

Born, August 22, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Haines, of Scholls, a son.

Miss Becker, of Portland, is the guest, this week, of Mrs. Ludemia Anderson.

Miss Beesie Anderson is visiting at the Sam Moon place, near Centerville, this week.

James Kerr, of Middleton, is in the city, preparing his cider mill for operations.

Chas. Burr, of above Manning, was down Tuesday, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. O. G. Wilkes.

Are you a smoker? Then call for the Schiller or Excelencia—Oregon manufacture.

Jasper E. Reeves, the Cornelius stockman, and owner of the Zoo, has departed for his home in Lafayette, Indiana.

R. M. Kyle, of two miles north of Cedar Mill, was in town Monday and says that grain down his way is turning out very nicely.

Fine farms, good improvements, 70 acres under cultivation, near Forest Grove, for sale at a bargain. Inquire at this office.

Henry Johnson, E. P. Cornelius and Jas. Loudon were in from beyond Glencoe Monday evening, and report threshing of first importance in their sections.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Holmes, of Portland, were out Sunday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Jackson. Mrs. Holmes is a daughter of Mr. Jackson.

Lawrence C. Brown, of South Tualatin, was in town Tuesday and says the crops on Iowa Hill are not as good as promised before harvest time rolled around.

Farmers wanting decomposed granite for chicken grit are requested to notify John M. Brown, at the express office, and with sufficient orders he will order another carload.

Mrs. Willis Cotterill, of Anthony, Kas., arrived last week and is the guest of her uncles, August and Chris. Kempin, Glencoe, and her cousin, Mrs. E. B. Poole, of this city.

Earl Wallace, son of Frank Wallace, of South Tualatin, returned the last of the week from Yakima, Wash., where he has been harvesting, and is now under the care of a physician, being very ill.

Mrs. Roxaline Jenkins, who some years ago resided on First Street, this city, and for fifteen years a resident of Portland, is suffering from a broken leg, both bones being broken between the knee and ankle, several weeks ago.

S. T. Walker, of Forest Grove, writes the weather bureau as follows: "Grain all cut and most of it in the stacks; potatoes and corn showing effects of dry weather; hops look well and promise a good yield; pastures dried up; pears fair, prunes small yield."

Oliver double disc plows, $65; Rock Island gang plows, $65; Sulky plows 16 inch, $45; 50-tooth peg harrow, $12.50; 14 in. stubble plow, $14.50. All other farm implements at lowest prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lisenby, of Brookfield, Mo., and Mrs. Gilmer, of Purdin, Mo., were in town Tuesday, guests of their relative, Mrs. W. R. Barrett. They have been visiting the Fair, and came here from Forest Grove, where they visited with Ira Purdin and family.

The weather is getting cooler and a new heater is the next thing wanted. Just remember that B. Cave keeps the Cole airtight, and it is the finest in the market, and nicely finished. Come in and see them. A line of steel ranges at rock-bottom prices, will arrive about September 1.

The new Anderson system of couplings was added to the fire hose, the first of the week, and a test made Tuesday afternoon. The exhibition was all that could be desired, and the boys of the fire department promise to do some quick work hereafter, when handling water at fires.

Last Saturday, at Mountdale, Miss Olga Hagin, of Portland, visiting with Miss Montgomery, sustained a serious fall from a saddle horse, and was unconscious for a day and a half. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called and found a severe concussion of the brain. Miss Hagin was not accustomed to riding and when the horse struck a lively gallop, lost her balance and fell, striking on her head. She is improving nicely at last reports.

Herman Huntmann, of southwest of town, is this year delivering some splendid peaches, the product of his orchard in the sheltered neighborhood due south of the long bridge, west of this city. It would appear that others would encourage peach raising in this vicinity. The fruit raised this year, or any year for that matter, is finer than the Dallas peaches, and they can be left on the tree until more nearly ripe, unlike that wanted for shipment.

John Reilly, the West Union orchardist, has a great scheme for catching the moths that are so harmful to the apple crop. He ties

THE FARMER HEAPS what he has preciously sowed. The human body reaps likewise the natural crop of weakness, pain and death if the seeds of disease have been sown by bad habits of carelessness in eating, sleeping and exercising.

KEEP WELL, IF YOU CAN and when you need a little help in keeping well use Nature's remedies, that do not roughly stimulate but gently quicken the action of Nature's functions in a natural way. Nature's laboratory furnishes the following plants which enter into the manufacture of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root.

If in doubt as to your trouble or needing advice, you can consult, free of charge, Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. All letters are considered confidential and answers bearing correct medical advice returned in securely sealed envelopes.

