

TWENTY THOUSAND ON 1904 TAX ROLL

Delinquent and Half Payments on Tax to be Collected

AND MUST BE PAID THIS MONTH

Roll is Pretty Well Cleared up This Season

Sheriff J. W. Connell and Deputy Kane will be busy next month collecting the balance of about twenty thousand dollars, yet due on the 1904 tax roll, and covering the half payment balances and the tax on which none has been paid.

MERRITT E. HOTCHKISS

Merritt E. Hotchkiss, a veteran of the Civil War, died at his home in Southeast Hillsboro, Wednesday, August 30, 1905, from an attack of heart trouble.

On Jan. 3, 1864, he married, and two children, Merritt E. and Flora M., survive him. He joined the Masons in 1868, in Rochester, Minn., and had been a Knight Templar for 20 years, and a member of the Mystic Shrine since 1894, being a 32nd degree Mason.

WANT ADMINISTRATOR OUSTED FROM ESTATE

Heirs of Late A. H. Johnson Are on the Warpath

CLAIM W. M. LADD IS IN FAULT

Estate Covers $81,795 Worth of Lands in This County

C. N. Johnson, Mayor of Forest Grove, is one of the eight heirs or representatives of the late A. H. Johnson, the Portland butcher who owned 2,613 acres of fine lands in Washington County, asking that W. M. Ladd, the Portland banker, be deposed as administrator of the estate, embracing, also, valuable property in the city of Portland.

The original appraisal shows the estate to have been valued at $792,552.27, with claims of $266,600, against it. Of this Johnson owed Ladd & Tilton $189,128.94, and they claim that Ladd has looked after the Ladd & Tilton interests more than the interests of the estate, acting in a dual capacity.

The lands embraced in this county are the celebrated Spring Hill Farm, south of Dilley, embracing 735 acres, of which 250 are under cultivation, and valued, altogether at $21,000.

Aside from 72 acres on the Portland mountain, there are seven places near Reedville, Beaverton, and vicinity. Of the lands above set out 600 acres are under cultivation. From the appraisal there should be over a half million of dollars worth of property after all claims are paid.

The petition to oust Ladd sets forth that the Washington County farms have been operated at a loss, when they should have paid handsomely.

Mrs. Sadie Johnson, formerly of Reedville, who is a widow of one of A. H. Johnson's sons, will come in for a share of the estate if it can be forced to settlement.

The petitioners ask that Ladd be removed and that a competent person be appointed to close up the estate and divide it among the various heirs. They also allege that Ladd operated the Reedville farm at a loss of $6310, when it should have paid a good profit. Johnson died in the early part of 1894.

The heirs also allege that before death Johnson executed a trust deed of Portland property to Mr. Ladd worth $422,000, which has never been included in the estate, but which runs the valuation up to $792,552.27, as quoted above.

IN HONOR OF MISS HOLCOMB

A very pleasant party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holcomb, of Bethany, Friday evening, in honor of Miss Mayme Holcomb, of San Bernardino, Cal., who is visiting relatives in that section. The evening was indulged in music and games, after which light refreshments were served. Those present were:

Misses and Mesdames Tunstall, A. L. Holcomb, J. C. Wilson, Frank Holcomb, Mrs. S. A. Holcomb, the Misses Rilla Tunstall, Mayme Holcomb, Carrie and Martha Bechen, May and Clara Mead, Rosetta Holcomb, Annie Smith, Beatrice Tunstall, Esther Wilson, Corrie and Carrie Heberlein, Hattie Holcomb, Madeline Hansen, Lena Bartley, Mattie Stream, and Messrs. Henry Kuratli, Lee Mead, Robt. and John Tannoek, Bert Grindel, Will Jones, Fred Grossen, Roy Kindsman, Frank Griner, Marshall Mat. Day Napper, Howard Holcomb and Thos. Stream.

COTSWOLD BUCKS

For sale: Thoroughbred Cotswold bucks, yearlings and two year olds.—Inquire of Jos Cawree, 5 miles northwest of Hillsboro.

Preaching at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Sheriff J. W. Connell started this evening for Scoggin Valley, on business and a deer hunt combined.

W. E. Pruyn, the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. V. Gates, for a fortnight, left for Heppner yesterday.

Mrs. B. P. Cornelius went to Portland Tuesday, for a few days' visit with relatives.

The executive committee of the County Lewis & Clark Club held a meeting this afternoon, at the home of Mrs. F. J. Bailey.

The city will lay new water pipes on Main, between Second and Third, as the old ones are about "all in," and leaking badly.

Mrs. F. J. Bailey, secretary of the Lewis & Clark County Club, returned from the Fair last evening. Mrs. F. M. Robinson, of Beaverton, is acting as hostess of the Washington County exhibit, this week.

