TELEGRAPHIC NOTES

The Chinese boycott, worked up to go along with Taft's proposal to let in the Chinese, has fallen flat. Perhaps Taft and the president had better come out boldly and say they want exclusion repealed because they fear Japan will get the American-Chinese trade. Japan will get Chinese trade, wherever she can, and from this on her encroachments in the Orient will injure America considerably. This is the price America must pay for Japanese success in the recent War.

Secretary Taft, in Hong Kong, stated at a banquet that the Chinese boycott was a violation of the Sino-American treaty. This is rather hard on the Celestials, particularly after Taft, himself, was more than anything else, responsible for the Chinese affront.

Bryan the peerless Nebraskan, is blushing. Dr. MacArthur, New York's great Divine, Sunday said: "Mr. Bryan is the foremost figure today on the American platform. His lecture, the 'Prince of Peace,' is one of the greatest treasures of our time."

Oregon's birth rate is less than any state in the Union, Indiana ranking next. This looks bad for so great a Roosevelt state as Oregon, and an apology is forthcoming. Perhaps the state has the wrong breed of storks.

Big timber fires raged in Linn County, back of Albany, last week, destroying thousands of dollars worth of fine forests.

The National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic is now in session at Denver, Col., and the city is open to the old veterans.

Yellow fever is on the wane at New Orleans, owing to a change to the cooler in the weather.

Oregon, Idaho and Washington will produce 50,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, the harvest said to exceed that of last year.

The O. R. & N. dock on the east side, Portland, burned, last Friday, with a loss of $150,000. Twelve freight cars, loaded, also went up.

A British tramp steamer takes over three million feet of lumber to China, out of Portland, this week. Such a boycott!

The steamer Telegraph made the run from Astoria to Portland, Sunday, in 5 hours and 16 minutes.

THE LIGHT OF OTHER DAYS.

Not very many years ago alcohol was used for lighting in combination with other fluids under the name of "Camphene," but it suffered from a serious drawback because it was too dangerous. Alcohol is generally harmful when taken in any form of medicine, especially to a delicate system.

Dr. Pierce's tissue-rebuilding and function-strengthening plan of treatment is following after Nature's plan. He uses natural remedies that is native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in the most exact proportions.

Used as one of the active ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, BLACK CURRANT is a special remedy in influence in cases of lung and bronchial troubles, and this "DISCOVERY" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The names of the medicinal ingredients of this world-famous remedy are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherrylark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root.

"I have had such a wonderful experience with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that I do not hesitate to recommend it, believing it to be a wonderful medicine to build up the tissues of the system," writes Miss Jessie Brown, Secretary, Esomian Literary Association, 628 Kerman Avenue, Appleton, Wis.

"I worry and nervous troubles had completely run down my health and strength and had no appetite, slept badly, and was in a state of nervous collapse. I took twelve bottles in all, and each week knew that I was getting better and stronger, until finally I was as well and strong as I had ever been. I have the utmost faith and confidence in your medicine, and wish to thank you for my good health, which is a blessing to anyone."

For 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing, you can get a free copy of the "Common Sense Medical Adviser," paper covers; or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Golden Medical Discovery" whenever a laxative is required.
