The Argus is informed that violations of the law are numerous, possibly through ignorance of what the law requires. It would be well for all those affected by the provisions of the act to acquaint themselves with its provisions.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of all physicians, accouchers or midwives in the State to report to the secretary of the board of health of the city or county in which they may occur, all births and deaths and shall immediately report contagious diseases as are specified by the State board, which may occur under their supervision, with a certificate of the cause of death, and such correlative facts as may be required in the blank forms furnished by the State Board of Health. When any birth or death may occur with no physician, accoucher or midwife in attendance, then such birth or death shall be reported by the householder where or under whose supervision such birth or death occurred, with the cause of death, if such be known. Any death coming under the jurisdiction or supervision of any coroner shall be by him reported to the secretary of the board of health of the city or county in which such death may occur, within three days after death for burial purposes, and such deaths so reported shall not be required to be reported by any other person. No undertaker, sexton, or other person shall bury any human body until he has received a permit to do so from the county or health officer or some duly appointed deputy. No such permit shall be issued until there has been delivered to such health officer or deputy a certificate of death according to the form prescribed by the State Board of Health. In the event of any burial without a permit, as herein provided, the coroner of the county wherein such illegal burial was made may disinter the body, hold an inquest and, within three days thereafter, make a return of his findings to the nearest local health officer.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county to report to the secretary of the county board of health, on or before the fifth day of each month the number of marriages for the preceding month, with such facts relating thereto, as may be provided for by blank furnished to such clerk by the secretary of the county board of health.

Section 6. Any person or persons, any board of health or the officers of any corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $10 nor to exceed $100.

Michael Relling, of Blooming, was in town Tuesday.

Geo. A. Morgan is inspecting railway bridge timbers for the Tillamook road.

Trunks, bags and suit cases. Suit cases as low as $1.50.—G. W. Patterson & Son.

J. W. Vandervelden was in from Centerville, Tuesday, taking out a hunter's license.

Screen doors, window screens, wire cloth base for the price in the city.—G. H. Patterson & Son.

Parties wishing to pick hops in the Imbrie yard will please register between this and September 1—Peter Nelson & Fred Wolf.

Alex Osmund, of Portland, was out this week, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Rood, south east of town.

Wanted: Hop pickers for Cate hop yard, east of town. Register at the yard, or at the Cate Market, Main Street.

N. H. Jones, of beyond Glencoe, returned Tuesday to resume work for Contractor J. W. Goodin, on the Jackson Bottom bridge.

Are you satisfied with the shoes you have been buying? If not, come and see Schulmerich Bros. Every pair absolutely guaranteed.

W. O. Donelson returned to spend the remainder of his vacation with his family at Cannon Beach, the first of the week.

The Groner & Rowell Co. is now better prepared than ever before to supply the trade with lumber, hollow building blocks and drain tile. They now have on hand a good supply of dry flooring, rustic, ceiling and shiplap; also a full stock of all kinds of rough lumber. House and barn bills can be furnished on short notice. It is better to order your large size tile early, than take chances on the supply running out, and not getting what you want, as we carry only a limited stock on hand. Do not forget that the wet spots in your fields can be remedied with drain tile and prevent the repetition of last year's failure. Building blocks are better and cheaper than brick for foundations and cellars. Why use rock that will settle uneven and warp your buildings out of shape, when a good foundation can be had so cheap? Let us figure with you on them.

A petition has been filed in probate court, attacking the will of the late Chas. W. Rosa, who died near Forest Grove, in April, leaving real estate and personal property amounting to about $1933. Judge Hollis, who is attorney for the petitioners, sets forth the old gentleman was by reason of age and senility, incompetent to make a will, and further that he failed to mention in the instrument the names of one daughter, Ada Tripe, and four grandchildren. He asks that the will be set aside and the heirs all come in, share and share alike. Rosa's will gave outside heirs but $60 and the balance was to go to his son, John W. Rosa, who lived with the old man in his remaining days.

From this date all who buy $1 worth, or more, in my hardware store, will get a rebate of 10 per cent, and on purchases of between 50 cents and $1.00, a rebate of 5 per cent, will be given. This applies to everything except oils and white lead. We are going to close our business, and here is a chance to save from 5 to 10 per cent., and our prices meet all competition.—A. C. Archbold, Second Street. Independent phone No. 454.

Speaking of old engines—one that was made by the Vulcan Iron Works, of San Francisco, Cal., in 1862, passed through town Sunday evening, enroute for Newberg, where it will be used on a logging road out of that place. It is an old timer, and the men in charge were having all kinds of trouble with the injector. Its old fashioned smokestack, its driving rods, its bell back on the tender, and its general outline, together with the fact that it was the smallest locomotive ever seen in the Hillsboro yard, made it quite a curiosity. The engineer held it here for about an hour, making repairs and cooling valves, and pulled out at 6:30. It was midnight when they reached Whiteson.

We set tires while you wait with our "House Cold Tire Setter," and the entire four wheels can be set in from twenty to thirty minutes. Our charges are reasonable. Do not be deceived by any one who tells you "the old way is the best." Come and see for yourself. We do all kinds of engine and boiler repairing, wagon repairing and general blacksmith work.—L. G. Weidewitzsch, Cornelius.

