John Schlegel, of Banks, was in town Saturday, coming down to go as surety on the bond of a neighbor, along with Wade Armentrout, but the court permitted the defendant, Markway, to go on his own cognizance.

Our fall and winter stock of ladies' dress goods is here, and it is most complete in the county. We carry the celebrated Munsing underwear for ladies and Misses Union suits.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Labor is rather scarce in this section, and although the new railroad is paying 20 cents an hour, white labor does not seem to be in abundance. The company will likely take on a lot of Greeks, but white labor is preferred.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. We is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

It is reported that the parties who had Cedar Mill property bonded have let go of their option. It is understood that it was not renewed because of the possibility of the line not running past Cedar Mill, under the new management.

Sherman Bacon, of above Mountaineale, was in town Saturday, and states that he has moved to the Grove for the winter. He says that the Tillamook road will go within four miles of his timber, which is of some value, and can soon find a market.

Time, in its varied rounds, brings about many changes. Several years ago R. A. Atkins was pastor of the M. E. Church in this city. From here he went east to Indiana, and from there he accepted a charge at Durand, Wis. A short some ago he delivered an oration for the Woodmen at a little town 13 miles north of that place and dined with the family of a sister of the Argus editor. Until he remarked about the west, and having been at Hillsboro, his hostess was not aware that the visitor knew her brother, whom she had not seen since she was a little girl.

D. P. Corrieri, the gardener on the J. C. Hare place, and who for several years has leased beaverdam lands in this vicinity, and made a neat little sum of money, leaves this week for Luca per Barga, Toscana, Italy, to visit his aged father. D. P. says that in the old country there is some wine that he made 21 years ago, and he expects to bring back some of it—some for communion purposes, and a bottle for the Argus.

Hon. T. A. McBride, who was Fulton's choice for the office of U. S. Federal judge, to succeed the late Chas. Bellinger, came out the first of the week to hold circuit court, and was greeted by his many friends, who while regretting that he did not get the position, feel gratified to know that his standing with the bar and district is such that he will be with us as long as he wishes to dispense justice in the circuit courts of this section.

Claud Stuart, a son of A. G. Stuart, has charge of the Japs out on the line, and he expected to also lay the steel on the first five miles. Mr. Stuart is an experienced railroad man and has put down many miles of steel on the coast. His father, owns the Locke property, on Seventh & Baseline, and he is now occupying it in the absence of his father, who holds a responsible position at Astoria.

F. E. Rowell, of Scholls, thinks that the Tualatin Right of Way Club will have no trouble in getting through that section for the Lytle line to connect with this city. He states that while here and there they find a man opposed to the road that the majority realize that it will be a matter of big importance to the people of that section.

M. B. Bump has purchased a part of the property that the Amusement Association recently purchased. The purchase price was originally $666, and Bump pays $450, thus making the lot on which the theatre is built stand the new company $215. This is certainly a cheap piece of property.

Conductor J. H. Dobbins, well known here, is passing through town with an extra freight every day or so. His engine went down and brought up the Friday night passenger train from Beaverton, as that train's engine broke down at that point, making the train about two hours late.

Hubert Bernards, of McMinnville, was down Saturday, and says he wants to know the price of a ticket to Banks. The Argus has spoken to the new company for ticket No. 1, and it is to be reserved for Hubert provided he rides on the first train out that carries passengers.

PERBUADE AN OBTINATE CASE rather than lash it into action if you want to see good progress made. This is as true when it is a faulty human system as when it is a faulty mule.

Alcoholic stimulants and alcoholic medicines whip the digestive functions into quick action but do not prevent the weakening reaction which follows so closely.

In cases of impaired appetite and digestion—mal-nutrition and wasting away—a safe and reliable tonic is needed and is the only thing that can be relied upon.

Dr. Pierce discovered, forty years ago, that Nature had provided freely for these needs of her children and that in her laboratory were the remedies. Glyceric extracts of Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, as prepared, combined and preserved without alcohol, in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, constitute the most effective and certain tonic, alterative and tissue rebuilding remedy ever offered to the public.

A prominent merchant, Mr. J. Alfred Arcand, of the Saint Lawrence River, Montreal, Canada, writes: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery of and on for nine years. When I have it in the house I need no doctor or other medicine. Nine years ago I was troubled with rheumatism. Your Golden Medical Discovery eliminated the uric acid from the system. Since that time I have never been without it in the house. There is no other medicine I think so much for as this. It is a splendid remedy for stomach trouble; cures colds in a few days, and is the only sure cure I know of for La Grippe."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 21 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES. Yale defeated Harvard last Saturday in the annual foot ball game. "Will Turkey fight?" has now been displaced with "How was the turkey?" T. B. Wilcox, the Portland banker, is said to be desirous of succeeding Senator Mitchell. Senator Mitchell is liable to lose his position as chairman of the Panama canal committee. A. B. Warner, superintendent of the Tacoma wharves, says that a football game is as bad as a bull fight. Granville Gwin, of Fredericktown, Mo., has stolen $18,000 from a bank where he was cashier, and the officers have landed him. Senator Burton, of Kansas, has again been found guilty of receiving money from corporations while a United States Senator. There is talk of forcing Hitchcock to resign. The old man is pushing them too hard and many Western congressmen want his scalp. Archbishop Christie donates $25 to the Russian sufferers who are Jews. And this leads one to think of how few Catholics lose their life in controversy which rises over their religion. Boyd Redner, night clerk in the Pacific Express office, stole $1000 last week, and skipped the country with a woman of the town. The officers caught them in British Columbia. Geo. R. Adams, the Seattle mint cashier, who was recently arrested on a charge of embezzlement, acknowledges that his thefts amount to $100,000, and his bondsmen have withdrawn and allowed him to go to jail. Mrs. W. M. Ladd, wife of a Portland banker, has formed a club which is composed of the feminine gender, and which is against the right of women to vote. It is generally conceded that it is the women of wealth who are against the right of the sex to vote.

SUMMONS. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY. Ada G. Stanley, Plaintiff, vs. J. B. Stanley, Defendant. To J. B. Stanley the above named defendant. In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded and required to be and appear in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, the first publication thereof being made on Dec. 7th, 1905, to wit: On or before the 7th day of Dec. 1905, and you will please take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint to wit: For a decree dissolving and annulling the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between you and plaintiff, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit and for such other and further relief as may be equitable. This summons is served against you by publication by order of Hon. L. A. Reed, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated Oct. 14, 1905, and that order requires that you appear and answer on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, the first publication being Oct. 14th, 1905, and the last publication being Dec. 7th, 1905, to wit: On or before Dec. 7th, 1905. GEO. R. BAGLEY, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Notice of Final Settlement. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Martha J. Parrett, deceased, has filed his final account as administrator of said estate in the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, and that said Court has appointed Monday, December 4, 1905, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., as the day and hour for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof. Now, therefore, all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified and required to appear at the County Court room, at Hillsboro, said County and State, at said time, to then and there show cause if any there be, why said account should not be settled, allowed and approved, and said administrator discharged, and said estate forever and finally settled. Dated November 1, 1905. W. F. BRISTOW, Administrator of the estate of Martha J. Parrett, deceased. Clarence Butt and H. T. Bagley, Attorney for Estate.
