A burglar went into the house of the Sherwood butcher one evening last week, after dark, and demanded money. The wife was alone in the house, and, after parleying for a while, managed to get out the back door and notify the neighbors. When they arrived at the house the intruder was gone, with nothing for his trouble.

While you are looking for a fine range do not fail to drop into Cave's pioneer hardware store and take a look at the Moore range, the finest in the market. Considering quality and value these ranges are the cheapest in the market. We carry all kinds of fine heaters, also. Give us a call.—Cave's Hardware Store, Main Street.

Peter G. Martin, who came to Oregon in 1859, after being in California for several years, died in Portland, Monday, at the age of 73 years. Deceased was a native of Ireland, and came to America when he was but 12 years of age. For twenty years Martin lived at Sherwood, and he was a member of the Portland police force when the entire body of peace officers numbered but nine men. Four daughters survive the veteran policeman: Mrs. C. T. Hall, Sherwood; Mrs. W. L. Kaller, Mrs. Della Hall, and Mrs. T. P. Donahue, Portland. A grandson, Joseph Kaller, is now on the Portland police force.

If you want brick for any purpose, or building blocks for a foundation, remember that the Groner & Rowell Company, of Scholls, can supply your demands. They have a fine lot of lumber, rough and dressed, in their yard, and will meet all competition. Now that your crops are harvested, would it not be a good idea to consider if tiling will not increase your income. Wet, low spots in the fields, always giving poor results, can be remedied by putting in tiling. Let us help you. We can aid you to avoid crop failure on low lands. House and barn bills for lumber on short notice—and do not forget that we can furnish you estimates on short notice. Post office address—Hillsboro, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2. Sixty thousand feet of fine, dry shiplap on hand.

J. B. Ferguson, wife and daughter, Mrs. Elliott, all of Lincoln, Neb., were guests the first of the week at the S. G. Morgan home. Mr. Ferguson was in the Civil War with T. S. Crozier, of Iowa, now here visiting with County Treasurer Jackson. A peculiar coincidence is the fact that a year ago the two talked of visiting in the west. Neither had an idea that they were to meet in the same town, nor visit at homes adjoining each other.

From this date all who buy $1 worth, or more, in my hardware store, will get a rebate of 10 per cent, and on purchases of between 50 cents and $1.00, a rebate of 5 per cent will be given. The Indian never liked work but he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work for him. He had a little girl named Mollie who was very weak and he had to carry her on his back for her. He had tried many remedies but they did not help. He then saw an advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and he bought a bottle. He gave it to Mollie and she got well in a few days. He was very happy and he told his friends about it. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a great remedy for female weakness. It makes the blood pure and healthy and it gives the system strength. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all cases of female weakness. It is sold in bottles of 50 cents and $1.00. Write for a free trial bottle to Dr. Pierce, Littlefield, N. H.

A GUARANTEE

Her Baby a Born Wonder

"CAN your baby talk?" I asked of one of my friends, whose first-born was being exhibited with true motherly pride and affection. "Talk?" said the mother, with a note of indignation in her voice. "Well, I should say so! Come, baby, dear, say 'bread and butter' for the lady." "Bel us bum," said the baby. "Hear that?" asked the proud mother. "Now say 'baby's bottle.'" "Bale ho!" "Isn't it wonderful? And he's only fifteen months old. My cousin has a baby boy seventeen months old who can't say a word that any one can understand. He says 'bet and but' for 'bread and butter.' You can't understand a thing he says. He calls candy 'tan.' Now, you hear my baby say 'candy.' Baby, dear, say 'candy' for 'mummy.'" "Tannum."

Mr. Ford's Little Joke

Stimson Ford, the hotel man, was after dinner speaker, was standing the dock of one of the transients, whiffing in the good old York air with evident relish. "Has your baggage come up yet?" asked a customs inquirer. "Why, yes," said Mr. Ford with a bright, glad smile. "I was much surprised. Usually when I take an ocean trip everything comes up but my baggage."

An Awful Jolt

Cholly—Allow me, Miss—aw—Smith, to introduce you to my fiancée, Miss Smith—Pleased to meet you, indeed. And does the same ring that he gave me fit you too?—Browning's Magazine.