At the big clambake at Newport last Saturday, S. B. Huston, of Hillsboro, and C. B. Moores, of Marion, made addresses. Both are out for the congressional nomination to succeed the Hon. Binger Hermann. Hermann himself has not posted notices that he is out of the race, but in all likelihood he will not have a delegate in the convention—unless he should be vindicated by a trial jury.

Rev. Albert Herforth, of Emery, South Dakota, will preach his first sermon in the new German Presbyterian church, at Bethany, next Sunday, although the building will not be dedicated until later, owing to the delay of the pews. Sunday afternoon W. C. Laubs will preach at Mountsidsale, and will be accompanied by Mr. Herforth. This will be Mr. Laubs' last preaching in the county, as he will leave for his chair in the German Presbyterian Seminary at Dubuque, Iowa.

On Tuesday, September 5, at 10 in the morning, Mr. Laubs will sell his horse and buggy, his cows and his household furniture to the highest bidder, J. C. Kuratli crying the sale. All his household furniture and that part of his library which he does not want to ship, will also be sold.

A. B. Thomas, a former Forest Grove business man, has purchased three sections of wheat land up in the Alberta country, close to where Thos. McClelland, former president of Pacific University, has a section. Mr. McClelland three years ago bought the section, and last year's crop reimbursed the purchase price of land and all expenses. The land produced from 30 to 50 bushels of fine wheat, and the district has attracted many from this county.

Frank Kellerman, formerly a renter on the Palmette place, near Reedville, is raising wheat up there, and doing nicely. The glowing reports of the Alberta country are attracting many young fellows around here, and there may be a further exodus in the near future.

Next Sabbath morning there will be the regular service at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, and in connection, the Holy Communion. Rev. A. H. Burkholder, of Portland, will preach at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church this Friday evening, at the 'Preparation service' for the Holy Communion. All members of the church and any christian expecting to attend the Sabbath Sacrament, are urged to be present. There will be Presbyterian services at the West Union church next Sabbath at 3:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The City School Board has assigned the teachers for the coming school year, as follows: B. W. Barnes, superintendent, and in charge of the Ninth; Anna Chalmers, Eighth; Annette White, Seventh; Lucy Humphreys, Sixth; Ethel Norman, Fifth; Jennie Beamish, Fourth; Tennessee Weathered, Third; Rose Wilcox, Second, and Mrs. M. M. Pittenger, Primary. It is expected that school will commence Monday, September 25. The district has contracted to have all the old rooms given a coat of kalsomine, and the rooms will all be very neat and tasty.

A year ago this week Hillsboro was anxiously watching the chase after Bert Oakman, who killed Frank Bennett, Aug. 29, 1904, in the alley east of the bandstand. Posses searched the woods east of town, and the woods along the Columbia river, near Seappose, to no avail. It will be remembered that Oakman was caught at Warrendale, on the Columbia, a few days later.

August Schomburg, of Evans-ton, Ill., returned home Sunday evening, after a week's visit with his brother, Fred Schomburg, of the Oregon Condensed Milk Company. He made a host of friends while here, and thinks that Oregon is all right. It is not improbable that he will dispose of his business in the east and locate here.

Wm. Schulmerich left yesterday for Coos county, where he will participate in three farmers' institutes, his addresses being exclusively on the dairy question and the proper kind of stock and rations for the strictly dairy cow. Mr. Schulmerich is well informed along the lines of his subject and his addresses are always a welcome oasis in meetings that sometimes savor of dullness.

Deputy Sheriff Kane has just finished writing up about forty deeds for lands the county purchased in 1900 at delinquent land sale. All of these lands will be sold to the highest bidder for cash in a short time, the county to give a quicklet deed. Here will be a chance for a speculation.

The long line of farmers' teams in front of the Climax Mill, delivering wheat, reminds one of old times, when wheat raising was the chief industry in this section. D. H. Willers came in yesterday and was obliged to wait nearly an hour before he could unload.

Half of one's dress is the shoe. Our celebrated Douglas shoes for men, and Drew-Selby and White-House shoes for ladies are the best of quality and latest lasts—and they "last" and hold their shapes. School shoes for children.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

C. P. Stafford, of Halsey, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lynn and their guest, Miss Etta Kimberlin, to Long Beach, last week. They returned the last of the week.

Lost: Small, white dog, with leather collar, bearing a Portland tag. Answers to name of "Jimmy."—Earl Caudle, North Hillsboro.

Will Johnson, of Mountsidsale, and E. P. Cornelius, of Glencoe, were in the city this afternoon.

Miss Susie McKinney and Edwin Morgan departed this week for an outing at Seaside.
