

WILL OF MRS. POLLOCK SET ASIDE BY COURT

Seven Thousand Dollar Estate to be Divided Equally

PETITIONERS WIN BY DEFAULT

Cornelius and Forest Grove Property Not Held by Will

Mrs. U. G. Hanna, Dr. W. M. Pollock and Lyle V. Pollock, of Forest Grove, were given a default by Judge Hood, this week, because Miss Flora Pollock did not answer the citation to appear in court and show cause why the will of Mrs. Sarah J. Pollock should not be set aside.

The heirs are the four named and John R. Pollock, Fernie, B. C., and Chas. H. Pollock, Banff, B. C. S. B. Huston was attorney for the petitioners.

BARNES-WARREN

On Thursday, Sept. 14, 1905, at half past two o'clock, Mr. Burt W. Barnes and Miss Minnie Belle Warren were united in marriage at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. T. Linklater, in this city.

After congratulations refreshments were served. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames S. S. Barnes and Frank Barnes, Hillsboro; Mrs. Garson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Robert and Fay Barnes, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Miller, Ida and Floyd Miller, McMinnville; Howard Gilpatrick and Miss Elizabeth Milne, and host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. Linklater.

The groom has for several years been the superintendent of the city schools, and the bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Warren.

MRS. GEO. W. DRORBAUGH

Mrs. Elizabeth Olive Drorbaugh died at her home near Forest Grove, September 11, 1905. Deceased was born in St. Clair County, Ill., Nov. 12, 1846. She was married to Geo. W. Drorbaugh, March 6, 1862, in the state of Iowa.

PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at public auction at my farm 1/2 mile East of Reedville, the following personal property, at ten a. m., on

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

Span gray horses, 8 and 12 years, 1500 and 1700; brown horse, 1300; two fillies, 2 and 3 years, latter being Hambletonian, the 2 year old being an Oregon and Patterson; new Mitchell wagon, 3 1/2; bonded tire; farm wagon; buck, buggy, cart, all in good repair; 2 sets work harness, set back harness, saddle, new mower, hay-rake, good Plano binder, plows, harrows, Gundersch drill, 3-section roller, 2 hay-racks, brood sow, 10 shoats, 25 tons baled chest hay, 20 tons clover hay, lot of wheat, oats and barley, hayfork and rope and pulleys, and numerous other articles.

The city of Hillsboro, through attorneys S. B. Huston and T. H. Tongue answer the petition of C. K. Henry, for injunction restraining the town from interfering in use of water for irrigation purposes by denying that the plaintiff is owner of the land, alleging that the place is not in his title, but in the wife's name; and also alleging that the council has power to make water regulations, which plaintiff violated; that without these regulations the city could not supply water, as there is not sufficient unless safe-guarded.

Hoppyard for lease: Yard of 75 acres, in hops, for lease for five years, for $20,000; $5,000 down and balance on time. Four horses, plows, and all necessary tools. Present lease gives lessee three-fourths of the crop. Remaining quarter must be delivered owner of land. Parties interested see J. C. Kuratli or John Salzgaber, Hillsboro, R. F. D. No. 4.

Dr. Tamesie and C. E. Shorey have found another pest—this time in the nature of a thin, spiky, spiral weed, which wraps itself around clover and chokes that forage plant out of existence, sometimes at the rate of half an acre at a clip. The weed is beginning to be a serious menace to the clover crop, which is an extensive one in so big and good a clover territory as this. Dr. Tamesie this morning sent a specimen of the weed to the Corvallis College to get a report on the pest.

J. A. Kirkwood, of Reedville, was in town yesterday, and states that the Ladd & Reed Farm Company at that place is grubbing 230 acres of land, using a donkey engine for power purposes. This method is very successful and the boys are making fine headway with the work. It is much cheaper, in the long run, than other machines.

Half of one's dress is the shoe. Our celebrated Douglas shoes for men, and Drew-Selby and White-House shoes for ladies are the best of quality and latest lasts—and they "last" and hold their shape. School shoes for children.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

H. Gilpatrick, pastor of the Cong. Church, left for Seattle today to attend the Pacific Coast session of the Foreign Missionary Society. There will be no services Sunday morning in the local church, but in the evening at 8:00, James L. Himrod, of California, will lecture on "Wanted, a Boy."

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

John White, of Klickitat, arrived with his family the other day and will take possession of the Darcy farm, near Glencoe, recently purchased from his father, C. S. He and his family are at present guests of H. H. Hall and wife, of Shady Brook.