Kay L. Thompson and wife, of Astoria, Wash., where Mr. Thompson publishes the Astoria County Sentinel, are here for a few weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Goodin, of the North Plains. Mr. Thompson likes the West, and is particularly struck with the possibilities of Washington County. They will return about September 1 after a thorough visit at the Fair.

Dennis has received his new stock of shoes.—The American Gentleman and American Lady, the finest in the market. Come in and see them. The latest models. These shoes are advertised in every prominent magazine and newspaper in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Varner, of Lincoln County, were here this week, guests of their old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tipton, of South Hillsboro. They formerly resided at Sherwood.

Make your own wire fence. Buy your wire and a superior wire fence machine and you will have the world by the seat of the breeches and a down-hill pull.—Machines, $5, and your wire cheap.—A. C. Archbold.

Emil Wagner, with the Northern Pacific Express office, Portland, came out and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wagner, of Third Street.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellencia. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Henry Delsman, of southeast of town, is recovering from a case of blood poison in his right hand that came causing amputation of the member.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS IN DAMAGE CASE

Is Prepared and Will Soon go to Supreme Court

THREE THOUSAND DOLLAR CASE

Susan Reynolds Keen Will Appeal From Jury Verdict

The celebrated damage case of Della B. Keen versus Susan Reynolds Keen, wherein the jury gave Mrs. Della Keen $3000 damages for the alienation of the husband's affections, will be appealed at once, the bill of exceptions having been prepared by Attorney Huston, for the defense. The defense objects on the grounds that the evidence that Keen had slapped his wife, and various other personal encounters, should not have been allowed to go before the jury; and the defense also takes exception to the Court's giving his observations in talking to the jury.

This case was the result of W. B. Keen leaving Della Keen, his wife, and, after she had procured a divorce, marrying Susan Reynolds, a widow, who then resided at Cedar Mill, and whose farm Keen had rented.

Mrs. Keen No. 2 is worth several thousand dollars, and proposes to fight the case to the bitter end. H. T. Bagley, who was associated with Davis & Spencer in the prosecution, is preparing a bill of exceptions for the plaintiff's side of the case, and the matter will get to the supreme court by winter.

NEW TRAIN SERVICE

In order to accommodate the local travel and give the people an opportunity to spend the evening in Portland to visit the Exposition, theatres, etc., the Southern Pacific has inaugurated additional service between Portland and Forest Grove as follows, in addition to the present service, no change in the schedule of which will be made:

GOING EAST
Forest Grove.....	12:30 P. M.
Cornelius.....	12:35 " "
Hillsboro.....	12:43 " "
Reedville.....	12:57 " "
Beaverton.....	1:07 " "
Portland.....	1:50 " "

GOING WEST
Portland.....	10:45 P. M.
Beaverton.....	11:28 " "
Reedville.....	11:39 " "
Hillsboro.....	11:54 " "
Cornelius.....	12:01 A. M.
Forest Grove.....	12:05 " "

This train will run daily except Sunday, and the service will be maintained as long as the business will justify. This will be a local passenger train of suburban nature, and will not carry a baggage car, so that baggage cannot be checked.

Herman Bishop was down from the Shady Brook sawmill, Monday.

Hon. S. B. Huston made a trip to Salem and Southern Oregon points, the first of the week.

Mrs. E. L. McCormick and son are spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Birdsell, of Forest Grove.

Notice to Hop pickers: All persons desiring to pick hops at the Witch Hazel Farm must register before August 15.—Frank Weisenback, Manager.

W. V. Wiley went to Portland, Tuesday evening, to attend the big day at the Exposition with the Elks, of which order he is a member.

T. D. Campbell, of Independence, and who is threshing on the plains east and north of the city, states that grain is turning out better than last year, some wheat going as high as 20 bushels, while he has threshed oats which went 40 bushels.

For sale: fine work horse, gray, weighs from 1400 to 1500, 5 years old, sired by Kalamazoo, the Ladd & Reed horse and out of the Imbrie stock of mares; gentle, sound and true.—Henry Harris, Cornelius.

W. M. Metaker and wife, of Butler County, Kas., and Mrs. N. J. Metaker, and daughter, Mrs. Arct. of Winlock, Wash., arrived Tuesday for a visit with H. D. Schmeltzer and family. Mr. Metaker and Mr. Schmeltzer were school boys together back in Kansas.

From Laurel: Miss Frankie Strim, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. J. Mainland.—Mrs. Crawford, of Iowa, was the guest of her son, E. Crawford, last week.—The following from here attended the Fair last week: Ben and E. L. Brown, Chris Wabasher, Miss Mainland, Jennie Lillegard, Elma Neun and Enoch Crawford and family.

John Myer, of Cedar Mill, was in town, Tuesday evening.

Robt. Porter, the Forest Grove hopman, was in town Tuesday.

J. W. Marsh, of Centerville, was a county seat visitor, Saturday evening.

W. W. Bennett, of Cornelius, was in the county seat Monday morning.

E. C. Rea, of Everett, Wash., was here last week, the guest of his uncle, Geo. T. Rea.

John O'Meara, of Reedville, was up Tuesday to get a fire permit from the county clerk.