I suffered for nearly eight years, writes Philip A. Fitch, Esq., of Mobile, Ala., Deputy Sheriff, "with malaria, which poisoned my entire system and drove me to my wretched state. I was cured in three months by Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I know it was largely due to neglect and I paid little attention to my trouble until I became so run-down and weak that I knew I had to do something at once to regain my health. I began to feel better within four days after I used the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after using nine bottles I was restored to my usual health, feeling better than for years."

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

a band of gunny-sack around the trunk of his trees, and when the grub is at a certain stage it comes down to go into seclusion for his change into the new suit, and from which he emerges with a set of wings. Mr. Reilly waits a day or so, and then unwraps his band. He generally finds the cloth full of grubs, and these he destroys, thus doing away with millions of eggs.

DR. A. A. BURRIS

The Baby's Name.

I DON'T believe I like this world—the people are so queer! Because a baby doesn't talk they fancy he can't hear.

And just because he smiles at them and doesn't seem to mind, they call him all the names they choose. Now, do you think that's kind?

If I could just say all I think, the folks would soon find out There isn't much that's going on that I don't know about.

For when they see me keeping still and looking wondrous wise I'm listening with my little ears and watching with my eyes.

There's one thing, though, that puzzles me—that ever since I came more I hear the less I know what really is my name.

I'm "Bouncer" to my Uncle Tom, I'm brother's "Toby Trot" And Aunt Louisa's "Little Tike," while sister calls me "Dot."

My grandma says I'm "Honey Bunch," I'm mamma's "Little Lamb," And grandpa always meets me with, "Hello, there, Uncle Sam!"

I'm mamma's "Precious Little Coon" and "Dartin' Sugar Pig!" I'll tell her what I think of that, some day, when I am big!

I'm "Rolly Poly" and I'm "Punch" and "Humpty Dumpty," too. "Daisy," and I'm "Puddlekin" and sometimes "Baby Blue."

"Cabbagehead" is the worst of all—what sort of name is that? I wouldn't give it. I am sure, to grandma's a pappy call!

My papa always says "Old Man," and that provokes me so— If I am old at just six months, who's young, I'd like to know? I thought and thought about it till I couldn't sleep last night.

Then, very tired and very cross, I screamed with all my might. When people wondered what was wrong, And so they said, "Poor 'Tootsey Woo!" It surely can't be well!"

And never guessed I felt so bad because "Tootsey" was such a shame That nobody would let me know what really was my name. —Ellen Manly in Pittsburgh Post.

Working That Way. First Clubwoman (a few years hence)—Men are enough to drive a woman crazy.

Second Clubwoman—Indeed they are. First Clubwoman—Only think! For five nights last week I remained at the club terribly late, and yet when I went home I didn't find my husband waiting at the top of the stairs to upbraid me for neglect. The heartless brute was in bed sleeping like a top and actually smiling in his dream. —London Tit-Bits.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY Kenyon Crandall, Plaintiff, vs. Lizzie A. Crandall, Defendant.

The name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in his complaint, to-wit:—

For a decree dissolving the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may appear equitable.

The date of the first publication of this summons is August 2, 1905, and the order authorizing the service of this summons by publication requires you to appear and answer on or before the expiration of six weeks from said date.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Honorable Thomas A. McBride, Judge of the above named Court, by and under the date at Chambers at Hillsboro, Oregon, on August 1, 1905.

JOHN M. WALL, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Administratrix Notice

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned has been by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, duly appointed Administratrix with the will annexed of the estate of N. S. Howell, deceased, and has duly qualified and entered upon the discharge of her duties as such.

Now therefore, all persons having claims against the estate of N. S. Howell, deceased, are hereby required to present the same to the undersigned at the Law Office of Geo. R. Bagley in Hillsboro, Oregon, together with proper vouchers, within six months from the date hereof.

Dated June 2, 1905. ELIZABETH H. LADD, Administratrix with the will annexed of the estate of N. S. Howell, deceased. Geo. R. Bagley, Attorney for Administratrix.

Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of an execution, decree and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington, dated August 1, 1905, in favor of Thos. Talbot and against Mary Ann Barrett et al., defendants, for the sum of $718.27, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 1st day of August, 1905, and the further sum of $244.00, with interest from August 1, 1905, and for the costs with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from August 1, 1905, and for the costs and expenses of said sale and writ.

Now, therefore, by virtue and in pursuance of said judgment, decree and order of sale, I will, on Monday, September 11, 1905, at the south door of the Court House in Hillsboro, Ore., at the hour of 10 a. m. of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real property, situate in the County of Washington, State of Oregon, to-wit:—

Beginning at an iron bar in the center of the County Road from which the Northwest corner of the L. A. Sparks' D. L. C. No. 30, T. 1 N. R. 1 W. Will.
