

R. P. Reeder, of Beaverton, was in town Tuesday.

Noah Scheldel, of North Plains, was a caller at the Argus office Monday.

Andrew Pierson, of Reedville, was a county seat visitor Tuesday morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, of beyond Phillips, Sept. 25, 1905, a daughter.

John Powell, on the Dr. F. A. Bailey ranch, near Lenox, was in town Tuesday.

G. A. Lechner, owner of the "L" ranch at Bethany, was a caller at the Argus office Tuesday.

F. E. Rowell, the Scholls saw-mill man and merchant, was in town Monday morning.

Wm. Barker, of Iowa, arrived Saturday for a short visit with his cousin, Mrs. C. E. Deichman.

J. J. Kuratli and wife, of Phillips, were in town Saturday, guests of their son, Recorder Kuratli.

Attorney S. B. Huston leaves the last of the week for the Development League meeting at Eugene.

Dr. E. DeWitt Connell, of Portland, the eye and ear specialist, was a guest of Hillsboro relatives Sunday.

Another week of visit and Col. T. J. Bramel will again take up his abode at the Roseburg Soldiers' Home.

Ed. Foord, of Clatskanie, was a Sunday visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Foord, of East Hillsboro.

Geo. Darity, of Glencoe, was in town Tuesday, and is driving Mays Bros' supply team for a few days this week.

A. C. Brown and family, making Hillsboro their home for a number of years, will reside at North Bend this winter.

J. C. Kuratli, of Phillips, came out from Portland Monday night, after a day at the Lewis & Clark stock show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wann visited in Portland this week, with Geo. Wann and wife, and while there took in the Fair.

C. M. Johnson, of Farmington, and who has one of the neatest places in that section, was in town Monday, paying taxes.

Ira Wheeler, with W. J. Benson, all Summer, is now with the Nelson-Hardway Company, doing the plumbing department.

Geo. Krebs, for years on the Tongue place, South Tualatin, moved this week to his newly purchased place in Helvetia, east of Glencoe.

Ulrich Haas Jr., accompanied by his wife, after a long visit with his father, Ulrich Haas Sr., of West Union, left today for home, in Claremont, Iowa.

Alex Chalmers, the Centerville stockman, took a fine herd of his Shorthorn cattle to Portland, last week, and entered them in the big Lewis & Clark stock show.

J. W. Bailey, of the Pharmacy, and W. B. Streeter, his brother-in-law, returned Saturday from a fishing expedition over on the Nehalem, reporting moderate success.

Mrs. W. J. Wall left this week for Topobolampo, Mexico, to remain the winter. She accompanies Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hart, and Miss Padellia, who have spent the summer here.

F. M. Kelsay, of southeast of town, and whose father took up the donation land claim upon which the major portion of the town is located, was a caller at this office Monday.

J. A. Thompson, of Mountaine, was down Tuesday, accompanying his son, J. H. the sawmill man, who, incidentally, has quite an interest in the defunct Tillamook roadbed.

Henry C. Toelle, well known here, and now a resident of South Tualatin, was granted license to wed by the Multnomah County Clerk, Monday. The bride was Miss Amelia Hoffman.

Frank Weissenback, superintendent of the Ray hopyards at Witch Hazel, was in town Monday, and reports it very lonesome down that way since the 300 and more hop pickers have left for their homes.

Harold Merryman returned the last of the week from an extended visit at Klamath Falls, where his brother, Dr. George, is practicing medicine. He leaves at once to enter the State University at Eugene.

F. W. Schultheis, of Bethany, sued M. and Anna Heimbucher for $17 rental before Judge Bagley Monday, and the defendant filed a plea in abatement, not denying the debt, but alleging that it was not due until Nov. 1. Upon showing the case was dismissed by the court.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hollenbeck, of Mountaine, returned Monday morning from Portland, where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hollenbeck's mother, Mrs. Wilson, the aged lady who was killed last week, by a street car on Williams Avenue. The driver of the car was Frank Armentrout, who formerly resided at Greenville and Forest Grove. He feels very badly over the accident.

If you want brick for any purpose, or building blocks for a foundation, remember that the Groner & Rowell Company, of Scholls, can supply your demands. They have a fine lot of lumber, rough and dressed, in their yard, and will meet all competition. Now that your crops are harvested, would it not be a good idea to consider if tiling will not increase your income. Wet, low spots in the fields, always giving poor results, can be remedied by putting in tiling. Let us help you. We can aid you to avoid crop failure on low lands. House and barn bills for lumber on short notice—and do not forget that we can furnish you estimates on short notice. Post office address—Hillsboro, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2. Sixty thousand feet of fine, dry shiplap on hand.

