

HOW ABOUT THAT CITY PARK?

A year or so ago the Argus was an earnest advocate of a city park, and advised the purchase, by the corporation, of a piece of ground for that purpose.

The Argus advanced the idea that property must increase in value, anyway, and that the city would grow, and we would need a place for recreation, etc.

Hillsboro will soon be a good sized town with no place for the leisure of a Sunday, except a trip to the woods. Think of it, and weep!

WILD RIDE AND FINE

Monday afternoon Louis Freeman and his nephew, both of Dilley, came to town with saddle horses, and the elder man proceeded to run his horse up and down the streets in a terrific manner.

The elder Freeman is a butcher at Dilley and when drinking is inclined to imagine he is a cowboy on the plains of Texas.

Jap-a-lac, at Patterson & Son's.

O. N. Womer, of Laurel, was in town Saturday.

L. M. Hoyt was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

Julius Christiansen, of Laurel, was in the city Tuesday.

When you want pickles go to Greer's. All kinds in bulk.

J. W. Marsh and son, John, were in town from Centerville, Monday.

The Climax Mill has just received a carload of Oil Cake Meal.

E. W. Livermore, of Beaverton, was registered at the Tualatin, Friday.

Born, to A. V. Denny and wife, of Raleigh, on December 17, 1905, a son.

All of the smallpox cases in the county, heretofore reported, are recovered.

A. C. Winney and Sam Johnson were in from beyond Glencoe, the first of the week.

John Knnes, the South Tualatin sawmill man, was in the city the first of the week.

D. P. Corrieri, who left here some time ago for Italy, sailed from New York last Saturday.

Sam J. Raffety, of Portland, was out the last of the week, at the old Mountaineers home.

Chas. W. Brown, of Centerville, formerly of Laurel, was in the city the first of the week.

Ernest Ford, of Clatskanie, is here, the guest of his mother, until after the holidays.

Mrs. James Sigler was in from beyond Phillips, Saturday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ann Sigler.

Clerk Godman the first of the week issued a marriage license to B. F. Dissenbacher and Dora Riedl, both of near Tigardville.

F. E. Beach & Co., of Portland, and who handle paint and oil, have filed a material lien on the E. P. Cadwell property at Forest Grove.

J. C. Greer invites everybody wanting shoes to give him a call. He carries the famous Kilt-Kenney shoe. Main Street, opposite Tualatin.

Marriage license was granted to A. L. Cowgill, Portland, and Mabel E. Gray, Hillsboro.

Buy sheep, or fat cattle, for the market; also choice mares. Address me at Beaverton, Ore., and I will call.—J. G. Haynes, Beaverton, Ore.

For gentlemen's, ladies' and children's hose you can do no better than to buy of John Dennis. We have them for everybody, and at prices that are values.

Frank Rice, pioneer of 1859, and for many years a resident of this place, was in town from East Portland, Monday, greeting his many friends.

Wanted: Thirty cedar poles, 35 feet in length; at least seven inches in diameter at top. Address Box 293, Hillsboro, Oregon. Poles must be delivered at this city.

J. E. Hedges, a prominent Tualatinite, was up to the county seat Monday, and states that Tualatin people hope within a year or so to be able to come to the city by rail.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. We is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Twenty acres were sold off the eastern part of the Warren estate, east of town, this week, to a Mr. Clemens, of Texas, for $100 per acre. All of this was wild land, at this.

You will do well to list your farm for sale with J. C. Kuratli. Will also cry auction sales. Satisfaction guaranteed.—J. C. Kuratli, Hillsboro, R. F. D. 4. Residence, Phillips, Ore.

Rev. W. S. Holcomb, of Dilley, is taking a fall out of the Christian Science creed in a series of articles in the Telephone Register, of McMinnville. He goes after them without gloves.

J. C. Kuratli has sold his 22-acre place near Phillips, to John Fredberg, and Mr. Kuratli received $1800 for the property. He will move to this city to give his real estate business closer attention.

George Hardy, for over thirteen years with W. C. Jackson, of Glencoe, was in town several days the past week, taking his annual vacation. He contemplates a trip to Southern Oregon in the near future.

Mrs. Emma Richardson, of Seattle, accompanied by her little son, was in attendance at the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Winnie Kelsey. While here she was the guest of her brother, William Finney. She returned Monday.

Louis Carlsons, of Manning, was in town Monday, settling up for the bridge timbers sold the old Tillamook railroad company. This firm was the last to receive their money and all bills against the defunct company have now been paid by E. E. Lytle, of the new company.

Forty acres for rent; 20 acres cleared; good orchard, house and barn; 14 miles west of Cedar Mill.

"COMPLETELY DISCOURAGED"

Is the feeling and pain of women who are run-down so low that work drags, head aches, back aches, hands tremble, voice quivers, little things annoy and everything goes wrong?

Look the other way just a minute for you, Dr. Pierce's Female Prescription has done for more than a half-million women in the last thirty years.

What it has done for others it can do for you. Believing that alcoholic, stimulating medicines were doing much harm, Dr. R. V. Pierce turned his investigating mind upon the problem.

Producing a remedy for the use of weak and suffering women that should be free from alcohol and at the same time effective. All correspondence free and strictly confidential.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES

Congress adjourns today for the holidays. The Russian Manchurian army is being disbanded and sent home.

Los Angeles won the Pacific coast league baseball pennant. And now Paul Morton wants no adverse legislation on insurance lines. Of course he doesn't.

The czar of Russia is returning to severe measures to conquer the local disturbances against the empire. The North Coast limited, on the Northern Pacific, was robbed last week near North Yakima, Wash., and the express safe taken away and looted.

President Roosevelt says that there was no evidence against Paul Morton in the Santa Fe rebate case. The commission, however, had a very different opinion.

S. A. D. Pater and Horace G. McKinley, convicted in the federal courts, are now wanted by the State of Oregon. Pater, it is alleged, can be found, but McKinley is said to be in the Orient.

The Albany Herald, the state printer's paper, is dissatisfied because Gov. Chamberlain did not appoint a Linn County man instead of John M. Gearin. Be it known, also, that the Herald would not be satisfied with anything that George would do, for the Herald isn't built that way—it having been a strong Furnish organ.

NEW STORE AT CORNELIUS

The new store in Cornelius is now open and ready for business. In the line of dry goods and notions, furnishings, boots and shoes, rubber goods of all kinds, shirts and overalls of all sizes, patterns and prices, groceries of the finest staple quality, we excel, and have a splendid stock. A good line of farm implements, buggies, wagons, plows, harrows, cultivators, etc., in stock, of standard manufacturers. We take farm produce in payment and pay the highest market price. Come in and see the new store. No trouble to show goods, even if you do not buy. We are here to make prices that will make you buy and us to sell. Corner Main & Fourth.
