G. E. Shirley, of Scholls, was up yesterday and has finished harvesting his 3 acre yard of hops, reporting a fine crop.

Judge W. M. Langley and P. C. Campbell were down from Forest Grove yesterday, witnesses on a matter in probate.

For sale: Two Holstein bull calves. A. Bandler, Jesse Cornelius place, 4 1/2 miles northwest of Hillsboro. Address, Cornelius, R. F. D. 1.

Taking up the matter in a serious vein—there should be a better feeling between Hillsboro and Forest Grove. This fighting backward and forward is altogether childish, and it has become a nuisance. Many students from here for years complained that they get scant courtesy from the Forest Grove students at the University, it appearing that the bad spirit is being taken up by the rising generation. A number who have formerly attended the University base this condition as one reason for attending school elsewhere. This means a financial loss, both to the student going elsewhere, the cost being greater, and a loss to Pacific University, which is a part and parcel of Forest Grove. The citizens of the two towns, as well as the newspapers, should get together and quit child's play.

Style is perhaps the first essential feature in K. N. & F. garments, because it is that which the eye first notices in a professional sense, quality comes first; for style is impossible without quality. Here then, we have the two great requisites of good clothing. Prices that are right.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

V. Reed and his two sisters, Miss Lena Globe, W. Conkle, Clarence Jackson, John McClure, all of Benedict, Neb., and Miss Anna Juelfs, of Seattle, were Newport visitors, last week, accompanying their hosts, Henry P., Fred W. and Angie Harrington, of Centerville. The Misses Reed and Miss Globe go to Seattle, this week, to visit with Miss Juelfs for a few days.

Commencing Saturday morning H. Wehrung & Sons will give a ticket with each $1 cash purchase, entitling purchaser to drawing on prizes as follows: 1st prize, $15 in trade; 2nd prize, $10 in trade; 3rd prize, $5 in trade; 4th prize, $2.50 in trade; 5th prize, 4 pieces Table Set.

J. H. Fuller, who came here from Indian Territory, about a year ago, and who worked at the Nelson mill this summer, is again back in the Indian nation. He went east because of the illness of a daughter, who is low with a paralytic stroke. He expects to return to Oregon either this fall or next spring.

The fall of the year is an ideal time to get a new couch. The long winter days are coming when you will have plenty of time to use one. Donelson can surely send you one that will suit. Step in and look at them. Also everything in the furniture line. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.—W. O. Donelson, I. O. O. F. Building.

Drs. F. J. and A. B. Bailey visited the stock show at the Fair this week, and report that Phil Frakes, formerly of this county, has taken 14 out of 15 possible prizes with his Holstein stock, competing against stock from eleven states. Mr. Frakes now lives at Scappoose. Many here remember him as having married the mother of the Dobbins' boys.

A lady's black purse, or hand satchel, containing a bunch of keys and a stamp book, was lost between Hillsboro and the Cate hopyard, Monday. Anyone finding the same and leaving at this office will get a reward.

The four year old child of A. D. Cummings, of Centerville, fell on a bicycle tire last Saturday, sustaining a bad cut of an eyelid, badly injuring the ball of the eye. Dr. Linklater was summoned and states that there will be no permanent injury to the sight.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Carl Striplin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Striplin, formerly of East Hillsboro, is here from Riddle, where the family has lived for a year. While here he is the guest of W. B. Cate and family.

Before purchasing a piano or organ have a talk with E. L. McCormick. For quality and prices he cannot be beaten.

Mr. William Wynkoop, of Portland, and Miss Lillian Nelson, of this county, were married in this city, Sept. 25, 1905. Rev. C. L. Hamilton, of the M. E. Church officiating.

Strayed: Three black barrow stock hogs, good order, weighing about 200 each. Liberal reward.—J. W. Goodin, Glencoe, or Jackson Bottom bridge, Hillsboro.

Contractor T. P. Goodin broke ground yesterday for the new theatre building on the corner of Main and First streets, and foundation work will proceed at once.

Farm for rent: A farm of 316 acres, near Glencoe, over 200 in cultivation, will be rented to right party. Apply O. G. Barlow, 201 West Park, Portland, Ore.

MONDAY LAST DAY FOR HALF PAYMENT

Several Hundred Yet to Liquidate Remaining Tax

DELINQUENT AFTER THAT TIME

Friday and Saturday, With Monday, Big Receipts

Commencing with tomorrow, and including Saturday and Monday next the cash receipts in Sheriff Connell's office will be large, owing to the fact that with Monday evening ends the time for paying the remaining half tax on property. Hundreds paid half their tax last spring, but the fall payments have been coming in slowly. The last three days generally ends in a rush and Sheriff Connell and Deputy Kane will more than likely have their hands full.

All property that remains unpaid by that date will go on the delinquent roll, with added penalty, and interest from last spring.

LOOKS BETTER FOR RAILROAD PROJECT

Stockholders say That Work Will be Resumed

TILLAMOOK PROPOSITION AGAIN

Given out That new Contract is to be Let

It has been given out that the stockholders of the Tillamook railroad are to let a new contract for the building of the railroad between this point and Tillamook, and that twenty miles will yet be constructed and in operation by December 31.

This report comes from authority that is supposed to be reliable, and if it is reliable, active construction should commence in a very short time.

As to crediting this story, there are many now who will not believe it until the rails are laid and a locomotive is on the track with steam up, headed for Banks.

That E. E. Lytle has been figuring on building the line to the bay is no secret, and he is yet in communication with people out this way.

A good force of men would get the grade ready for the rails as far as Banks in about 30 days—bridge and all.

JOE MECK DAY

Tomorrow, Sept. 29, is Col Meek Day and the turnout from this county will be very large. The program will begin at 2:00 p. m., at the auditorium, in the Fair grounds.