Speaking of progressive little towns—Cornelius is just now leading anything in the shape of a city on the West Side with a population anywhere near its numbers. The business buildings are all neatly painted, the streets are kept cleanly, and there is a general air of prosperity everywhere. It is surprising how much a little plan will lead to the appearance of a small place—or a big place, for that matter. Its new buildings are all occupied, and Cornelius promises to be a formidable rival of Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

C. K. Henry, of South Hillsboro, is putting in a fine private water system on his Fair Acres property. The system will consist of three wells, which will be operated by a gasoline engine and a dynamo. Walt Taylor is putting down the wells. The supply will give Mr. Henry all kinds of water for irrigation as well as for domestic uses.

S. T. Walker, of Forest Grove, writes the weather bureau as follows: "Hop picking, prune drying, clover hulling and grape gathering have all been pushed the past week and the first three are practically done in this neighborhood; the rains have started grass and some early sowing is coming up; some plowing being done."

P. M. Hermens, who has been three years at Sublimity, Ore., where he is in the creamery business, is down on a visit, and was in town Tuesday, with his father, Wm. Hermens, of Verboort. Mr. Hermens is looking over the ground with a view of putting in a creamery in this county.

Benj. Birdsall, of Forest Grove, was down Monday evening, accompanied by Chas. Harvey, of Bend, S. D., an old time Iowa friend of his, whom he had not seen for years. Mr. Harvey started east Tuesday, and from the way he expressed himself, may later move out to Oregon.

Hop picking is about wound up all over the county, except a yard here or there which was delayed by the rain Sunday and Monday. Jas. H. Sewell, of northeast of town, would have finished Wednesday, but for the wet weather, and Wm. Bagley Sr. would have had his crop harvested.

Joseph Young, who was raised on the Hawthorn ranch, east of town, and who hasn't seen Hillsboro for 30 years, arrived here from Goldendale, Saturday, to spend the day. He met many of his old pioneer friends. Mr. Young is a nephew of the late J. Q. A. Young, of Cedar Mill.

Frederick Geisler, of the Jackson Bottom, has received notice from the government that he will be shipped some brook trout in a few months, to stock his artificial lake, a mile south of town. It will take a year or so for the babies to grow, however, after they are landed in the new home.

The floor has been laid on the Jackson Bottom bridge, and the sawy braces and railing come next. This is the longest wagon bridge in the county, and affords a convenience, through the winter, to a large territory over in the South end of the county.

Grant Downing, the Vernonia merchant, was here Sunday, after a load of merchandise for his store. Grant says that business is pretty fair over his way—but the people over there are anxiously awaiting for the Portland & Nehalem railroad.

L. H. Atwater, working for John Dennis on the dairy ranch in East Hillsboro, fell from a chicken house roof, where he was shingling, Monday forenoon, and broke one of his ribs and otherwise bruised himself. Dr. F. J. Bailey attended the patient.

Mrs. Ruth McCurdy, aged 80 years, died in Portland, September 23, 1905. Deceased was a native of Ohio. She was a mother of A. McCurdy, of Cornelius, and the remains were shipped to that place for interment.

Bob Greer leads and the rest follow, in groceries, crockery and glassware.

"Please Smile and Look Pleasant."

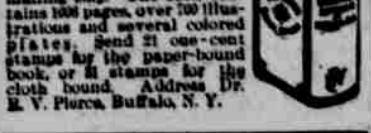

When a woman says "I am racked with pain," the word "racked" reveals the days when they stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with rope and pulley until the very joints cracked.

Any woman may regain her health at home without offensive questionings or examinations by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Sick women may consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. Such letters are treated as strictly confidential.

"It affords me pleasure to relate the wonderful merits of your great medicine, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. Walter Blaine, of Woodbury, N. Jersey, L. Box 222. "My wife has been using it for some time past, having suffered severely with bearing-down pains, aching in back, and many other complaints peculiar to women. She was very nervous, could not do all kinds of work now. She is soon to become a mother but we do not fear the results, as we are all due to your wonder-worker, Favorite Prescription."

Your "Pleasant Pills" are also worth many times their price. I have used them for biliousness and stomach trouble, and have found them to be all that you claim. They are the most pleasant companions—once used, always kept."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Questioning or vision is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 100 pages, over 100 illustrations and several colored plates. It is bound in cloth, and is stamped by the paper-bound book, or 4 stamps for the cloth-bound book. Address: Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