The art of dress is to wear something appropriate and in style. That is what "she" likes. Buy one of our tailor made and gentleman's suits.—Splendid satisfaction. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Herman Schulmerich was Monday evening elected grand representative of Phoenix Lodge K. of P., for a two year term in the Grand Body, which convenes Oct. 14, in Portland. Geo. R. Bagley is the holdover representative.

Wanted: A No. 1 fresh dairy cow. Must be good. None other need apply.—Chas. Hickethier, Portland, R. F. D. 2, residing near Cedar Mill.

Mrs. C. Lystrop was in town this morning, from Reedville, and reports Mr. Lystrop as improving. They will have a public sale at their farm, Sept. 27.

W. B. Thomas, of Beaverton, who has had charge of a big cannery plant on Bellingham Bay, was over the first of the week, on business, and to see the Fair.

Grand Ball at W. O. W. Hall-Cedar Mill, Saturday night, September 30. Tickets, including supper, $1.00.

Judge McBride, circuit court, is expected here September 30 to dispose of minor matters and clean up the docket for the Fall term.

To generate mental and physical agility buy good groceries. We keep the best.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

A. Norton, of South Hillsboro, lost about sixty rods of fence out in the Shady Brook section, recently, the result of a fire.

Call at our store and taste our syrup made of Maple Extract.—J. A. Messenger, Second St., Hillsboro.

Mrs. A. M. Carlile is the guest of her sisters, in Portland, this week.

GET READY FOR JOE MECK DAY AT FAIR

Washington County Will Send Biggest Crowd of the Year

FRIDAY, SEPT. 29TH, A BIG DAY

Big Parade and Fine Exercises. Joe Meck in Trapper Costume

Washington County is getting ready for Joe Meck Day on September 29, at the Fair, and there is promise of the biggest crowd yet sent from this section to celebrate a special day. Joe Meck was one of our first settlers. His history, and how he helped make this American territory, is familiar to old and young, and the Col. has never been given due credit for his services to Oregon and the Northwest.

A fine program has been arranged, and a big parade is contemplated provided Portland will take hold of it—and Portland says she is willing. This date, Sept. 29, will come on the last day of the Stock show at the Fair grounds, and this will mean that county people can "kill two birds," etc.

A Joe Meck, in trapper costume, will be one of the features of the day, as well as an Uncle Sam. Hillsboro will furnish both of these. Let Washington County do her part in honoring Col. Joe Meck!

Assessor Geo. H. Wilcox will finish writing the tax rolls by the end of next week, and then the week following he will make up the summary and be ready for the board of equalization.

Contractor J. W. Goodin is now laying the floor of the bridge across Jackson Bottom and by the time the waters raise South Tualatinites will rise up and call the subscribers, the county and the builder, blessed.

Still the car shortage prevails, although a few have had cars, and things are loosening up a little. Alex Gordon has shipped five cars of hay to Astoria, and the company promises the shippers more cars as soon as the congestion can weaken a little.

Dr. James Withycombe, of Corvallis, formerly of Hillsboro, is mentioned as one of the dozen republican candidates for governor. Multnomah county has three candidates, and Gov. Geer is again out for the executiveship.

County Treasurer Jackson will soon start collection of the list subscribed on the Hendrick bridge, south of Cornelius, and later will start collection of the amounts subscribed on the Jackson Bottom bridge. This means that we must "dig."

Thos. Robinson, attending the theological school at Princeton College, arrived home last week, and is the guest of his parents, Rev. A. Robinson and wife. The visitor will hold services at the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. He returns to Princeton after a fortnight's stay.

REEDVILLE MERCHANT STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Bolt Knocked Him off of a Chair in Store

SHATTERS THE TELEPHONE POLE

Worst Electrical Storm Here For Many Years

The electrical storm of Monday night is being heard from in many places around the county. Up in the big timber many trees were struck by lightning, and down at Reedville, P. S. Anderson, the storekeeper, was struck by a bolt while he was sitting in a chair in his store, and landed on the floor. Luckily, however, the stroke did not strike hard enough to burn him, or he would have lost his life. A telephone pole, near Reedville station, was also struck, and the arm was badly shattered.

No fatalities are reported in this county, although at Mt. Angel a boy by the name of Eldredge was killed and a woman at Hubbard died Tuesday from the effects of a stroke.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank those who so kindly assisted us during the last illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Elizabeth Olive Drorbaugh.

Geo. Drorbaugh and Family.

