Loring K. Adams, formerly practicing law here, contributes a very readable letter in a recent issue of the Oregonian, anent the issue between a New York Hebrew board of trustees which proffered Rabbi Wise a good salary, and to which the Rabbi replied he would accept provided the pulpit were "free." To this it was replied that nothing objectionable must be said from the viewpoint of the trustees and the deal was not concluded. Mr Adams says that minister is supposed to preach after the dictation of the church which employs him just the same as any other hired man. The Argus thinks Brother Adams errs in this, inasmuch as a minister or Rabbi, or priest, so long as he confines himself to church and creed discipline, should be untramelled, and not held down by limitations. But when it comes to the matter of sermonizing on topics that are not allied with creed a pulpiteer should have the right to attack wrong in all its phases without interfence from a board of trustees. Time has proved, however, that a preacher will get on corns when he leaves his creed and moralizes generally, and so long as a church is not democratic in its administration just so long will there be trouble between church and preacher.

Our friend Jonatham Bourne Jr., who has had a great deal to do with peanut politics, is just now very much exercised over the rights of the "poor down trodden voter." Jonathan, of course, wants something for his great efforts to purify things, and if he can only purify them so Jonathan can get to the United States' Senate he will be satisfied. But perhaps the "reformer" will find that the suffering voter is not worrying half as much about reform and Jonathan's chances as Jonatham would like to have it appear in all the manuscript he is sending out to be published by the easy country newspaper man.

The Deacon Sets Back the Calendar

Some fifty years ago, or more,
When Sue wuz jes' a girl,
Her hair wuz never pompydoor
But jes' lay all a-curl,
Some fifty years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more,
When Sue wuz my sweetheart,
She never wore these pesky things
That Frenchmen sell fer "smart,"
Some fifty years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more,
Sue's eyes wuz twinklin' bright—
Did not need gold "glawses"
Fer Fashun's whim so light—
Some fifty years ago.

Some fifty years ago, or more,
When Sue an' I agreed
To be the other's lifelong mate,
The paper did not read,
Some fifty years ago:

"That Sie an' Sue were married, in
Our First church, at High Noon,
An' took the eve-nin' train last night
To take their hunnymoon—"
Some fifty years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more,
These words were all 'twuz sed—
"Sie and Sue are man an' wife
And will be 'till they're dead—"
Some fifty years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more—
Things change mos' ev'ry day,
An' now when people get hitched up
It's more fuss, anyway,
Than fifty years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more,
We never dreamed there'd be
Electrick lites and telly fones
An' railroads to the sea—
Some fity years ago!

Some fifty years ago, or more,
By Gosh! How times has blest
The people all with modern things—
Yet ol' times wuz the best,
Some fifty years ago.

"Some fifty years ago, or more,
Said Sue, to me, last nite,
"We used to dance the minuet
While candles glistened bright—
Some fifty years ago!"

An' so we set there, holdin' hands,
Before the fire-place glow,
An' talked of love, jes' as we did
Some fifty years ago—
Dear fifty years ago!

Many a poor mother who feels that those she holds most precious are gradually slipping away from her over the terrible precipice of disease, would be thankful to know what Doctor Pierce's wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery" has done to restore thousands of weak and wasted children to complete rounded, rosy, healthy, activity and life.

"Five years ago this last fall I was taken down with a fever and was very bad for several months," writes Mrs. Henrietta Bell, of Diamond, Ohio. She continues: "Finally recovered from the fever, then my lungs became very bad. The doctor said I had consumption, and that he had done all he could for me, and he did not think that I could get well. My case was a very dangerous one. Became very weak, had night-sweats, also a very bad cough, night and day. At times would spit blood. I felt as though my time on earth would be short. Requested my husband to get me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and perhaps it would help me. Before I had taken one bottle my cough was almost gone. The next to disappear were the night-sweats. I am almost sure that if it had not been for your medicine I would not have been here to-day."

If mothers will only write to Dr. Pierce concerning the ailments of their family he will send them sound and valuable advice in a plain sealed envelope, and without any charge whatever. His remarkably wide experience has qualified him to deal with diseases which baffle the local practitioner. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.
