

SATURDAY NIGHT'S BIG SOCIETY EVENT

Crescent Theatre Opens to the Public February 17

BIG HOUSE IS PROMISED OPENING
Everything in Readiness Finest Playhouse on West Side

The Crescent Theatre will open to the public this Saturday evening, and there is the promise of the biggest house ever played to in the city. The attraction will be an exceptionally good one and will excel the most of the plays that visit the place.

This is the finest theatre on the West Side, and, in fact, there are none better appointed, or have a more attractive interior. It will be well worth the price of admission to see how the playhouse is finished, and this will be an event long to be remembered.

The cast of characters:

Tony Warren, a many-sided character who has an honest heart beneath his ragged coat... H. T. Bagley, weary wayward, his headdress "too tired to work"... Will Adkins, James Barclay, hard-hearted and vindictive... Claude C. Cate, Philip Warburton, a social leader... Will Harrell, Judge VanCruiger, of the Supreme Court... Wm. P. Tucker, Warden Barrows, of Sing Sing prison... and Jackson, the negro footman... Orville Wilkes, Lena, the reputed daughter of Judge VanCruiger... Miss Beulah Benton, Mrs. VanCruiger, the judge's wife... Miss Hilda Davies, Miss Selby, who takes pleasure in being disagreeable... Hattie Slattery, Sally, with a soul above hash.

JAP BOOK MAN ASKS FOR FURTHER TIME

Pleads not Guilty of Larceny of Money

FRANK HALL PLEADED GUILTY

Asked the Court to Parole Him During Good Behavior

Ben Osaka, the Japanese book man who left Portland and went to British Columbia, taking with him, so it is alleged, nearly five hundred dollars belonging to a Jap contracting firm, and which was to have been paid to the Tillamook railroad laborers, was arraigned before the circuit court yesterday morning, and, after conferring with his attorney, Benton Bowman, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for the March term. His bail was fixed at $1000, in default of which he was remanded back to the custody of the sheriff.

Frank Hall, who entered and burglarized the Schulmerich store one Sunday a few weeks ago, was arraigned and pleaded guilty to the larceny of about ten dollars in silver. He pleaded for a chance to reform and take care of his family. The court appointed Geo. R. Bagley to investigate the case and report back. Hall was brought into court and a parole was asked. The court intimated that he was not much pleased with the proposition of parole in cases of this kind, but inasmuch as the injured parties had stated that they would be satisfied with a parole he would extend to the prisoner a chance to take care of his family. He stated further that Hall must keep away from liquor, and lead an honest life, or at any time the court would require him to commence to serve time. The sentence was fixed at seven years and Hall was ordered released and went home to his family.

NOTICE

While holding meetings at Cornelius, I will be in my office, over the City Bakery, at Hillsboro, Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays at Cornelius. Call at either place on the days mentioned. Yours for health and good sight, Dr. Eaton, Osteopath and eye specialist.
