

GREEN LEAF TENT

Scholls has a new Maccabee lodge, called Green Leaf Tent. The charter members are: O. D. Kirby, R. C. Kirby, Wm. W. Fletcher, Theo. R. Ratcliffe, F. E. Rowell, J. A. Rowell, Chas. D. Hitchcock, Chas. W. Rensworth, Luther W. Miller, Adolph E. Seifert, E. J. Sutherland, James C. Snyder, Fred Stalford, J. E. Lanning and Herman Collier.

Dr. W. D. Wood went down and examined all the applicants for insurance and State Commander J. W. Sherwood, of Portland, instituted the new Tent.

RAILROAD TO CORNELIUS

Another railway company has been formed in Portland, with a capitalization of $5000, to build a railroad from Portland to Cornelius, the proposed line to start out of South Portland and come through the Scholls section. J. Thorburn Ross, representing some big money in the metropolis, is one of the incorporators. They say they will ask for a franchise at once and as soon as they are apprised of the way they can get into Portland they will commence building at once.

H. Taylor Hill, of the Harrison ranch, on Dairy, was in town Monday. Mr. Hill states that the people of his section want a railroad, but that they want to see whether the proposed company means business before any great amount of work is done for rights of way.

Seventy acres the best of soil perfectly drainable, more than half under fine state of cultivation, mostly in crop. Convenient to school, town, and railroad station. Will sell half or all. Address H. A. J., Box 8, Hillsboro, Ore.—P. S. No. Agent.

Places in the roads where no split-log or drag has been used—mud and holes, with wagon wheels going down to the hub; where the drag has been used at least once a week—a good hard roadbed, no perceptible sinking of wheels and your once a week on your county roads, after you have graded the highway for a decent drainage, and you will have reasonably good roads all over the county. If the drag device is used as persistently as one would give attention to important business we should hear less about bad roads and less complaint about expenditure of road money. The road southeast of town, from the city limits to the J. K. P. Brown place are in fine condition—all owing to weekly use of the drag device.

If you want brick for any purpose, or building blocks for a foundation, remember that the Groner & Rowell Company, of Scholls, can supply your demands. They have a fine lot of lumber, rough and dressed, in their yard, and will meet all competition. Now that your crops are harvested, would it not be a good idea to consider if tiling will not increase your income. Wet, low spots in the fields, always giving poor results, can be remedied by putting in tiling. Let us help you. We can aid you to avoid crop failure on low lands. House and barn bills for lumber on short notice—and do not forget that we can furnish you estimates on short notice. Post office address—Hillsboro, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2. Sixty thousand feet of fine, dry shiplap on hand.

E. W. Dant, of Reedville, states that there is a great deal more fall sown wheat in his section than last year, and that many sowed in February, and which is now above the ground. Dr. F. A. Bailey reports that many places the February sown wheat is above the ground an inch. Roses are in bloom in some Hillsboro yards, and crocuses are up in garden beds. Sunday's Chinook wind is supposed to be the real harbinger of Spring, and, as the snow is nearly all out of the mountains, we may expect an early season—but what is the use of expecting anything in Oregon, with a climate so confoundedly versatile and capricious.

John Wunderlich, of Centerville, was up from St. Marys, near Beaverton, today. The Home is now completing an annex 46x80, part of which will be used for a chapel, part for an entertainment hall, and the balance for rooms for resident priests and the Bishop. The improvements will cost all the way from eight to ten thousand dollars, and help the appearance of the institution. Mr. Wunderlich is to do the painting on the building.

The Fifth District, comprising Hillsboro, Laurel, South Tualatin Farmington and Reedville, will hold a Sunday School convention at the Congregational Church on February 27, commencing at 2:00 p. m., and ending with an evening session. KEEP WELL IF YOU CAN and when you need a little help in keeping well use Nature's remedies, that do not roughly stimulate but gently quicken the action of Nature's functions in a natural way. Nature's laboratory furnishes the following plants which enter into the manufacture of Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root.

In doubt as to your trouble or needing advice, you can consult, free of charge, Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. All letters are considered confidential and answers bearing correct medical advice returned in securely sealed envelopes.

"I suffered for nearly eight years" writes Philip A. Patch, Esq. of Modula, Ala. Deputy Sheriff, "with malaria, which poisoned my entire system and destroyed my vitality. I was cured in three months by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I know it was largely due to neglect and I paid little attention to my trouble until I began to do something at once to regain my health. I began to feel better within four days after I used 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after using nine bottles I was restored to my usual health, feeling better than for years."

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in coin or stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.