CALVIN THADDEUS POMEROY

Calvin Thaddeus Pomeroy, pioneer, died at Cedar Mill, Sept. 27, 1905. Deceased was born in Chicago, Ill., April 22, 1833, and crossed the plains to Oregon, 1842, with his parents.

The family settled at Oregon City, but in 1845 moved over to Washington County and settled northeast of Hillsboro, and Mr. Pomeroy has ever since made this section his home, outside of possibly two or three years' absence. He was wedded to Henrietta M. F. Blish, Nov. 7, 1854, at West Union. He was converted to Christianity in 1860 and joined the M. E. church, in Hillsboro, during the incumbency of Rev. Hosford, a pioneer minister.

For forty years he had been a sufferer from liver trouble, and for many years has been unable to work. As a husband and father he was kind and indulgent. His wife and the following children survive: Walter, Scappoose; Dwight, Leisville; Chas. A. Salem; Siles, Portland; Mrs. W. A. Kirke, Portland; Mrs. Lela Bunker, Portland, Mrs. Stella Pomeroy, Eagle Creek.

Funeral services will be held at the home in Cedar Mill, at 10:00, Friday, and interment will be in the West Union cemetery.

Miss Adeline Newlin, of Terre Haute, Ind., and Miss Elsie Newlin, of Hutsonville, Ill., were guests this week, of Mrs. Benton Bowman. They leave at once for California.

Regular services at the Christian church next Sunday, morning subject, "The Extremity of Opportunity"—A Feast Proclaimed." Evening subject, "God's Voice to Hillsboro."

Attorney Geo. R. Bagley went to Beaverton yesterday to defend David Rehbitt, the gardener, in a test case of alleged violation of an ordinance forbidding shipment of fertilizer into the town. The town recently passed the ordinance, much to the discomfiture of gardeners and Rehbitt, on legal advice, brought in a shipment, determined to test the right of the council. The recorder found him guilty of violating the ordinance, and imposed the penalty of $15 fine, or seven days in the county bailee. Rehbitt was brought to Hillsboro, where Attorney Bagley immediately sued out a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted by Judge Rood, and Rehbitt was set at liberty. The case will be fought to the bitter end, as it means much to Beaverton gardeners, who use a great deal of fertilizer.

There are five cases of small pox about five miles northeast of town, embracing a mother and four children. The cases are under Dr. Tauniesie's charge, and County Health officer Dr. F. J. Bailey has had the place thoroughly quarantined, so there is no possibility of a spread of the disease. The family is at a loss to know where they contracted the malady, as they have been no place where they could have any suspicion of exposure. The cases are of very mild type, and the physicians say there is no danger of fatal results.

Clerk Godman recently received an application for a hunter's license, and this explicit description of the applicant accompanied the $1.00: "Medium brown hair; blue-gray eyes; height, 5 feet, 6; montache, small, reddish; round face; pug nose; heavy set; 37 years; ears stand out; Dane; residence, Tualatin." For brevity and clearness this takes first prize. Almost any game warden should be able to identify the hunter with this pedigree.

W. J. Wall, who has secured the greater portion of the right of way for the Oregon Traction Company's proposed line from Portland via Hillsboro to Forest Grove has sued the organization for $350 for services rendered. The suit is filed in the Multnomah circuit court, and the attorney for the plaintiff is John M. Wall.

Monday evening's passenger train into Portland carried 1,000 passengers into the metropolis. Each train is loaded to the guards, and many are obliged to stand. It is said that the West Side has patronized the Fair much more liberally, considering the population, than any other section of the Northwest.

Rev. R. Anson Atkins, formerly in charge of the M. E. pulpit of this city, has by the Wisconsin State conference been assigned for another year to occupy the pulpit at Durand, Wisconsin. Mr. Atkins has given eminent satisfaction in his services in the Badger state, and his many friends here are gratified at his success.

Ernie Burkhalter, for years with the Tamwater, Olympia Brewing Company, now of Farmington, where he purchased the Hare ranch, was in town yesterday. He states that the union men at the brewing establishment have ended their strike, inaugurated several months ago.

Judge W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, was in the city, Tuesday and stated that the following party goes to Eugene, Friday morning, to pull for the next meeting, in January, at Forest Grove: W. H. Hollis, Hon. E. W. Haines, Col. Harry Haynes and J. F. Wood, of the News.

Contractor Goodin states that teams can now pass on the Jackson Bottom bridge, but gives notice that he will not be responsible for accidents as the railing is not in place. He is perfectly willing, however, that the floor shall be used if people wish to take chances.

J. I. Benefiel, of Nex Perce, Idaho, arrived here yesterday morning, accompanied by his wife Mr. Benefiel was here 40 years ago, having crossed the plains in 1852 and first settled in Yamhill county. They were guests of Mrs. Wilson while here.

At Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, next Sabbath morning, will be delivered the annual Home Missionary Sermon, "The opportunity of American Christian." The Y. P. S. C. E. is held every Sunday evening at this church. Everybody cordially invited.

The special meetings at the Baptist Church are progressing with splendid interest. Three services will be held on Sunday. The service at 3 P. M. Sunday, will be for men only, subject "The Pass Word." The meetings will continue through next week.

Julius Christenson, of Laurel, was in town yesterday. He says that he will not rebuild this fall, to take the place of his residence, which burned last week, but will wait until spring arrives.

J. C. Greer invites everybody wanting shoes to give him a call. He carries the famous Kilkenny shoe. Main Street, opposite Tualatin.

J. G. Pellette, the North Plains orchardist, was in town yesterday. J. W. Jackson was in from Glencoe, Tuesday.