Forest Grove, Ore., Sept. 13, 1905

FINED FORTY DOLLARS

Henry Becker, of South Tualatin, had a trial before a jury in Justice H. T. Bagley's court, Tuesday, charged with striking his wife, Mary Becker, in the face, two or three times. The evidence was conclusive, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty, whereupon Judge Bagley fined Becker $40, which he paid. The court holds that he has no jurisdiction to apply the statutory penalty of the whipping post. The jury in the case: C. Jack Jr., W. V. Wiley, J. C. Lamkin, D. B. Reasoner, Dr. J. E. Adkins and Joe Downs. Deputy District Attorney Tongue prosecuted, being assisted by Mrs. Becker's counsel, M. B. Bump, and Benton Bowman defended. The Beckers live across the river, on Iowa Hill, and have been having trouble. They are separated, and Mrs. Becker filed suit for divorce several months ago. Mrs. Becker is in some way connected with the old man Mexor, who is charged with forgery, and who is now awaiting trial, being remanded to jail in default of bonds.

The Forest Grove W. C. T. U. has sent in a petition to the city council, asking the body to suppress the commercial clubs at that place.

The prayer contained many signatures, and some of the signers are said to be the names of those who patronize the places, both "before and after" signing, giving as an excuse that they fear not signing might injure their business. The council took no action on the petition, on the grounds that they were trying to get license through the courts and they would encourage no more litigation until the docket was cleaned up on their other cases. J. C. Clark has been designated as Forest Grove's recorder, vice King, who has resigned.

R. V. Humphreys still doing business across the street from the Masonic Building, Second street. Bicycles repaired; bicycle sunrises; all work guaranteed. Prices the most reasonable.

H. Taylor Hill, of Mountindale, was in town yesterday, reporting everything all right up in that country. Mr. Hill is watching the trial of Congressman Williamson with a great degree of interest, for he was once a townsman of Williamson's, at Prinsville. Hill personally knows nearly all the witnesses, and is therefore more interested than the rest of his neighbors.

"Yes," said H. T., "I notice that Henry slips it to a democrat once in awhile, but the other side is skinning them in numbers that is likely to reduce the heavy majority next election."

Hammar paint, ready for the brush, guaranteed to last 5 years, at A. C. Archbold's, for $1.25 per gallon. All colors. Full line of paints, oils and brushes, at lowest prices.

Regular services at Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. On Tuesday night following, F. E. Billington, corresponding secretary of the O. C. M. C., will speak at same place. As this is in view of missionary aid asked by Hillsboro Christian church it is particularly desired that we have a full attendance of members. To all these services you are cordially invited.—A. H. Mulkey, pastor.

A six-horse power upright engine and boiler for sale.—W. J. Benson, Hillsboro, Ore.

Dr. S. T. Linklater assisted by Dr. W. D. Wood, on Monday, removed the bullet from its bed in the neck of Otto Johnson, of Shady Brook, the lad having carried the bullet several days, until it was thought safe to remove it. The lad came in to town to have the operation, and he is feeling very good considering his experience.

Smoke the Schiller and Excellence cigars—Oregon manufacture. Call for them.

Thos. Withycombe has brought suit for a commission on a sale of some Ladd & Reed farm property near Reedville, alleging that his work defied the sale. The Company denies liability, and claims that A. J. Ray made the sale. The suit was brought in Multnomah. Mr. Withycombe resides near Farmington.

Mrs. Anna Cash, wife of W. A. Cash, the Lenox school district clerk, died yesterday, from tuberculosis. Deceased was a very estimable woman, and has grown children. Her daughter, Mrs. White, wife of a Pullman porter, was present at the funeral obsequies, which took place today. Her husband survives.

A. J. Lupton, working at the Jacob Schneider hoppyard, was thrown from a wagon, Tuesday, and caught the seat of his trousers in the brake handle, causing a very ugly wound. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called, and attended the injuries. The wound does not affect him permanently, and he will be all right in a few weeks.

Sam B. Gates leaves Sunday for the east. He will stop a few days at LaFayette, Indiana, and visit his old school friends, and from there will go on to Schenectady, where he will spend several months in that big electrical center, taking points on manufacturing.

C. K. Henry, of Fair Acres, in South Hillsboro, Tuesday shipped by express 100 cases of tomatoes to Portland, and 40 cases of tomatoes to Astoria. And yet there are people who say that there is no market for gardening.

Van DeLashmuth, of Witch Hazel, is building a bungalow out of hewed timbers that will be a novelty in the way of a residence. The house will be a big one, and will be a curio when finished.

Ernest Haas, of Salem, where he is attending Willamette University, Medical Department, was out the first of the week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Haas.

For sale: Two Holstein bull calves. A Bendler, Jesse Cornelius place, 4 1/2 miles northwest of Hillsboro. Address, Cornelius, R. F. D. 1.
