

Owen Murray, the Cedar Mill old timer, was up Monday, chatting with his Hillsboro friends.

E. C. Luce is at present touring Puget Sound points, making his headquarters at Seattle.

C. W. Allen, of Beaverton, and who is an all-around good fellow, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Commissioner W. J. Butner, of Beaverton, was in Saturday, conferring with County Judge Root.

Sam Moon, of Centerville, and G. W. Marsh, on the drainage commission for District No. 5, were in town Saturday.

Rev. H. Gilpatrick, of the Congregational Church, Hillsboro, attended the big Northwest meeting at Seattle, the last of the week.

Mrs. R. B. Collins went to Portland Sunday evening, to attend the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Parthena Starr, but she had already passed away before the daughter reached the home.

The State Board of Education has granted Martha Frances Traver, of Forest Grove, a state diploma as teacher. This is the only diploma of its kind granted in Washington county at the recent board meeting.

Henry Carstens, of near Greenville, was in Saturday, attending a meeting of the drainage board from his section, and the old democratic warhorse, H. Taylor Hill, was also in, with an eye, as usual, on the Williamson case.

D. C. Ringle and wife, of Tacoma, Wash., were here the last of the week, guests of Mr. Ringle's brother, W. H., superintendent of the city water and light plant. The two families visited the Fair together the last of the week.

Geo. Grayson, the Tillamook liveryman and stage line owner, was over the last of the week, the guest of T. S. Weathered. He and his son were enroute for a week at the Fair. He reports T. B. Handley as getting along nicely with his law practice over in the Bay City.

C. H. Soehron, of Manning, and who brought Mrs. Soehron to town for medical treatment, was himself stricken with typhoid the last of the week, and taken to a Portland hospital, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Soehron was taken to the hospital yesterday morning.

Mrs. George Kinyon and daughter, of Colton, California, are guests of Mrs. E. W. Dant and Mrs. J. A. Weisenback, of Reedville. The Kinyons are owners of the famous Kinyon mine, which has paid out over $100,000, with prospects of continuing an indefinite period.

J. T. Fletcher, of Forest Grove, now holds the county record as having picked 355 pounds of hops from 8:00 in the morning until 4:30 in the afternoon. This is "going some," and the Argus is anxious to publish the name of some woman who can beat it.

J. A. Messinger, of Laurel, was in town Saturday, and reports the hop crop as better than last year over in the Laurel section. Mr. Messinger had 8 acres this season from which he picked 42,750 lbs. of green hops—pretty good for what has been termed a light year in many districts.

Mr. Chilcott, the express messenger who owns the Luce property in South Hillsboro, was out Monday, looking over his property. He expects to come out and take possession in a short time. This place is one of the finest in this section, and can be made as beautiful as almost any of the suburban places in this part of the West Side.

J. M. Blaine, representing the Pacific Monthly, is in the city, and will be in the county several weeks, looking over the resources, production, and political history of the section, for publication. This magazine is now the leading periodical of its kind on the Pacific Coast, and it is having a magnificent growth.

S. H. Dunbar, well known all over this county, has sold his farm near Farmington, the purchaser to take possession October 20. Mr. Dunbar will have a public sale of his personal property soon, and will then leave for a two years' visit back to Missouri and Illinois. He sold his big team, Tuesday, to Stevens & Son, of Farmington, for $415.

Some Forest Grove wag painted a big sign, "Look Out For The Cars," and put it up at the Tillamook railway crossing, on Baseline, the other night. In turn, some Hillsborolite, smarting under the taunt, carried it to the Grove and placed it where the electric line entered town, that line also being in statu quo. The sign was torn down early the next morning, however, as the electric line proposition seems to be a sore point up there.

Mrs. Parthena Starr, Portland, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ines Uhlman, in that city, Sunday, Sept. 17, and the funeral took place in the Buxton cemetery, Tuesday. Deceased was a pioneer of 1855, and was wedded to John Starr, residing at Forest Grove, years ago, where the husband died.

Two other daughters survive, Mrs. E. B. Collins, of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Emma C. Powers, of Beaver Creek, Columbia County, and one son, John M. Reddick, of Clatskanie.

