MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.

Forty years ago, Dr. Pierce searched Nature's laboratory for a remedy with which to supply the ignorant and vicious methods of treatment with a potent stimulant, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for woman's peculiar ailments. Nature abounds with most efficient remedies, and in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, Dr. Pierce found medicinal properties, which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no alcohol; is not a "patent medicine," nor a secret one either. "I was suffering from nervous headache, pains in the back and dizziness, so that I could not do my work," writes Mrs. Mary M. Thomas, of 217 Winston Street, Los Angeles, Cal. "After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription,' however, I was so pleased with the results that I kept on taking it until I was restored to health and strength. I shall never be without this good medicine, and shall take a few doses when I do not feel strong. One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of prospective mothers for the time of trial and danger that must befall a child is born. The 'Prescription' is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child. Every woman should know these things before she really needs to know them. There are many things in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Treatment for Women that every woman ought to know. This celebrated work reached a sale of 600,000 copies at $1.50 each. The expense is now being given away. A copy will be sent to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Don't be hoodwinked, hoodlums, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for the original and best. Beware of cheap imitations by old Dr. E. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago, and called Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pills. They've been much imitated, but never equalled. One or two are laxative, three or four cathartic.

Hearst, on the labor ticket, and Ivins, republican candidate, are giving McClellan a chase for his money, and although Tammany claims the election by 100,000 it is evident they are getting wide awake to the possibility of defeat. DEFECTIVE WATER PIPE The water pipe furnished by a Portland firm for the Main street water main, after being laid, was found not up to specifications, and as a result the water committee notified the house to send a man out. He arrived the last of the week and was confronted by a condition that did not speak very well for the pipe supply. The committee told him that the pipe would have to be taken up, and at the expense of his company. He readily agreed to send new and thoroughly tested pipe, and pay for the extra work and freight. The new consignment will be laid in a few days and the ugly gap closed. The committee would listen to no compromise and nothing but A1 pipe will be accepted.

THAT DEAR OLD VIOLIN Your music, dear old violin, Remembrance yet it thrills; It brings old meadows back to me; And water wheels and mills— Rich shaded vales, and sunlit hills, And crags o'erlooking seas— All these, Ah! dear old violin! Your notes waft back to me. 'Tis years since first your dreamy spell Fell lightly on mine ear, And filled my soul with melody That gave my young heart cheer— Your soft base notes and treble trill— Deep in my heart they wove Bright wonder dreams with castles, and Fair maids, and treasure trove! The hand that gave you fond caress At county dance and halls, Is palsied now with age and grief— No croon from you it calls; But still your song lives in the heart, And thro' the roar and din Of Life, I'll ne'er forget your lilt— Ah! dear old violin!

HILLSBORO SOCIETY Miss Alice Roosevelt arrived in San Francisco, from the Philippines, Monday about noon. Telegraphic advices say she can't attend church in Hillsboro, Sunday. R. H. Harriman, a gentleman who owns a little slate-colored building in Hillsboro, situated on the Southern Pacific railway, a line very much patronized by Washington County people, arrived in Frisco from the Orient, Monday, and will speed homeward to the East, this week, without making this city a call. He may find time to visit us during the Holidays, and if not then, at Easter time, and if not then, when he gets ready. A formal invitation has been sent Mr. Harriman to attend the opening night at the new opera house. The Hillsboro policy holders in the New York Life and the Equitable, and Mutual, have invited Paul Morton, Mr. McCurdy and John A. McCall to a plate each at Emerson's restaurant this Saturday night, when a duck supper will be served by the members of the Solomon and Queen of Sheba Club. The boys will have to pay for the three plates, whether their wives will let the New York gentlemen attend the banquet, or not. Charley Schwab, of the steel trust, short-changed the Archbold hardware store this week by cold-decking him with a 74 pound keg of nails, when it should have weighed 100 pounds. The Hillsboro Commercial Club will expel Charley unless he makes good. "Dicky" Schwab, who sells "segars" here every week or so, wants it understood that he doesn't care whether Charley is a relative of his or not. T. R. Roosevelt, whose understudy, B. P. Cornelius, conducts a postoffice in this city, has been sent an invitation by Messrs. Cal. Jack Jr. and E. B. Toegue to attend a shootfest on their newly leased snipe lake on the W. R. Thorne ranch, south of town, on Thanksgiving Day. If he comes his hosts will extend him the hospitality of their "booby hutch" down on Dairy Creek. Call at our store and taste our syrup made of Maples Extract.—J. A. Messinger, Second St., Hillsboro. TELEGRAPHIC NOTES It now looks as though Taft and Boyan will lead the two parties at the next presidential election. Taft may find it harder to get through than his predecessors, owing to the fact that many independent voters will suspect the big corporations of repeating their former contributions for "patriotic" purposes. Wm. Ladd, trustee of the A. H. Johnson estate, and a member of the Board of Public Works, has resigned as former, because his company was awarded a bid, contrary to law, and his company, the Oswego Iron & Steel Company, later withdrew from the award for furnishing water pipes for the city of Portland. Gunliffe, the Adams express agent at Pittsburg, Pa., and who stole $100,000 from his company, is under arrest and $80,000 of the money has been found. This was unearthed in a suit case that he had shipped his brother. The thief had burned up $20,000 in greenbacks to hide his crime. Lawyer Collins, of San Francisco, who sailed from that port in July, and who is charged with both bigamy and forgery; has been extradited, and taken back to the Bay city for trial. He says he will come clear. Collins eloped with his wife's sister; and the wife is hard on their trail. Armour, the Chicago pork packer, made a million on wheat last week. This is more than the average Washington County farmer makes on all kinds of grain. Paul G. Kruger, of North Yakima, and who was in this county two years ago, lecturing, is heir to a fortune in Germany, embracing several thousand dollars. A move is on hand to abolish the office of state printer. This is the proper move. Cut the office out and save the state $10,000 or more per year. Politicians predict that McClellan will be elected mayor of New York over Ivins, republicans, and Hearst, labor, by 100,000 plurality. President Roosevelt met with a hearty welcome down in the South. One of his guests, at Atlanta, was Joel Chandler Harris, who writes Uncle Remus stories. Portland business men, numbered 200, went to the Lewiston Fair last week; meeting with a great welcome. A great storm struck the Great Lakes with wreckage, last Thursday, hundreds of vessels being destroyed. The Mutual Life president, McCurdy, will not leave the presidency of his company. Forty two vessels and 21 lives lost in the Great Lake storm, last week. Washington will collect the inheritance tax on her new law. It begins to look as though Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, may be indicted for fraud.