Larkin Reynolds, one of Hillsboro's early pioneers, was in from beyond Phillips, Monday morning.

C. F. Smith, of South Hillsboro, has been awarded the contract to build the W. E. McCourt cottage.

John Goodin, of Mt. Tabor, was out Monday, shaking hands with his Washington County friends.

Geo. Miller and wife, of Heppner, Ore., came down Saturday, and went on out to visit with J. C. Miller and family, of beyond Glencoe.

Rev. Father Moore, of the St. Mary's Home, Beaverton, was up Sunday, the guest of his co worker, Father Bucholzer, of St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hathaway, of North Yakima, Wash., are guests of Mrs. R. H. Greer, who is a sister of Mrs. Thomas.

Chas. Lamkin has returned from a several days' vacation at Roderick Falls, Gales Creek, where he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wall, who are spending the warm season at that delightful resort.

George Armentrout, of Forest Grove, and one of Greenville's early pioneers, was a county seat visitor, Monday, coming down to see how the railroad was getting along and incidentally remarking that he felt better than he had for years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Mahone, of North Branch, Michigan, are here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sholes. Mr. Mahone is in the banking business, and takes advantage of his vacation to visit the West and the big Fair.

The moon was in eclipse Monday evening, about 8:00 o'clock, and nearly one third of the lunar body was in darkness. Deputy Clerk W. D. Smith and K. Crandall first discovered the phenomena and upon consultation of the calendar found that it appeared on time.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin was celebrated in St. Matthew's Catholic church, Tuesday, Father Bucholzer officiating, with Father Othmuller, a Benedictine Brother from Mt. Angel, assisting. Six children were for the first time in the church given holy communion.

Peter Welty and Fred Bishop have completed the bell tower and spire for the Catholic Church, and the tip stands higher than any other steeple in the city. It is handsomely painted and as the gift of John Salzgeber, the West Union hop grower, is a present that the parish is well proud of.

Passenger traffic over the Southern Pacific into Portland has increased about four or five times its usual average, this year, and it is not uncommon for forty or fifty passengers to go out of this place, Monday morning, with 20 or 30 on other days, to say nothing of the noon and evening trains. It is a well established fact that Hillsboro sells more transportation than any station on the Corvallis branch.

Thos. S. Wilkes, ex-county surveyor, and who resigned that position some years ago to go with the federal government at the Denver office, arrived here from Phoenix, Arizona, last Sunday evening, and will make an extended visit with relatives. Mr. Wilkes was offered $10,000 for his interest in his patent cash register, just before he left Arizona, and refused it. Mr. Wilkes looks hale and hearty and time has dealt lightly with him since leaving the Washfoot state.

Supt. W. H. Ringle, of the water plant, started Tuesday afternoon to dredge the bottom of the big city well, using steam as his motive power. A big hose was inserted in the bottom of the well and the accumulated sand and mud of years was "syphoned" out of the cistern. Several yards of the deposit were taken out in this manner and the flow of water was increased a great deal. The method involved was not dissimilar to that used by the big dredgers in cleaning the bottom of the Columbia river. The scheme saved a deal of time and labor as compared to what would have been expended in cleaning out the well in the "old-fashioned" way with a windlass and buckets.

HILLSBORO'S FUTURE LOOKS PROMISING

City of Several Thousand in Few Years Hence

IT IS A NATURAL TRADE CENTER

Tillamook Railway Will Help and Give More Trade

That Hillsboro's future is full of promise that will end in fruition is the consensus of opinion of all who have closely watched the growth of towns in the Northwest. As a matter of fact Hillsboro has grown in the last two or three years, as building and development go to show. Many new residences have been built; a fine new Catholic church has been added to our houses of worship; a new bank has been instituted; through Dr. Tamieie, J. W. and A. C. Shute, Geo. R. Bagley and Fred Schomburg, the Oregon Condensed Milk Company is running the evaporated cream plant successfully; an electric line is under way from Portland; and the Tillamook road, now under construction, will reach out from this place into the finest timber belt in the northwest. A new opera house will be built this Fall, and an eastern man is here, negotiating for real estate on which to erect a brick hotel building.

When the rail lines are built Hillsboro will have an advantage not possessed by any town in the county. The fact that this is the county seat makes it a business center, and as the town is the hub of the finest farming section in Oregon, we may look for a substantial growth from this time forward. What we need in the future is more manufacturing, and, with the advent of the rail lines this must surely follow.

How is it with the young people of your household? Are they saving money? Have they learned to appreciate the value of the dollar? Are you endeavoring to instill into their minds correct ideas concerning thrift and economy? Are you seeking the opportunity to "bend the twig?" Would you like to listen to a plain suggestion? If so, here it is:

Send the young folks to our bank with the first spare dollar that comes into their hands. The next dollar should be treated in like manner, and the practice so continued until a fixed habit of saving has been established. A goodly bank account will soon result; the young folks will get an inkling of the ways of business, and, being thus "inclined" are likely to grow up into straight and thrifty manhood.