If you want brick for any purpose, or building blocks for a foundation, remember that the Grones & Rowell Company, of Scholls, can supply your demands. They have a fine lot of lumber, rough and dressed, in their yard, and will meet all competition. Now that your crops are harvested, would it not be a good idea to consider if tilling will not increase your income. Wet, low spots in the fields, always giving poor results, can be remedied by putting in tilling. Let us help you. We can aid you to avoid crop failure on low lands. House and barn bills for lumber on short notice—and do not forget that we can furnish you estimates on short notice. Post office address—Hillsboro, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2. Sixty thousand feet of fine, dry shipal on hand.

Frank Hardeback, who came from the East, recently, to visit his brother, at Dilley, departed Tuesday for Denver, Colorado, from which point he will drop down to Arizona and New Mexico, on a quest for health. Mr. Hardeback will live an open air life down in the high altitudes.

The fourteen year old son of A. J. Ray, the Witch Hazel hopgrower, lost a finger one day last week, the amputation being at the first joint. The young man caught the digit in a piece of cable while at work at the hop house. Dr. Tamiessie made the amputation.

Marion Wilkes arrived from Sumpter, Friday, and visited with his father, T. S. Wilkes, who is here from Arizona. Monday he left for Corvallis, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ella, and both will attend the Agricultural College this Winter.

Penn Frost, of north of town, received a badly jammed finger, last week, as a result of handling a colt. Dr. J. P. Tamiessie attended the wounded digit, and sewed several stitches to keep the tendons in place.

Uncle Dan Phillips, of Cornelius, and who for years was one of Washington County's leading violinists—when country people knew how to have a good time—was in town Saturday, greeting his pioneer friends.

Elder J. A. Campbell, who is one of the most popular of Hillsboro's old time ministers, and who always has a good word for his fellows, was in Hillsboro Monday, on his return to Portland from a meeting at Farmington.

Judge Hollis, of Forest Grove, and who is doing all he can to aid Washington County railroad development, irrespective of where the line runs, was in the county seat Monday morning.

W. G. Hare departed Monday evening for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he again resumes his law studies. His many friends in Washington County send with him their best wishes.

Banker Sholes and wife departed the last of the week for North Branch, Michigan, to be absent for 60 or 90 days, visiting old friends, and incidentally attending to business interests there.

Mrs. A. Bendler, of near the Bagley Sr. bopyard, while cutting kindling, Sunday morning, chopped the tip off her left thumb. Dr. A. B. Bailey was the attending physician.

D. B. Emrick, the gentleman who always has a standing invitation to meet with the Solomon and Sheba Club, of this city, was up from Scholls, Saturday.

Born, September 17, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wells, on the Raffety place, near Mountindale, a daughter.

F. E. Rowell, of Scholls, was in town Monday, and called at the Argus office.

Bob Greer leads and the rest follow, in groceries, crockery and glassware.

C. A. Keith, of below Farmington, was a caller at the Argus office Monday.

Mrs. Josephine Patton, of the News, Forest Grove, visited here Sunday.

When you want pickles go to Greer's. All kinds in bulk.

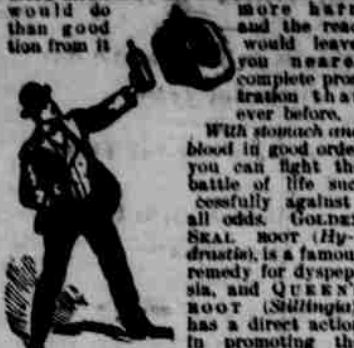

James Sigler, of the Bloyd & Sigler sawmill, was in town Saturday.

WARD OFF DISEASE
By fortifying your system with a reliable blood medicine. An alcoholic stimulant would do more harm than good than from it. You nearer complete prostration than over here.

DR. FROST'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
WITH stomach and blood in good order you can fight the battle of life successfully against all odds. GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY is a famous remedy for dyspepsia, and QUEEN'S ROOT (SHILLINGIA), has a direct action in promoting the renewal of the blood. Both of these are used in Dr. Frost's Golden Medical Discovery in such a way, by skillful extraction, combination and solution without alcohol, that their best effects are secured.

Many years of actual practice convinced Dr. Frost of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar process for rendering them both efficient and safe for continuous use as tonic and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of the ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle hereafter to be sold gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an "unknown remedy."

The Original LITTLE LIVER
DR. FROST'S PILLS, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. Little pill, little dose, but give great results in a curative way in all derangements of Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"Common Sense Medical Adviser" will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