Cornelius, conducts a postoffice in this city, has been sent an invitation by Messrs. Cal. Jack Jr. and E. B. Toegue to attend a shootfest on their newly leased snipe lake on the W. R. Thorne ranch, south of town, on Thanksgiving Day. If he comes his hosts will extend him the hospitality of their "booby hutch" down on Dairy Creek. Call at our store and taste our syrup made of Maples Extract.—J. A. Messinger, Second St., Hillsboro. TELEGRAPHIC NOTES (continued) It now looks as though Taft and Boyan will lead the two parties at the next presidential election. Taft may find it harder to get through than his predecessors, owing to the fact that many independent voters will suspect the big corporations of repeating their former contributions for "patriotic" purposes. Wm. Ladd, trustee of the A. H. Johnson estate, and a member of the Board of Public Works, has resigned as former, because his company was awarded a bid, contrary to law, and his company, the Oswego Iron & Steel Company, later withdrew from the award for furnishing water pipes for the city of Portland. Gunliffe, the Adams express agent at Pittsburg, Pa., and who stole $100,000 from his company, is under arrest and $80,000 of the money has been found. This was unearthed in a suit case that he had shipped his brother. The thief had burned up $20,000 in greenbacks to hide his crime. Lawyer Collins, of San Francisco, who sailed from that port in July, and who is charged with both bigamy and forgery; has been extradited, and taken back to the Bay city for trial. He says he will come clear. Collins eloped with his wife's sister; and the wife is hard on their trail. Armour, the Chicago pork packer, made a million on wheat last week. This is more than the average Washington County farmer makes on all kinds of grain. Paul G. Kruger, of North Yakima, and who was in this county two years ago, lecturing, is heir to a fortune in Germany, embracing several thousand dollars. A move is on hand to abolish the office of state printer. This is the proper move. Cut the office out and save the state $10,000 or more per year. Politicians predict that McClellan will be elected mayor of New York over Ivins, republicans, and Hearst, labor, by 100,000 plurality. President Roosevelt met with a hearty welcome down in the South. It begins to look as though Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, may be indicted for fraud.

HILLSBORO SOCIETY (continued) Miss Alice Roosevelt arrived in San Francisco, from the Philippines, Monday about noon. Telegraphic advices say she can't attend church in Hillsboro, Sunday. R. H. Harriman, a gentleman who owns a little slate-colored building in Hillsboro, situated on the Southern Pacific railway, a line very much patronized by Washington County people, arrived in Frisco from the Orient, Monday, and will speed homeward to the East, this week, without making this city a call. He may find time to visit us during the Holidays, and if not then, at Easter time, and if not then, when he gets ready. A formal invitation has been sent Mr. Harriman to attend the opening night at the new opera house. The Hillsboro policy holders in the New York Life and the Equitable, and Mutual, have invited Paul Morton, Mr. McCurdy and John A. McCall to a plate each at Emerson's restaurant this Saturday night, when a duck supper will be served by the members of the Solomon and Queen of Sheba Club. The boys will have to pay for the three plates, whether their wives will let the New York gentlemen attend the banquet, or not. Charley Schwab, of the steel trust, short-changed the Archbold hardware store this week by cold-decking him with a 74 pound keg of nails, when it should have weighed 100 pounds.
